The Epistle Dedicatory.

And therefore I have here inserted all those Cases out of our Books of Law, under such general heads and notions, which are upon any occasion to be discuss'd, so that those who neither have nor the said Books at large, or have them, and yet want time to peruse them, may here for sweatless labor receive satisfaction in reading, which I have fixt my hopes, that Ignorance, the natural Mother of Error (which both grow up together is self in those imployments, into which many Ignorant have thrust themselves, with ignorance and confidence of equal force) will lose its no-being in Judicial Performances, and that the knowledge of the Law in this kind, may prove impulsive to the love of Justice, which is always the less regarded who have much Ignorance is per hanc Ignorant nulla cupido. For desire and nothing are the same, where the Understanding is not solicitated with apprehension; which here I teach as far as is essential for any man, Quatenus he is a Steward of Courts, in which duty I wish him Juris prudential for his own honour, and the Publick Benefit, desiring nothing in requital, but your kind acceptance.

THE PREAMBLE

Fat R & T, Before I write of the Order of Counts, Leers, and Courts-Barons, you ought to consider for what cause the King was ordained of God.

Secondly, For what cause the Law was ordained.

Thirdly, How ancient these Courts are, and for what Causes and matters they were ordained; and also how necessary it is, that the Law be truly and fully administered in these Courts.

And first, Paraphrase leaf 30. faith, As a natural Body cannot be without a Head, so a Realm cannot be governed without a Head, which is the King; And there be further faith, That whensoever of many, one is constituted amongst them, One shall be Governour, and the rest shall be governed. Bristow, leaf the 1. faith, The King is ordained of God, that the Peace be kept, the which cannot be well without Law. And Paraphrase also faith, All power is of our Lord God. Bristow faith, That the lives and members of men are in the hands of the King, either for their defence or punishment when they offend. Bristow faith also, That the King is God's Vicer upon Earth, to separate right from wrong, Justice from Injustice, that all, who are Subjects to him, should live honestly, and none should hurt another, but that to every man what is his own by a rightful contribution should be given; for he is called King by well governing.

Shanghae, bear the title, faith, The King is the Preserver, nourisher, and Defender of all his people, and that by his great grace, study, and labour, his people not only enjoy their Lives, Lands, and Goods, but all that which they have in peace and tranquillity, and that by the Law. And as the body of a man cannot live without the head, but will fall down unto the ground, so the Common-wealth cannot be governed without a Head, which is the King. Also Seneca saith, Where there is not a Governour, there the People will be confounded, Pisa chap. 11. Where there is not a Governour the people go to ruin. Rom. chap. 13. There is no power but of God, and which are the true Powers, are ordained of God: So that the King is ordained of God to govern well his people, and that he cannot do without Law.

The Person of the King and the Queen his Wife.

By the Commentaries, leaf the 45. By the 7 of Ed. 2. 34. The King is a Corporation. See 1 H. 7. leaf 10. 21. Ed. 4. Title Age, It is no plea that the King is within age. Ed. 6. title 373. the King shall have his age as Duke of Launceston, and not as King, by the Commentaries, leaf 213. See Stanford 10. If the King grant a Lordship to one in Fee, the Grantee shall not have his Prerogative, but if he grant that for life to the Queen and Prince, that remaineth in the King. And for that, the Queen and Prince shall have Prerogative: And though that the Queen is a person exempt from the King, and may sue and be sued in her own name, yet that which she hath is the Kings, 1 H. 7. leaf 29. where a Reversion was to the Queen, Ayd shall be of the King by Towns-

3 H. 7. leaf 14. The Queen is as a common person, and as a Feme Sole, to let for life, and to do personal things.

11 H. 7. leaf 7. The King letteth to the Queen for life, and she leaseth at will: In Trespass against the Tenant at will, he shall not have aid of the King, for he is a stranger to the Patent of the King, 7 H. 7. leaf 17.

18 Ed. 3. leaf the first, Philippa, the Queen, brought a Writ Impedit, and held that the Queen may bring a Writ in her own name, and shall find no Pledges, and for that it shall not be in the Writ, Undi, &c. 20 Ed. 4. leaf 1. Fitzherbert 101.

The Preamble.

21. Of the Book of Asiatick 13. the same Philippa brought Deceit of a Fine levied by Tenants in ancient Demesne at the Common Law.

19 Ed. 4. leaf 2. J. B. grabbeth to the Queen, the next Advowson of the Church of D. and she alone, of that, bringeth her Quare Impedit.

49 Ed. 4. leaf 4. The King may give to the Queen for her life, and she may have an Action alone, and so cannot another Feme Covert.

The Law.

ANd for that, that it is necessary and expedient to shew for what causes the Laws were ordained, Fortescue, leaf 31. saith, That as by Sinews the compass of the body is knit together, so by Law (which of binding is so called) this myssical body is bound together, and kept in one: And Flouder, leaf 9. B. saith, The Law is appointed to the King to govern his people, and that by three Laws, that is to say, General Law, Customs, and Statutes. In Mat. chap. 22. it is written, That Christ sent forth his Servants that they should call to the Weddings, that is to say, He sent his Prophets and Preachers, and they would not come: and there it is said, That he again sent out other Servants, saying, Go and Inviere, and that is intended, our Law, which commands, constrains, and bridles us to come to God, and to fear and obey, God and the King, and to keep us in peace, and to make that every one may hold in peace and tranquillity, his Goods, Lands, and Lives, and all that we have. Heracitus saith, That without Laws, by no means a City can be in safety, but without Walls it may: and Fortescue, leaf 10. saith, That thou must fear God, the Laws call thee: and in leaf 11. That humane Laws are no other then Rules, by which Justice is taught. The Prophet David saith, Where there is no order, there everlasting horror doth dwell, and without Law there can be no order. See St. Germain, leaf 7. saying, Law is ordained for the salvation of the Soul, and for to fulfill the Laws of God, and to drive the people to fly evil, and to do good: And see in Dalton and Bondant, leaf 8. the six grounds of the Law.

The Preamble.

1 First, Our Law is grounded upon common Reason.
 2 Secondly, Upon the Law of God.
 3 Thirdly, Upon divers general Customs.
 4 Fourthly, Upon divers Maxims.
 5 Fifthly, Upon divers particular Customs.
 6 And sixthly, Upon divers Statutes. And for that the Law is more necessary for Government.

As Boetius saith, The Law maketh the King; for the King therefore attribute unto the Law, that which the Law hath given unto him, that is to say, Dominion and Power: he is not truly King, where Will doth rule and not Law. And Fertescue, fol. 8. saith, The Law is a Sacred Sanction, commanding holy things, and forbidding the contrary: and likewise, fol. 2. saith, That Laws are made by man, which to them doth receive power of God: and they are likewise constituted by God.

Plowden, fol. 55. B. As children of the King are born to inherit Lands, so they inherit Laws; so that, Laws being the inheritance of the people, the Stewards cannot by Letters, or otherwise, gainsay nor take from the People the Law.

By the Commentaries, fol. 129. Saxon Law was, that the eldest should inherit; and British Law was, Gavelkind, as in Kent and North Wales.

By the Commentaries, fol. 18. Words of Law may be broken for necessity, as in Case of Remyer, 14 H. 7. 29.
 17 H. 7. fol. 7. If a Prisoner be in Famine, and hath not sustenance, if he break Prison, it seemeth not to be felony: for the Law of God was ordained to call us, and we will not come, then our Law to bridle us for to come to God: and our Law hath regard to necessity and charity: and for that, 20 H. 7. fol. 2. where a Fox Convent is thrown, or struck with a Horse, or is in distress, one may assault her, and give her meat and drink.

20 H. 7. 2. One administering about a buriall, is no administration, for it is a work of charity.

Doctor and Student, fol. 2. Beasts have certain rules given them by nature, necessary for their being, but the Law of Nature and Reason moveth a man to good, such a motion in the heart of every man, to move him to what is good to be done, and what is ill to be avoided.

The Example.

And this Law which I have given unto you every man and that he may do it.

Learned Counsel of the Court.
The Hon.

By Martineburg, chaplain, it is stated that he is the greatest of the small, would have hated the wrong justice in the King's Court and intentions of seeking revenge or destruction should make by his fall without consideration of the King's Court. 101 b7A: 131 any Letters to the Justice, contrary to the Law, that you shall do nothing for such Letters, but certify the King of it, and referre before to execute the Law, notwithstanding those Letters.

And to enslave all these matters. You ought to consider, That G. O. D. created Man only to serve him, and created all other Creatures in the World for the service and use of Man, as the Prophet saith, He hath subjected all things under his Feet; all Sheep and Oxen, and likewise the Beasts of the Field, Birds of the Air, and Fishes of the Sea, which walk through the paths of the Sea; In this it was made for the use of Man; and yet without Law, a man cannot enjoy this; and G. O. D. being mindful of Man, to serve him, as the Prophet saith, Whoso is Man, that thou art mindful of him, or the son of Man, that thou hast regard unto him. And for that, GOD hath ordained Kings to govern, and to keep men in obedience, to serve and obey Gods will, King and his Laws: for so doth our iudgement. And St. Paul to the Romans, chap. 13. saith, Every Soul is subject to the higher Powers, for there is no Power but of God, which Powers verily are ordained by God, so that whosoever resisteth that Power, doth resist the Ordinance of God: And Peter, chap. 2. saith, Be subject to every humane Creature, for the Lord and to the King as Superiour: And then for that, that the King is ordained of God, to make his people to serve God, and to keep his people in obedience: If you disobey the King, you break that which is commanded contrary to the Scriptures, and so you disobey God: And you see, that if God had not been mindful of us. and had not created and ordained the King to govern us (being of frail nature) and that by Laws to bridle our frail nature, none could enjoy his Lands, Goods, nor his life in safety: And for that, that the Law is so necessary. Now let us see when, and how these Courts-Leets, and Court-Barons, began.

The beginning of these Courts-Leets ordained.

Plowd. 12 H. 7. fol. 16. saith, That at the beginning all the Administration of Justice was in the Crown, and where the King was, there was the Law administered: Then afterward, for the multiplicity of the people, was the Court-Leet and Court-Baron ordained, to wit, the Leet for punishment of offences, and annoyances to the Common-wealth, within the Precinct of that; and the Articles and Pains are obtained to that end, and it is called, The view of Frank-pledge, for that the King there, may be certified by the view of the Steward, how many people are within every Leet, and also to have account and view by the Steward, of their good government and manners in every Leet: And also the Leet was ordained to have every person, of the age of twelve years, which had remained there by a year and a day, to be sworn to be faithful and loyal to the King: and also for that, that the people there might be kept in peace and obedience, these Courts-Leets were ordained.

Court-Barons ordained.

And Court-Barons were ordained to determine Injuries, Trespasses, Debts, and other Actions, as afterwards it appeareth, where the debt, or the damages are under 40 shillings: and also for that, that the Lords of the Mannors, and Court-Barons, have given their Tenants their Lands and Tenements, before the Statute of W. 3. to hold of them; for thar so Homagers of Court ought to enquire in this Court, that their Lords shall not lose their Services, Customs, or Duties. And also it was ordained to make their Suits there, and so to shew themselves obedient to their Lords, and that nothing be made within the Mannor, so be any annoyance or hurtful to the Inheritances of the Lords of the Mannors, which should not there be enquired of, and presented for the Lords of the Mannors, as afterward, by the Articles more plainly appears. And so now you see here briefly, that the Realm cannot be governed without a King, and that the King for that cause is appointed of God, and that the King govern by the Law, and cannot govern his people without Law; and also you have heard, how ancient and how necessary these two Courts are for governance of the people.

Key Leg.

And now for that these Courts are held within Mannors, and that a Court-Baron is incident to a Mannor, it is fit to know how Mannors did begin, and within what Mannors Court-Barons are held, and in what not.

Mannor

Parkins, f. 127. saith, That the beginning of Mannors was, when the King gave 1000 acres of Land, or a greater or lesser parcel to one and his heirs, to hold of him and his heirs; and before the Stat. of quis emptores terrarum, one seized of Lands did infeofe one of 10 acres, another of 12 acres, and the third of 20 acres, every one of them to make service unto him; and so by continuance of time out of mind, &c. he had a Mannor. Also in the 33 year of H. 8. Comprize, l. 31. A man cannot make a Mannor at this day; for notwithstanding that a gift in tail be made to divers, to hold of the Giver by services, and suit of Court, though by that there be a tenure, yet it cannot make a Court, for that cannot be but by Prescription: And if a Mannor be, and all the Freeholders but one Escheat; or if the Lord purchase them, it is no Mannor; and there cannot be a Court-Baron without Suitors, and not with one Suitor only, 35 H. 8. Courts-Tenures, 102. 23 H. 8. Court-Baron, 22 Suit, 17.

Plow. fol. 169. a.

Magnus cannot be without Courts-Barons.

Fitzherbert, 3 C. If one hold of another, as of Signiory Ingross, which is not a Mannor, he hath no Court-Baron.

Fitzherbert 2. 8. 1. Where a man giveth all his Land in Tail, there is a Signory Ingrofs, and he shall have no Court: but if he were seised of a Mannor, and give parcel of the Demesnes in Tail, it is otherwise.

22. 4. 6. Title 2. Services is parcel of a Mannor, but not the Land of the Mannor, unless it be Copyhold: for if a man hath a Mannor in the County of Westmoreland, and one holdeth Land of that Mannor, which Land is in the County of Derby, he shall demand that Mannor in the Counties of Westmoreland, and Derby.

18. Of the Book of Assises. 3. If a man, seised of a Mannor, do alien four Acres in Fee, this is separated, and no part of the Mannor; but if the Husband, seised of a Mannor in right of his Wife, alien four Acres for life, and afterwards grants the Reversion of that in Fee to P. and afterwards P. purchase the whole Mannor, to which the Husband and Wife lay a Fine, upon acknowledgement of Right, & that which he had of their Gift: The Fine extendeth to the four Acres which were severed, for they were parcel in Reversion, as of the Mannor.

And in the 26. 4. 2. 4. Two Coparceners make a partition of a Mannor, so that each of these have a parcel in Demesnes, and a parcel in Services: Now each of these hath a Mannor, and each of these have two Suitors: but otherwise it is, if one have but one Sutor, he cannot hold a Court-Baron: but 12. 4. 25. Partition is made of a Mannor, that one Coparcener shall have the Demesnes, and the other the Services: the Suit to the Court is suspended, and during that, there shall be no Court-Baron held: and 8. 4. 7. 4. and 34. 4. 6. 53: It is held, That a Court-Baron is belonging to a Mannor of common right, so that within every Mannor shall be a Court-Baron, unless there be no Suits there, or that by partition the Suit is suspended, as it is before said: But note, that divers are called Mannors, within which are not any that hold of these Mannors, but only Copyholders at the will of the Lord, according to the Custom of the Mannor, and these are no Freeholders which hold by Charter, and yet these Lordships are called Mannors, and in these are Court-Barons: 19. 4. 8. 11. 7. Court-Baron is incident to a Mannor.

And

And now though the honourable Judges of both Benches, and the honourable Lord Chief Baron, and the other Judges there of Record, at this day are altogether given to administer Justice to all, without respect of any persons, according to the Statute of the 1 Ed. the 3. Chapter 4. which is, That Right be done as well to poor as rich, and that none stand Letters in disturbance of the Common Law: that so, praise be to God, their whole inclination to the administration of Justice, may be a sufficient example to all Stewards, to administer Justice, and not to have regard to Letters: yet in some Court Barons I have seen such subverting of Justice by Stewards, some by ignorance and wilfulness, and some Stewards to please their Lord; and for fear of losing their fees being but Stewards at the will of their Lords, and some for Letters, and other causes, that Justice many times hath not place there, to the pernicious example and overthrow of Justice; and for that, therefore, hereafter Justice in these Courts may be the better administered before that I shall treat of the Courts aforesaid, I think it is convenient to write to the Stewards, these sentences ensuing, to be a Glasse to Stewards, to read their better remembrances to administer Justice, and for that it thus followeth,

The Glasse for the Steward.

Who worketh Justice, he shall be advanced, Eccl. 25.
Blessed are they which hunger and thirst for Justice, For they shall be satisfied, Mat. 23.
Justice is unworthy a Nation, and it maketh a miserable people to be pacified, Prov. 29.
As thou justifiest a wicked man, and condemnest the just man, he is most abominable unto God, Prov. 17. 15. Understand your Justice above measure than that of the Scribes and Pharisees, you cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, Mat. 23. The Sows of the just are in the hand of God, Wild 31. In the straight path of Justice is Life, but every way leadeth to Death, Prov. 12.
Love God, and thy Neighbour as thy self: for if you do not Justice, how do you love him, who is Justice and Truth? and how do you love your Neighbour as your self? Mat. 22.

Justice

The Glasse of Stewards.

Justice surely is immortal and everlasting, injustice is the wages of death: love Justice, ye that Judge the Earth, Wisd. 1.

Riches do not prevail in the day of Revenge, but Justice shall free from Death, Prov. 10. God shall give to the just the reward of their Labours, Wisd. 10.

And if any love Justice, his Labours have great Vertues, sobriety and vertue, than which there is nothing more profitable in this life to men, Wisd. 1.

Nothing truly can be honest, which wanteth Justice, Tully in his Offices.

From Justice, as out of a certain Fountain, all rights do spring, for a just man hath a will to give to every man his own, Bracon.

Another cause of doing Justice.

It is appointed for all men once to die, and afterwards to come to Justice: And, as Athanasius saith, At whose coming all men shall rise with their Bodies, and shall give a reason and account of their own Works, and they that have done good shall go into life everlasting, but they that have done evil into everlasting fire.

What men have done this present time of life,

Shall reap the harvest, when Go and Come is rise.

Rev. 14. Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, for their Works follow them.

1 Cor. chap. 3. Every one shall receive his reward according to his Work,

2 Cor. 9. Who soweth in blessedness, shall reap in blessedness. If Christ had not been born of the Virgin Mary, and died for us, no man could have come to eternal life; therefore believe and do Justice, and then shall ye have the aforesaid thing promised. And note, that though Christ hath redeemed us, yet if we do evil, it is written, We shall go into everlasting fire; and for that, obey and fear to break the Commandments of God: and then, in doing of Justice, you do the Commandment of God, for which you shall have the thing promised, that is to say, Eternal life: For not all that say unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, but those that do the will of the Father, saith St. Iohn: Therefore if you will have eternal life, do Justice; and

And also remember, that death doth not delay: no man knoweth his day: and therefore prepare your life, and do Justice, because no man knoweth his end: and as Fishes are taken with a hook, and Birds taken with a snare, so the body of a man, in the day of evil.

The third Cause of doing Justice, is, to have a good Report.

Have a care of a good Name.

It is better to have a good Name then much Riches. Curfed is the man that neglecteth his good Name.

It is better to have a good Name, then precious Oyntments: And to conclude, he saith, What profiteth, if you shall gain the whole World, if you shall lose your own Soul?

The manner of keeping a Court-Lest.

First, The Steward shall make a Precept to warn the Court by reasonable warning, as by six or more days, as followeth, and it is the better, if it be by fifteen dayes, according to the common dayes in the Bench.

The Precept.

J. K. Steward to the Bayliff thereof, health: I command likewise and appoint, that diligently you give to understand the view of Frank-pledge, of the Court there to be held against the Thursday, that is to say, the sixteenth day of October, next coming, after the date of these presents, and have there this Precept: And as, &c. Dated under my Seal, the first day of this Moneth of October, the year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, by the Grace of God, of England, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. 21.

*Prebendo
ton.*

Then enter your beginning of your Court-Roll in manner following.

*Vissus Franc. Plegii cum Car. J. F. Clerici ibid. Tent. die de Iffling-Jouis, viz. Decimo sexto die Octobris, Anno Regni Domine ton.
Nostrae Elizabethae Reginae, Dei Gratia, Angliae, Franciae, Order de de Hiberniae, Fidei Defensoris, &c. Vicesimo primo Tent. tenor per J. K. Senescal, ibid.*

It

The Order to hold Court-Leets.

It is good to make this Entry, that is to say, Tent. per J. K. Stufcat. Med. If there be any Copyholders there, for that the Name of the Steward is in the Copy to the admittance; then after this Entry the Steward shall cause the Bayliff to make O yes, three times, if it be a Leer, for this is the Kings Court, though the other hath that by Grant, or by Prescription.

E. Proclamation In the year 21 Ed. 4. fol. 37. is, That where either adjournment of the Term, or other matter for the King, is, there at the beginning there shall be three Proclamations made; and, in all other matters, which are not for the King, but one Proclamation; and for that, at the beginning in the Court-Baron shall be but one Proclamation; and in Court-Leet (for that it is the Kings Court) shall be three Proclamations, scilicet, O yes, three times shall be made.

Note, that none may make Proclamation but by authority of the King, or Mayors, and such like, where they have used it by Custom, 22 H. 6. fol. 19.

Then forthwith, after the three Proclamations made, the Steward shall make the Bayliff to say, All manner of Persons which are resident, or Deciners, and do owe Suit Royal to this Leet, come in and make your Suit, and answer to your Names, every one, upon pain and peril which shall ensue.

And after that all are called, and all who are absent are marked to be amerced, then the Steward shall cause again (if it be in a Leet) to be made three other O yes.

And forthwith, after the three Proclamations made, the Steward shall cause the Bayliff to say;

If any man will be Effornd, and in Court-Baron, if any will be Effornd, or enter any Plaint, come you in, and you shall be heard.

And then the Steward ought to say, Essoyns and profer of Suit and Plea three times, and in the end, Essoyn for this day: and then the Steward enter the Essoyn in the Court-Roll, as it followeth in the Entry of the Court-Roll.

Then after this the Jury shall be impannelled: and first, One shall be sworn, and after three or four together, and the Oath shall be as followeth:

You shall enquire, and faithfully make Presentment, of all things which I shall give you in Charge; your Companions, The Oath Counsel, the King's, and your own, you shall keep; and you of the Jury ought to present the Truth, and nothing but the Truth: So help you God.

But in the Court-Baron there shall be omitted in the Oath (to keep the King's Counsel) for that is no Court of the King's, as a Leet is.

Now, in the 27. of the Book of Assises, p. 15. a Juror In Felony was arraigned at the King's Bench as a Felon, for that he was one of the Indictors of certain persons of Felony, and discovered the counsel of his Companions, and in Leet it is counsel of the King: Yet (Quere) If he were attaint, what Judgement shall be given.

And when the Fore-man of the Jury for Court-Leet, or Court-Baron is sworn, three or four shall come to the Book together, and shall be sworn together, as afore is said.

To whom the Steward shall say, The same Oath which J. S. your Fore-man hath taken of his part, you, for your parts, well and truly shall observe and keep, So help you God: and so the rest shall be sworn by three or four together, as in a Leet, at least there shall be twelve sworn.

For 6 H. 4. fol. 2. is, That a Presentment in Leet Jurors shall be by twelve, and not by fewer, otherwise every Leet. Presentment there, is traversable: And 3 H. 7. 4. If any stranger be there, if there be not sufficient residents there to be impannelled, the Steward may impannel a stranger there, for that it is to enquire for the King, and for redressing matters which are annoyances to the Common-Wealth: and if more be sworn then twelve (as, they may be for the King) yet if twelve of them agree, and the residue not, it is a good Verdict, and it used very often to be fifteen, sixteen, or seventeen of the Jury in the Leet, but a Jury to try an issue between parties, by twelve only, as it appears by 41 Ed. 3. fol. 31. and 29 Ed. 3. fol. 43. And that a Verdict of eleven shall not be taken, 41 of the Book of Assises, p. 12. yet in a Court-Baron there may be impannelled and sworn there less then twelve, to enquire of Jurors for the Lord. Jury, or Court-Baron. The

The cause that the Jury shall be sworn, is, That the end of all controversie to confirmation, is an Oath, and this is the cause that the Juries are sworn, and not otherwise credited: and see Foirescut, fol. 54. The Tryal in this Realm by tryal by Twelve, is a good tryal and necessary, as at large by him appeareth.

Exhortation to the Jury.

FEAR God and keep his Commandments, this concerns every man: then I pray you, How have you the fear of God? How do you keep his Commandment, which is the whole Truth, if you do not regard your Oath? Remember also Jeremiah, chap. 4. which saith, You shall Swear in Truth, in Judgement, and in Justice: and so, remove Love, Fear, Hate, and Hope, that is to say, that you do nothing for love, nor for fear, nor for malice, hatred, hope of benefit and gain, but to present justly: and you ought to remember, who saith, Be not overcome of evil, but overcome in good, evil, St. Paul. You shall not receive gifts, because gifts blind the eyes.

But you ought to present justly, Deut. chap. 16. We to them that call good evil, and evil good, Isa. 15. Then shalt not anoint thy fist, nor bear false witness against thy Neighbour, Exod. chap. 20.

The Lips of a Liar are an abomination to the Lord, Prov. 6.

It is just Judgement, where not the person but the works are considered, Plato. And so from your hearts expel all affection, and be ye mindful how many threatenings God hath appointed for breaking of an Oath.

First, The Prophet saith, Thou hast all that work iniquity, thou dost reject all which speak a lye, Dan. 5.

He that blasphemeth the Name of the Lord, shall die with the death, Lev. chap. 14.

Thou shalt not live, because thou hast spoken a lye, Zechariah 13.

Ananias and Sapphira for a lye in selling a Field, forthwith were slain, Acts chap. 5.

And so you see what peril and indignation is from God for not regarding your Oath: And, to utter the Truth, Truth, you shall be sure to be the children of God, which is Truth, and you shall obtain quietness to your selves, and to all your Neighbours, and your Common-wealth shall flourish with vertue, and Offenders and Sinners shall be punished and abolished: for the Leet is appointed to that end.

And note, that at the beginning, there might be every year as many Leets as he would, which had that in his Mannor.

And after that, Leets were ordained to be held but twice in the year, by the Statute of Magna Charta, chap. 35. Scilicet, within a Moneth after Michaelmas and Easter. Rassal County, lye. 26

6 H. 7. fol. 2. Presentment of Felony in the Tourn of the Sheriff, held after the Moneth of Easter, is void, although it were for the Kings; for the Statute is, That the Sheriff in this Case shall lose his Turn, which is as much to say, all in that shall be void, 38 H. 6. fol. 7. the same. But by Prescription, Leets are held a day certain in the year: And after the Authority of the Leet was enlarged by the Statute, de 18 Ed. 2. called the Statute, de visu Franchi plegii: And after by divers others, for what things are enquirable in Leets, as in the Charge Rassal, Last 14 more at large may appear: and all the Articles are but for the advancement and preservation of the Common-wealth, as, by the Articles of your Charge more at large may also appear: And in so much now, that you see for what cause Leets were ordained, and how the Authority of them is enlarged, for Government of the Common wealth: Now you ought to consider, that you which are of the Jury are chosen in such manner as the Angels of God are at the last day of Judgement of man; for, as it is written, Then shall the Angels come out, and shall separate the Ill from the midst of the Just: And so you ought to separate the Just from the Ill persons, and you ought to see that the Offenders be punished, and the Just preserved: for as the Touchstone is provided to try the pureness of the Gold and Mettals, so are you chosen the Touchstone to see the Weed to be taken from the Corn, and the Corn to be preserved: and you ought to see the King and the Common-wealth preserved, and Justice Justice. Justice to be administered, which is the preservation of the King, and his Common-wealth; and so for that, that you see your duties, and consider your Oath, I will declare to you the Articles of your Charge.

Water.

DOctor and Student, fol. 177. The King is bound by old Custom of the Realm, as Lord of the Narrow Seas, to scowr the Sea from Sea-Pirates, Britton 84.

The Sea is common, and also right to fish in the Sea.

8 Ed. 4. fol. 10. It is said there, That every one may fish in the Sea by common right, and by Chute, If the Water ebb and flow upon my Land, every one may fish there.

Fitz.

Fitzherb. 113. A. The King may see that Rivers and Sewers of the Sea be defended, and for that may award a Commission by Common Law, and so may of Bridges and Wayes.

Fitz. 98. G. Action upon the case lyeth against a Neighbour, which hath Lands between him and the Sea, which doth not make his Banks, or scowr his Ditches, by which his Land is drowned.

19 Book of Assize. It was found by Commission, that the River of Lee, which runneth from Ware to Walsham, and so to London, is the high stream of the King: Quare.

22 Ed. 3. fol. 22. If Water run betwixt two, and by little doth diminish the soil of the one, and doth encrease the other, if there be not bounds fixt, if this encreasing had been so little, that one could not perceive it, but if it be by hasty encrease, there the other by this shall not lose his soil, unless the River be an arm of the Sea.

And note, that every Water which flows and ebbs, is an arm of the Sea, so long as it floweth and ebbeth, 22 Ass. 93.

4 Ed. 4. fol. 29. Trespass in fishing in his several fishing, the defendant prescribes to have a common of fishing there, and may prescribe to have that appendant to Land as well as common appendant.

4 Ed. 3. Title Trespass, 222. Trespass in his free fishing, this is intended to be anothers soil.

34 Of the Book of Assize, 11. Assizing of common fishing, in Tyfe, from such a place to such a place, and makes Title in his plaint, for that it was profit to take in another soil, and sheweth, that one had fishing, belonging appurtenant to his Mannor, and by deed granted that to him.

43 H. 3. Title 441. B. Assize, Assize of free-hold, and plaint of a fishing, and good.

7 H. 7. fol. 13. Trespass in his several fishing: the Defendant prescribes, that the Abbot was seized of a Mannor, and prescribeth to have free fishing from such a place. By Wood, a man may have a free fishing in another water, but not several.

17 Ed. 4. fol. 6. Why by force and arms he fished in his his several fishing; the Defendant pleads, That the place where, &c. is his Freehold, and by Choke it is no Plea, but an Argument; contrary by Brian: for a several fishing is his own soil by him, and free fishing is in anothers soil, which Littleton granted, 18 Ed.4. fol. 5. It was adjudged a good Plea by the whole Court, 18 H.6. 29.

20 H.6. fol. 3. Trespafs for fishing in his several fishing, the Defendant saith, That the soil covered with water is his Freehold, and is held a good Plea to the Action, 22 Ed.4. Title 116. Barr. F.

18 Ed.4. fol. 4. A man shall not have an Assise only of water without Land: so if he saith, That the place is only covered with water, which is his Freehold, it is a good Plea in Trespafs.

7 H.4. fol. 9. Action upon the Case lyeth, for that the Defendant ought to repair a Wall of the Thames; and doth not, by which his Land is drowned, 7 H.4. fol. 32.

Magna Charta, Chap. 23. All Kedels shall be put down from henceforth, almost throughout all England, unless upon the Sea Coasts.

There are but two Writs in the Register for fishing, that is to say, in a several fishing, and in a free fishing. See the Register, in 34, 95, 103.

Petty Treason is the first Branch in the Charge, and for that something is to be remembered, which I find in our Books, touching these Treasons.

IF Coyners of the Tower make Money of false Metal, or less in weight by half, it is Treason, and he which uttereth it knowing, is a Traytor, 3 H.7. fol. 10.

Where a Servant killeth his Mistris, or traitorously slew her, he shall be drawn and hanged; and yet the Statute is, Where the Servant kills his Master, for it ought to be as well to one as the other, 19 H.6. 47.

A Woman of the age of thirteen years was burnt, for that she kill'd her Mistris: which proves, That this is Treason, for otherwise she should have been hanged, 12 Book of Assize, 30.

A Woman shall be burnt for Treason, as for killing her Husband, and hanged for Felony, Britten, fol. 16. 1 R.3. fol. 4.

Sorcerers attaint, were burnt; Britton, fol. 18.

Counterfeiting the Kings Seal, or Money, was petty Treason, and Charter of Pardon in all Felonies would serve in petty Treason, for it is Felony, Stamf. fol. 2. but now by the Statute of 25 of Ed. 3. chap. 2. of Treason, it is made high Treason.

The second Branch in the Charge is Felony, and for that something is to be said, what are Felonies by the Common Law; and what not.

IF one shoot at Butts, and kill a man by swarving of his hand, it is no Felony for which he shall die; the same Law of ryling a house, and a stone falleth and killeth one; but if he hurt one, trespass lyeth, 22 H. 7. 29.

If one shoot at Pricks, and his hand swarve, and he kill one, it is no Felony for which he shall die; and for that which is not voluntary, he shall have a Pardon of course, but if he hurt one, it is a trespass, though it be against his will; and so it is, where one cuts a Tree upon his own Land, and that falleth upon anothers Land against his will, it is a trespass, 6 Ed. 4. fol. 7.

One cuts a Purse with three shillings in the same, and loseth his right Thumb, and so it is enquirable in Leet as Trespass, and not as Felony now by the Statute, 10 H. 3. Tit. 434.

If one feloniously in the night burn a Barn adjoyning to a house, it is Felony, 11 H. 7. fol. 1.

To play at Sword and Buckler together, and one killeth the other, it is Felony: Otherwise it is, if they play together by the Commandment of the King, and one kill the other, 11 H. 7. fol. 23.

If one resist a Felon which would rob him, and kill the Felon in resisting him, it is no Felony, and he need no Charter of Pardon, 22 Affise, 55.

If a Thief kill a Merchant, and his servant in pursuing hastily the Thief, kill him, it is no Felony in the Servant, 21 H. 7. fol. 16. Affise, 33.

If one be present when one is murdered, if he do not helpe nor aid him, nor consent, nor cause him to do it, he shall not be indicted; contrary, if he be any of those, 14 H. 7. fol. 3.

If divers are present when a man is killed, and one of them killed him, the others are Principals, if they come for the same cause, 21 Ed.4. fol. 84. In the time of H.8. Tit. 35. 1. A man bound to keep the Peace, procures another to break it; this is the forfeiture of his Recognizance.

If one be present and move one to kill another, which is done, it is felony in him, though he strike not, 13 H.7. fol. 10. the same, 4 H.7. fol. 18.

An Infant within the age of ten and twelve years killeth one, and was hanged, 3 H.7. fol. 13.

Felony is not but where a thing is taken with a felonious intent, that is, That is so privily, that he intends that he from whom it is taken shall not know, 21 H.7. fol. 15.

If one take his own goods from him that hath the keeping of them privily, and charge his Bayliff: that is felony in taking his own goods, 5 H.7. fol. 17.

Taking of Treasure trove or wreck with a felonious intent, is no felony, 22 Book of Ass. 99.

Taking of Charters feloniously in a Box concerning Land, is no felony, 10 Ed.4. fol. 16.

If my Butler steal my Plate in my house, it is in my possession, and it seems is felony, 3 H.7. fol. 12. The same Law, where my Shepherd steals my Sheep, 22 H.7. fol. 15. 12 H.8. fol. 3. If I deliver my Butler my Plate, it is said, it is no felony, and taking of that is no felony: this is where they are not delivered.

It was held by all, besides Needham, That if a Carrier hath a Bail, &c. or a Pack to carry, and breaks that, and takes the Goods out, it is felony, for the Goods were not delivered, but the Pack. The same Law, if a Tavern Cup be delivered to drink, and be taken away, it is felony, for it is in the possession of the Master. And so it is of a Horse in the Stable of his Master, and a Horse-keeper taketh him: But otherwise it is, where he delivers him to ride: Or Plate delivered to your Butler, for this taking is not by force and arms, 13 Ed.4. fol. 9.

A woman shall not be arraigned for stealing her husbands goods, abridged Book of Ass. fol. 71.

Taking of Pigeons, or Fish in their Roovings abroad.

is no felony: otherwise it is, out of a House or a Trunk; for there it is felony, 22 Book of Ass. 98.

Taking of Pigeons or other Beasts wilde in their wildness, is no felony, 12 H.8. fol. 4. by Br. 22 Book of Ass. 95.

Taking of young Doves in their Nests in a house is 18 H.8. Felony; and so it is of Pikes out of a Trunk: contrary, fol. 2. com- out of a River. Taking young Goshawks in a Park is Fe- trary. lony: Otherwise it is, where they are old Goshawks, 18 Ed.4. fol. 8.

Cutting of Trees is no Felony: Otherwise it is, if they were felled, and after carried away with felonious intent, 22 Book of Ass. 22. and 12 Ed.3. Coron. 119.

Taking of Apples out of an Orchard growing upon the Tree, or cutting Trees, or Corn growing, though they be taken with a felonious intent, is not Felony; for that they are parcel of the Freehold: But common breakers of Orchards, and common Trespassors are enquirable in Leet, as I intend, 18 H.8. fol. 2.

Robbery is but from the person of one, 3 H.6. f. 16.

Robbery if it do not amount to two pence, is Felony, for which he shall be hanged, 22 Book of Ass. 55.

Burglary of a house is, though he carry away nothing; the same Law of Robbery, which is of his person, though it be to the value of a penny; but it is no Felony that one shall be hanged, unless to the value of twelve pence, 22 Book of Ass. 39.

It is Burglary, that he broke his house to kill him, though he did not kill him, 13 H.4. fol. 20.

One intended to commit Burglary, and was hindred, yet hanged, 27 Ass. 28.

It is no Felony if one intend to rob one, and doth so, but is hindred; but it is Treason if he intend that to the King, and do not the act, 13 H.8. fol. 19.

A Boy would have carried out the Goods of his Master, and came to the Bed of his Master sleeping, and cut him in the throat, and he cryed out, and his Neighbours came in and took the Boy, and he was hanged, 15 Ed.2. Corymer, 383.

Burglars are those which break Houses or Churches, and though that they carry out nothing, they shall be hanged. Abridgment of the Book of Asses, 75.

Note, That Presentments of Felonies at the Common-Law, are presentable before the Steward in Leet, as appears by 22 Ed. 8. fol. 19. And Petty Treason is Felony, as it appears by Stam. fol. 2.

Appeal of Robbery, the Defendant tenders to wage battel, and was after ward outed of that, for that that he was Indicted before JOHN VERNEY Steward in Leet, and for that he did not shew to whom he was Steward, and in what place, it was naught; otherwise it had been good. By this it appears, that presentment of that may be before the Steward. Stamford, fol. 2. Charter of Pardon of all Felonies serves in petty Treason, for it is Felony, and for that also enquirable in Leet as Felony, 22 Ed. 4. fol. 19.

1 H. 7. fol. 23. Sir Humphrey Stafford shewed, that he had matter in Law to plead to an Indictment, as Sanctuary, and prayed Council, and had Council upon that shewed in Felony or Treason.

3 H. 7. fol. 1. Infant of tender age, or one out of his wits killeth one, he shall not be hanged, 21 H. 7. fol. 31.

3 H. 7. fol. 1. If the principal take Clergy, being arraigned or indicted, it seemeth that the accessory shall go quit and clear if he have pardon: Contrary, 13 E. 4. fol. 3. upon acknowledging of Felony.

3 H. 7. fol. 1. One of the age of nine years which had discretion to excuse himself, was hanged for murdering of another Infant.

3 H. 7. fol. 2. It seemeth, where one challengeth above the number of thirty six upon one Indictment, he shall be put to Penance; and where it is in Appeal, hanged.

22 H. 8. chap. 14. No person arraigned for petty Treason, Murther, or Felony, shall be admitted any peremptory challenge above the number of twenty.

4 H. 7. fol. 2. One arraigned, and found it was in defending himself, and had a Pardon of Grace.

14 H. 7. fol. 2. Where one indicted before a Coroner, is afterwards acquit, it shall be enquired who killed him, 11 H. 4. fol. 91. the same.

11 H.7. fol. 19. If a married Woman commit Felony, her Land is forfeited forthwith, unless that her Husband be intituled to be Tenant by the Curtesie.

21 H.7. fol. 30. Clerks convict or attaint, are not out of the Law, as Aliens are.

1 H.7. fol. 6. Rescuing a Felon, is Felony by the Common-Law, as Breakers of Prison, is by the Statute.

4 Ed.4. fol. 10. One Indicted of Murther such a day, and an Appeal sued supposing the Murther another day, yet good, and shall be all one, for the day is not material; and after, the parties in the Appeal agreed, and the Plaintiff is non-suited, he shall be arraigned at the Kings Suit.

21 H.7. fol. 29. Where one shoots at pricks, and killeth a man by the swarving of his hand, it is no Felony that he ought to die.

9 Ed.4 fol. 27. Indictment, That Alice S. he took feloniously, and knew her carnally against her will, but feloniously ravished her; an Indictment of Murther, that of malice prepensed, he killed him, is not good, but Murdravit; vid. 1 H.4. 1.

Bracton saith, If there be any that striketh a woman being with child, or gives her poyson by which he maketh an abortive, or a child now formed or having life, he committeth Man-slaughter, 3 Book of Ass. 4. or where one beareth a Woman with child, which indeed was born dead, it is no Felony, 22 Book of Ass. 94.

Stamford, 22. It is requisite that, the thing slain be in Reum naturalis and for that to kill an Infant in his mothers belly, is no Felony, Stamford, 16.

22 Book of Asses, 71. Two fight together, and one cometh to part them, and is slain; it is Felony.

26 Book of Asses, 22. A Felon in robbing of a house slain, it is no Felony in killing.

Staw. fol. 25. That cannot be Felony to Real wilde Beasts found in their wilderness, nor for Doves being out of their Dove-coat, nor Fishes taken in the River, for such stealing is not the taking of anothers goods, but of a thing which none hath property in.

But otherwise it is, if he break the Pigeon-house, and steal the young Pigeons which cannot go nor fly, for that is Felony. The same Law of taking young Goshawks bred in my Park.

19 H.8. fol. 2. By Fitzh. and Engelsfeld, taking of young Pigeons in a Dove-house, is not Felony. Quere, for they are of a wilde nature.

22 Book of Assizes, 3. One killeth one outlawed of Felony; by Serrop, It is no Felony; but by Stamf. Otherwise it is where he is attaint by Verdict.

35 H.6. fol. 68. A Husband attaint of Felony is slain, his Wife shall have an appeal, but not his Heir, for there is no corruption of blood between the husband and his wife.

34 H.6. fol. 3. If a Felon read, and the Ordinary refuse him, the Prisoner shall be spared, and the Ordinary shall be fined: And if a Felon once fail to read, yet the Justices may spare him, and make him try to read again. And it's said there, That he shall have his Clergy under the Gallows: But enquire that. Stamford saith, Burglary may be in the day, as well as the night; but all Indictments are (by night;) and for that, Quere, Tit. Clergyplac. 12. He which breaketh a house by day or night, any person being in that, and by that put in fear, or robb'd of any thing; he shall not have his Clergy, Stamford, 129.

Forfeiture.

And for that, you ought to enquire, What Lands and Goods those attaint of Felony have, it is now to see what the King shall have, and what the Lord, by attaint of one in Felony; and what not.

VVE shall not keep the Lands of those which are convicted of Felony, but for a year and a day, and then the Lands shall be delivered to the Lord of the Fee, Magna Charta, chap. 22. See Stamford, 190.

If the Lord enter after the year and day, where he ought to have a Writ to put him in, the King shall re-seise, 8 E.2. Tit. Trespas, 48.

The

The King shall have all Chattels of Felons condemned, and Fugitives; and if they have a Freehold, then that forthwith shall be taken into the Kings hands, and the King shall have all the profits by a year and a day. And that the Tenement shall be wasted and destroyed, &c. and after the year and day, it shall be given to the chief Lords, Prerogative, chap. 16. Rastal, 5.

Note, That a man shall not forfeit his Lands in no case but where Judgment is given, and that is in three manners; that is to say, where one is outlawed of Felony, or abjures, or is hanged; for they make but three manner of Writs of Escheat, that is, for which he is Outlawed, for which abjured, and for which he is hanged: and for that it is said, If one rise against the King and is slain, that he shall not forfeit his Lands until he be afterwards attaint by Parliament, as in use, 7 H.4. fol. 33. the same, 7 H.4. fol. 48.

See Stamford, fol. 49. The King shall have year, day, and Waste, and Chattels forfeited.

Fitzh. 144. It seemeth that the King shall have year, day, and waste, where one is convict of Felony, and that is the next years profit: for if one taketh the profits that year and day, the Lord shall have a Writ to the Sheriff to deliver him possession, and he which hath taken the profits shall answer to the King for that.

Fitzh. 144. N. The King shall have the Escheat of Tenements in Cities and Boroughs, which are held of him in Fee-farm.

Fitzh. 6. B. The King as it appears by the Register, shall have a Writ of Escheat returned into the Kings-Bench, for the King may sue in what Court he will.

31 Ed. 1. tit. Discent 17. f. If the Son and Heir of A. be Outlawed in the time of his Father of Felony, and after he purchase his Charter of Pardon in the life time of his Father, and after the Father dies, he shall not have Lands descended from his Father, but the Lord of whom they are held by Escheat.

16 Of the Book of Affizes, 2. If the Son be attainted of Felony in the life-time of his Father, and hanged, his Sister shall have the Land by discent from the Father, and it shall not Escheat.

46 Ed. 3. Tit. Discent 6. If the Father have a Son and a Daughter, and the Son be attaint of Felony in the life-time of his Father, and dieth, there the daughter shall have the Land: and if he survive the Father, then the Lord by Escheat, 8 Ed. 1. Tit. Assise, 421. 49. Book of Assise, 4.

3 Book of Assise, Where the Tenant grants Rent-charge out of his Land, and after that escheats, the Lord shall hold this charge: but other wise it is, where a Tenant which holds of the King, chargerh and dieth without heir, 4 Ed. 4. fol. 2. If that be found by Office, yet it cannot be.

Natura brevium, 103. In a Writ of Escheat it is no Plea, that he died not seised: but it is a good Plea, that he did not die his Tenant.

Fitzh. 144. C. If the Tenant be disseised, and after dieth without heir, it seemeth the Lord shall have a Writ of Escheat, for that, that his Tenant died in his Homage, 2 H. 4. fol. 9. the same.

Fitzh. 144. If a man be beheaded for Felony, or die after Judgement, before he be put in execution by the Officer: yet the Writ shall say, For which he was hanged, Nat. Brev. fol. 104. the same.

11 H. 4. fol. 16. One may have Escheat and Ward, before he be seised of the Services. Littleton, 106. If a Signiory be granted by fine.

See 2 and 3 Ed. 6. chap. 8. Where one hath a Rent, &c. the King is intituled to the Land by attainder, and that is not found in the Office: yet he himself shall have his Rent by the Statute.

And it is to see now, Where a forfeiture shall be of Goods only, and not of Lands: and where not.

One indicted, that he killeth one (in defending himself) by Farfaix he shall be arraigned, and shall lose his Goods, 21 Ed. 3. fol. 18. and shall not forfeit his Lands, 4 H. 7. fol. 2. fol. 18.

A man attainted for Felony, shall Forfeit his Lands, which he hath at the day of the Felony done, otherwise it is of his Good, for if he sell them before the attainder, the sale is good: but note, that they are not given by Covint to defraud the Queen, for then the Gift is not good, as I intend, 33 Ed.3. Tit.30.

To the Goods of one attaint, it shall have relation, but to the Judgment, and Conveyance of them before, is good by Perkins, fol.6.

See Stamford 192. for the time of the Forfeitures Relation.

Now for that, that divers Lords of Leets, have divers Liberties and Priviledges, and some are by the Kings Grant, and some by Prescription, let us see what Liberties and things the Lord may have by the Kings Grant, and what not, and what Liberties and things he may have by Prescription only, but not without shewing a Charter, and what he may. And then who shall have without shewing allowance, and who not.

THe Lord cannot have the Goods of Felons but by Charter and Grant of the King, and not by Prescription; but the Lord may have Weif and Stray, by Prescription, 21 H.7. f.32.

One cannot prescribe to have the Goods of Felons and Fugitives, and to have that by Prescription, without shewing a Charter; but to have Weif and Stray, and Wreck of the Sea, he may have by Prescription only, 9 H.7. f.20. Abridge. Assises, fol.78. 2 Ed.3. Fitzh. Coram. 241.

One may have (in sangthief) that is to say, to have Thieves taken within his Lordship, to be adjudged in the Lords Court; and also (out sangthief) that is to say, Thieves of your own Land, taken out of your Land, to be adjudged in your Court by Prescription, 46 Ed.3. f.16. A man cannot have the Goods of Outlaws, unless it be by Charter, Abridgment of the Book of Assises, f.78. Your Lord may prescribe to hold plea, and to have that by Prescription only, but you cannot prescribe to have Conusance of plea by Prescription only, without shewing the Charter of the King, 9 H.7. f.16.

One may prescribe to have a Park and a Leet, and that by Prescription only, and may have that without shewing allowance in Eire, 1 H.4. f.5.

A man cannot have the Chattels of Fugitives without the Charter of the King, for it is a thing of the Kings Prerogative, 46 Ed.3. f.16.

The Abbot of Westminster prescribes to have Sanctuary for Felony and Treason, and to hold pleas, and could not, without shewing a Charter dated before memory, to prove the beginning of that; and for that, that this is against common right, he ought also to shew allowance of that after the time of memory: but he may may have Weif and Stray, and view of Frank-pledge by Prescription only, and without shewing allowances but otherwise it is, to have the Goods of Felons and Fugitives, 2 Ed. 4. f. 21. & 22.

Note that the things that you may have only by Prescription of common right, you shall have without shewing allowance, and the other things not without shewing allowance.

The allowance which you ought to shew, shall be that which was allowed in the Kings Bench, or in Eire, and not in the Common Bench.

Ancient Grant of the King shall be taken, as it hath been allowed, as the King hath granted to one his royal Rights, and the King is concluded by the allowance in a Quo Warranto in the Kings Bench, and not in the Common Bench, 10 H. 7. fol. 13. & 14.

Charter of H. 2. dated before memory, and allowance of that shewed after memory in the Common Bench, it is not good at this day, unless it be in Eire, 21 H. 7. fol. 29.

The Kings Bench is Eire, and more then Eire; for if the Kings Bench cometh into the County where the Commission in Eire is, that shall cease, 27 Affise 1.

Grant of the King.

Where the King hath granted to you by his Charter (the Goods of Felons, and Fugitives) what things pass by this Charter, followeth, Allowance in the Common Bench is not good, and allowance shall be within memory, 9 H. 7. fol. 16; 1 H. 7. fol. 23.

In the time of H. 8. Tit. Grants, 364. If the King grant Reversion, and mis-recite the date of the Lease, but recites well the estate, the thing, and the name of the Lessee, it is a good Grant.

8 H. 7. fol. 4. Where the King upon information of the party, grants a Mannor, and recites, That he had it by forfeiture, and hath it not by forfeiture, it is a void Grant, for the King is deceived: So it is said, Where the King grants a Reversion where there is no Reversion, he is deceived, and void.

26 H.2. fol. 1. The King recites for the good service he hath done in the Wars, he grants, where he was never in the War, it was a good Grant; for the recital is a matter indeed not material.

9 H.6. fol. 27. Where the King grants upon a Perdition for his service, such a Mannor of such a value, where it is of a greater, he is deceived, and it is void.

9 H.7. fol. 2. If the King makes one a Denizon; and reciteth where he was born in France, where in truth he was born in Spain, this Grant and making him Denizon is a good Grant, and the recital is not material.

9 H.7. fol. 2. Diversity where the King of his meer motion, grants and recites, that what he hath granted by his Patent, he ratifies and confirms, the King is estopped to say the contrary, but that he granted and ratified that: but if it were (as I am informed) he is not estopped, and the King is deceived.

37 H.8. Tit. Patents 10. It is said for Law, that false consideration in Letters Patents shall not avoid them; as where the King for ten pounds to him paid, giveth such Land, and the ten pounds consideration is not paid, the Patent is not void. Contrary of a Patent made upon false surmise, as that the Land came to the King upon the Attainder of J. S. and it is false, the Patent is void.

6 H.7. fol. 13. If an Office be granted by the King to one for life, and after the King grants that to another, and do not recite the first Grant, the King is deceived, and the second Grant is void.

The King grants to you (the Chattels of Felons and Fugitives, for whatsoever offences) you shall not have the Goods of one that stands dumb, for these are forfeits for contempt, and this Grant shall be taken strictly, because it toucheth upon the Kings Prerogative, 8 H.4. fol. 2.

The King grants to one the Chattels of Felons, and Fugitives, and of whatsoever Offenders, the Grantee shall have the Goods of him Attaint for petty Treason, and not for high Treason by these general words, (for what Offences soever) 22 Book of Assizes, 40.

If one kill the Kings Ambassador, this is High Treason, and for that he shall not have his Goods, but Goods of one Attaint for Petty Treason, by the Grant (of Goods and Chattels of Felons and Fugitives, and for whatsoever Offences) he shall have, for that is Felony, 22 Book of Assize, 49.

Where there is a Grant to you by a common person, (all his Goods) a Lease for years, nor a Ward pass not, for (Goods) are Moveables, alive and dead, and not Chattels, 4 Ed. 6. Brook Grants, 51.

And for that the King Grants (all the Goods of Felons) you shall not have a Lease for years of one Attaint, for it is a Chattel real, Brook, Done, 438.

plowden, fol. 424. Where one grants all his Lands and Tenements to one, there a Lease for years may pass; where the King grants (all the Goods and Chattels of Felons of his men) that is but his own Tenants, unless it be an ancient Grant, and the Grant put in use of other Tenants also, 40 Book of Assizes, 41.

If one grant all his Goods, as well living as dead, a Rent-charge, which the Grantor hath for years, passeth by this Grant, 39 H. 6. fol. 37.

Where Chattels are granted to one, by this he hath as well Chattels, moveables as not moveables; for a Lease for years is within this word Chattels, as it appeareth by Bracton, Stamford, fol. 44: Prerogative.

Where Chattels are granted to one, he shall have the Corn of a Felon, growing upon the Land of a Felon, at the time of the Forfeiture, and right of Actions to the Goods, as where Goods by wrong are taken from a Felon, and where one is indebted to a Felon by Obligation, or is accountable to a Felon for any Receipts, Stamford, 45. Prerogative.

The King may have Debt due by Obligation to a Felon, and not which is due by Contract, 16 Ed. 4. fol. 4.

Chattels.

IF a Disseisor sowe the Land, and sever that before the Disseisee re-enter, the Disseisee cannot take the Corn, for they are Chattels, and come by his industry; but otherwise it is, of Trees cut by the Disseisor, and made in Faggots, or Grass made in Hay, which come by the soil, 5 H. 7. fol. 16. and 2 H. 7. fol. 2. the same.

39 Ed. 3. The Writ is of Goods and Chattels, and the Count

Count of Corn, and ten pounds in money, and for that that money is not Goods and Chattels, he abridged that.

7 Ed.6. Tit. Grants, 155. A man grants all his Lands and Tenements in D. a Lease for years doth not pass, that is, where he hath Lands in Fee in D. and also a Lease there.

37 H.8. Dene, 41. It is said for Law, that if a man give all his Lands and Tenements in D. by this a Lease for years doth not pass, for (Lands and Tenements) shall be intended Freehold at the least.

10 Ed.4. fol. 1. If an Executor give all his Goods and Chattels, the Goods of the Testator do not pass, and clearly the Giver shall not forfeit them.

28 H.8. fol. 4. by Ellior, If a man give all his Goods and Chattels, Hawks and Hounds do not pass, 18 Ed.4. fol. 14.

For that they are of a wilde Nature.

9 H.7. Tit. Grants, Brook, 87. If a man hath Lands in Lease, and is seised of other in Fee, and make a Feoffment of them both and Livery only in the Land in Fee, the Land for years doth not pass.

8 Ed.4. fol. 4. By Pigor. Where a man gives to me a deed or Feoffment, when I have not the Land, that is but a Chattel in me.

39 Ed.3. Tit. Charters, 6. A man granteth the next Advowson to J.S. and his heirs, it is but a Chattel, for it is but for one turn, the same Law for a Lease to him and his heirs for twenty years, 136. the same. Book of Assises, 22.

21 H.7. fol. 26. A man seised in Fee, maketh a Furnace of Lead in the midst of his House, which was fixed to the Walls, and died, the heirs shall have that, and not the Executors, for it is fixed to the Freehold, and not a Chattel. The same Law is of Fats fixed in a Brew-house or Dy-house: and at this day is the like of Glass, though there it was held the contrary: but it seemeth where the Termor fixeth such things, he may take it within the Term, but after the Term not, and the heir shall have Table dormants, and those things which cannot be attached in Assise.

Stamford, 45. Chattels are as well Chattels moveable, as not moveables; and Leases and Chattels are the Corn growing, and right of Action; and an Obligation made to a Felon, and money out of a Bag, and Corn out of a Sack, are Chattels.

10 Ed. 4. fol. 1. It seemeth where one gives all his Goods and Chattels, the Chattels of the Giver doth not pass. See 4 H. 7. fol. 12.

36 Ed. 3. Tit. Charters, 24. It seemeth that Charters are not Chattels.

8 Ed. 4. fol. 4. If one give to be a Deed of Feoffment, whereof I have not the Land, this is but a Chattel in me.

21 Ed. 4. fol. 80. Writings may be layd to pawn for money borrowed, by which it seems that Writings are Chattels in divers cases.

37 Aff. 11. A woman hath execution by Statute-Merchant of Land, and takes a husband; this is a Chattel, and for that the husband may give it.

24 Ed. 3. Tit. Charters 5. by Thorp. The Escheatour may seise the Ward, though there be no Office found; for it is a Chattel, and vested in the King without an Office.

4 H. 7. fol. 10. Where Tenant in Tail discontinues and dies, the Deed in Tail belongs to the Heir, before he hath re-continued his Estate in the Land; and it is no chattel, but an Inheritance; for if one give all his Goods and Chattels, he shall not have such Deeds.

Now let us see, which not using of Priviledg and Liberty, is the cause of seising of it, and which not: I intend not using of Liberty, which is for the benefit of the Party, this is no cause of seising; but where it is for the Commonwealth, not using, is a cause of seising; and misusing, is a cause of seising for ever.

If one have Liberties, and do not use them within memory, all is gone, 14 H. 7. fol. 1.

Not using of the Office of Clerk of the Market, is cause of seising; for that is for the Common-wealth, 2 H. 7. fol. 11.

By Billing, by misusing, and not using also of a Market, shall be seized, 2 H.7. fol. 11. and 15 Ed.4. fol. 7.

Where the Abbot of St. Albans had a Goal by Franchise, and would not be at costs with the Justices of the Goal-delivery to make delivery of Prisoners, and kept them long in Prison, for that it was seized into the Kings hands, 8 H.4. fol. 17.

If the Lord of the Franchise refuse to do a thing commanded by the Court, as to bring in his Prisoners, it is a forfeiture of his Liberty: contrary, where it is commanded by Process, by Hussay.

If a Lord refuse to do right, or misuse his Franchise by himself, or by his Bayliff, or Deputy, or do not use his Franchise, that shall be re-seized; and all Lords which have Franchises shall attend upon the Justices of Assize in person, or by their Bayliffs; or otherwise they shall forfeit their Franchises, 20 Ed.4. fol. 5.

When divers Franchises are granted to a man, one of which depends not upon the other, although he misuse one Franchise, the other shall not for that be seized: But if they depend one upon the other, there all shall be seized, 22 Ass. 34.

Confirmation.

NOte, That there need be no Confirmation of a Charter of grant of Liberties, after the death of every King, as it is used, 1 R.3. fol. 4. but otherwise it is, of Officers judicial, 33 H.8. tit. 203. If the King grant the Chattels of Felons to one and dies, there need no Confirmation of that. Otherwise, if there were a Fair or a Market granted, or a Judicial thing, or a Ministerial office granted.

Suit.

Then the next Branch of the Charge is Suitors, and for that let us see who are residents which ought to make Suit at the Leet: and who not.

Suit real is at Leet, and this is by reason of their residence, 12 H.7. fol. 17.

If one carry my Male; and sometimes be within the View; and otherwhiles nor, yet he is resiant, 41 E.9. fol.27.

Fitzh. 160. B. A man which is not resident, but hath Lands within the Leet, shall not be distrained (but where he is dwelling) to make sure to the Leet: Marlbridge, chap. 18. Who have Tenements in divers hundreds, have no necessity to come to these Turns, unless in the Balliwicks where they are dwelling.

Where the Master is resident, there also his Servant. And every one is in some Leet, as well the Master as the Servant, 2 H.4. fol.17.

Men of Religion, Clerks, Knights, nor Women, shall not be Decjners, Fitzh. fol. 160. C. Register, fol. 131. B. i. tan, fol. 19.

It is provided, That they have no need to come, Rast. Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots, Priors, Earls, Barons, nor County, 24 any religious men or women, Marlbridge, chap 10.

A man shall not make Suit twice to two Leets of several men for his residency, but one time to one, and another day to another he may: but one may come twice to the Leet of one person, and yet may be charged to come to the Turn of the Sheriff, 18 H.6. fol.13.

Every man ought to be attendant to a view of Frank-pledge, 21 Ed.3. fol.12.

For that the not scowring of Ditches adjoyning to High-Wayes and Bridges, and also other annoyances in Wayes are presentable in Leets; and is another Branch of the Charge: Let us see how they shall be done; and what by the Common-Law: and what now by the Statutes.

Wayes.

If a man have Land adjoyning to the Kings Highway, he is charged of common right to cleanse the Ditches without any prescription: but if he be not next adjoyning, it is otherwise, for there he is not chargeable without prescription: but it is said, That he whose Land is next adjoyning to a Bridge, is not held of common right to repair the Bridge, though the Bridge have been there time out of mind, unless he have that made by prescription.

8 H.7. fol.6.

Purprestures.

Rassal. Magna Charta, chap. 15. No Town nor Freeman shall Bank 12. be distrained to make Bridges, unless that of old they Bridges. use to make them in the time of King H. our Grandfa-Rassal, ther is the Statute of 22 H. 8. chap. 5. gives power to the Bridges, Justices of Assise to determine the making of Bridges,
 8. where it cannot be held and proved what person certain ought of right to make such decayed Bridges, and what shall be made by the Inhabitants, or riding where such decayed Bridges are, by which it appears that he which hath Land adjoyning to a Bridg, is not chargeable to make the Bridg, unless it be by Prescription.

2 Ed. 4. By Moyles, if any encroachings be made over the fol. 9. Kings Way, a by a Ditch, House or Wall, it shall be punished by Presentment in the Leet: And I collect upon the Opinion of this Book, and upon 8 Ed. 4. fol. 9.

And upon 27 H. 6. fol. 9. and upon 6 Ed. 3. Way 2. Where a Lord of a Mannor hath Land upon both parts of a High-way, that he shall have the Trees growing in the High-way, and also where a Way is over a waste of the Way. Lords; but where a Freeholder hath Land of each part of the High-way, he shall have no Trees growing in the High-way; and where he hath Land joyning but upon one part of the Way, he shall have no Trees growing upon that half of the Way, 2 Ed. 4. fol. 9. But Britton, fol. 111. saith, That a Free-holder shall have Trees, if it be not in the common High-way.

Rof. He which doth not scowr his Ditches adjoyning to Highways. a High-way, ought to forfeit for every rod not made, 60. 12 pence every time, 18 Eliz. chap. 10. And before that, by the Common Law, he which had Land ad-joyning to the High-way, ought to scour his ditches ad-joyning to the High-way.

It is provided, That the hedges, fences and ditches next to either part of the high-ways, or common Tre-velling ways, shall be from time to time scoured and Ways. repaired, and that all Bushes and Trees in them growing shall be cut by the owners: And by 8 Eliz. chap. 10.
 for not doing of that, forfeit 10 shillings: and these points of the said Two Statutes are inquirable in a Leet, 5 Eliz. cap. 13.

Commission may be awarded for not repairing Bridges, Fitzh. 113. 4. and 127. D. By

By Shelly, If one do not cleanse his Ditch; but suffer that to drownd the high-way, he shall be amerced, 12 Hen. 8. fol. 17.

And note, that injuries made in the high-way, are presentable in Leet, as it follows, but not injuries in private Wayes; but the Party grieved shall have an Assise of Nufance, or an action upon the cause, if he have no Free-hold, and yet it is used to inquire if one stop a private Way; but it is to no purpose, if it be not for evidence in an Assise of Nufance, as an Inquest of Office: but it seemeth to be good between Copy-holders which cannot have an Assise of Nufance, nor an Action upon the Case for stopping a Way, and the pain upon that is good to be assessed.

By Fairfax, A Leet hath power to inquire of common annoyances, but not of particular; as if one stop my private Way, or break my Close, that is not inquirable, 43. fol. 11.

If a high-way be not repaired, so that I be damni-fied by miring my Horse: I shall not have an action for that, but a presentment shall be of that in the Leet. See 27 H. 8. fol. 27. and 5 E. 4. fol. 3.

If one sow my private way to my Meadow, I shall have an Assise of Nufances and it is not presentable in Leet, and where he streightens it, action upon the case lieth; 33 H. 9. fol. 29. The same Law of my way stoppt to the Church, 6 E. 4. fol. 37. If one stop the water running to my Mill, I shall have an Assise of Nufance, and it is not presentable in Leet, 2 H. 4. fol. 22.

The Free-hold of a High-way is to the Lord, and passage for the people is to the King, and punishment for annoyance of that may be to the Leet. 6 Ed. 3. way, 2 and 3 Ed. 4. fol. 9.

In a High-way, the King hath but passage for him and his people; but the Free hold, and all the Profits are to the Lord of the soil, as Trees, &c. The King shall punish annoyance made there, and the Lord shall have an Action for digging the Land there, 27 H. 6. fol. 9. and 8 Ed. 4. fol. 9.

He which hath Lands adjoyning to the way, hath the half of the way, unless it be a common High way; for there it is otherwise, for there it is to the Lord. Brinton, fol. 111.

Kings high-way is that which leadeth from Town to Town; and common Way is that, which leadeth from a Town to the Field to their Lands, 3 Ed. 3. Statum, Tit. Wayes.

It seemeth there are Royal-wayes or high-wayes, common ways, and private ways: and to stop private ways an Action lies.

Fitzh. 124. If one be disturbed from his Way, he shall have a Quod permittat: B. to have a certain Way over the Land of the said A. in D. as he ought and was wont.

33 H. 6. fol. 29. It seemeth where my way is straitned or impaired, I shall have an action upon the case: but if it be all stoppt, I shall have an Assise of Nufance: but by Prisot, if the stopping of the way be by the Land Tenant, Assise of Nufance lieth: but if it be by a stranger, an action upon the case lieth: but of a common annoyance that is made in the Royal-way, none shall have an action, but present that in a Leet, or and there set a Fine upon him for the King, and by Prisot I shall have an Assise of Nufance, or a quod permittat against all the Tenants, though but one of them stop the way.

5 Ed. 4. fol. 3. If a Common way be, and is not repaired by him which ought to do it, so that I be in loss by that: I shall not have an action, but by way of presentment in Leer, &c. 27 H. 8. fol. 32. see there.

Fitzh. 184. Assise of Nufance, he stopped the way, or straitned the way in D. to the hurt, &c. it lyeth, 48 Ed. 3. fol. 27. Adhavit viam, a good form.

11 H. 4. fol. 81. &c. Where one hath a Way over a Bridg to his Mannor, which another ought to repair: and he suffers a decay, so that he cannot pass: action upon the case lieth.

Fitzh. 183. Assise of Nufance lieth, where a man hath made an annoyance to my Free-hold, which I have for my life in Tail, or in Fee: and so it followeth, that a Tefmer for years shall not have an Assise, but an action upon the case: See 27 H. 3. tit. Assise 437. If one lett Lands for years, and after annoyance is made, the Lessor shall have an Assise, and not the Lessee.

11 H. 4. By Hank and Calpepper, if a man hath a Way, unity extinguisht it, 3 H. 6. fol. 42.

21 Book of Assises 1. Where a way is extinguisht by unity of possession in the Father; yet it may be afterwards revived by partition upon Composition; for the Composition makes that, and it is called a new way.

5 H. 7. fol. 7. A way appendant cannot be made in gross by grant; for none may have the commodity of that, but he which hath the Land to which the way is appendant; the same Law of Common appendant, but otherwise it is Common appurtenant.

26 H. 8. fol. 4. Appendant cannot be aliened and severed in Drifts and Wayes to Closures, yet the Freeholder shall have the Trees; but commonly in high-ways, there is some waste, in which the Tenants have common of pasture, and the Trees growing there are to the Lord of the Mannor.

17 Ed. 3. fol. 43. Is, that the Freehold and the Soil of a high-street is in the Lord of the Mannor, and the people have nothing there but the passage, and 8 H. 7. fol. 5. by Keeble, the Soil and Freehold in the way is to those which have Land adjoining.

2 Ed. 4. fol. 9. Where there is common way thorough a Field, the Freehold of the Soil is to the Tenant of the Land adjoining, and not to the King, for he hath but passage for his People.

Incidents.

A Man cannot dispend with a Suit to a Leet, unless by special words, 8 Ed. 2. tit. 28.

2 H. 7. fol. 4. Partition is made of four Mannors, which descend to four Co-parceners, that every one shall have a Mannor, except the Advowson, and by that the Advowson is in gross and severed; and if all die but one, it shall be appendant again.

8 H. 7. fol. 1. By grant of a Hundred, Leet passeth as incident, for a Hundred cannot be without a Leet: for a Leet is parcel of it, and to a Mannor, a Court Baron is incident: and to Homage, Fealty: and to a Fair, a Court of Pi-powders: and it seems these cannot be severed.

Perk. fol. 2. Common appendant cannot be severed, nor Estovers to be burned in a house, but a Villain regardant may be severed, and an Advowson appendant, and made in gross: for an incident inseparable cannot be severed by Grant, as in the case next before, but Incidents separable may be.

40 Edw. 3. fol. 22. Reasonable aid, to make his Son Knight, or to marry his daughter, and relief for socage after the death of his Tenant, cannot be released by general words: therefore release of all actions and demands, besides Fealty and Rent by the Lord to the Tenant, shall not extinct these incidents: the contrary is said, if it be by special words.

10 H. 8. tit. Incidents 34. Court Baron is so incident to a Mannor, and Court of Pi-powders to a Fair, that they cannot be severed by Grant: for if they grant the Mannor or Fair, they cannot reserve such Courts.

7 Edw. 4. fol. 11. Lord and Tenant, the Lord releaseth to the Tenant the Distress, this is void: for the Distress is Incident, the same of Release of Fealty to him which holds by Homage, for Fealty is incident to Homage, and is inseparable.

26 Book of Assises 66. Lord and Tenant by Fealty, Escuage and Rent, and the Lord grants the Rent, this is Rent-seck and severed: for Fealty remains with the Homage, as Incident to it: the same Law where a Rent is incident to a Reversion, and yet these may be severed by special grant, 29 Book of Assises 20 the same. Littl. fol. 40. Where the Tenant holds by Homage, Fealty, and Rent, if the Lord grant the Rent saving to him the homage: this Rent is Rent-Seck and severed: the same Law, if he grant the Homage, saving the Rent: and where he holds by Rent and Fealty, and grants the Rent saving the Fealty, or left for life, tending to Rent, and grants the Rent saving the Reversion, he Rent is Seck.

Rescous and Pound-breach is another breach of the Charge.

HE which distrains Beasts may put them in a close house, if he will give them meat; for the putting into the open Pound, is, that the Owner may give them meat, 33 H.8. tit. Distrains, 66.

If a man distrain without a cause, the Owner may make Rescous: but if he put them into the pound, he cannot break it, for they are in custody of the Law. See 40 Ed.3. fol.33. and Fitzh. fol.102.E.

It seems, If a Lord distrain where Rent is not behind, the Tenant shall not make Rescous, 4 Ed.6. Tit. Distrains, 74.

If a man distrain wrongfully, the Owner may make Rescous, 5 Ed.4. fol.7. by Danby, 39 Ed.3. Tit.20.

If Beasts put into the Pound die it is at the loss of the Owner, though he hath tendred sufficient mends: for he might have a Replevin, Doffor and Student, fol. 8. 113.

I may impound a dead thing where I please, but if that corrupt by my default, I shall answer for it, 9 Ed.4. fol.2.

Fitzh. 102.L. If the Lord do distrain where is no Rent nor Service behind, the Tenant cannot make Rescous.

9 Ed.3. fol.35. If a man distrain wrongfully, the owner of the Beasts may make Rescous; but by 4 Ed.6. it was agreed, if he distrain and impound them, the owner cannot take them out, for they are in custody of the Law, 5 Ed.4. by Danby the same.

2 H.4. fol. 18. If a man distrain my Beasts, which escape into his Land out of the great Waste, I may Rescue them; but if I keep them, or put them there; or, by Hankford, if I have notice that they use to go there, this is no escape, and there I ought not to make Rescous, See 7 H.7. Tit. 1.

2 H.4. fol.24. In Rescous, nothing behind, and also that he was never seised, are good Pleas: Quere.

5 Ed.4 fol. 7. Seisin is not traversable in Rescous by Opinion there, 6 Ed.4. fol. 12. the same. 8 H.4. fol. 1. 21 H.4. fol. 40. By the Court, where the Lord comes to distrain, and sees the Beasts, and the Tenant perceiving that, chafeth the Distress out of his Fee, the Lord shall not have a Writ of Rescous; for he hath no possession of the Beasts, but he may follow them, and distrain them; but if they were chased out of his Fee before the Lord see them, there he cannot distrain them, 44 Ed.3. fol. 20. the same, Fitzh. N.B. 102. G.

33 H.6. fol. 58. A man attacheth a Horse in a Corporate Town, and there he is rescued and chased into another County, upon fresh Suit the Officer may take them again.

6 Ed.4. fol. 12. By Yelverton, In Rescous nothing behind is no plea: for if the Lord distrain where no Service is behind, the Tenant is at no mischief, for the Tenant may have a Replevin, and in this Writ recover his damages.

Fitzh. 101. Rescous lyeth where a man distrains for Rent, or for Services, or Damage doing, and those would impound, and another rescues them, and if a Collector, or Sub-Collector distrain for a fifteenth, or a Bayliff, or a Sheriff or other Officer distrain for the King, and rescous is made, they shall have a rescous, and not the King: but if a Bayliff of a Liberty distrain for the King, and rescous is made, the Lord of the Liberty shall have Rescous: and if a Bayliff or Officer of a common person distrain, Rescous is made, he which causeth the Distress to be made shall have Rescous.

39 H.6. fol. 42. Re-disseisin to Coroners, and one alone maketh a Precept, Rescous upon that is justifiable.

Assaults and Frayes.

For that, that Assaults and Frayes are inquirable, let us see which are punishable in a Leet, and what not.

A Assaults are not inquirable and punishable by presentment in Leet, but blood-shed is, 8 Ed.4. f. 5. By Fairfax, Leet hath no power to enquire, but of those those which make common annoyance at the Common Law; as of Affrayes and Blood-shed, but not if one hath broken my Close, or if one hath beaten me, but if any Affray were, so that the Kings people were disturbed, for that is more then particular, 1 R.3.f.1.

If one come to make a Booth, and doth it not, and yet one maketh a Fray upon him, and upon him draw blood with his Sword or Dagger, it is punishable by Presentment in Leet, 11 H.6. fol. 29.

If one assault to beat you, and you fly, and he inclose you, or if you be at Hedg or Ditch, and then you beat him, and wound him, this is not punishable in a Leet, 34 H.6. fol. 8. and 33 H.6. fol. 20.

If J.S. makes an Assault upon a Stranger, and J.D. draws his Sword, and bears and wounds J.S. in defence of the stranger, this is punishable by a Presentment in a Leet. But if a Servant beat and wound one which maketh an assault upon his Master, in defence of his Master, he is not punishable by Presentment in Leet, 12 H.3. fol. 5. and 9 Ed.4. fol. 51.

If one lay his hands unlawfully upon any, unless that he arrest him, or part two that fight, he is a Trespassor, but that is not punishable by Presentment in Leet, 9 Ed.3.4.

If one beat one in defence of his goods, this is not punishable in a Presentment in Leet; Book of Entries, fol. 53. and 19 H.6. fol. 21.

Trespas of Assaults and Frayes.

Trespas by a Chaplain of Graces-Inn, the Defendant pleads of his own Assault, and it was held; if he upon whom the Assault is made, can escape with his life, it is not lawful for him to beat the other which made the Assault; but it is held, that I ought not to stay till the other hath given me a blow, for peradventure he cometh too short, 2 H.4. f. 9. 10 Ed.4. fol. 7. Trespas of Grass trod, and threatning of life and member, a man cannot justify the menace of death, and for that, to that he pleads not guilty, 21 H.6. sit. 26. the same.

33 H.6. f. 20. Trespas of threatning by Prisoner; I cannot threaten one of Life and Member, but if he upon whom the Assault is made flie, and the other followeth him so near that he cannot escape, or hath him under him upon the Ground, or hath chased him to a Wall, Hedge, Water or Ditch, there it is lawful for him to say, If you will not depart, that he to save his life, will kill him.

3 H.4. fol.3. Trespas of Assault, Imprisonment and Battery; Defendant pleads to Battery; Not Guilty, and to the Assault, that the Plaintiff came to such a River, where the Defendant had a Mill, and would have stopp'd the River; and the Defendant took him by the arm, without that, that he made other Assault, and to the Imprisonment: the Defendant pleads, That the plaintiff assaulted him, and would have beat him, by which he prayeth the Constable to arrest him, and he came in aid of him: Judgment, if Action, and good.

22 H.6. fol. 48. Trespas of a Servant beaten, and Entry into his house, Year 7 H.6. Defendant saith, That Year 8 H.6. he served a Subpoena upon the Plaintiff, and that the Plaintiff and the Servant took him, and carried him to his house, and there detained him half a day, which is the same Trespas, and to any Trespas before Not guilty, to the Battery of his Servant, which was of his Assault at another day, and to any assault before not guilty.

Bracton saith, He is not worthy of Peace, which will not keep it. Stamford, fol.30.A.

40 Ed.3. fol.40. Trespas of Assault and Battery, and found the Assault only, and Plaintiff recover, but shall not have Action of Assault only, 42 E.3. fol.7 the same and see 12 Affise 60.

19 Ed.4. fol.30. Trespas of Battery; it was held, That if a man will take my Goods, I may lay my hands upon him, and rather beat him then suffer him to carry them away, 26 H.6. fol. 33 the same, That he may beat one in defence of his Goods.

19 Ed. 4. fol. 189. Trespas of Battery, a man may justifie the beating of another in his defence; but by Catesby a man cannot beat another in defence of his Son; but a Servant may bear one in defence of his Master or Mistris, 21 H.7. fol.39. the same.

Mortmain.

Mortmain is inquirable in a Leet, for that it is for the benefit of the King, and in the Kings Court: What is Mortmain within the Statute: and what not.

WHere one Abbot aliens to another Abbot, or Bishop to another Bishop and his Successor, it is Mortmain, Fitzh. fol. 222. D. 16 Affise 1.

Where Land is devised to one, to pay twelve pound to find two Chaplains for ever to sing in the Church of St. Albanes in Woodstreet for ever, if it be behind, that the Chaplain may distrain, that is Mortmain: See 32 Ed. 3. 10. and 40 Affise 29.

J.S. deviseth certain Land to his Executors, that they should provide a fit Chaplain in the Church of D. to celebrate for ever: which Chaplain shall receive yearly out of the aforesaid Lands six Marks, that is no Mortmain, for nothing is devised to the Chaplain, 4 Affise 27. 43 Affise 27.

Four Acres were devised to one in Fee, so that he and his heirs should pay yearly six pound for the maintaining of one Chaplain to celebrate yearly for ever in the Church of St. Leonards in Eastcheap, and that the Rector for the time may levy it for ever, that is Mortmain, 43 Affise, 33.

J.S. deviseth Land and two shillings Rent, for the maintaining of a Chaplain in the Church of D. yearly to celebrate: and I will, That my Executors should ordain the aforesaid Chaplain, and the Executors do nothing, therefore no Mortmain, 43 Affise 34.

If a Villain of a Bishop purchase Lands in Fee, and the Bishop enter without License, it is Mortmain, 41 of Affises, 4 Fitzh. 224. B. 41 Ed. 3. fol. 16.

If a Peoffment be made to the use of a Bishop and his Successors, it is within the Statute, De religiosis. and so it is where he takes profits, 8 Ed. 4. f. 18.

A Bishop cannot appropriate an Advowson of which he he is seised in Fee without the Kings License, and if he doth, it is Mortmain, Fitzb. 223. H. see 21 Ed. 3. fol. 3. seemeth contrary.

If one let to a religious man for a hundred years, and so from a hundred to a hundred, during eight hundred years, this is Mortmain; but it seems that a lease to a Religious man for eighty years, or for a hundred years is no Mortmain; but in the first case, it is by colour of a Term and Mortmain, 29 H. 8. Mortmain 39.

Lease for eighty years to a Abbot, by Martin's mortmain, Quere 4 H. 6. f. 9.

The Tenant lets for life to J.S. the remainder to a Religious man and his Successors, the Lord need not so make claim till the Tenant for life be dead: for if he in remainder will waive, this is no Mortmain: for if the Tenant will make a Feoffment in Fee to the use of A. for life, and after to the use of a religious man and his Successors, that is not Mortmain, till the Tenant for life in use dieth, and he in remainder takes the profits, 29 H. 8. Mortmain 37. Lord and Tenant.

Where one gives in Mortmain, he ought to have License of the King to do it and of the chief Lord: otherwise they may enter for mortmain, and before the License there ought to issue out a Writ of (Ad quod damnum) to the King, but tis used to omit that, and to have the license without any Writ of (Ad quod damnum) Fitzb. 221. R.

Where an Abbot holds of J.S. by five shillings, and J.S. releaseth to the Abbot, this shall go by extinguishment, and for that it is no Mortmain, 22 Ed. 3. fol. 22.

47 Ed. 3. fol. 10. If Alienation in Mortmain be, and the Alliance is disseised, and the Disseisor died seised, his Heir is in by discent, yet the Lord may enter within the year: for he hath but a title of entry, and cannot have an Action: but contrary of him which hath a right of Entry, and may have an action.

29 Ed. 3. fol. 38. Lord and Tenant, the Signiory is granted to A. in Tail, the remainder to B. in Tail, the Tenant alien in Mortmain, the first Tenant in Tail, cannot enter within the year: and after the second Tenant in Tail dye without Issue, and B. in remainder der enter within half a year, and held that he could not: for the Tenant in Tail, and he in remainder have but one Signiory, and are but one Lord, and both shall have but one year by the Statute.

Fitzb. 223. E. If a man will exchange Land with an Abbot or other body corporate, that is Mortmain, and he ought to have a License.

Fitzb. 222. If an Abbot give Lands to another Abbot or a Corporation, it is Mortmain and ought to have a License, and (Ad quod Damnum) shall be sued: And see the (Ad quod Damnum) 221 R.

48. Ed. 3. fol. 29. Abbot purchase Lands with warranty by License, and is impleaded and voucht, &c. and Judgement is given against the Abbot, and he recovers over in value, it is not mortmain for the Lands recovered in value, and he ought not to have license of the Lands recovered in value, for the first License serves in that. See 45 Ed. 3. fol. 18. Where an Abbot recovers in value.

9 H. 6. fol. 9. If an Abbot have Rent out of my Land, and I grant to him, that he may distrain for the same rent in other Land, this is no Mortmain, for he hath nothing but ancient Rent; and for that it is no Mortmain.

3 Ed. 4. fol. 14. By Jacron, the Statute de religiosis, holds place of Common and Rent Charge, which is no Land nor Tenement; and yet the words of the Statute are, Lands and Tenements.

25 H. 8. vii. 37. Lord and Tenant, the Tenant lets for life to J. S. the Remainder to an Abbot and his Successors: the Lord need not to make claim till the Tenant for life be dead; for if he waive the remainder, it is no Mortmain: and held, That the Appropriation of an Advowson without License, is Mortmain.

Fitzb. 211. The King may give License to his Tenant to alien in Mortmain: for he may dispense with the Statute, but a common person cannot, but the King and the Mesne Lords may give License to a Tenant to alien in Mortmain: for the Statute was made for the advantage of the Lords, and they may dispense with it.

Treasure Trove.

Treasure hid in the ground, and found, belongeth to the King: and if it be found in the Sea, it is to the finder, Britton, fol. 26.

He to whom the property is, shall have Treasure found, because it belongeth not to the King, unless when no man knoweth who hid the Treasure, Statham, Tit. Coron. and 22 H. 6. Cap. 446.

Punishment of taking Treasure found, is not of life and member, but shall be imprisonment and Fine, Statham, Tit. Coron. and 22 E. 3. Coron. 265.

Treasure found, belongeth to the Lord the King, and not to the Lord of the Liberty, unless by special words in the Deed of the Liberty contained, or by Prescription, Statham, Tit. Coron. and 8 Ed. 2 Coron. 436.

Treasure found, is a certain old hiding Moneys, or other Mettals, of which there appeareth no memory, so that now it hath no Owner: therefore all such Treasure is no mans proper goods, and by the old Law it was the finders: but now by the Law of the People it is made the Kings, Stamford, fol. 39.

Eftrey.

VHere the Lord hath by a year and a day a Beast, and it be cryed in the Church, and in the Market, the property is changed, 39 Ed. 3. fol. 3.

A man cannot intitle him to an Eftrey, till the year and the day be past: for he to whom the property is, may take him within the year, but Statham seemed, he could not take it without his agreeing for his meat, 31 Ed. 3. Eftrey 4.

Detinue, Issue if sufficient was tendred for his meat before claim, or not, 44 Ed. 3. fol. 14.

Young Swans may be taken for a stray, and Proclamation made in Fairs and Markets, 7 H. 6. fol. 29.

If

If the Owner do not come within a year and a day, and be proclaimed in Markets and Parish-Churches, then the property remains to the Lord, Britton, fol. 26.

One justifies to have a Stray in his Mannor (according to the Custom used in the Kingdom of England) he proclaimed them in two Markets, scil. in D. and S. on the Market-Days, Brook, Estrey, 10.

If one have a Stray by three quarters of a year, and after that strays, and another happens it within his Mannor, the second shall not have it, for he hath no property until the year and day, and proclamation, 32 B.8. Estrey, 11.

If a man have a Waife or a Stray by prescription, and another takerh that out of his Mannor, he shall have Trespass, though he did not seize them before, Fitzh. fol. 91. B.

One cannot take the Kings Beasts for a Stray, though they were within the Mannor by two years, 39 Edw. 3. fol. 4.

If one hath taken a Stray, and doth not proclaim it, the Owner may take it again, though he comes to claim it after a year and a day, Britton, fol. 26.

Book of Entries. One which justifies for a Stray, shall make prescription, that is to say, That according to the Custom in the Kingdom of England used, he proclaimed them in two Market-Towns, scil. in D. and R. and so it seemeth, that an Estrey shall be proclaimed in the two next Market-Towns upon Market-days, and yet it seemeth, that Strays shall be proclaimed once in the Church, and twice in the Markets.

Waif.

Where Goods waived are seized by an Officer, the party shall not have them again without fresh Suit, and for an Appeal, and now upon an Indictment give that in Evidence.

By fresh Suit, the first Owner shall re-have his goods which were stolen and waived, if he make fresh Suit, and bring an Appeal, 21 Ed. 4. tit. 16.

Trespafs, the Lord justifies, for that they were stoln and waived; the Plaintiff may say, That they were not stoln, or they were not waived, 12 Ed. 3. fol. 5.

Goods waived, the Owner may seise them twenty years after, if the Lord of the Franchise, nor the King seise before; but if they are seised, yet if he bring an Appeal, and make a fresh Suit, he shall have them again, 21 Ed. 4. tit. 16.

Detinue, the Defendant as Lord justifies, That he took those as Waife; and good, 10 H. 6. fol. 22.

If one have a Waife, and it be taken out of his Mannor, he shall have Trespafs without seising; and though he do not seise them, Fitzh. fol. 91.

Waifes and straies not claimed within the year and day, are the Lords; Britton, fol. 26.

Where goods are waived, and the Lord seises them, the property is changed, that the Owner shall not have them without suing an Appeal, notwithstanding by the 21 of H. 8. cap. 11. Rastall, Restitution, 2.

If he give Evidence to the Jury upon the Indictment, he shall have Restitution, Brook, Essey, 8.

If a man be robbed, and make fresh Suit, he shall be restored, notwithstanding that he which hath waived, hath seised them before, 7 H. 4. 44.

If he make fresh Suit after the Felony, he shall have his Goods again, notwithstanding that they were waived and seised; and there ought to be an appeal sued, and so to have them when they are seised, Stamford, fol. 186. A.

Authority of the Steward.

Then let us see the Authority of the Steward; and also of the Court-Leet.

THe Steward may make his Precept by word to the Bayliff to distrain; and it is good, 16 H.7. fol. 14.

If a man refuse to be sworn of the Jury, he shall be fined, and the Steward of the Lord may commit him to Prison till he have paid his Fine or Amerce, or distrain him for that, 31 H.6. Lit. 11. Quere of committing a Tenant to Prison; for in Magna Charta, chap. 29. is, No man shall be taken, &c.

The Steward may cause a stranger which cometh within the Precinct of the Leet, to be sworn to inquire in the Leet where he hath not sufficient residence, and the Lord may sell the distress taken in that, for that it is the Kings Court, 3 H.7. fol. 4. 11 H.7. 14. the same, and 21 H.7. fol. 40.

The Steward is Judge in the Court-Leet, and in the Court-Baron the Suitors, unless all the Suitors be Copyholders; and then I intend they are no Judges, but the Steward, for that they have but a base Estate, and the Freehold is in the Lord, 12 H.7. fol. 17. 6 Ed. 4.

Note, That where a false Judgment is sued, the Suitors are called Judges to certify, &c. but yet the Steward ought to be skilled in the Law; and of matters in Law, it seemeth he shall give Judgment, and not Suitors, for actions and matters in Law, and yet it is before the Suitors; and though ignorant persons in Law rule in Court-Baron, and Liberties, that ought to be by them skilled in Law; and when there is a Liberty and Court granted to a Mayor, that is held by their Recorder or Steward which is intended to be skilful in the Law; otherwise, it seemeth a cause to re-seise it, so that an ignorant person ought not to meddle in matters touching the Law.

The Steward may send a Prisoner taken for Felony to the Goal, 13 H. 4. fol. 12.

The Steward is Judge of Record, and may assess a Fine for contempt made in a Leet, and the Lord shall have Debt for that, 7 H.6. fol. 13. 10 H.6. fol. 7.

Leets are appointed for the Common-wealth, as for preservation of the Peace, and for that they are Courts of Record, Fitz. fol. 82. in the beginning.

It is said, That a Leet is a Court of Record 21 H. 7. fol. 33.

Tenants in a Leet may make By-Laws, 11 H.7. fol. 14. and 21 H.7. fol. 40.

The Seneschal of the Leet may compell the Sui-tors to swear: but otherwise it is in a Hundred, 39 Ed. 3. and 44 Ed. 3. 15. Leet, 6.

Where one hath a Leet, he hath but the Amercements, and the day is to the Kings, and for that the Steward represents the person of the King, 41 Ed. 3. fol. 27.

Suit at the Leet is called Suit-real, for that that is the Kings Court, 45 Ed. 3. fol. 23.

If the Steward of the Leet command the Bayliff to impannel a Jury to inquire for the King, upon pain of forty pounds, and he refuse to do it, he may put upon him the pain of forty pounds, and at the second time fifty pounds, or more. And note, That upon all pains the Lord may have an Action of Debt, 7 H.6. fol. 13.

23 H. 8. Tit. 34. Debt lyeth for pain, for not amending an Annoyance, by Usage, Distress.

If the Jury will not present the Defaults in a Leet, of which they are informed, the Steward may assise a Fine upon them, 10 Ed. 4. fol. 4.

If any Suior, present in Court, refuse to be of the Jury, or if any make another such contempt, or any contempt, or disobedience in Court-Leet, the Steward may set a Fine upon him without affirming by Affirors: but when one is amerced, that shall be affirmed by Affirors, 10 H.6. fol. 7.

When the Steward sets a Fine upon a Suior, in Court-Leet, or other person for his misdemeanor, this is called a Fine, and not an Amercement, and is not traversable, 7 H.6. fol. 13.

Judge of Record.

For that the Steward is a Judge of Record in Leet, it is expedient to see what a Judge of Record, and one by him may do: And what not.

IT seemeth, That a Justice of Peace ought not to make a Precept to arrest one for Felony: but if he do (for that he is a Judge of Record) the Bayliff that serves that, is excused: for he cannot argue his Authority: no more may the Sheriff argue the Authority of the Justices, 14 H. 8. fol. 18.

9 Ed. 4. fol. 3. A Justice of Peace may arrest a man for surety of the Peace by his discretion: and though he suffer him without a surety, the party shall not punish him, for that he is a Judge of Record.

9 H. 6. fol. 60. Action of the Case doth not ly against a Justice of Record, supposing he hath made a false Record, or that he hath caused false Entry to be made: contrary, against an Officer, as against an Escheator for returning a false Office: or against the Sheriff, for they are Officers of Record, and not Judges.

12 H. 4. fol. 3. If a Judge of Record award one to Prison without cause, he shall have no Action against him: yet a Judge of Record as a Justice of Peace, hath been punished in the Star-Chamber for misdemeanor, and so may the Steward of a Leet, and so such a Judge of Record, for not regarding his Oath, as Mayors, Bayliffs, &c.

21 H. 7. fol. 22. If a Capias issue out of a Court of Record to the Sheriff where is no Original, yet this excuseth the Sheriff: but if the Servant of the Sheriff arrest one by Process made out of a Capias, and return his Process, and the Sheriff do not return his Capias, false Imprisonment lies against the Servant, Fitzh. 21. B. one cannot assign Error, that the Jurors gave Verdict for the Defendant, and Judges enter that for the Plaintiff.

Now let us see what Presentment in Leet is traversable, and what not. And it seemeth, where it concerneth a Freehold, is traversable, and otherwise not.

Presentment in Leet by four, and not by twelve, that one hath dwelt within the Leet nor sworn, &c. it was traversed; but it seems if it were by twelve it shall not be traversed, but shall have recovery by Writ of false Presentment, 5 Ed. 3. 26.

A thing presented in Leet, is as Evangelist, if it pass the day in which it is presented, but the same day you may have an Action of false Presentment against the Jurors, and after without recovery, 21 Ed. 3. tit. Bar. 271.

Presentment in Leet which toucheth Freehold, is traversable, and other presentments not, 19 H. 8. fol. 11. and 41 Ed. 3. fol. 27. the same.

Presentment in Leet which toucheth a Freehold, may be removed and traversed, and every presentment before Justices of Peace is traversable, 5 H. 7. fol. 3, and 6 H. 7. fol. 2, the same.

Presentment of blood-spilt, is not traversable, for that doth not touch Freehold, 2 R. 3. 12.

If the Presentment be not in a Leet of things there presentable, afterwards they shall be presented, as it followeth.

IF Presentment be not in Leet of things presentable there, then they shall be inquired and presented in Turn, and if not there, then in the Kings Bench, 41 Ed. 3. fol. 27.

If things presentable, are not presented in Leet, they shall be presented in Turn; and if not there, before the Justices in Eyre; and if not there, in the Kings Bench, 10 H. 4. fol. 4.

Then

Then let us see, What remedy the Lord shall have for Amerciaments in Leet, and what recovery for a Fine, and what upon Pain or By Law, and it seems, that for Amerciaments, he may distrain; and for a Fine, a distress: and By-Law broken, shall have a Debt or Distress.

Amerciaments.

FOR Suits real he cannot distrain, but amerce; and by prescription distrain; and this is now in use in every Mannor: and for Suit-service, distrain without doubt, 12 H.7. 15.

One may prescribe to distrain for Amerciament in Law-day, for it is incident, 9 H.7.22.

He may in Leet amerce and distrain for that, 8. H. 4. tit. 15.

A man may in Leet amerce for annoyance, and distrain for it, 19 Ed.3. fol.36.

One was amerced in Leet for stopping in the Highway, and his Horse in anothers keeping was distrained for it, 47 Ed.3. 12.

The Lord may sell the Distress taken for an Amerciament in Leet, as the King may sell the Distress, for that it is the Kings Court, 3 H.7. fol.4.

If Amerciament in Leet be agreed, the Lord may distrain without notice, by Finch; and by Wich, it is a good plea, That the Tenant would have paid, if he had had notice, 45 Ed.3. fol.9.

The Lord cannot distrain for Amerciament in Leet, in a place selsed into the Kings hands, for Debt to the King, for this is priviledged during the time, 47 Ed. 3. fol.12.

Of common right the Lord may distrain for Amerciament in Leet; and for that, need not to prescribe, 10 H.7. fol. 15.

The Lord may distrain for amerciament for annoyance in the Highway, or for making Hedges cross the streets, and avow for that, 4 Ed.3. 10. Avowry, 161.

The Lord may not distrain the Horse of another

Inne of him amerced, nor the Garment of another in a Taylors Shop, where the Taylor is amerced, 10 H.7. fol.21.

If one refuse to be sworn, or make any other contempt in Court, the Steward may assesse a Fine upon him, and the Lord may distrain for that, 13 H.6. Leet 11.

For a Fine assessed by the Steward for a contempt in the Court, the Lord may have debt, 10 H.6. fol.7. and 7 H.6. f.1.13.

If a pain of ten pound presented in the Leet to be broken, the pain shall not be otherwise ascertained, and the Lord for that shall have an action of Debt, but he cannot distrain and make Avowry but by prescription: but it is now used in every Mannor to distrain, as I think, 32 H.8. tit.37.

The Lord may have Debt for Amerciament assesse in Court-Baron, 12 R.2. Statham fol.62.

It seems the Lord shall have Debt for relief, and clearly the Executors shall have Debt for Relief, 32 H.8.20. 19 H.6.

Moderata Misericordia, doth not lye where a Fine is assessed by the Steward for contempt in Court, nor where Amerciament is assferred: but where Amerciament is not assferred, that lyeth if it be too high, Fitzherb. fol.92.C.

If one be amerced in the Sheriff's Turn, the Sheriff may distrain throughout all the County: and if it be in a Leet, throughout all the Precinct of the Leet 8 R.2. Avowry, 194.

The Lord may distrain in the high street for Amerciaments in a Leet, 34 B.1.2. and 19 Ed.2. Avowry, 221.

Debt lyeth for the Lord for a Fine assesse in Leet, by the Steward, for not returning the Pannels; or for other contempt: and it is good without confirming, 7 H.6. fol.13. tit.233.

For Amerciament in Leet, it seems one may take goods of another in the keeping of him which is amerced: Yet see Low Issue was taken, that it was not the Horse of Friser Tindal which was amerced which was taken, 47 Ed.3. fol.12.

For not cleansing of a Ditch by the Predecessor of a Parson

Parson, Successor shall not be punished for that offence: the same Law of Father and Son, 5 H. 7. fol. 3.

Distress.

Where one may distrain, and what thing.

One lifted a Mill-stone off the stock, to be picked on the floor, it is not so severed, but that it is parcel of the Mill, and cannot be distrained, and so it is of Windows and Doors, 14 H. 8. fol. 29.

10 H. 7. fol. 22. You cannot distrain the Garment of another man in a Taylor's shop, 21 Ed. 4. fol. 49. the same.

9 H. 6 fol. 9. The Lord cannot distrain for his Rent, but in Lands held of him: but the King may.

8 R. 2. tit. Avowry 192. If one be amerced in Leet the Lord may distrain in any place within the Precinct of the Leet, and in the Turn of the Sheriff in any place within the County.

34 H. 8. tit. 253. During the possession of the King, the Seignjory of another is suspended touching the Distress.

5 H. 7. fol. 15. If one be amerced in a Leet, and another takes his Leather from him, and makes of that Boots and Shooes: yet these Boots and Shooes may be distrained for this Amerciament within the Precinct of the Leet.

21 H. 7. fol. 13. The Lessor cannot distrain Fats fixt by his Lessee for a dying Pan: and though the Lessee may remove them during his Term.

21 H. 7. fol. 26. Glafs fixt by the Termor the Lessor cannot distrain for his Rent, as it seemeth, and the Lord cannot distrain Tables dormant in the house of his Tenant, nor a thing which cannot be attached in an Assess.

21 H. 7. fol. 41. The Lord cannot distrain Stocks of Corn for his Rent, but doing damage he may.

27 Affisa 66. One cannot distrain in a Sanctuary, if it be not for Issues for the King.

6 H.4. fol. 11. One may arrest the Vicar in the Church by a Capias, notwithstanding the Statute, 1 R. 2. for that is intended he shall not Arrest him saying Divine Service.

13 H.4. fol. 42. If one profer sufficient amends for wrongs which they have done, one cannot distrain and avow that.

Marlebridge, Chap. 2. That no Lord may distrain out of his Fee.

Marlebridge, Chap. 1. None shall make distress at his own will, without considerations of the Kings Court.

Marlebridge, chap. 15. It is not lawful for any to make Distress out of their Fee; nor in the Kings way, or in the common street, but for our Lord the King, and for his Ministers, having special Authority from him.

In what place a Leet shall be kept, and at what time.

A Leet by the Statute shall be held but twice in a year, that is, in the Month of Michaelmas, and in the Month of Easter, by the intent of the Statute of Mag. Chart. Cap. 35.

Presentment in Leet held four dayes after the Month is void, 6 H.7. fol. 1. and 38. H.7. the same.

One may prescribe to hold a Leet at a day certain though it be not within the Month, and good, for it seems that Magna Charta is but common Law; otherwise he cannot prescribe against a Statute, unless he have another Statute for the same, and if he hold that any other day, it is void that is done in a Leet, 33 H.6. fol. 7.

By Bryan, Leet shall be held in any place within the Precinct of the Lordship, where it pleaseth the Lord, for it is the Court of the King, as the Kings Bench wheresoever it is, &c. 8 H.7. 4.

Twelve shall be of the Jury in a Leet, otherwise, the Presentments there are all traverfable.

Rastall, Indict.

There shall be at least twelve in a Turn, and Turn and Leets are all one, Westminst. 2. chap.

Every

Every Indictment and Presentment in Leet shall be by twelve men at least, 6 H. 4. fol. 1.

Presentment that one hath dwelt within view of Frankpledge, by a year and a day not sworn, &c. If it be not by twelve, it is traversable; and if it be by twelve, it is not traversable, 45 Ed. 3. fol. 26.

If there be not twelve to be sworn, the Steward may cause strangers to be of the Enquest, 2 H. 7. fol. 4.

By-Laws.

For that, that By-Laws are made many times in Leets, something shall be said of By-Laws: and I intend that By-Laws which are for the Common-wealth, shall bind all, and other By-Laws shall bind but those that assent.

VV Here a By-Law is for a Common-wealth, it is good to bind all, though all do not agree, as to make a Causeway, Way, or Bridge; but By-Law to repair a Church, is a Charge, for that it shall not bind but those that assent, 44 Ed. 3. fol. 19.

It is said, that Tenants in a Leet may make By-Laws, for that it is the Kings Court, which shall bind them by their assents: and a Town may make By-Laws by prescription, and that shall bind them, but not a stranger; as By-Law, that every one which puts in his Beasts into the Common before, &c. shall pay 10 s: this shall bind them which assent, but not a stranger, 13 H. 8. Leet 37. 11 H. 7. 14. and 21 H. 7. 40. the same.

If a Town be amerced, and Neighbours assess a sum of every Inhabitant, and agree to have J. S. to distrain for it, the distress is lawful, Doctor and Student, fol. 74.

Where the greatest part of a Town agree to a By-Law, which was charged, that then it is good against them all, 8 Ed. 1. Affse 413.

By-Law, that every one which holds Land, shall pay to the reparations of the Church, one penny, and for not paying, shall forfeit to the Lord twenty pence, it is not good, for the Lord hath no damage, but the Church-wardens, and for that it shall be forfeit to the Wardens, &c. but where a By-Law is for a Common.

doing, shall be Forfeiture to the Lord, and this is good, 21 H.7. fol. 20.

One cannot prescribe to make Laws to after Inheritances, 49 Affise 8.

INMATES.

Though it be not specified in our Law, who are Inmates, and who not, nor any Remedy provided against them; but only which have been used to avoid them by By-Laws made in Leets: yet it is not impertinent to see who have been taken in Law an Inmate, and who not.

IF one let part of his house in which he dwells, to a Gentleman which keeps not his Table there, but goeth to victualling houses for his victuals; but yet hath certain rooms in the house, that is no Inmate; Also if one keep his daughter married, and her husband by Covenant, or otherwise, and suffer them to have certain rooms in his house, these were not accounted Inmates, and these shall not have Common.

But if a man have a house, and let certain rooms of that to another to dwell with him, he hath been accounted an Inmate, unless he be of ability to live, and shall not have Common in the Lords Waste of Fields: But if one take one to Table, or to sojourn with him in his house, and let him certain rooms: he is not accounted an Inmate, and he shall not have Common.

Also, if the Inheritor of a house, let a certain parcel of his house in which he dwells, and severeth that from the other part, and make several doors to the high Street, it is now as two houses, and is not accounted as an Inmate, but he shall have no Common: otherwise it is, if they have but one door to the high Street; for then it is accounted an Inmate, unless he be a sufficient person to live of his Lands of himself, or by his Art or Trade, so that he be not a poor Labourer: but at this day some take Inmates more strictly: and, in times past, none were punished in Leets by pains ordained in Leet, but idle and bribing persons, which were common breakers of Hedges and other Bribers, which live in others houses idly, or live suspect.

And if any of them make resistance with force and multitude of Offenders, you shall make Out-cry, and pursue them till they are taken. And you shall look to such persons as use unlawful Games. So help you God.

Constables.

CONSTABLES.

And for that, that the Constable is here chosen and sworn, it is inquirable here, if he do his Office; and for that let us see what Authority a Constable hath, and what he ought to do.

AT the Common-Law, before the making of the Statutes by which Justices of the Peace were ordained to keep the Peace;

The chief Justice of England was appointed by the King, and he hath Authority, and he was ordained to determine matters touching the Crown, and for conservation of the Peace throughout the Realm; and he for that is the chief Justice of the Peace.

Also by the Common-Law, before there was any Justice of the Peace, Constables of every Town were Keepers of the Peace within their Towns.

If any be threatned, upon Complaint to the Constable, he may enforce the party to put in a Surety, and if he do not, commit him to Prison till he hath found a Surety, 4 Ed. 3. Bar. 102.

If any be stricken, and in peril of death, the Constable ought to arrest the Offender, and to keep him in Prison till it be known if he will live or die, or till he have found Sureties to appear before the Justices at the Goal-Delivery.

If Felons or Murderers be in a Town, and the Constable hath notice of it, it is his Office and Duty to raise people to take them, 1 R. 3. chap. 3. And if any Felon be taken, it is the office of the Constable to take him, and carry him to the Goal. and to cause others of the Town to assist him in so doing.

Constables were ordained for two intents, that is, to keep the Peace, and also to apprehend Felons, and to take Surety by obligation of such persons that they find making Affrayes.

Constables may arrest men which go or ride armed between Fairs and Markets, and take their Armour as Forfeir to the King, 2 Ed. 3. cap. 3.

Constables ought to Arrest such which go by night, of whom whom there is suspicion, and deliver them to the Sheriff, there to remain in hold; and also all suspected persons, either, by day or by night, and to deliver them to the Sheriff, as above, by 5 Ed. 3. chap. 64. Rastal, Robberies 4

Constables have power to examin Vagabonds, and to compell them to find Surety for their good behaviour; and if they cannot find Sureties, to commit them to the next Goal, by 1 R. 1. chap. 5. Rastal, Vag. 5.

Constables may arrest a servant, labourer vagrant, unless he have a Letter containing the cause of his going, and the time of his return, under the Kings Seal; and may set him in the Stocks, till he have found Sureties to serve, by 12 R. 2. chap. 3.

Constables have power to commit every one using unlawful Games, and to keep them till the Offenders be bound in an Obligation to the use of the King, that he shall not use unlawful Games, by 5 H. 8. chap. 2. Rastal, Vag. 5. Rastal, Arch. 2.

Constables upon complaint, may arrest Boat-men, and Water-men, which take more than is appointed for them to take, and commit them to Ward for their misdemeanor, and to fine them for the same, by 6 H. 8. chap. 7. Rastal, Pass. 8.

Constables have power to commit Beggars to the Stocks which offend, by 22 H. 8. chap. 12. Rastal, Vag. 2.

Constables ought to convey Rogues taken within their Office, to the next Constable, that they might be conveyed to prison, upon pain of six shillings eight pence for every offence, by 14 Eliz. chap. 5. Rastal, Vag. 9.

Also if a Constable do not make search every Month for unlawful keeping of Games, and for unlawful playing, if occasion be, and present the same he shall forfeit forty shillings.

The Constable is the keeper of the Peace, that is to say, the high Constable for the Hundred, and the petty Constable in the Town, 12 H. 7. fol. 38.

Constable may Arrest one to find Surety of the Peace, and if he will not obey, he may take power to inforce him, and one may justifie that cometh in aid of the Constable, to arrest one that makes an assault, 3 H. 4. fol. 10.

Constable may Arrest one which makes an Assault, though it be of himself, 5 H. 7. fol. 6.

Constable was ordained to keep the Peace, and may take Surety for the Peace by bond of one; if he be found making a Fray, 10 Ed. 4. fol. 18.

Constable may arrest one which makes a Fray, and carry him to the next Goal, till he find Surety for the Peace, but not imprison him in his house, or put him in the Stocks, unless it be in the night, that he cannot carry him to the Goal for any other reasonable cause 22 Ed. 4. fol. 35. by Bryan.

Constable may search for suspicious persons, and may arrest Night-walkers, 2 Ed. 4. fol. 9.

Constable may search for suspicious ondy Houses where women of ill fame are, and may arrest suspected persons, which walk in the night, and sleep in the day, or keep suspicious company, and if he be not of power to arrest them, he may have aid of his Neighbours by the Law, 3 H. 7. fol. 10. that he may have aid, 13 H. 7. fol. 10. Title Recognizance 14. Brook.

Constable cannot take a Recognizance to keep the Peace, but an Obligation.

38 H. 8. tit. False Imprisonment 6. It is said, That one cannot arrest for a Fray after it is done, without a Warrant; but before it be done, or whilst it is a doing, he may.

7 H. fol. 6. Trespass of Imprisonment, the Defendant saith, That he was Constable, and for that the Plaintiff made an assault upon him, and broke the Peace, he took him, and carried him to the Goal, to preserve the Peace, 21 H. 4. fol. 21.

10 Ed. 4. fol. 20. Stocks are ordained properly to punish Vagrants, and Servants for wages. See 7 H. 4. chap. 17.

Britten, fol. 17. None shall be put in Irons, but those which are taken for Felony, or for Trespass in Parks or Chases.

West. 2. chap. 39. For resistance, where a process is to be executed, that Statute gives aid and power of the County against them which make resistance.

3 H. 7. fol. 1. It is held there, that the Constable may take the power of the County where there is a Fray, and specialty to take Felons.

For that it is the Office of a Constable to see that Watch be kept, let us see how a Watch may be.

The Watch ought to begin at the Feast of Ascension, and ought to be held till Michaelmas all the night, from the setting of the Sun to the rising, and in every City six shall be at every Gate, and in every Town they ought to watch twelve men, and in every Village six men, or four, according to the number of the Inhabitants of the Village; and if any Stranger be arrested in the Watch, he shall be kept until the Morning; and if they find suspicion in him, he shall be delivered to the Sheriff, and if no suspicion be in him, he shall go free, and if any will not obey the arrest, they ought not to raise Hue and Cry; and for arresting such a stranger, none shall be punished, 13 Ed. 1. chap. 3.

Every one may Arrest Night-walkers, which go by the way, for it is for the common profit, 4 H. 7. fol. 18. and 5 H. 7. fol. 75. the same.

First, after the Stile of the Court is entred, you shall make one Oyes, and then call the Suitor's; and after that, another O yes shall be made and then the Steward shall say,

If any will be Essoyned, or enter any Plaint, come you in, and you shall be heard.

And after your Essoyne entred, and your Plaint determined, then impannel your Jury, and Swear them.

And after the Enquest is impannelled and sworn, make another Oyes; and then you shall say, You good men which be impannelled, come near; and you and all other keep silence, during your Charge.

An Exhortation to the Jury.

YOU good men which are sworn, before that I enter to give to you the Charge, I intend to shew to you by what Authority you are assembled, and for what purpose.

First, you ought to consider, That there are three causes of your meeting.

1. One cause is, for that you be resident, and dwelling within the Precinct of the Leet here to be held, and for that you ought to appear.

2. The second cause is, For that some of you hold Land of the Lord of this Mannor, some as Freeholders, some as Copyholders, and by reason of some of your Tenures, you ought to make Suit to the Court-Baron of your Lord, from three weeks to three weeks, if this Court be so warned.

3. The third is, you may here learn the Laws, to know what thing to follow, and what to avoid; by which that which is good may be the better followed and ill things the better be avoided, being presented by you, and punished; and for that, that every one may live and enjoy that which he hath with quietness and the Common-wealth may flourish, and vertue abound: and then for that you may better enquire and present, I have ministred to you a corporal Oath, which I counsel you to consider, and the parts of that, which are three, that is to say, Truth, Judgment, and Justice.

Truth, That you shall present nothing but truly; and that you shall not omit any thing of the Truth not presented.

With Judgment. That you shall present all things with good advisement, and that you shall not be negligent to enquire out the truth in all matters to be presented.

With Justice, That you shall not for favour, nor for corruption of reward, nor for fear, nor for displeasure, nor for private hurt or profit which may come to your selves, nor for malice that you present any thing: And these three principal things you ought well to regard in your Oath. And

And at the last, note, That you run not into wilful perjury ; which if you do, you condemn your souls, and provoke the anger of God, and get punishment to your selves, and your posterities in this world, and you get to you the torments of the Divil and Hell, after this life for ever.

But if you keep well your Oath, you obtain by that, great profit and commodity ; for by that, wrong shall be redressed, peace and tranquillity shall be maintained, and right and publique good preserved, and you shall live in quiet, and hold your Goods, Lands, and Lives, in peace and quierness, and you shall be accounted after this Life, among the Saints of God, and shall have life eternal : And over that observe you, That I may by the Law charge another Jury immediately to inquire of your Concealments and Perjuries, and that you shall find by putting great Pines and Amerciaments upou you, and imprisoning your bodies. And to conclude, first, Now if you remember your duties to God, as I have said, that will move you to keep your Oaths, and the love that you owe to the Commonwealth, with consideration of your selves, wives, sons, and posterity, and the fear of God, and regard of honesty, and all these well considered, then you will present justly and truly, the things which I shall give to you in Charge : And I. make an end, and the Articles of your Charge follow

Then followeth the Charge in Court-Baron.

The Charge in Court-Baron.

First, you ought to inquire of all persons which owe Suit to this Court, and who make default ; and present their names : and you ought to note, That all such persons which hold any Land of the Lord by Suit of Court, in what place they dwell, and of what age he is, that should make Suit to the Court, or otherwise he ought to be amerced, and Amerciament is by Customs ; for by the Common-Law they shall be distrained, and that is called Suit service, and that is by reason of the Tenure ; and if any such person which oweth Suit to the Lord be in Ward to the King, nevertheless he may be amerced, for not making Suit to the Court of the Lord, but the Lord cannot di-strain

Coparceners.

And if there be two Coparceners, for which one Suit ought to be made, the eldest sister ought to make the Suit only, and the other shall be contributory, Fitz. 159. B.

Joynt-Tenants.

And so, it is of Joynt-Tenants, the Suit may be made by agreement by one, and the other shall be contributory; by Marib. chap. 9. but if one holds twenty Acres by Suit of Court, and alien that to twenty several persons, by the Statute of Quia emptores terrarum, every one shall make Suit severally.

Rastal, Suit 1.

2. Also if any Tenant be dead after the last Court, or before, and his death not presented, you ought to inquire what Lands he holds of this Mannor, and if they were held by Knights Service, Soccage, or by Copy; and what advantage the Lord shall have by his death, scil. Wardship, Marriage, Relief, Escheat, or other profits; and who is his next heir, and of what age, and in whose custody he is.

Ward. Relief.

3. Also, If any Tenant which holds by Knights Service, alien his Land by Collusion to defeat the Lord of his Ward, and other Profits; it is inquirable.

4. Also, If any Tenant which holds by Knights Service be disseised, and dyeth disseised; his heir within age, the Lord shall have him in Ward, and if any Tenant which holdeth by Knights Service, dye, his Heir-male within age of 21 years, the Lord shall have the Land in Ward, till the age of 21 years, and also his marriage, unless he be married, Litt. fol. 19.

5. If the Father which holds in Knight-Service marry his daughter within age, to a husband of full age, and dies, the Lord shall not have the Wardship of the Land; and if she were of full age, the Lord shall not have the Wardship of the Land; but if she were within age, and marry to a husband within age, the Lord shall have the Land in Ward, till the age of 14 years, Natura brevium, fol. 98.

But if such Tenant die, his Heir female being of the age of 14 years or more, and not married, she shall not be in Ward, nor her Land; but if she were within age of 14 years, and not married, she shall be in the Ward of body and Land till the age of 16 years; and if she were married in the life of her Father, within the age of 14 years, her Land shall be in Ward till the age of 14 years, and no more, Litt. fol. 19.

6. And you ought to note, that there is Knights Service of a common person, that is, where one holds of his Lord by Homage, Fealty, and Escuage; that is to say, when it is assailed to more, more; and when to less, less, Litt. fol. 19. And where one holdeth by keeping a Castle, or by blowing a Horn, that is Knights Service.

7. And Socage Tenure is, where one holds by Homage and Fealty, or by Fealty and Rent; or by Homage, Fealty, Rent, and by Suit of Court for all manner of Service, or in Burgage; and if such Tenant die, his issue within the age of 14 years; then the next friend of the Heir, to whom the Inheritance cannot descend, shall have the Ward of the Land, and of the heir till 14 years, and then give an account to the heir of the profits taken; but this Guardian shall have his reasonable allowance for his costs and expenses, Litt. fol. 22. See Natura brevium, fol. 97.

8. Relief of Socage is as much as the chief Rent is by the year, which he pays to his Lord; and this is due forthwith after the death of his Tenant in Socage, so that the Heir be past his age of 14 years, Littleton, fol. 24.

9. And if Land be held by Knight Service, and his Tenant dies, his heir of full age, the Relief is due to the Lord; and if he hold by an intire Fee of a Knight, the Relief is one hundred shillings; and if he hold by the half of a Fee, fifty shillings; and so according to the rate, Litt. fol. 21. And all these profits are inquirable.

10. And if any Rent, Custom, or Service be withdrawn, which ought of right to be made, by whom it is withdrawn; and what Custom and Service it is, and what Bayliffs time it was withdrawn, and where the Land is, that the Lord may distrain for the Arrears; and what Rent that is, and how many years it hath been withdrawn.

*Lands
led.*

11. Also if any Land of the Lord be withdrawn, or used by any without License of the Lord, by whom it is, and how much Land hath been so used, and of what value by the year that is, is inquirable.

Villain.

12. Also if any Villain of the Lord be, and what Goods, Chattels, and Lands he hath, what estate he hath in them, that the Lord may seise them, and what other things he hath: And if any Villain withdraw his Goods out of the Lordship, without License of the Lord; or if a free man marry a Villain Woman, without license of the Lord, it is inquirable.

Note, if a Villain purchase Lands, and do not alien them before the Lord enter into them, the Lord shall have them: Otherwise it is, if the Villain alien them before the entry of the Lord; the same Law is of Goods, Lit. fol. 33. but the Lord cannot seise the Goods which a Villain hath as Executor, Lit. fol. 35.

If a Villain be made a Chaplain Secular, the Lord may seise him as his Villain, and his Goods; but otherwise it is, if he enters in Religion: Or if a Free man espouse a Villain Woman, without the License of the Lord, or by that, this is inquirable.

If a Villain dwell in ancient Demesne of the King, which is in the Kings hands, and hath dwelt there by a year and a day, the Lord cannot seise him; nor shall have a Writ of Nativo habendo; so long as he dwelleth there: But if the Lord claim him within the year, that he cometh into ancient Demesne, and so makes his claim within every year and a day, then the Villain shall not take advantage by his being there and if the Villain dwell in another Mannor of ancient Demesne, which is in possession of another then the King, the Lord may seise him, Fitz. fol. 79. A. and from thence-going, that the Lord may make his claim, if he go in ancient Demesne, is inquirable.

Escheat.

Also if any of the Tenants of the Lord be dead without Heir general or special, then the Lord shall have his Lands by Escheat: or if any Tenant seised in Fee, be attaint of Felony, by Out-lawry, Verdict, or otherwise, the King shall have (year, day and waste) and after the Lord by Escheat, and is inquirable. Or if a Bastard purchase Land, and die without issue of his

His Body, the Lord shall have his Land by Escheat: and note, That none shall have Lands of Fee-simple, as heir to any man, unless he be heir of the whole blood, Littleton fol. 2. and if the Tenant be disseised and dies without Heir, the Lord shall have the Escheat.

14. Also if any, which hath not Common without number, charge the Common with more Beasts than he ought to do, according to the quantity of his Land, or if he which hath Common Appendant, not Common appurtenant, put into the Common, Beasts which are not commonable, as Hogs, Goats and Geese, or if any dig in the Common, unless it be for Gravel for the High-ways, and fill it again; or maketh other Trespas in the Common, or use the Common in any other manner, without the License of the Lord, but to take his Common with the mouth of his Beasts, or if any dig Turfs, or make other Trespas upon the waste, or build any House, or make inclosure of any part of it, it is inquirable. Comm^{is} Rechasing.

16. Also if any Tenant of this Mannor hath aliened any of his Lands in Mortmain, that is, to a Religious House, or to a Bish. Parf. That the Lord may make his claim within a year according to the Stat. Note, That by the Stat. de Relig. the L. may enter within one year after the alienation, and if the Chief L. immediate, be negligent, and do not enter upon this Fee, within a year, then it is lawful to the next L. of that Fee, within the half year following to enter, and at the last the King: and if any make a Feoffment to one, to the use Mortmain.

of a House of Religion, or to the use of a Company, or Brother-hood, this is Mortmain; the same Law is where one exchanges with a Corporation, that is Mortmain; also, if any religious person hold of any man by Rent-service, and the Lord releases to him, this is Mortmain.

Who is Tenant.

17. And if any Tenant by Charter alien his Land, and hath not given notice of that to the Lord, and the alienee hath not made Fealty to the Lord, nor Suit of Court, that the Lord may have knowledg, who is his Tenant, it is presentable; for that he may know upon whom to make his Avowry, and of whom to have his services and escheats.

Waste.

18. Also if any Termor for years, or for life, of any parcel of the Demesns of the Mannor, hath made waste in any House, Lands, Woods, or Gardens, you shall present that, or if any holds two Tenements and hath wasted one, as if he remove Trees from one to the other, that is waste.

19. Also if any Trespas be made in any Demesns of the Lord, that is to say, in the Corn, Grass, Meadows, Pastures, Wood, Hedges, Waters; or if any do Fish, within his Rivers or Waters; or if any Hawk or Hunt within the Demesns of the Lord without his License, or within his Warren, these are presentable.

of the Lord, scitnet, Land, Meadow, Pasture, En- Wood, Furze, Moor, or any other vacant Land with- crutch. out the Lord's Licence; by burning his Hedges, Pale, or otherwise; that is inquirable.

Note, that all the void Land and Waste within the Mannor is to the Lord of the Mannor.

25. Also if any within this Mannor, suffer any House of Husbandry, with which was occupied Husbandry. twenty Acres of Land, to decay, and to take from it any Land, the Lord of whom this is held, shall have the half of the profits of this to his own proper use, Rassal, Husband, 1. and 6. till that be maintained again for Husbandry, 4 H. 7. chap. 19. and 5 Ediz. chap. 2. and that for the benefit of the Lord is inquirable.

26. Also if any Tenant hath inclosed any Land, Common. and keeps that in severalty (which was wont to lie open) without the Licence of the Lord, and other Free-holders, that is also inquirable; for that no Tenant of the Lordship shall lose his Common in that.

27. Also if any keep and withdraw any Evidences, Evidence of the Lord. Court Rolls, Rentalls, or Evidences pertainin to the Lord of the Mannor, is inquirable.

28. Also if any thing pained before to be done, and is not yet done, in whose default that is, and you ought to present his Name. Punishment.

33. Also if any Copy-holder, which hath not his Wood by Custom of the Mannor to himself, but his Lord hath that there, if he lop any Trees of his Copy-hold in unseasonable time, by which that straveth, that is a Forfeiture, and is inquirable.

Note, That Ténant at will by the Common Law, may take House-boot, Hedge-boot, and Plough-boot, and cut that in seasonable time, and so may Tenant by Copy of Court-Roll do of a Copy-hold.

34. Also if any Copy-holder suffer his House which is Copy-hold to decay and fall down, or do not repair that, but suffer that to be uncovered, by which there is waste, that is Forfeiture and inquirable; if it be not by the Custom of the Mannor, that they may suffer their Houses to decay and fall down, and yet no Forfeiture by the Custom, and also in some Mannors the Tenants may suffer waste in their Houses, and also cut their Trees at their pleasures, and shall not be punished, for it is lawful by the Custome of divers Mannors.

35. Also if any Copy-holder die seised of any Copy-hold, Who is his next Heir, and of what age he is; or, if any Copy-holder by the Custom of the Mannor, hath surrendered any Copy-hold into the hands of the Bayliff, or any Tenants, after the last Court to the use of another, for of every such surrender the Lord ought to have a Fine, and the Partties in whose hands the Surrender was made, ought to come to the next Court, and present the same surrender so taken, and give it into the hands of the Lord, to the use of the alienee, or otherwise he ought to Forfeit his Copy-hold, if he have not a reasonable excuse, inasmuch that he doth not bring in the surrender by him taken, but doth what lyeth in him to make the Lord lose his Fine, and also to dis-inherit the other party, to whose use the Surrender was made.

36. Also if any Tenant, which holds by Herriot-service or Herriot Custom, die seised of any Land or Tenements so held, and that a Herriot is due to the Lord; and also if any such Tenant hath aliened any parcel parcel of his Land so held, the Lord shall have for every of their several parts, divers Herriots at their several deaths: as if a man hath two parcels of Lands held by Herriot-Service, and by several Titles, and die seised of the same, the Lord shall have two Herriots, & also you shall present if any Herriot be carried out of this Lordship, by whom it is, and where they are.

37. Also you shall enquire, if any Tenant of this Mannor which ought, by reason of his Tenure, to make suit to the Lords Mill, do make Suit there, or not.

40. Also you shall inquire, If all the defaults and plaints which were presented at the last Court, were sufficiently amended, or not: and, if all the Laws and Orders before by you made, be observed and kept, or not: and further you shall enquire of all other things, which in your conscience you believe to be convenient to be inquired of, and you shall bring in your Verdict in Writing such an hour: and now you may depart, and inquire of your Charge, having regard to that which you have sworn: and note, that you keep well your Oath.

Hawkers and Hunters.

VVest. 1. c. 1. forbiddeth that none shall chase in anothers Park, nor Fish in anothers River, and if he do, he shall be imprisoned and fined, and if none will sue, the King shall have the Suit as in a thing made against the Peace, and the King shall make inquiry from year to year, &c. Fitz. 67 D.

West. 1. c. 20. It is provided for Offenders in Parks and in Rivers, that if any of them be arraigned by the Suit of the Plainriff, it shall be accounted good, and amends made according to the manner of the Trespas, and shall have imprisonment for three years,

and

39 H.7. chap. 11. If any person, not having a Park, Chase, nor Forest, keep any Nets, called Deer-Hvys, or Buckstials, or stalk with bush or beast in anothers Parks, Chase or Forrest without License, he shall forfeit ten pound to any person which will sue for the same.

31 H.8. chap. 12. Where Hunters in the day or night with vizards, or painted faces, it was Felony, now it is not.

5 Ed.2. c. 21. Every one which wrongfully taketh Hawks, or their eggs, by night or day, and be convict, shall pay treble damages, and suffer Imprisonment three years; but these Statutes afore said, are not inquirable in a Leet.

43 Ed.3. fol. 24. Trespass, why by force of arms his Deer, price forty shillings (where it was wilde) he took, and the Writ abated. 13 Ed.4. fol. 14. the same.

3 H.6. fol. 58. Trespass, he entred into his Warren, and took 1000 Hares, and doth not say, His, yet it is good.

Fitzh. 86 L. and 89 R. Trespass lyeth by force of arms, the young Hawks of his Hawks, price so much he took; and why he entred his Warren, and took Hares, Conyes, and Pheasants, and not saying, His; and good, for he hath no property, 22 H.6. fol. 65.

Doctor and Student fol. 9. None hath property of Bjrds, Fowl, wild Beasts of Forest and Warren; yet the Eggs of Hawks, Herons, and such like, are to them which owe the Land.

Fitzh. 67. No man shall be taken and imprisoned for Vert or Venison, if he be not found with the manner, or indicted, Nat. brev. fol. 41. the same. See Britton, fol. 84.

2 Ed.4. fol. 5. Trespass, one cannot justifie by license of a Keeper to kill a Deer.

16 Ed. 4. fol. 7. Trespass, by force of arms he broke his Dove-house, and took his Pigeons in the same, and good; but not abroad when they are out, and have no mark, and are in the fields.

38 Ed. 3. fol. 12. Trespass, for entry into his Warren, and took his Pheasants; It was held, that if the Defendant fle a Pheasant in his own Land out of the Warren, and his Hawk fle and kill in anothers Warren; his Entry into the Warren is a wrong.

Treheron in his Reading, shewed, That Forreft ought to be by Commission and Proclamation, and what a common person cannot have a Forreft; that is to say, cannot make a Forreft, nor use Forreft-Laws, as it is said: And to a Forreft there are divers Officers, and to this is incident a Court of Swannimote, but a common person may have a Chase or Park by Grant or Prescription, and Forreft-Laws shall not be to a Chase, nor Court of Swannimote, the Statute of 13 R. 2. is not inquirable in a Leet, but before Justices of Peace, that is to say, that it is that no Artificer, nor Lay-man, which hath not Lands to the value of forty shillings per annum; and no Clark which is not advanced to ten pounds per annum, shall not keep a Harrier, or other Dog to chase, nor shall use Ferrets, Hays, Nets, Harepipes, nor Cords, nor other Engines, to rake or to destroy wild Beasts, upon pain of Imprisonment for a year; yet it is inquirable in a Count-Baron, if any Hunt or Hawk within a Park, Chase, Warren, or Demesh Lands of the Lord of the Manor, without his License, and for that something of that shall be said.

12 H. 8. fol. 3. Trespass lyeth for taking a Hound or Deer out of the possession of the Plaintiff, and hath possession, and not property.

12 H. 8. fol. 10. One hath but possession of a Deer, and if they go out, catch that catch may; And if any Hawk kill a Pheasant in your Land, it seems that I shall have the Pheasant, and yet it seems that one cannot hunt nor hawk in anothers Land.

10 H. 7. fol. 30. Account lyeth against a Keeper for the Deer, for he hath possession as a Bayliff: one may grant liberty to one to take every year a Deer.

13 H.7. fol. 13. It is said, if one hath Licence to chase, he cannot kill, 18 E.4. fol. 14.

12 H.8. fol. 4. saith, That one may distrain a Breach, doing damage which enters into my Close to Chase, 2 Ed.3. tit. Distress 20.

48 Ed.3. fol. 8. He that hath Land adjoyning to a Chase, may hunt Deer out of his ground with a little Dog, but not with Begles: and by some, if the Dog follow them into the Chase, and the Owner drives them back, yet if they kill the Beast, trespass doth not lie. See 18 H.6. f. 21. Held that if a man go in the way adjoyning to a Park, and his Dogs break his Leash, and kill a Deer in the Park against his Will, and he call them back, he shall not be punished: but it seems that if he do not what he can to hinder them, it shall be a Trespass.

Fitzb. 19. If one incite or procure his Dog to bite a man, he shall have his trespass upon that.

Assise.

INsomuch that an Assise is brought of a Copy-holder, something is to be noted unto you touching Assises.

And first I intend, that if a Copy-holder of Inheritance dieth seised of a Copy-hold, and his heir enter (as he may) though there be no Court kept, and he not admitted, and be outed by a stranger of that Disseisin, he shall have a Plaint in nature of an Assise. Yet Quere, for in 13 Eliz. by the Justices: If Tenant by Copy of Court-Roll, dye seised, and his Heir enter and take the profits, he is no Trespasser, though the Lord hath not admitted him Tenant: and though no Court were held there in seven years; And further there said, that it was adjudged in the Chancery, That if Tenant by Copy of Court Roll, hath two Daughters by divers Women, and they enter and take the profits profits, and one dyes before any Court held, now her Cousin collateral ought to inherit as heir to her, and not the other Sister as heir to the Father, which proves that this was a Seisin according to their Custom: The same Law is, if a Copy-holder be admitted, and after is thrust out by another, or if another be admitted to it, and by this he that was first admitted, is thrust out by him which was secondly admitted: the first Admittée shall have a Plaint in nature of an Affise of that Disseisin.

Plowden, Com. fol. 528. Parson, before Induction, cannot grant an annuity, for he hath no possession; so it seems, if a Copyholder die seised, his issue shall not have an Affise before admittance. Fitz. 177. A.
Where Tenant for life in Fee-simple, or Fee-tail, is disseised of his Lands and Tenements, or outed of that against his Will, this is Disseisin, and he shall have an Affise of novel Disseisin. Nat. brevium, fol. 167.

Fitz. 195. C. Where my Father or my Mother, my Brother or my Sister, my Uncle or my Aunt, or Nephew or Niece, dye seised of any Lands, or Tenements, or of Rents, of an Estate of Fee-simple; now if a stranger take possession of this Land or Rent after their death, I which am their Heir shall have an Affise of Mortdauncester, Nat. Brevium, fol. 118.

So for a Copyhold in Fee, if my Father, Mother, Brother or Sister, Uncle, Aunt, Nephew, or Niece, dy seised of that, and a stranger enters, I shall have a Plaint and make protestation to sue in nature of a Mortdauncester, and upon Disseisin as above, in nature of an Affise of novel Disseisin; and it seemeth I have not Seisin to maintain an action of my own Seisin in the Lords Court, unless I be Tenant to the Land that is where I am admitted, for by the admittance of the L. it shall be said (the L. hath granted Seisin, and he is admitted Tenant;) And by this he is Tenant to have an Affise, and not before; yet before he may take the profits, though there be no Court to be admitted, for it was no folly in him; but may have his Action at the Common-Law, upon the possession of his Ancestor, which was admitted, though I were not admitted; and so where my Father dyeth seised of a Copyhold in Fee,

Fee, and I am admitted, and after another makes claim to it, and is also afterwards admitted and enters, he cannot have a Plain in nature of an Assise of Novel Disseisin against me, for 26 H.8. fol.3. if one be admitted, instituted, and inducted to a Benefice, and after another be presented, and ousts him, he shall have an Assise or Trespass, but he that is Presented cannot.

And so if there be Grandfather, Father and Son, and the Grandfather was admitted, and dyes, and the Father enters, and dyes before admittance: the Son in this Case shall have a Plain in the nature of a Writ of Assise, and not an Assise of Mortdancester: and by the Statute of 32 H.8. chap.2. It is enacted, That no person shall sue, have, or maintain any Action for any Lands or Tenements upon his own possession, above thirty years next before that began. If the Lord of a Mannor grant by Copy, the Tenements of a Copyholder, without lawful cause in Fee, or for life, and the Grantee enter, he which hath right, may have an Assise against the Grantee if he were first admitted: As the King by his Letters Patents, grants to another my Land, and the Parentee enters by force of his Grant, I shall have an Assise: If a Copyhold descend, the heir shall have a Trespass at the Common-Law before admittance, as above.

Seisin of Assise.

What Seisin is sufficient to have Assise: and what not.

THE Warden of an Hospital shall have an Assise of Rent, where his Predecessor was seised, and not himself: for the Seisin of the Predecessor, is the Seisin of the house, 15 Ed.3. tit.39. accordingly of an Abbot or Prior, Pirch. fol. 179. c. and 8 Ass. 16.3 Ass. accordingly also of a Chauntry Priest, 34 Ass. 5.

Assise is not maintainable against him which hath but a Freehold in Law, for of that Seisin an Assise doth not lie, and yet of that Seisin a Wife shall be endowed, Litt. fol. 152.

If a man which hath a title to enter, set his foot upon the Land, and is outed, that is a sufficient Seisin to have an Assise, 22 E.3. Br. Seisin, 52.

If one put in his Beasts to use my Common by commandment, this is a sufficient Seisin for me to have an Assise, 45 Ed.3. f.25. 22 Assise 84.

Rever-

Reversion is granted to J.S. and the Tenant for life attorns and dies, and J.S. enters by the Windows, for that he cannot enter by the door: and when one half of his body was in, he was pulled out, and yet that is a sufficient Seisin to have an Assise, 8 Book of Assises, fol. 25.

Seisin of Fealty, is not sufficient Seisin to have an Assise of Rent, but it is a sufficient Seisin to make Answer for all, that is, as well for the Rent, as for the Fealty, 44 Ed. 3. f. 11. by Thorp, 3 Ed. 3. tit. 40. 3 Ed. 3. Item Norfolk, 20 H. 3. tit. 433. 49 Ed. 3. 15. and 45 Ed. 3. 28.

A Lease is made for life reserving four Marks Rent, and the Lessor is seised of twenty shillings of that, and taketh distress for the remainant, and Rescous is made, and though but twenty shillings be received, yet that is a sufficient Seisin to have Assise of all, 8 Ed. 3. fol. 12. tit. 141. 8 Ass. 4. 5 E. 4. 2. 12 E. 4. 7.

If the Lord of a Rent-Service grant the service to another, and the Tenant attorn by a penny, and after the Grantee distrains, and the Tenant makes Rescous; here was no Seisin to have assise of Rent, but if the gift of a penny had been in the name of Seisin and Attornment, otherwise it is, fol. 2. Littleton, f. 127. b.

Lord and Tenant are: the Lord grants the Rent of his Tenant by a Deed to another, Saving to him the Services, and the Tenant attorns to that, this is Rent-Seek, and if the Rent be denyed at the next day of payment, he hath no remedy: but if the Tenant when he attorns, or after, will give a penny or a half penny in the name of Seisin of the Rent, then if after the next day of payment, the Rent be to him denyed, he shall have an Assise, and that is a sufficient Seisin to have an assise for all the Rent, Littleton, fol. 42.

Seisin of a parcel of Rent, is sufficient to have assise of all the Rent, 8 Book of Assise 4.

Seisin of Fealty, is not sufficient Seisin to have an assise of Rent: but Seisin of Escuage, is Seisin of Homage, 21 E. 3. fol. 52. Nat. brev. fol. 109. 5 Ed. 2. Assises, 209

Using of Common by Tenants at Will, is sufficient Seisin

Pleas of Assise by Bayliff.

Seisin, for him in Reversion to have Assise of Common, If he or his Tenant at Will be disturbed, 22 Assise according Fitzb. fol. 180.

By Brudael, Of a thing transitory, a man shall be in possession without seisure: As, if my Tenant dies, his heir within age, I shall have a Ravishment of Ward without a Seiser; but I shall not have an Ejectment of Ward of Land which is local, nor Assise of Land, without first having possession indeed, 14 H.8. fol. 27.

If one recover and be put in by a Clod in the hall by the Sheriff, and he against whom the Recovery was, will not go out, yet that is a sufficient Seisin to have an Assise, 2 Ed. 2. tit. Execution, 19.

If a man holds of the King in Chief, and holds other Land of another Lord, and dies, his heir within age, which intrudes at his full age, and payes his rent to the Lord, this is a good Seisin to have an Assise, notwithstanding that he hath not sued Livery, for the Signiory was not suspended by the possession of the King, but only the distress; for after Livery, the Lord may distrain for his arrearages, 34 H.8. tit. 48. 47 Ed. 3. fol. 12. and 13 H.7. fol. 15.

Pleas of Assise by Bayliff.

Also it is expedient for you to know what Pleas the Bayliff in Assise shall plead; and what the Disseisor, and what the Tenant after the Bayliff hath pleaded.

Bailiff may plead a Plea which is triable by Assise, and none other, 6 H.7. fol. 15.

Pleas of a Bailiff ought to be such which are triable by the Assise, and for that he cannot pray aid of the King, 6 H.7. fol. 12. and first Book of Assises, 1. accordingly.

The Bayliff shall have any Challenge to an array, and to the heads, 9 H.7. fol. 24. and Abridgement, Book of Assises, fol. 48. the same.

The Bayliff may plead Non-tenure or Mis-naming of the Plaintiff, but not of his Master, and conclude, li &c. 22 H.6. fol. 44. 9 H.7. fol. 24. 26 Ass. 61.

Bayliff may plead, That the Tenements are in another Town, for that is an abatement, 9 H.7. fol. 24. Abridgement, *bridgment, Assise, fol. 47. and 6 H. 7. fol. 19. accordingly: But 22 H. 6. fol. 50. seems contrary: But a Bayliff cannot disclaim, but an Attorney may, 13 Ed. 3.

sit. 8.*

Bayliff pleads out of his Fee, Judgment if without specialty, &c. and he cannot have that at this day; but in 2 Ed. 3. sit. 10. he hath this Plea, for the Bayliff cannot have any Pleas, but where he may conclude over; and if it be not found no wrong; no disseisin, &c. See the Abridgment, Book of Assises, fol. 47. and 2 Assise. 4.

Bayliff may plead ancient Demesne, and conclude,
If it be not found, &c. and conclude to assise; otherwise, Bayliff cannot plead ancient Demesne, for that, that it is triable by the Book of Doomsday and for that he cannot conclude Judgment, if the Court will acknowledg, Abridgment Book of Assise, fol. 48. and 9 Book of Assise, 2. See 6 H. 7. fol. 15.

Bayliff may plead, That the Plaintiff is seised the day of the Writ purchased, and every other exception triable, by Assise, 9 Ass. 4.

Bayliff cannot plead, That the Writ is purchased, hanging another Assise, nor not attached by fifteen dayes: for it is triable by the Record; Abridgment, of Assise, fol. 48. 8 Ass. 2. See 8 Ed. 3. Ass. 40.

Bayliff may plead, That his Master is Parson of D. not named Parson: and if it be not found, no wrong
See. 12 Ass. 4.

Bayliff may plead Misnaming and Joynt Tenancy without Deed, 6 H. 4. fol. 15. and 8 H. 6. fol. 56.

Bayliff cannot plead Excommunication or outlawry, in the Plaintiff, for he cannot plead a Dilatory Plea unless it be triable by the Assise, and that he may conclude; and if it be not found, no wrong, no disseisin, 5 Ed. 4. fol. 113.

Bayliff may plead, Not attached, by fifteen days, Abridgment of Assise, fol. 47.

Pleas of the Disseisor.

THe Disseisor may plead Release of Actions personals in bar, but not Release of Actions real: for none shall plead that but the Tenant, Lit. fol. 215.

The Disseisor may plead, That the Demandant hath entred, hanging the Writ: notwithstanding that, he goes to the Tenancy; and the reason which is there made, is, for that that such Plea goes to excuse him of damages; And note, that there it appears also, that the Disseisor shall plead every bar, unless such a bar which goes to the Tenancy, or to extinguish the right of the Plaintiff in the Land, as, if he pleads release of all Actions personals, or that the Plaintiff hath entered, hanging the Writ, that he may plead, but he cannot plead release of right made to the Tenant of the Land, nor other Plea which goeth to the Land, but he shall plead every plea to the Writ which doth not extend to the Tenancy, as if he had no Tenant named in the Writ, or no such in Reum Natura, and mis-naming of the Plaintiff, or of himself, 33 H. 6. fol. 19. Contrary, 37 H. 6. 3. by Choke, Therefore Quere.

The Disseisor shall not plead any Plea to the Tenancys which the Tenant by his admittance hath made good, 26 Book of Assises, 49.

Disseisor cannot plead in abatement, That the Plaintiff hath a Writ of an older date, hanging against him, 45 Ed. 3. fol. 25. and 23 Ass. 14.

Disseisor cannot plead ancient Demesne, without taking the Tenancy upon him, 21 Ass. 2.

Disseisor cannot plead Record or Estoppel, for by the failing of the Record, he cannot lose the Land, 20 Ed. 3. Breke, Assise, 463.

Disseisor shall plead mis-naming of the Plaintiff, and also that the Plaintiff is covert of Baron, and if he alledg outlawry in the Plaintiff, he ought to have the Record in hand. And note, That the Disseisor in proper person, or by Attorney, and not by Baylis, pleads, That the Plaintiff hath another Assise hanging against him, as it appears, 8 Ed. 3. Ass. 40. See 28 Ass. 38. 34 Ass. 91. and this seems by the Statute of Westminster 2 chap. 15. 19 Ass. 10. and 20 E. 3. Ass. 20.

Disseisor may plead Entry of the Plaintiff after the last continuance and joynt-Tenancy; for he may plead all Pleas which excuse him of damages, or which are in Bar, which do not extinct the right of the Land, 35 H. 6. fol. 16.

Disseisor may plead Outlawry in the Plaintiff, that is, where the Tenant hath not pleaded and admitted the Writ, 29 Ass. 61, and 20 Ed. 3. Ass. 20.

It is said by Babington, That a Disseisor cannot plead any Plea in Bar, but no wrong, or that it ariseth to so much. 2 H.6.fol.1.

Pleas by Tenant.

Where after a Bayliff hath pleaded, or the Tenant himself; and the Assise upon that, adjourned, or awarded, or hath imparled, the Tenant cannot plead new matter, unless it be matter of a later time, or a matter pursuant, or a matter upon which he may have Certificate, or the general Issue.

THE Tenant pleads to the Assise by Bayliff, and the Assise awarded, the Tenant can plead no plea in Bar afterwards, but such upon which he may have Certificate of Assise, 10 H.7.fol.12. 8 Assise 17.

The Tenant pleads by a Bayliff, and the Assise remains for default of Jurors, and now the Tenant comes in proper person, and saith, The Plaintiff hath received the Tenements of him, hanging the Writ, and hath let to him for years, and hath, for that he cometh in of later time, 18 Ed.3.fol.33.

If a Plea be pleaded, and the Justices die, all shall be pleaded anew; but if they be at Issue, that shall stand, 5 H.7.f.7.b. by Hussay.

After adjournment upon the plea of the Bayliff, the Tenant may plead matter which comes of later time, 18 E.3.tit.33.

The Tenant himself, after the Assise awarded, may leave his Bar, and plead the general Issue; but he cannot plead a new Bar after Issue, 34 H.6.folio. and 39 40 Ed.3.fol.48.b.

The Tenant pleads in Bar, and after the Jury hath the View, and he leaves his Bar, and pleads to the Assise, 34 H.6.f.29. and Abridg.Ass.f.138.

Where they are adjourned upon a point certain, he cannot plead a new Plea afterwards, unless pursuing; as, if the Tenant himself before adjournment, had pleaded special Bastardy, he may plead afterwards general Bastardy, 42 Ed.3.fol.12.

After adjournment upon a plea in Bar certain, he cannot plead new Plea in Bar, but only the general Issue, 8 Ass.10. and 10 E.3.tit.157. and 44 Book of Ass.1.

Where

Where they are adjourned upon a Plea in abatement, and after the Writ is awarded good, he may afterwards plead in Bar, 6 Book of Assise, 1.

Infant in Assise pleads Outlawry of Felony in Bar, and at another day was suffered to plead Release of the Plaintiff in Bar. 14 Ass. 15, Assise, the Tenant pleads in Bar, and the Plaintiff joyns Issue, and the Court do not take the Assise the same day, and the next day the Tenant cannot change his Plea, 11 H. 4. fol. 2. B.

Where the Tenant pleads to the Assise by a Bayliff, if his Master have a Release or a Writing, of which the Jury cannot have notice: then if the Assise pass against the Bayliff, yet the Master shall have certificate upon this Writing, the same Law is, if the Verdict be not well examined by the Justices, And see more there, Fitzherbert fol. 181. B.

The Tenant pleads in Bar, a Deed of the Ancestor of the Plaintiff with Warranty, and the Plaintiff makes Title, and afterwards he cannot plead an abatement, that the Lands were in another Town, for that, that the Assise was awarded, 10 Ed. 3. tit. 157. and 1 Ass. 17.

The Tenant pleads in Bar, and the next day pleads by a Bayliff to the Assise, and may, for that the Assise was not awarded, Abridg. Ass. f. 47.

Where the Assise was awarded upon the Plea of the Bayliff, at another day after, the Tenant comes and pleads a Release, and hath it, for that he may have Certificate, Abridg. Ass. f. 138.

The Tenant may relinquish his Bar, and plead the general Issue, otherwise it is in Cosenage, Grand-Father and great Grand-Father, but he cannot plead a new Bar, 40 Ed. 3. fol. 49 Ass.

Assise, The Tenant pleads in Bar the Deed of the Ancestor of the Plaintiff with Warranty, and the Plaintiff makes Title, and after the Tenant waves the Bar, and pleads in abatement, That the Lands are in another Town, and cannot, 1 Book of Assises, 16.

Assise, If a Plea be pleaded, and the Justices die, all shall be pleaded anew, but if they are at Issue, they shall stand, 4 H. 7. fol. 7.

Where

Where in an Assise a man shall have divers Pleas to the Writ, and conclude over, no wrong, no Disseisin; and where not.

Note, that the party himself, or his Bayliff may have divers Pleas, where one is not contrary to the other, concluding over, no wrong; as if he plead mis-naming of the Plaintiff, if it be not found, no Tenant of the Freehold named in the Writ; and if it be not found, no such Town, and such like: and notwithstanding, and if it be not found, no wrong, for one is not contrary to the other; but, if he will say, that the Tenements are in another Town, and if it be not found no Tenant of the Freehold named in the writ; and if it be not found no wrong, these Pleas he shall not have, for he shall not plead no Tenant of the Freehold named in the Writ, &c. and after say the Tenements are in another Town.

Note, though the Book at large be, if it be found, leaving out this word (No) yet the Book of Entries is (if it be not found) and so it seems in reason that it shall be as above, if it be not found, &c. 36 H.6 f.1.

Where one pleads to a Writ and also in Bar: which Bar is that which doth not go to the point of assise; Scil. no wrong, but it is a Bar out of the point of assise: In such a case he shall not have both the Pleas; for by such Bar the Plea to the Writ is waived. As in assise of rent, the Tenant pleads wrong, naming of himself; and if it be not found out of his Fee, he shall not have these two Pleas, 3 Ed. 3. tit. 172. tit. 223.

It seems if the Tenant Plead in the abatement of the Writ, he shall not plead over to the assise, if his plea to the Writ be not triable by the assise, 22 Book of Ass. 14.

In an Assise of Rent, the Bayliff pleads mis-naming of the Town, and if found not so, Ecce that another is Tenant of the Rent, nor named, for this is not contrary; and it seems that in assise of Rent the Tenant of the Land may say, that the Land where out, Ecce is in another Town; and if found it be not, that he hath a taker of the Rent not named; contrary it is in an Assise of Land, 15 Ed. 3. tit. 95.

In assise by a Master and his Brethren of the fraternity nity of nine Orders of Angels in the County of Middlesex, Defendant pleads no such Corporation by that name in this County; and if it be not found no wrong, he shall not have them both, for the first Plea is in Bar; and shall not have bar and general issue, 22 Ed. 3. f. 34.

Assise of Lands in Woxbridg, the Tenant pleads, that they are in Collam, and not in Woxbridg; and if it be not found no wrong, and he hath, 11 H. 4. fol. 2. B.

It is said, That in an Assise, the Tenant or his Bayliff may plead twenty several matters in an abatement, or to an Assise, and conclude if it be not found &c. and is good, 1 Ed. 4. fol. 4. and 8 H. 6. fol. 9.

Where the Assise shall be awarded at large; that is to say, in point of Assise; that is to say, to enquire of Seisin; and Disseisin; and where in right of Damages; and where not.

Assise, the Tenant pleads in abatement, That the Plaintiff hath received the Land of him hanging the Assise, and that he hath let to him for years again, and the Plaintiff saith, That he hath continued his Estate which he had by Disseisin, without that, that any estate present of him he take, and the Assise was charged upon the point, and over upon the Seisin and Disseisin, 10 Book of Assises. 24.

If the Tenant plead in Bar, and the Plaintiff makes title, and the Tenant doth not traverse that, the Assise shall be awarded at large, 45 Ed. 3. fol. 24.

Where there is a good bar pleaded, and an outing is confessed, and the bar is traversed; or if the Plaintiff make title, and that is found for the Plaintiff; or if there be an ill bar pleaded, that the Plaintiff need not answer, but say, Come the Assise upon the title, and it is found for the Plaintiff; in all these cases the Plaintiff shall have Judgment without enquiring of Seisin and Disseisin, 6 H. 7. fol. 2.

Where the Plaintiff makes title at large without answering to the bar, and the Tenant doth not traverse this title, he shall not answer to that, as that confessed and avoided or without saying, Let the Assise come upon the Title, but let the Assise run without any thing saying to the Title; there the Assise shall be taken at large, and not upon the Title; as in the assise the Plaintiff riff makes title at large, and in the end saith (and this he is ready to aver by assise, and the aforefaid Tenant likewise) the assise shall be taken at large, the reason as above, so it shall be done as it seems, where the title is no title at large, but such which confesseth the Bar and avoids it, and so it is held by Shard, 28 Ass. 24.

Contrary Law is, if the Plaintiff in his title traverse the Bar, and the Tenant lets the Assise run, there the Assise shall be taken to inquire of the thing traversed and also his title as it appeareth, 46 Ed. 3. f. 61.

And the reason of this seems to be, for that, that in assise the Plaintiff shall be received to traverse the Bar without making Title, and so the title there material; and so note, that the Assise shall not be awarded at large, but in such a case where the Title is not material, 45 Ed. 3. fol. 24.

When the Assise is taken at large, if they find another title, the Plaintiff shall recover, and the Assise if they will may inquire only of the Seisin and Disseisin, without being charged or compelled to find any title, as in assise nothing is pleaded but no wrong, here the Assise may find title if they will; or otherwise say nothing but of Seisin and Disseisin: And also note, That in these cases before, the assise is awarded at large, without inquiring of the Bar.

And the reason is, because the Bar is waived; the same Law is, where the Bar is not good, and the Plaintiff makes title, accepting the Bar, 28 Assise, 17.

If the Bar be ill pleaded, and the title good, the Assise shall be awarded in point of Assise, and not upon the title: for if it be pleaded ill on the part of the Defendant, the assise shall be awarded in point of Assise; that is to say, of Seisin and Disseisin, 35 H. 6. fol. 34 by Fortescue; and 33 H. 6. fol. 40. by Littleton.

The Tenant pleads forreign release, and it is found against him, notwithstanding the Deed of the Plaintiff, now the Assise shall be awarded in the right of the Damages, for an outing is confessed implicatively, by pleading a Release, 23 Ass. 11. 8 Ass. 11. but 30 Ed. 3. Fit. Ass. 100. The Assise shall be taken at large.

The Tenant pleads Deed of the Ancestor of the Plaintiff in Bar, and found false, by which it was inquired only of Damages, 17 Book of Assises 13.

The Tenant pleads Forrain Release in Bar, upon which they were adjourned; and the Defendant makes default, by which the Assise was awarded at large: See 26 Book of Assises 30. 30 Ed. 3. tit. 100. and 17 Book of Assises 31. Notwithstanding it seemeth where an outring is confessed, directly or impliedly, and found for the Plaintiff, the Assise shall be awarded to inquire of Damages, and not upon the Seisin or Disseisin only.

If the Tenant plead a dying seised, and doth not acknowledge an outring, Seisin and Disseisin shall be inquired, 8 Hen. 4. 51.

When an Infant brings an Assise, and the Tenant pleads a Deed of his Ancestor, then the Assise shall be awarded to inquire at large, Natura brevium, fol. 169.

In point of Assise it is, When the Tenant pleads no wrong, no Disseisin; and out of the point is properly when the Tenant pleads Forrain Release, or Forrain matter tryable in another County, and in right of Damages is when the Tenant acknowledgeth over, and pleads matter which is found against him, or acknowledgeth over, or demurs in Law, and that is adjudged against him; now the Assise shall be taken in right of Damages, 15 Ass. 3. 18 Ass. 8. 23 Ass. 36. 26 Ass. 41. 28 Ass. 15. 28 Ass. 14. 17 b.

If the Tenant plead Release, and the Assise found for the Plaintiff, the Assise shall be awarded in right of damages; the same Law is, if the Tenant plead Record, and fail of that, the Assise shall be awarded in right of Damages, 8 Book of Assises 10.

The Tenant pleads Forrain Release, by which they were adjourned in Bench, and found not his Damages, and the Plaintiff releases his damages, and hath Judgment forthwith, 6 Book of Assises 4.

The Tenant pleads Forrain Release, in which witnesses, and process was awarded against the witnesses which makes default; and the Assise was awarded in point of Assise, 18 Book of Assises 8.

Where the Tenant pleads a Record, and fails of it by the Statute the Assise shall be awarded in right of Damages, 27 Ass. 1. 17 Ass. 2. 13 Ass. 15, and 16. and 23 Ass.

Note, that in Assise, where the Plaintiff makes title at large without answering to the Bar, and the Tenant does not traverse the Title, nor answer to it, as to confess and avoid: in say in, Comes the Assise upon the Title, and lets the Assise run, without saying any thing to the Title, there the Assise is taken at large, and not upon the Title; as in Assise, the Plaintiff makes Title at large, and in the end saith, he is ready to affirm this by Assise, and the aforesaid Tenant likewise, 28 Ass. 24.

If the Tenant acknowledge an owing in his Plea, the Assise shall be awarded in right of Damages, 1 Hen. 6. fol. 5.

6 E. 6. fol. 4. 18. Assise against two, if one take the entire tenancy, and plead in Bar, and the other make also the Plaintiff choose his Tenant; the same Law, if one plead no wrong, and the other plead a Bar, without that, that the other hath nothing, and every one take the entire Tenancy.

In Assise against many, where the Plaintiff ought to choose his Tenant at his peril, and where not.

Assise against two, if every one of these take the whole Tenancy, and severally plead in Bar to the whole Tenancy, the Plaintiff ought to choose his Tenant at his peril: but if one plead in Bar, and the other acknowledge the Action, or saith nothing, it is otherwise, 33 H. 6. fol. 36. and 37.

Assise against two: it seems if one plead in abatement, and the other in Bar: if the Plaintiff mischoose his Tenant, it is not material, but he shall answer to the Plea in abatement: but divers seem the contrary: and it seems if both plead in abatement, he ought to choose his Tenant at his peril. See 8 Book of Assises 1. and 44 Ed. 3. fol. 23.

Assise against two, each takes upon him the whole tenancy, and pleads in Bar, the Plaintiff mischoose his Tenant and was barred by opinion, 20 B. of Ass. 4.

Ass. against two, one takes the tenancy and pleads no wrong, and the other takes the tenancy without that, that the other hath any thing, and pleads in Bar, there the Plaintiff shall be constrained to chuse his tenant at his peril, as well as if both had pleaded in Bar, and had accepted the Tenancy severally; and if it be found that he mis-choose his Tenant, the Writ shall abate, but he shall not be barred, 9 Ed. 3. tit. 384.

The Plaintiff was admitted to choose his Tenant after adjournment, 23 Aff. 16.

Assise against two, each takes his Tenancy, and pleads; it seems here, that the Plaintiff at his own peril shall choose his Tenant, and that shall be first inquired; and by some, if he mis-choose his Tenant, the Writ shall abate, 8 Aff. 1.

Affise against two, one pleads, that he is a Villain of J.S. and the other by Bayliff pleads to the Assise, and the Plaintiff chose him which pleads by Bayliff to the Assise for his Tenant, and prays the assise, and he comes and pleads in Bar, and was suffered the same day, 22 Book of Assises, 7.

Assise against an Infant and two others; where each one severally takes the whole Tenancy upon him, and pleads in Bar, the Plaintiff shall choose his Tenant at his peril, and he chooseth the infant for the Tenant, and the Tenant and they found the Infant Tenant, and the two others Disseisors also, and the Plaintiff recovers; but it seems there if he mischoose his Tenant, the Writ shall abate, and for that, that the Disseisin was made to the use of the Infant, which did not enter, and is Tenant only by agreement, for that it seems it is here an Error to adjudg the Infant Tenant, which had nothing but by agreement to the Disseisin, 3 H. 4. fol. 16.

If the Plaintiff choose one to be his Tenant of all, which is not Tenant, the Writ shall abate, Abridgment of the Assises, fol. 41. B.

By Fortescue in Assise against two, one takes the Tenancy severally, and pleads in Bar, the Plaintiff shall not answer to their Pleas in Bar, nor to none of them, but first shall choose his Tenant, then after may the Plaintiff answer to his Bar sufficiently in time; and if he ill chose his Tenant, the Writ shall abate, Abridgment of the Book of Assises, fol. 116. a.

*What is a good Title in Assise for the Plaintiff ;
And what not.*

Tenant pleads in Bar, it is no ritle for the Plaintiff to say, that he was seised till by the Tenant disseised, and traverss the Bar, without conveying unto him possession by title before his possession, as by Feoffment or otherwise ; 27 H.6. fol. 2.

Tenant pleads a Feoffment made by J.S. to him, and gives colour ; Plaintiff saith, That J.D. levied a Fine upon release to him, and it is not good, but to say that he was seised, and levied a Fine : otherwise, the title is good : so if he be intitled by Feoffment, or recovery of a stranger, he shall say for title that the stranger was seised, and enfeofed him, 15 H. 6. fol. 22.

Where the bar is material, as dissent, Feoffment of the ancestor, the Plaintiff with Warranty, Recovery, Fine, &c. Plaintiff shall not make title at large, but ought in his title answer the bar, as confess or avoid, or traverse it : but where it is a bar at large, he may make title at large, without answering the Bar, 34 H. 6. fol. 46. 35 H. 6. fol. 67. and the Book of Entries 120. 5 H. 7. fol. 29.

Where the Bar is not sufficient, the Plaintiff may demur, and need not to make title : and where the Tenant in his Bar gives sufficient title to the Plaintiff, Plaintiff need not make title : as if the Tenant saith, that his father had him eldest, and the Plaintiff youngest : Plaintiff may say, that the Tenant is a Bastard without making title, and is good, 26 H. 6. f. 38, & 39.

Where the Plaintiff makes title at large, the Tenant may say, Come the Assise upon the Title, and is good, 15 H. 7. fol. 13.

The Tenant pleads, that he recovered against J. S. and the Estate of the Plaintiff mean by abatement upon J. S. hanging the Writ; Plaintiff saith that long time before the Writ that he himself was seised, and good, without shewing how he came to it, for the Defendant hath given to him possession : see 9 Book of Ass. 1c.

The Tenant pleads Feoffment of the Grand-Father of the Plaintiff with Warranty : Plaintiff saith, that his Grand-Father was seised, and he as Cousin and Heir to him entered, and is without showing how his Grand-Father came to it. See 16 Ass. 23. 9 Ass. 11.

The Tenant pleads in Bar, the Plaintiff intitles himself by Release with collateral Warranty, and it is good, 17 Ass. 18.

38 H. 3. tit. 3. 26. Br. tit. traverse, p. 26. If the tenant plead, that his Father was seised in Fee, and by protestation died seised : it is said, that the Plaintiff may make title by a stranger, without that, that the Father of the Tenant was seised in Fee.

5 H. 7. fol. 29. Where the Bar is material, the Plaintiff

Assise shall not make his title at large without answering to the Bar, but in assise, 34 H. 6. fol. 24.

11 H. 7. fol. 28. If the bar be ill, the Plaintiff may pray the Assise without title.

6 Assise Tenant pleads Fine of an Ancestor of the Plaintiff, to which the Plaintiff saith, the same Ancestor had but for life, the reversion in him, and that he entered by forfeiture, and good, without shewing how he had the reversion.

Nat. brevium, 109. If the Tenant pleads plea in Bar and the Plaintiff makes him title and reverseth the bar, although the title of the Plaintiff be false, yet the Tenant shall not have advantage to take the Assise upon the Title, but he shall be driven to maintain his Bar, otherwise it is where the Plaintiff makes him title, and doth not answer the Bar.

Abridgment of the Book of Ass. fol. 81. Where the title is found for the Plaintiff, and there is no Disceisor, the Writ shall abate.

The Tenant saith, That J. S. held the Land of him and dyeth without Heir, by which he entered, as in his Escheat, and gives colour, &c. the Plaintiff saith, one H. enfeoffed him, and it is no title, for he ought to answer to the bar as well as where the Tenant makes title by descent, 27 Ass. 71.

Assise of Rent, it is no title to shew that J. S. granted to him the Rent by Deed or by Fine, but he ought to shew how the Rent began, that is to say, if it be a rent-charge, or a rent-service, or a rent-seck. 31 Ass. 16.

Assise the Tenant pleads in Bar Feoffment of the Father of the Plaintiff with warranty, and the Plaintiff saith, that his Ancestor died seised, and this descended to him, and allowed by Scroop without shewing how he came to that afterwards, 10 Book Ass. 23.

Where the Tenant prays the Assise upon the Title, and upon that the Assise is awarded, the Assise cannot find other Title for the Plaintiff, but he may find matter which may stand with the same title so in force; but if the title be traversed, he cannot find another title, but only the point put in the Assise, 28 B. of Ass. 17.

An Act of Parliament, Fine, or Recovery are of such a force, that if one be bound by them, the Plaintiff cannot cannot make title to this Land unless by reason of a Title to him grown of later times. As if one recovers against me or my Ancestor, and hath execution, and after I enter, and dye seised, my heir shall not make him title by his descent, against the recovery, without shewing he hath title after the recovery, the same Law of a Fine, see 10 H.7. f.5. 32 H.6.5. and 33 Book of Assises, fol. 19.

Pleas in Bar and in Abatement.

IT seems a Feoffment of the Plaintiff is no plea in Bar, for that amounts to no wrong, nor Disseisin, 2 H.4. f.20. the same, 15 Ed. 4. f.11.

15 Ed. 4. f.11. A Lease for years, or for life, the reversion to the Plaintiff or Feoffment of the Plaintiff with warranty, and rely upon the Warranty is a good Bar.

Abridgment of Ass. fol. 31. The Tenant may plead, that partition was made between the Plaintiff and J.S. whose Estate he hath, and it is a good Bar.

30 H.6. f.1. Assise, The Tenant saith, that the Lands put in view and in plaint are in another Town, and if it be found, no Tenant of the Freehold named in the Writ, &c. By the Court he shall not have the second Plea, for none may say that the Land is in another Town, but the Tenant, and so hath accepted the Tenancy by his Plea.

30 H.6. f.7. Assise, The Tenant saith, That T.B. was seised and disseised by W.W. to whom T.B. made release, and against his own Deed disseised W.W. and infeoffed five persons, which infeoffed the Plaintiff, upon which W.W. re-entred, whose Estate the Tenant seised hath, it is good, see pleas in Bar, tit. Abrid. Ass. f. 30.

Abridgment Assise, fol. 41. If the Plaintiff choose one to be his Tenant of all, where he is not, the Writ shall abate.

Abridgment of Assise fol. 42. A man cannot plead in Assise that there is another hanging, to which he hath appeared, unless that he take the Tenancy upon him, and for that it is no plea for the Disseisor.

Abridgment Assise, 44. Death of one of the Tenants shall shall not abate the Assise, but for the portion, if he be Disseisor, and Tenant of another parcel, 27 Ass. 45. 40 Ass. 15.

Abridgment Ass. fol. 43. Assise of Tenements in D. and S. the Tenant says that all is in S. if that be so, the Writ shall abate, for he cannot abridg a whole Town; but see now by the Statute of 21 H. 8. chap. 3. where he may abridg.

Abridgment of Ass. fol. 45. Assise of Lands in D. is no plea if there be two dayes, for that the Plaintiff shall recover, by the view of the Jury, 29 Ass. 59.

Abridgment of Ass. 106. Assise, Tenant pleads in Bar, and after the Jury hath the view, he leaves his Bar, and pleads to the Assise.

Plaint in Assise.

Plaint of profits of an Office, though it hath no form, it shall not abate; as first, It ought to suppose Disseisin, and after shall make title; and though it were not so, it shall not abate, 12 H. 6. f. 22.

Plaint of a Croft is good, but Precipe of a Croft is not good, Abridgment of Assise, fol. 130. b. and 8 H. 6. fol. 3.

Plaint of a Garment, or thirty shillings, though it be uncertain, for that it is according to the Deed, it is good, 11 Back of Ass. 8.

Attornment.

When any Mannor descends to the Lord, upon every descent to the Lord, it belongeth to the Steward at the first Court to make all the Tenants to make Fealty, and also upon every purchase of Mannor to enter the Fealty of every Tenant which holds of that, and also to enter their Attornment and Seisin of Services, to the end that the Lord may by this means distrain for his services, and the Tenants may hereafter be better known to him, and 28 H.8. tit.40. Attornment may be made by Tenants to the Lord in his Court, to the Steward or Purchasor, and not to his Servant in absence of the Lord.

For that something shall be said of Fealty, and where there ought to be Attornment, and where not.

IT is said, That the Tenant that hath made Homage to the Father, shall not make Homage to the Son, for that he hath once made Homage to his Lord, but yet he

he shall make Fealty to the Son, though he have made it to the Father; but if the Mannor be recovered against the Father which hath taken Homage, now he shall make Homage again, Littleton fol. 29.

If a Mannor be exchanged, yet there ought to be attornment, otherwise the Lord cannot distrain for the arrearages, Parkin fol. 47, 56, 58.

If one alien his Mannor by Deed indented of Bargain and Sale, and inrolls that according to the Statute; that is good without attornment, and the Lord may distrain for his services, and the same Law is of a Reversion so granted, but of a grant by Fine it is otherwise, 27 H. 8. ch. 16. 30 H. 8. tit. attornment.

If the King grant Reversion of Lands, or grant a Mannor to one, and his Heirs, or otherwise by his Letters Patents, the Patentee may distrain or avow without attornment, and he need no attornment. 34 H. 6. fol. 7. Fitzh. f. 60. 7. Ed. 3. tit. 13. Natura brevium. f. 171. accordingly, 12 Ed. 4. fol. 3.

Where a Mannor of Reversion is Devised by Will in writing, that is good, and shall pass without attornment, 19 H. 6. fol. 24. Littleton fol. 132. accordingly of Devise, where Lands were devisable by Custom, 13 H. 6. fol. 7.

Attornment.*

Where

Where a man lets for forty years, and after lets the same Land to another, to have the Land from the end of the first Term for twenty years, there needs no attornment; and contrary, when he grants a Reversion, to have the same Reversion at the end of the first term for twenty years then next ensuing, there ought to be attornment, by Herewood, 37 H.8. tit. 41. and 1 Ed. 6. tit. 4.

A man lets a house for life, and after grants the Reversion of the said house, to have from the Feast of St. Michael, next after the death of the Tenant for life, for 21 years then next following; this is good without attornment, for this passeth by (to have) the house as a Lease, and not as a Reversion; and also the Tenant for life is not attendant to him, 3 Mary. tit. 69.

One lets for twenty years, and this Lessee lets that for ten years, rendering Rent; and after this Lessee for twenty years grants the Reversion of the Term to a stranger, it behoveth, that the Lessee for ten years attorn; otherwise it is, if no Rent be reserved, 2 Ed. 6. tit. 45.

If a man lets for ten years, and the same Lessee lets that to another for four years; the Lessor makes a Feoffment to a stranger, by sufferance of the second Lessee; this is a good Feoffment, without Attornment of the first Lessee, 28 H. 8. tit. Feoffments; 68 B.

Two Joynt-Tenants, and one release to the other; it is good without attornment, 28 H. 6.

Attornment ought to be made by the Tenant in the life of the Grantor, for attornment after is not good, 16 Book of Assise, 25.

If my Tenant for life lets his estate to another upon Condition, for default of payment to re-enter, and after I grant the Reversion, and the first Tenant attorns, this is not good for he hath nothing at the time of the Grant of the Reversion, 8 H. 5. fol. 10.

A Man lets his Mannor for life, and after grants the Reversion of that to another: if the Tenant for life attorn, it is good, and all the services of all the Free-holders of the Mannor shall pass without other Attornment, 21 E. 3. fol. 34.

Payment of Rent is good attornment, 49 Ed. 3. f. 15. Payment of Rent in haine of Seisin is agreement and Seisin, 40 Ed. 3. fol. 34.

Where they are compellable to attorn; and where not: and what Tenants are compellable to attorn: and who not.

VV Here a Reversion or a Mannor is granted, unless it be by Fine, there lies no Quid juris clamat, to compell the Tenant to attorn, but upon Grant by Fine, and not upon a Grant of Reversion by Deed, Natura brevium, fol. 170.

If a man alien his Mannor, he need not that the Tenants at will attorn, and the same seems of Tenants by Copy of Court-Roll, Br. tit. 44. Littleton, fol. 125.

By Seisin by the hands of the Tenant at will, the Lord by that cannot avow, 8 H. 6. fol. 65. T6

Tenant for life grants his estate to J.S. upon condition, and after the Reversion is granted by Fine, and the first Tenant for life attorns; it is not good, and he is not compellable to attorn, but J.S. 8 H. 3. f. 10.

If I let for life, and after grant the Reversion by Fine, and after Tenant for life grant over his Estate to J.S. yet after attorns, it is good; for he was compellable to attorn, and not J.S. 18 Ed. 4. f. 10. & 21 H. 6. f. 61.

If Tenant in Dower grant over her Estate to J.S. and after the Reversion is granted by Fine, she is compellable to attorn, & not J.S. 10 H. 4. f. 30. 1 H. 4. f. 18. the same.

If I give Lands in tail, reserving Rent, and I grant that Rent by Fine, the Tenant shall be charged to attorn, otherwise it is if I grant the Reversion, for there he is not compellable to attorn, 5 H. 3. Statham.

Where any person is not compellable to attorn, and yet attorns; and their attornment good; and Where not.

Tenant after possibility of Issue extinct, is not compellable to attorn; and yet if he attorn, it is good, 43 Ed. 3. f. 15. 46 Ed. 3. fol. 13.

If Tenant in tail attorn, it is good; and yet he is not compellable to attorn, 3 Ed. 4. f. 11.

If a Lordship or Mannor be granted by Fine, and after the Tenant which holds of that, makes a feoffment or is disseised; if the Feoffee or Disseisor attorn, it is good, and yet they are not compellable to attorn, 18 Ed. 4. fol. 10.

If a man lets for 10 years, and the same Lessee lets

for four years attornment of the second Lessee is good, and yet he is not compellable to attorn; and clear is attornment of the first, for he ought to attorn, 28 H.8. tit. feoffments 68.

If I let for life, and grant the Reversion by fine, and after the Grant; and before attornment, the tenant for life lets over his estate to J.S. and he attorns gratis; it is good, and yet he is not compellable to attorn, 21 H.6. fol. 34. and 20 Ed. 3. Brooks is. 24.

Fine is levied of a Lordship; and before attornment the Tenant makes a Feoffment, and after the Feoffee attorns; this is good, and yet he was not compellable to attorn, but his Feoffor was compellable, 18 Ed. 4. fol. 10.

Now let us see that the Grantee by Fine without Attornment, cannot have action, nor avow for Rent, which is in lieu of action, nor have waste: but may have all other things, as entry for forfeiture, and have escheat and things in seisin, and take, and have aid.

VHere a Reversion is granted by Fine, the right passeth, and for that Tenant for life shall have aid, though he make no attornment, 12 E. 4. fol. 3. 37 H.6. fol. 5. the same, 35 H.6. fol. 5.

Attorney

Attorney in Court-Baron.

They that have Tenements in divers Counties, and fear to be impleaded in a County, or in a Court-Baron, may make a general Attorney to prosecute for them in all Pleas. West. 2. chap. 10.

It is likewise provided, that every Freeman which oweth suit to the County Court, Tithing, Hundred, or to the Court of his Lord, freely may make his Attorney to follow his Suits for him; so it appears, that a Copy-holder cannot so do, but by assent of the Lord, he may compound to pay a certainty yearly, to release his Suit, and that which he holdeth, he may freely by the Statute; and it seems, that the making of an Attorney, ought to be by writing sealed, and not by word. Merton, chap. 10.

A Writ of making an Attorney or receiving, lieth in Court-Baron, to make the Attorney to make suit. Fitzh. 175. B. there lieth an Alias, Pluries, and an attachment, if he be not allowed; but Copy-holder shall not have the Writ. Fitzh. 156. D.

One may make an Attorney to make suit personal, which is in a Hundred or other Court-Baron; but for suit Real, at the Leet or turn of the Sheriff, he shall not make that by an Attorney, Fitzh. 25. c.

What Action shall be sued in a Court-Baron by plaintiff, and what not.

WHere one sues several plaintiffs for five Marks, the other shall have prohibition. And Detinue of Writings shall not be sued there; and if he doth, the other shall have a prohibition. 5 Ed. 4. fol. 38.

Where 20 l. is parted in several plaintiffs under 40 l. prohibition lies. Note, there it is said, superfedius lies and the Defendant there with safe conscience may wage his Law. But see 48 Ed. 3. Fitzh. fol. 46. A.

The Lord himself shall have debt in his Court-Baron, for that that the Suitors are Judges, time of Ed. 101. sit. Debt, in Fitzh. 177. 6 Ed. 4. fol. 3. Suitors are Judges there.

Debt or Trespass may be sued in Court-Baron, by plaint, but that is where the Debt or Damage is under forty shillings; that the Defendant in Trespass plead his Free-hold, or that the Plaintiff is his Villain, the Court shall cease: otherwise, a Writ of false Judgment lyeth, and also it is good exception to the Jurisdiction of a Court B. to say, that the contract was made out of the Man in another Town, 34 H. 6. f. 53.

A Man shall not have a count in Court Baron, nor in County, 43 Ed. 3. fol. 15.

Plea ought not to be removed in Debt or Trespass from this Court, but where a Debt or Damages amount above forty shillings, or in Replegiars but I intend there shall not be a plea in Replegiare in every Mannor, but in this Mannor where the Lord hath ancient authority by Charter to make Replegiare; yet divers seem the contrary. See Fitz. Nat. Breu. 14 H. 8. fol. 17.

Trespass, Damages found eight pence in the common Bench; and the Plaintiff recovers, but he cannot there count under 40 s. and in Court Baron he cannot count above 40 s. but under that, 19 H. 6. fol. 8.

Detinue of Goods may be sued in a Court Bar. 6 E. 2.

Every stranger which comes within the Mannor, may be sued there in Debt or Trespass, under 40 s. so that Debt, Detinue of Goods, and such actions personals (except account) where the Debt or Damages is under 40 s. it is determinable in a Court Baron, by plea there, 34 H. 6. fol. 53.

Trespass (by force of arms) doth not lye in a Court Baron: Note, that the contrary is used, 7 E. 4. fol. 23.

Sheriff in the County may hold plea by Justices of the great Sommons: but Justices shall not be in a Court Baron: for Justices shall not be directed to the Steward, but to the Sheriff: and the Sheriff is Judge in Justices and Officer to the Court: but so is not the Steward, 21 Ed. 4. fol. 79 Fitzh fol. 193. F.

Note, that Court Baron hath no authority to hold plea of Free-hold, and of that to give judgment: for execution thereof, that is a Disseisin to the Tenant, 22 H. 6. 64. Glauville 94 saith, No man is tyed to answer

In the Court of his Lord of a Free-hold, without the command of the Lord the King. Right patent may be directed to the Lord to be tried in a Court-Baron, but it cannot be tryed there by great assise, but it seems it may be tryed by Battel, and if the Tenant Joyn Battel, the Lord may give day to try it: but Fit. fol. 4. E. saith, If the Lord will proceed, or Issue is joyned upon the great assise, prohibition lies, and if Bastardy or any Forrain plea be pleaded, then they have no Jurisdiction in Court-Baron: and if they proceed, prohibition lies. Time of Ed. 1. tit. Drait. 45. 1 H. 6. fol. 7.

If plaint of Debt, or Trespass be sued there, and Forrain matter is pleaded, it shall not be tryed in Court-Baron, 1 H. 5. fol. 12.

If in a Writ of Right patent in Court-Baron for Charter Land, the Lord will not proceed to do right, the Demandant may go to the Sheriff, and have a (Tol) which is a command to his Bayliff, that he take out the complaint, and remove the Plea into the County, and after that also by a (Pone) in the Common Bench, but the Tenant shall not have a (Tol) but he shall have a (Recordare) with the cause, and the Demandant may have a (Pone) without cause, Fit. fol. 3. E.

Note, that a Writ of Right Patent ought to be sued in the Lords Court, and not other where, without the license of the Lord, Testimony of the King, by Letter, or other wise, that he hath given License: and then he shall have his Writ, because the Lord hath remitted his Court in the Common Bench, Nat. Brew. fol. 15.

None may distrain Free Tenants to answer of a Free-hold, nor any thing belonging to the Free-hold, without the Kings Writ, Martlet. chap. 22.

Copy-holders shall not be impleaded by the Kings Writ, but shall be impleaded in the Court of their Lord by plaint, in nature of what Writ they will, Lit. f. 16.

Debt upon a Bill obligatory under forty shillings lyeth in a Court-Baron.

Fit. 2. E. If a Right patent be sued there in Court-Baron, and Forraign matter be pleaded there, or Issue joyned to be tryed by great Assise, there shall go a prohibition.

Actions in Court-Baron.

Fitzh. 39 C. The Tenants may have prohibition directed to the Sheriff to prohibit Bayliffs of the Court where the Mise is joyned in a Writ of Right upon the Grand Assise, unless Battall were there offered. Marleb. chap. 20. None, except the Lord the King, shall hold pleas in his Court, of false Judgment given in the Court of his Tenants, because these pleas especially belong to the Crown.

Fitzh. 4. E. If a plea be held there which ought not, a prohibition lieth.

Fitzh. 47. B. Detaining of Writings shall not be sued in a Court-Baron.

Fitzh. 139. D. If a man hold plea in Countrey of Trespas by force of Arms, the Defendant may sue a Superfedeas out of the Chancery.

The same Law seems in a Court-Baron, 8 Ed. 4. tit. Jurisdiction.

B. 215. See Fitzh. 85. C. That Trespas shall be brought in Court-Baron, and there see the form of the Writ, but it is not by force of Arms there.

Britton folio 61. That Debt and Trespas shall be sued in a Court-Baron.

Fitzh. 85. G. Trespas Viscountile, there shall not be (by force of arms) in the Writ.

8 Ed. 4. tit. 115. Trespas doth not lie in a Court-Baron, (by force of arms) for a Fine shall not be set but in a Court of Record, and for that it shall not be there (by force of arms). See Glocester, chap. 8.

22 Aff. 64. If one implead me in a Court-Baron, without a Writ, and recover damages, where I plead to the Jurisdiction, and the Court ought to be outed; yet if the Bayliff make execution of these Damages by command of the Steward, he shall not be punished in Trespas: for he doth that which he ought to do, till it be defeated by false Judgment: but if it were (before not a Judge) it is void, and otherwise.

9 H. 7. fol. 12. Recovery in the Common Bench of Lands, in the Countreies of Lancaster, Durban, or Cheshire, is there (before not a Judge); otherwise it is there, of recovery of Land, in the (five Ports.)

Glocester chap. 8. It is provided, that the Sheriffs shall plead in Countreies the pleas of Trespass also, as they were wont to be pleaded, &c.

13 H. 7. fol. 20. Waste, to plead in that is not good: for that that Land shall be recovered, and so in an (Ejectione firme) and so it is in a (colligandum,) they shall not be sued here, and by Fitzb. 220. H. Plaintiff shall recover his Term and damages.

Littleton, fol. 60. If there be two Tenants in Common for years, and one put the other out of possession, he shall have an (Ejectione firme) of his half, for that it is to recover a real Chatrel. So it seems that shall not be sued here, nor an Ejectment of Ward which is in realty.

Fitzb. 220. H. Process of Outlawry lies in an (Ejectione firme) and yet he shall recover his Land again, unless it be expired, and also his damages.

Littleton 93. A Writ of Waste is a mixt Action, so is an Assise of Novel Disseisin, and a (Quare Impedit) and for that they shall not sue here.

Action upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. nor upon the Statute of R. 2. shall not be sued here, for that that they are given by Statute, but an Action upon the Case may be sued here if the damages are under 40 s.

11 H. 4. f. 38. Precipe, that he should restore a certain portion of Land, is good by Hink and Hill.

6 Ed. 3. tit. Demand 41. Precipe of 8 foot of Land in length, and 6 in breadth, and good.

13 Ed. 3. tit. 32, & 33. Precipe of an Oxgangs of Land, is good: Contrary of an Oxgangs of Marsh, for that cannot be gained, tit. Demand. 33, & 36.

40 As. 9. Precipe shall be brought in a Town, and not in a Hamlet, 34 H. 9. f. 1. the same.

34 H. 6. f. 20. Præcipe shall be in a Town, or of a Mannor, which is a place known out of a Town, and not in a Hamlet. But an Assise in a Hamlet is good, and also in Dower.

Who hath most Right, and Right ought to be sued there.

L 11. f. 91. If a man be Disseised by an Infant, the which alieneth in Fee, and the alienee dyes seised, and his Heir enter, the Infant within age, he may have a (Dum suit infra ætatem) or a Writ of Right, or (Entry) at his election: for he hath more right then the Heir of the Alienee. But if the Disseisee release to the Heir of the Alienee, if now he bring a Writ of Right, the Issue shall be upon the meer right, and shall be found for the Heir: for now he hath more right by the release of the Disseisee.

Littleton, fol. 93. If a Disseisor dye seised, and his Heir in by Discent, if the Disseisee enter, and the Heir of the Disseisor brings an Assise, he ought to recover: But if he brings a Writ of Right, the issue shall be upon the meer right and there the Heir shall be barred: for the Disseisee hath more right.

Right Patent is to be directed to the Lord, of whom the Land is held, unless it be held of the King or Queen, and it is a Commission to the Lord, that he shall do right: and it may be removed by a (Recordare) by the Tenant with cause, and by a (Pone) by the Demandant without cause, and after that it be removed in County, it may be removed by the Demandant by a (Tolt) Fitzh. fol. B. and Britton, fol. 275. where the Tenant purs him upon the grand Assise, it shall be removed, Fitz. fol. 1. F.

Where Judgment final shall be, and where not.

IN a Writ of Right, Judgment final shall be given: But after the Mife joyned, and upon every recovery upon departure in despite of the Court, Judgment final shall be: as in right against a Prior, which voucherh common Cryer, which entreth into the Warranty, and the demandant Imparis, and at the day the Vouchee Vouchee departs in despite of the Court, and upon this Judgment final given, 26 H.8. fol. 10. 12 H.7. fol. 10. If the Tenant in Writ of Right joyn with the Mise, and after depart in despite of the Court, Judgment final shall be given. So if he joyn the Mise by a Champion, and make default, Judgment final shall be given; but if he make default at the Nisi Prius, and upon a petty Capias, yet he cannot save his default, Judgment final shall not be. The same Law if he make default after default, before the Mise joyned, Judgment final shall not be.

Fitzh. fol. 11. If a man loose by default in a Writ of right before the Mise joyned, yet he shall have a Writ of right against him which recovers. But after the Mise joyned it is otherwise, for then upon default after the Mise joyned, the Judgment shall be final as well against the Defendant for his Non-suit, as against the Tenant, if he make default afterwards.

10 H.6. fol. 12. Right, the Tenant vouches, and the vouchee comes in and joyns issue, and the Demandant imparls till the next day; and at the day, the Tenant was demanded and makes default; Judgment final shall not be given against the Vouchee there.

1 H.6. fol. 7. Where the Mise is joyned by batrel in right, and after the Champion of the Tenant maketh default, Judgment final shall be given.

Time of Ed. 1. iii. 44. If the Tenant make default after the Mise joyned, he shall loose the Land for ever, if he cannot save his default.

3 H.6. fol. 37. If the Tenant in right saith, that he hath more right, ready to try by Battel, and the Plaintiff rejoyns, and day given, and at the day, the Tenant makes default; and for that, that the Justices see a Fine, by which the Tenant hath but an Estate tail, they advise of the Judgment, and clearly where the Tenant maketh default after the Mise joyned, if it were Fee, Judgment final should be.

Process in Court-Baron.

Process in Court-Baron, is Summons, Attachment, and Distress, which is Process at the Common-Law, 34 H.6. fol. 53. & 37 H.6. fol. the same.

By Martin, one cannot have a Capias in Court-Baron, nor Execution there (by Capias to satisfy) but the natural execution and Process is, Attachment of Goods, as after more at large appears, 3 H.6. fol. 56.

Process upon Plaints for Copy-hold Land, is the same Process, which is at the Common-Law, in nature of what Writ the Plaintiff is.

Amerciament in Court-Baron for Suit and otherwise, and what remedy for that, and where it shall be moderate.

Moderata Misericordia lyes, where a man is amerced in a Court-Baron outrageously, and upon that also lyeth, Alias, Pluries, and Attachment. But if the Amerciament be affiered by equals, moderata misericordia doth not lye, 10 E.2. tit. Action upon the Stat. 34.

And note, that this is the cause, that in all Court-Barons three are sworn to affier the Amerciaments, after that the homage hath presented the offences; and Bracton calls them Trustees, Amercers, and Affierors; also it seems to be by the Statute of Magna Charta, c. 14. and by Westminster, 1 chap. 6. which is, that a man be not amerced, but by his equals, Fitzh. fol. 75. A.

Debt lyeth by the Lord, for Amerciament in his Court-Baron affiered, and there held that the Defendant may wage his Law in his Action, also Amerciament may be in Court-Baron upon the Plaintiff, if he be non-suited, and upon the Defendant if it be found against him; or if he fail of his Law, Stattham, 12 R.2. fol. 65.

A Freeman shall not be amerced for a small fault, but according to the manner of that fault; and for a great one, according to the greatness of the fault, saving to him his Freehold; and to a Merchant, saving his Merchandize; and to a Villain, saving his waynage. And upon this Statute is (moderata misericordia) founded founded, as appeareth by the Register. And Glanville saith, there is also mercy, because who by the Oath of lawful men is amerced, shall loose nothing of his honourable Free-hold, Magna Charta, chap. 14.

If the Lord of his own head amerce any Tenant or party in the Court-Baron without cause, the party may have a Trespass if he be distrained for that Amerciament, Fitzh. f. 75. c.

If the Steward or the Bayliff will assess any Amerciament without assenting by two upon their Oaths, after that the homage hath presented the Offenders, there is a special Writ there, upon the Statute of Magna Charta, chap. 14. u. on these words, That none shall be put upon the aforesaid mercies, but by the Oath of good and lawful men, so that the Steward cannot confirm the said Amerciaments by this Statute, but the assisors, or affirmors, Fitzh. fol. 76 D.

Amerciament in Court-Baron, which is the 12 and 13th Article of the Charge, for a Trespass done to the Lord, and what remedy for it.

Lord of Court Baron may have Action of Debt in his own Court for Amerciament due to him for that, that the Suitors are Judges there, and not the Lord in his Lordship. Time E. 1. c. 11. 177. & Statute, 12 R. 2. fol. 5.

Debt lyeth by the Lord for Amerciament assessed in Court-Baron, and assented there, and Br. & in saith, that the Assisors shall confirm, that they shall oppress none for hate, nor ease others for love, and that they shall not conceal those things which they hear, so that the Lord cannot Amerce for Trespass done unto himself, unless by Custom and usage, otherwise it is Extortion.

The Lord cannot amerce a man in his own Court, for Trespass made to himself by the Law, but he may by Custom: but if he levy the Amerciament, it is a good bar in Trespass, be the Custom so or not: and if it be not used it is Extortion, 12 H. 4. f. 19.

It seems that for a small Trespass made to the Lord he may be amerced in the Lords Court, and if it be confirmed and paid, the Lord shall not have Trespass of that, 14 E. 4. f. 2. and 7 H. 4. f. 8. If

If Tenant be amerced in the Lords Court, for trespass to the Lord, it is Extortion; but if the Lord accept the Amerciament, it is good satisfaction for the trespass, and good bar in trespass, 48 Ed.3. f.8.

In trespass by the Lord, it is a good bar, that the trespass was affirmed by the Suitors, 48 Ed.3. f.8. and 47 Ed.3. fol. 19.

Attachment in Court-Baron upon debt or trespass, or in any other Action, it seems that he shall forfeit the thing attached upon default; and, what thing shall be attached, and what not, let us see.

By Billing, Wangford, and Needham, that in (Pone) in Court-Baron the goods attached, if he make default, shall be forfeit to the Lord, tit. Court-Baron, 1 Book Report, 37 H.6. fol. 49.

If a Bayliff attach a Beast in a Court-Baron, and it was returned attached, and doth not come, it is forfeit to the Lord, 28 H.6. fol. 9.

If the Sheriff attach a Cow, the property is not out of the Defendant, till he make default upon return of that; and if the Sheriff leave the Cow attached with the Defendant, yet if he make default, it is forfeit to the King, and the Sheriff may take it with him at the first if he will, 9 H.7. fol. 6.

By B. y. m. A Plaint cannot be affirmed in a Court-Baron, but the Court sitting, and so attachment shall be awarded, the Court sitting; notwithstanding it is used otherwise, 21 E.4. f. 79.

By Babington, That Attachment shall be by a meer chattel, which shall be forfeited by default of the party; but it shall not be by a chattel real, as a Lease for years, or a Ward, nor for apparel, 7 H.6. fol. 10.

That Attachment shall be of chattels which a man may forfeit by Outlawry, 26 H.6. tit. Affse, 14.

By Moyl, That no goods shall be attached but the proper goods of the party, and not the goods which the Party hath in pawn, or that he hath borrowed, 35 H.6. fol. 25.

Per me J. K. Seneschall.

Note, That in a Court-Baron a man shall be attached by goods, and there shall issue no Capias there.

Where the Entry is, The great Court of J. S. there held, this is but a Court-Baron. And where the Entry is, To the great Court with Leet, it is presented, & the is uncertain and not good: for the Entries shall be several, as it follows afterwards, 10 Ed. 4. f. 17.

By-Laws.

I intend, That By-Laws and Plaints, which is the 21. Article of the Charge, may be made in a Court-Baron, as well as in Leet.

It is said, That a Town may make By-Laws, 11 A.
7. f. 14; and 44 Ed. 3. f. 19. and that where By-Laws are for the Commonwealth, are good; and it is generally that By-Laws may be: and it is not material in what Court, so I intend, for those causes were made in Court-Baron.

By-Laws for Inheritance shall not bind, but those which were parties to it, and not any other which was no party, 15 Eliz.

One By-Law may order the Inheritance of a man, but cannot dis-inherit any, by Manwood, 15 Eliz.

By-Law may be made in Leet, and may be in a Town.

Town by Harper, and shall bind every one, if it be for the Commonwealth, and otherwise not, but only he which agrees, and not a stranger, 11 H.7. fol. 14.

One allowst taking of distress, and prescribes, That, &c. there was a Custom had, that all the Tenants, or the greater part of the Tenants of this Mannor, and other the Residents and Inhabitants within that Mannor, or the greater part thereof, to the Court-Baron of that Mannor, held at the said Mannor, were used and accustomed to make Laws, called By-Laws; which proves, that By-Laws may be made in Court-Baron, as in Court-Leet.

2. Eliz. Dyer saith, That a Steward by assent of the Tenants in his Court, could not by the Law apportion himself, and the residue of the Tenants, of their Common for Sheep, if they have that by the Grant of the Lord himself: But if they have that by prescription, otherwise it is. And they may agree, That he which surcharges, shall pay to the Lord so much; but then it behoveth the Lord to shew Authority by prescription, that his Tenants have made such By-Laws of the Commons; and other things of Land, of time whereof, &c. and ought also to prescribe, That he had used to distrain for that; but if such Amercement had been paid without distress of their accord, that is good evidence to the prescription of distraining.

Copy-holders.

Now let us see of Copy-hold, which is the 22 Article of the charge. And first, What interest a Copy-holder hath by the Law; and what by the Custom.

TRespass by Tenant by Copy, it doth not lie against his Lord for his Copy-hold. Besides, Danby and Bryan, 21 Ed. 4. But he shall have a Suspensa against his Lord, and not a Trespass, 7 Ed. 4. fol. 19. And at this day it is held, That a Trespass lies.

Tenant for life by Copy, shall say in his pleading, That he is seised in his Demesne as of a Freehold, according to the Custom of the Mannor; and if he have Fee, Fee, that he is seised in his Demesne as of Fee, according to the Custom of the Mannor, and justify not, that they have no Freehold at the Common-Law, but by the Custom: so that Copyholder hath Fee and Freehold by the Custom, and not by the Common-Law, as it seems by this Book, 21 Ed. 4. tit. 96.

Trespass against the Tenant by Copy, hath aid of his Lord, 15 H. 7. fol. 10. and 21 H. 6. the same.

Copyholder may have Trespass against one of Trees cut, though that the Freehold be in the Lord. So by this it seems that he may have Trespass against every one for trespass made upon the Land, but against the Lord, 2 H. 4. fol. 13.

The Dean of Pauls hath a Lordship of Ploughers, and all the Tenants are Tenants at will and the Freehold is in the Lord; and there it appears, that a Copyholder may have a Trespass at the Common-Law, against one which makes a trespass upon his Land, but he cannot sue Action at the Common-Law for the Land, nor remove that Suit out of the Court of the Lord, 1 H. 5. fol. 11.

The Lord shall have the Wood of the Copyhold, and sell it, unless the Copyholder have that by Custom, as in many Mannors he hath, 2 H. 4. fol. 13. & 43 Ed. 3 fol. 32.

Tenant by Copy at Will, which is called Tenant of base Tenure, if he be outed, shall not have a Right Close, but sue by Bill in the Court of the Lord, and in times past a Copyholder was called a Tenant in Villenage, or of base Tenure, Fitzh. f. 12. B.

Tenant by Copy or by verge of will at base Tenure, shall never have a (Monstraverunt) but the Copyholder in Ancient Demesne of Freehold shall have it, Fitzh. 14. D.

If my Copyholder Enfeoff one, I may enter for forfeiture, 11 H. 4 fol. 81.

Tenant by Copy cannot alien his Land by a Deed, for if he do, it is forfeit, Littleton, f. 15.

If a man lets a Mannor for years, in which they are Copyholders, and after a Copyholder dies, surrender and admittance by the Lord, the Termor in Court of that Mannor, is as well as if he had the Fee simple, 4 Mar. tit Cpy, Br. 17.

Copy-

Copyholders shall not have false Judgment, for then they shall be restored to the Freehold, or shall not lose the Freehold, but ought to sue by Bill; that is to say, by plaint in Court, 7 Ed. 4. fol. 19. the same, Lit. fol. 16. They shall not be impleaded by the Kings Writ, but by plaint in the Lords Court in nature of what the Writ will, Natura Brevium, fol. 18.

Copyholders have an Estate of inheritance according to the Custom of the Mannors yet they have no Freehold by the course of the Common-Law, Lit. fol. 16.

Tenant by Copy shall make Fealty to his Lord and Tenant at Will by the Common-Law, Littleton, fol. 17.

It is said, Though Copyholders have Inheritance according to the Custom, yet they have but an estate at the will of the Lord, according to the course of the Common-Law, and cannot have Trespass against their Lord; yet they may barr their Lord in Trespass brought by the Lord against his Copyholder, as it appears, Lit. fol. 15. and 16.

Tenant by the Verge in Ancient Demesne.

Lands held by the Verge. are not pleadable by the Kings Writ, but by Bill, for that, that the Freehold is in the Lord; but there is a diversity between Plow-holders of Frank-tenure, and Plow-holders of base tenure, which are dwelling in Ancient Demesnes for Plow-holders of Freehold are pleadable by a Writ of Right Close; but Plow-holders of base tenure, are those which hold by Verge at the Will of the Lord, and the Freehold is in the Lord, and are not pleadable by a Writ of Right Close, 14 H. 4. fol. 1. and 34 Fitzh. fol. 14. C.

Tenant by Copy which holds by the Verge in Ancient Demesne, commits Felony and was attainr, the King hath year, day, and waste, for that, that the Freehold was in the Tenant in Ancient Demesne, and yet they have no other evidence then Copies of Court-Roll: Otherwise it is, of meer Copyholders which are out of Ancient Demesne, for the Freehold is in the Lord: I have seen in the County of North, Copyholders of Frank-tenure out of ancient Demefn, and have used a Writ of Right Close, and have no other Evidences but by Copies, according to the Custom of the Mannor, but their Copies are not at the will of the Lord, 3 Ed. 3. iit. Br. 22. Stamford, fol. 50.

Fitzh. 11. Copyholders of a base Tenure shall not have a Writ of Right Close, but ought to sue by Bill in the Lords Court.

Nat. Br. v. 11. Right Close lyeth alwaies between Plowholder; and no Plowholder may implead another Plowholder of Lands within ancient Demefn, unless by this Writ, and shall make his proffestation to sue in nature of what Writ he will.

Britton, fol. 165. Calls Tenants in Antient Demefn Plowholders; and saith, That Plowholders are such which gain our Land.

Fitzh. 14. D. Those Tenants in Ancient Demefn, which hold by the Verge by Copy at the will of the Lord, shall not have (Monstraverunt) against their Lord.

Where a Copyholder enters, and dies before he was admitted Tenant.

IT was held in the Case of one Herrwood, That where a Copyholder hath a daughter by one Belly, and a Son and daughter by another, and dies, and after the Son enters, and dies before admittance, that the Daughter of the second Belly shall have the Land, for it is a possession of the Brother. And so it was adjudged in the Case of one Stegues.

These Cases following, I heard agreed for Law.

IF Tenant by Copy surrender generally into the hands of the Lord, and it do not appear who shall have the Land, nor to what use the Surrender is, then the Lord shall be seised to his own use.

If Tenant by Copy let for years by License of the Lord, and after release to the Lessee by these words

In the Court, (Remise and Release) it is void, for that is ought to be Surrendered into the hands of the Lord, and then the Lord ought to grant the Reversion to the Lessee: for by Lisleton, fol. 15. It cannot pass without Surrender, and yet a release is used of Copyhold in the Court in the presence of the Steward.

If the Lord grant parcel of his Demesne Lands, to hold by Copy, to one and his heirs, this Copy is not good, but at the Will of the Lessor: for one cannot make Copyhold at this day, but that shall be by prescription, which hath been demised and demiseable by Copy, time out of mind, &c. But if a Copyhold escheat to the Lord, or he enter in that by forfeiture, and at this day grant that over to J.S. by Copy, this is good Copy: And yet in 13 H. 4. fol. 7. If Lands in ancient Demesne are escheated, and the King seiserh them, and grants them over to J.S. they are Frank-Fee, and not ancient Demesne.

6 H. 4. fol. 2. But if a Copyhold shall be escheated to the Lord, and twenty years after that, he grants them over by Copy again, they are Copyhold as they were before; for that, that this Land hath been demised and demiseable, time out of mind, &c.

If two be Joyne Tenants by Copy, and one of them makes waste in all the Land, that shall not be forfeiture, but for his part: and also if a stranger cuts Trees, and makes waste without Assent of the Copyholder, it is no forfeiture.

If the Lord of a Mannor, to which there are Copyholders, grant by Copy the Tenements of one Tenant Copyholder, without just cause to another Tenant in Fee, or for life, and the Grantee enter by virtue of this Grant, the Tenant which hath Right, and which was admitted before; may have a Plaint in nature of an Assise of Novel Disseisin against the Grantee.

If the Husband Surrender into the hands of the Lord, to the use of his Wife, and doth not say A. his wife; it is a good Surrender, for she is certainly known by that name: The same Law is, if one Surrender into the hands of the Lord, to the use of J. his Son, and hath two Sons named J, it is to the use of that J, which it is meant to.

If Tenant by Copy, surrender his Lands by Custom of the Mannor, or two good men out of the Court, to the use of a stranger, and that made for money paid, he which surrendered cannot countermand his Surrender, before the two good men have presented it at the next Court; for it is much like acknowledging of a Fine before a Justice of Record: but where the Surrender is to two, to the use of his Wife or Son, and not to a stranger for money paid, by one lying in extremity in peril of death; and after he revives, he may well countermand his Surrender, before it be presented in Court, or after, if it be not by that admitted afterwards; and that is often used, and stands with reason, and so is the Law as it seems to me.

If Tenant by Copy of Court-Roll be attaint of Felony or Treason, the Lord of the Mannor may enter, for Tenant by Copy, is but Tenant at Will, according to the Common Law, though he hath Inheritance by the Custom.

If a Copyholder Surrender into the hands of the Lord, to the use of another and his heirs; if the Lord will not admit him Tenant, then the Land shall remain in him which made the Surrender; and yet he, whose use it was made, may sue by a Petition, or by Subpoena, to be admitted.

If one which hath no right, and was not admitted, surrender to the use of another; and he to whose use the surrender is made, enters into the Land, and is admitted; yet he which hath right may re-enter, and ouster him, notwithstanding the Grant of the Lord.

But it seems, If a Copy-holder descends to J.S. and he before that he is admitted Tenant, Surrender that to the use of J.D. and the Lord by his Steward in Court grant Seisin, and admits him Tenant; it is said to be a good Surrender, and J.D. shall enjoy the Land against J.S. and his Heirs: Seek, for in the case against Roo, the Issue was, if he were admitted according to the Custom of the Mannor, or not; and yet this is no disproof of their Opinion; but if a Copy-holder Surrender to the use of J.S. J.S. cannot Surrender before he be admitted.

Quere.
Chancel-lour.

The Lord of the Mannor (where the Custom is that the Tenants hold by Copy is Chancellour within the same Court, and may redress matters there in Conscience where a Bill is exhibited to him; so that the Copy-holders are no Judges in the Court. Sutens.

If an Under Steward hold a Court-Baron without authority of the Lord or high Steward; and the Lord agree, and do not contradict the Steward, and there be Surrenders made, and Admittances of Copy-holders in the Court, this is good; but, if he take a Surrender, and admit one out of the Court without Authority of the Lord or High Steward; this is not good: notwithstanding a lawful Steward, as it seems, may take a Surrender out of the Court; and Admittance made out of the Court is good, if it be entred in the Court Roll, that he is admitted; and hath paid his Fine, and hath done Fealty. Steward.

And if one holds but one Court by appointment of the Lord, where another hath a Patent to be Steward, and is absent; Surrender taken, and entred in this Court is good, and also is admittance, 2 E. 6. tit. 26.

Note, that the High Stewards are for most part men of honour, and great men by patent; and their under-Stewards are men learned, and are appointed by them, and without Patent; and the use is, that they which are under-Stewards to such men, take Surrenders out of the Court, and they are well taken by such Under-Stewards, and the parties are admitted in the Courts held by them, that is in open Court: and also no doubt, when such under-Steward takes Surrender out of the Court, and that is presented by the Homage, as the usage is in the Court, and the party admit accordingly, this is good: for without Authority these are not; for if J. S. make a command to the Bayliff, to warn the Court to be held such a day; and it is warned, and J. S. keeps the Court, and is not contradicted by the Lord: Surrender taken by this J. S. out of the Court, and presented and entred in this Court, is good, though that J. S. have no Patent of his Office, for it is not without Authority: for if he cannot keep Court without a Patent, then to every Court it becometh the Steward should shew his Patent, which is not used, and was never in Issue; whether the Steward ward had a Patent or not, nor if J. S. be Steward or not; and especially if he keep his Court warned by his command by divers daies, before the Court kept; or if the Lord agree that he shall keep the Court, and it is inconvenient that for defect in the Steward which takes Surrender out of the Court, and enters it in the Court by the allowance of the Homage; but that it should be good, otherwise one may say, thirty or forty years after, that the Steward had no Patent of his Office, which is inconvenient, and ought not to be.

Where the Steward of the Bishop of London, of his Mannor of Hornsey, hath a Patent of his Office, with confirmation of the Dean and Chapter by the name of Aldred Fitzjames, where the name was Edheldred; Surrenders taken by him out of the Court, and at the next Court are entered, it is found by the Homage that such Surrender was made, &c. and at the same Court the Tenant is admitted accordingly; and though that his Patent in time of the Successor after in Assise against him be defeated by mis-naming or by other cause; yet the Surrenders taken by Aldred Fitzjames (during all the time of twenty years before this Patent was defeated) are good and perfect, for that, that the Surrender was; it is found by the Homage, and also for that he was the known Steward, and also for that he is Judge, 33 H. 8. Br. cha. 22 35 consim. 30

The same Law seems in the same case, if the entry were, it is witnessed by the Steward, or at this Court it is enrolled, so, that is to say, that J. S. came before the Steward (the Court being absent) and surrendered, &c. and in full Court the admittance is accordingly, that is a good Surrender, though it be not entered, it is found by the Homage, &c. for the entry of admittance in.

The Lord by A. Fitzjames Steward, gave him Spilfin thereof, and it is that the Lord by his Steward admitted him; and for that it is good, inasmuch that to that is the Assent and Grant of him which surrendered, and also of the Lord.

The same Law, if the high Steward to J. S. which hath no Patent in writing of his Office, takes a Surrender out of the Court, and at the next Court enters that, at the next Court it is enrolled; so that J. S.

came before the Steward (the Court being absent) and Surrendred, &c. and he to whose use the Surren. was made, be admitted in full Court, this is a good Surren.

The same Law is like, if J. D. be a Steward to a Corporation, without a Parent of his Office, and take Surrender as above, out of the Court; and at the next Court enters it, at this Court inrolled, so that J. D. such a day came before J. D. Steward, and surrendred, &c. And he to whose use the Surrender is made, is admitted in full Court; this is a good Surrender, for that, that the Steward doth in a Court of Copy-hold, he doth it as Judge, and is allowed Judge by the Lord.

The same Law is, if the Servant which is outlawed in a personal Action, or excommunicated, take a Surrender out of the Court, and at the next Court enters it, it is witnessed by the Steward; and such a Surrender is made, and admits him, to whose use the Surrender was made in full Court, though it was not found by the Homage, yet this Surrender is good.

If a Judge or Justice be out of his Wits, yet the Fines, Judgments, and other Records which were before him, shall be good; but contrary, the Gift of an Office, or such like by him, for that it is a matter in Deed, and the others are matters of Record; for a matter in Deed may be avoided (by being out of his wits); contrary of matter of Record, 1 Mar. tit. Dum non fuit compos mentis 7.

The same Law is, if the under-Steward takes a Surrender out of the Court, and at the next Court makes his Entry of it; at this Court it is witnessed that J. D. Surrendred, and in full Court he to whose use the Surrender is made, and admitted; this is a good Surrender, though it be not also (it is found by the Homage) for when he holds Court, he is a Judge between the Lord and the Copyholders; and yet, 2 Ed. 6. Br. Courts B. 22. and Copyhold. 26. is, if the under-Steward holds a Court-Bar, and in full Court grant Copyhold without the Authority of the Lord, or High-Steward, this is good; contrary Law, where it is done out of the Court: for it seems, if the under-Steward grants Copyholds, it is intended, that if he admits any out of the Court without Authority it is not good; for it is, the L. granted by his ward, and not that the Steward granted, for he cannot grant. And also the High Steward may admit out of the Court; by special usage and custom within the Mannor used; for one which holds by Copy of Court-Roll, ought to have his Estate entred into the Court held, and his Admittance to be entred in the Court; and for that if the under-Steward or the High Steward which hath no patent, as above, take Surrender out of the Court, and present that in Court, and the Tenant be in the Court admitted; it is good for it is the Lord by his Steward hath admitted; and the admittance makes a Copy-holder; and the Entry of that in Court makes him Tenant by Copy of Court Roll; for Copy-holder is he which holdeth by Copy of Court-Roll; so where one is admitted in Court, and the Lord allows a Steward, tis good.

If a Copyholder of an Estate in Fee, according to the Custom of the Mannor, by License of his Lord let for twenty years, rendring forty shillings yearly, he may have an action of Debt in the common place for this Rent; or as it seems he may distrain and avow, and yet the Avowry is in the nature of an Action real; and it seems, no doubt, if the Rent be reserved by Deed Indent, but that he may distrain and avow; and yet if (he to whose use) before the Statute of 27 H. 8. lets by Indenture for years, rendring Rent, he to whose use shall have debt for that Rent, but he cannot avow; and if the Lessee in this Case make waste, he to whose use, shall not have an Action of Waste, 26 H. 8. f. 2.

The same Law is, where a Copy-holder by the Custom of the Mannor is not punishable for Waste; by License of the Lord, makes a Lease for thirty years, and the Lessee makes Waste, the Copy-holder shall not have a Writ of Waste, but shall shew in the Lords Court, to punish his Waste by Plaint, in nature of an Action upon the Case.

If a Copy-holder of an Estate Tail, by license of his Lord, lett for twenty years, rendring the ancient Rent, and dies, the Issue in Tail may enter and defeat the Lessee; but if the Tenant in Tail of Copy-hold let for forty years by the Lords License, and after the Lease, make for feiture of his Copy-hold, and the Lord seises seifes it, and grants that over again by Copy to the Tenant in Tail, and his Heirs, or to J.S. and his Heirs; it seems there the Issue of the Lessor, nor J.S. nor the Lord, cannot enter and defeat this Lease.

The same Law is, if a Copyholder of an Estate-tail lets for forty years by the Lords License, and dies, and his Issue Surrenders to J.S. and his Heirs: this Issue, nor J.S. cannot enter and defeat this Lease.

Ad hanc Curiam venit T.R. & petit licentiam a domino dimittend' omnia & singula terr. & tenementa sua customar. scituata, jacent', & existent. infra domidium istud, cuicunque persone, five quibusconque personis placuerit eidem T.R. pro termino & ad terminum viginti & unius annorum, proxim. sequen. dat. hujus Cur. Cui quidem T.R. Dominus licentiam dedit in forma predict. pro fine decem solidorum soluti in Cur. ad usum Domini hujus manerii.

And it is used, that the Steward in full Court Licenses a Copy-holder, to lease a Copy-hold for 20 or 30 years, more or less, at their pleasure, in the absence of the Lord; and this seems good, for he is Judge in the Court; and when he makes it, and enters it in the Court-Roll, the Lord cannot enter for Forfeiture, because of his Lease; for when the Steward hath entered it, that at this Court T.R. craved license of the Lord to let, &c. to whom the Lord gave license, &c. The Lord is estopped to say the contrary, but that he gave license; the same Law is, where a Copy-holder is admitted in Court, and is entered in the Roll, to whom the Lord by such a one his Steward, granted him Seisin, the Lord cannot afterwards gain-say this admittance; and this is to be collected of the Case aforesaid, in 2. Ed. Brook. Court. Baron. 22.

If a man lets a Mannor for years, in which are Copyholders, and after a Copy-holder dies, the Tenant of the Mannor grants the Land by Copy for three lives, this is good; the same Law is, if a Copy-holder of Inheritance Surrender in the Court of the Termor of a Mannor, to the use of one and his Heirs, it is good; so that the Lord for the time being may take such Surrender in this Court; but in the first Case, such a Termor of a Mannor cannot let a Copyhold hold, reserving less Rent then the ancient Rent, but ought to reserve the ancient Rent or more: 4 Mod. 17

But it seems if a Disseisor of a Mannor be, and the Disseisor seises a Copyhold by Forfeiture, or Escheat and grants that over by Copy to a stranger, and the Disseisee enter in the Mannor: this Surrender shall not bind the Disseisee, and yet if a Copyholder of Inheritance Surrender in the Court of the Disseisor, to the use of J.S. and his Heirs: this is a good Surrender, and shall not be avoided by the Disseisee, nor otherwise by him which Surrenders, nor by his Heir.

In pleading of a Copy is, that the Lord by such a one his Steward did demise, and not that the Lord did demise; and also that a Woman be alone, and privately examined by the Steward, and it behooveth in pleading, to say, By such a Steward, and name the name of the Steward, and for that it is good order to express in the Copy and the Court-Roll, that to this Court came J.S. and Alice his wife (she alone, and privately being examined by J.K. the Steward) there, and to set the name of the Steward to every Copy, and also to every Court-Roll, for pleading in divers Cases, as the Lord by J.K. his Steward, granted him seisin by a Rod, &c. 8 H. 3. fol. 4. and 10 Ed. 4. fol. 6.

Limitation.

THE Statute of 32 H. 8. chap. 2. extends to Copyholds: for the Statute is, that none shall make prescription, title, nor claim, &c. above forty years, &c. and that doth a Copyholder, and for that is within the Statute 6 Ed. 6. Brook Limitation 2.

38 H. 8. chap. 1. Copy-holder, which is Tenant in common, is not compellable by the Statute to make partition, for the Statute gives remedy for one Tenant in common against another, by a Writ of (making partition) and it seems that a Copyholder is not within the Statute of 27 H. 8. chap. 10. of Joynture of Women: for that Statute bars Women which have Joyntures before Marriage, to have Dower, that is, of Lands given in Dower by the Law, and not by Custom.

Where a Copy-holder by the Custom may Surrender his Land out of the Court, into the hands of the Lord, by the hands of two Copyholders, or one to the use of J.S. and a Copyholder so makes Surrender to two, and one dies, or both die before the next Court, and yet Homage finds it, this is good Surrender, and J.S. shall be admitted.

Tenant by Copy of Lands of the nature of Gavelkind, hath Issue two Sons: his eldest Son hath Issue a Son, and dies seised, this Land shall descend to the youngest Son, and to his Nephew: the same Law is, if the Son have Issue a daughter, and dies seised, the daughter and the youngest Son shall have this Land by descent: and yet the Statute of Prærog. Regiæ, chap. 16. is, that women shall not share with men.

Tenant by Copy surrenders to the use of one for life, the Remainder to the use of the most near in blood, and hath Issue two Sons: the eldest hath Issue, and dies, the Tenant for life dies, the youngest Brother shall have the Land, and not the Issue of the eldest Brother: for the youngest Brother is more near of Blood to his Father, then is the Son of his eldest Son, by Wic. 30. A. 47. but the youngest Son is not next Heir.

Where the Copyhold is of the nature of Burrough-English: and this Copyholder having three Sons, Surrenders this to the use of the youngest Son in Tail, the Remainder to the use of the Heirs of the Body of the Father ingendred: and for default of such Issue, to the use of the right Heirs of his Father, and the youngest Son dies without Issue of his Body, it is said, that the eldest brother shall have this as Purchaser.

Two Joynt-tenants of one Copyhold are, and one Surrenders his part to his companion for life: this is a severance of the Joynture, Lit. fol. 156.

Where the Custom of a Mannor is, that the youngest Son shall inherit by descent the Copyhold: and A. being a Villain, purchases Copyhold there, and the Lord seises them, and grants them out of his hands by Copy the youngest Son of the Grantee shall have this by descent.

If the Tenant by Copy of Court-Roll hath paid to his Lord more Rent then he ought, and the Lord of that Surplusage of rent was seised by the hands of his Tenant yet the Tenant shall avoid that in a wry, for he is but Tenant. Will by the course of the common Law: otherwise it is, of every Tenant. Charter Land. Where

Where a Copyholder in Fee surrenders into the hands of the Lord to the use of J.S. without more, all is in the hands of the Lord; and the Steward admits J.S. hath an Estate in Fee, and yet the admittance is but allowance of J.S. to be Tenant of such Estate which is surrendered; but the use is in most Courts to enter, that it was surrendered to the use of J.S. without more, and the Steward enters, that the Lord hath granted to him Seisin, to have to him and his Heirs, and taken good: But it is better when one surrenders into the hands of the Lord to say and enter, To the use and behoof of J.S. for life, or to the use and behoof of J.S. and his Heirs: So that by (to the use and behoof) the Estate is limited, that J.S. shall have it, and makes that admittance accordingly to be good without doubt, and yet the other is good, for by the Surrender, all the interest is in the Lord.

If the Homagers give false Verdict in the Court of Copyhold, the party shall not be bound, but he shall traverse that: But if such a Verdict be found for the Lord, though the Verdict be false, yet the party cannot traverse that there, but is put to his petition, touching his Land, or to sue in the Chancery; for if the Verdict find false, that waste was made in the Tenements of the Grand-father, the Son of the Father shall lose after his Land, for that it is a forfeiture which runs with the Land. But Quere: for it is made by the person of the Father, and the Son hath no remedy if the Verdict be true; but if the Verdict be false, this his remedy is by Petition, and by no other remedy in the Court.

If Tenant by Copy makes a Lease for years by license of the Lord, and after in the same Court the Tenant will release to his Lessee by such words (as remise and release) such release seems void, for that it ought to be a surrender into the hands of the Lord, &c. as he hath surrendered and released, &c.

Use may be of Copyholds, as well as of Freehold, but the Statute of 27 H. 8. for uniting the possession to the use doth not extend to such tenures: Nor (he to whose use) cannot forfeit the Land by cutting Trees, if it were not by the consent and commandment of the the Copyholder. If the Lord let several Copies for one intire Rent and Service, and the Tenant makes waste in any parcel of them, and that be presented in this Court, he shall seise all the Copy as it was intirely lett.

A Rent of a Copyholder may be apportioned, as well as another Rent.

Tenant by Copy of a Court-Roll in the Court, sold and bargained his Copyhold to J.S. and his heirs, J.S. was admitted to have to him and his heirs according to the custom, this is not good, for that it wants this word (Surrendred.)

Tenant in Tail by Copy, the remainder over to J.S. in Fee, surrenders his Lands into the hands of two Tenants, to the use of J.N. and his Heirs, and dyes before that be presented; and after that was presented, and J.N. admitted, this is not good; but contrary Law, if Tenant in Fee had made that Surrender, and died, as above: Quere.

By the Custom of a Mannor, some Lands are Copyhold for three lives, and some to them and their heirs; and the Lord grants by Copy that which was for three lives, after those three were ended, to one of his heirs; this is not good: the Custom of the Mannor is good, though there be several Copyholders of several Customs.

The Lord of a Mannor, within which are Copyholders, and the Lord grants the Demesns over to J.S. in Fee, so that he hath no Court: yet it is said, that the Copy-holders may surrender as before they did: And that the Lord by his Grant cannot destroy their surrender, and Copies.

The Lord may avow for Rent of his Copyholder before admittance, where it descends to a Copyholder before: but he shall not be sworn of the Homage before admittance.

If the custom of Copyhold be, that the Lord may grant for three lives, if all die, and then when the Land is come into the hands of the Lord; he is bound in a Statute, and after he grants that over according to the custom, this Land shall not be extended upon the Statute.

And

And if a Copyholder be bound in a Statute, his Copyhold Land shall not be extended; and if the Lord be bound in a Statute, the Land of the Copyholder shall not be extended.

If an Infant be a Lord, and admits a Copyholder to him and to his heirs, this is good, and he cannot avoid that by his Infancy, for he is but an Instrument to convey that according to the custom, and departs with no estate.

If a Copyholder will exchange, this is not good, unless there be a surrender and admittance.

If a Villain purchase Copyhold, and the Lord of the Villain enter, he shall not have possession of the Copyhold, till he be admitted.

Copyhold shall not be forfeit by attainder of Heresie, for the blood is not corrupted, for the Statute of 5 H. 5. is not to be intended of Copyhold Lands: for it is said by the Statute, That he shall forfeit his Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments: and that the Lord of whom the Lands are held, shall have the Lands after the King hath (year, day and waste) and this is intended of Freehold, and not of Copyhold; but if a Copyholder be attainted of Treason or Felony, as it is aforesaid, there the Lord shall have the Land, for that the blood is corrupt, and so there is none to inherit; but, by attainder in Heresie, is no corruption of blood.

If a Copyhold be surrendered to my use simply, and the Lord admit me upon condition, this condition is void, for the Lord gives nothing, but is an instrument to convey that according to the Surrender; so if it be surrendered to me for life, and the Lord admits me to have to me and my heirs, it is not good.

If a Copyholder of a Mannor takes a Lease for years of this mannor, Quære if his Copyhold be extinct,

But if a Copyholder make a Lease of his Copyhold to his Lord, this was no extinguishment of his Copy, but a suspension.

But if the Lord by Indenture make a Lease for years of Copyhold Land to his Copyholder of that, the Copyhold is there held to be extinct; so if the Lord make make a Feoffment to his Copyholder of all his Mannor, upon condition, and after enter for the condition, the Copyhold is extinct; and if a Copyholder take a Lease for years of the Mannor, with a remainder over by Indenture, this extincts the Copyhold.

If a Disseisor be of a Mannor, whereof there are Copyholders for three Lives, and he grants Copies for three Lives, and after the Disseisor re-enter, this shall avoid the grant of the Copies by the Disseisor.

But if the Lord of that Mannor make a Feoffment in Fee upon condition, and the Feoffee grant Copies for three lives, and after the Feoffor enter for the condition broken, he cannot avoid the Copies.

If Tenant in tail or in Fee of a Mannor will grant Lands by Copy, which were no Copyhold Lands before, and that hath continued by divers admittances after as Copyhold, and was never interrupted at any time by the Issue in tail, but hath been allowed for him, so that, that hath continued by sixty or eighty years, this is very good, and shall not be ever after avoided; but if it may be shewed to have been an Interruption, then it is otherwise.

15. Eliz. If a Copyholder surrender to the use of his Wife for life, the remainder to him and his Heirs, and after the Husband surrender to J. D. and his Heirs, and dies, the Wife may enter, by Dyer and Mounson, Justice, and shall hold for life, but the Heirs of the Husband are bound: otherwise it is, if the remainder were to the right Heirs of the Husband, for they are purchasers of this remainder, and may enter after the death of the Wife.

A Copyholder hath a Son and a Daughter by one Belly, and a Son by another Belly, and surrenders to the use of his Wife for years, and conveys after her death the remainder to his Son of the first Venter, his Heirs and Assigns, and dyes, the Tenant for years is admitted, the Remainder in form aforesaid, the son of the Belly dies without Issue, before admittance, and during the term; and Dyer saith, that the possession of the Wife of the Termor, or of the Guardian is a sufficient possession to make (a Brothers possession.)

16. Eliz. Mounson saith, Copyholders are within all sta-

Statutes which speak of Tenants: for if a Copyholder had not been excepted in the Statute of dissolution of Monasteries, the King had had them, which Ceffrey and Beadlowes granted.

The Husband by surrender discontinues the Copyhold which he hath in right of his Wife, the Wife is put to her (Cui in vita) and she is not aided by the Statute of 32 H.8.

24 Eliz. A Copyholder surrenders to the use of his last Will, and deviseth that his Executors shall sell the Land to J.S. and makes two Executors and dyes, and one Executor takes a Wife, and surrenders to the use of J.S. the Devisee: and was said, that by the admittance of J.S. that he was Copyholder, though that the surrender ought to be made by both the Executors.

Tail of Copyhold.

Estate tail may be of a Copyhold, and Formedon in Discender may lye of that: that is to say, may sue plaint, and make protestation in nature of a Formedon in Discender at the Common Law, and good by all the Justices, for though a Formedon (in Discender) were not given but by Statute, yet this Writ now lyeth at the Common Law, and it shall be intended that that hath been the Custom, time out of mind, &c. See Littleton, fol. 14. Plaint in nature of Formedon in Discender, and also Littleton saith, That Copyholder is, where within the Manner the Tenants within the same Manner have used time out of mind, to have Land or Tenements to them, and to their Heirs in Fee-simple or Fee-tail: And though that the Statute of Westm. 2. chap. 1. is, That the Will of the Giver in writing should be observed (so that Copyhold is not within the Statute) yet in these Mannors, within which, time out of mind, they have been used to have Estates in tail in this Manner, and not in others, are Estates tail of Copyholds, 15 H.8. rit. 24.

And now it is common usage, to cut off the tail of Copyholds, within such Mannors where there is an Estate tail of Copyhold, by common Recovery in the nature of a Writ of Entry in the (Post) which after follows: and also by Recovery in nature of a Writ of Right, and joyn the Mise as follows afterwards, and another another way is to cut off the intail, and that is by Presentment, that the Copyholder hath made a Lease by Indenture for divers years, or other forfeiture, and then the Lord to selfe for that, and to surrender to the Purchaser; and these two wayes are allowed for good.

It is said, that five grounds of Law in England is and have been in divers particular Customs, the which Customs, though they are against the general Customs of Law, yet they are in effect, and are taken for Law, and so I intend that this Custom of Copyhold Estate (for that, that it hath continuance by Prescription) is good by the Law, that the Copyholder hath an Estate by Custom and Law also, and that of that may be an Estate Tail where that hath been used by Prescription. Dellor and Student, fol. 20.

Copyholders.

Copyhold Lands were before the Conquest, and it was called Folk-land in the time of the Saxons, and the Charter-lands are called Book-land: and also Bracton, book 4. allows of Copyhold Land, and says, That doing their Services and Customs, their Lords cannot put them out: And so Copyhold Estates have in time of every King since the Conquest by all the Justices been allowed; so that for the antiquity, and their continual allowance from time to time the Estates of Copyholds are affirmed in Law; yet Fitz. f. 12. B. saith, That Copyholders in ancient Times, were called Tenants in Villenage, or Base Tenure: But this doth not make them Villains; for Litt. fol. 39. saith, That some Freemen hold their Tenements according to the Custom of certain Mannors, by Villain Services, and yet they are not Villains; and though at the beginning of Copyholds, they had but a base Estate, and at the will of their Lords, yet when they have continued their Estates by Copy, of time out of mind, then doing their Customs and Services, as Copyholders ought to do, they ought to enjoy their Copyholds whether the Lord will or no; and it appears by divers Statutes, That Copyholds have been in reputation: for by the Statute of 1 R. 3. chap. 4. and 19 H. 7. chap. 13 Copyholder which might expend by the year 26 s. 8 d. shall be accounted of the same sufficiency to be impannelled of a Jury, as he which might expend 20 s. per annum, of Freehold Land, and by 2 Ed. 6. chap. 8. the Interests of Copyholders are preserved, notwithstanding they are not found by Office after the death of the Kings Tenant: and by 13 Eliz. chap. 7. Land of a Bankrupt, as well Copyhold as Freehold shall be sold: so it appears, Copyhold Estates shall be regarded: and those Demesns which are in the hands of the Copyholders, are such Demesns as the Services which they do, make a Mannor though the Lord hath no other Demesns in his own hands nor to his Farmors, Bayliff, or Servants for it is Demesns, having regard to the Lord, for that, that upon every surrender the Lord hath medling, and grants it over in his Court.

And if you will admit that an Estate tail by usage of time out of mind may be of Copyhold within a Mannor, where it hath been used by prescription, and Plaints of (Formedon) have there been brought, why will ye doubt but that it may be well cut off by common Recovery, in Plaint, in nature of a Writ of Entry in the (Post) or at least in nature of a Writ of Right and Mise joyned upon meer Right, and after default made by the Tenant, and Judgment final given, though that these Recoverys have not been used there by Prescription, for they are at the Com. Law, and plaints in nature of these Writs are to be sued there of Copyhold.

It is said, That a Fine levied in antient Demesns is of no worth, for it is no Court of Record: but it is said, That Common Recoveries may be sued there, to cut off the Intail, and good, for that, that the Land shall be pleaded there by a Writ of Right Close, and not otherwise, and Copyholder shall be impleaded in Court Baron of the Mannor by Plaint, and not elsewhere. And for that the Recoveries aforesaid, to cut off the Intail of a Copyholder may be there, though they were not there used before, if there be Estates Tail there: and if usage makes the Estate Tail, and also usage makes the Copyholder to have an Estate of inheritance by Custom, and is good. 30 Book of Ass. 47 Ed. 38.

And though Littleton, fol. 16. saith, If Lord outs his Copy

Copyholder, he hath no other remedy but to sue to his Lord by Petition: for he saith, the L. cannot break the Custom which is reasonable: but if such L. will break the Custom, it is no reason to suffer such a L. to be his own Judge, and to compell a Copyholder to sue him by Petition. But for that that divers Lords are of more ill Conscience, than before were, as I have heard: for that, divers grave Judges now hold that a Tenant Copyholder may have Trespass against his L. according to the Opinion of Bryan and Danby.

And this at this day seems reason: for though at the beginning, Copyholders had but Estates at the will of the Lord, yet by the continuance of this Estate, of time out of mind, they have such Inheritance by the Custom of the Mannor, that the Lord (doing his Service) cannot out them, and the Prescription goes to the Land, and not to the Lord, nor to the Occupation, for that is Copyhold Land which hath been let, and demisable time out of mind, &c.

If the Tenant by Copy deny to do his Services, the L. may enter for forfeiture, if it be presented by the Homage: but if the Tenant by chance make a default at the Lord's Court, and doth not deny his Service, it shall be amerced, and is no forfeiture: the same Law if his Rent be behind, and he doth not deny to pay it, that is no Forfeiture, but the L. may distrain: but by Littleton fol. 51. If the Tenant upon demand be not ready to pay Rent-seck: or if the Tenant, nor none for him, be dwelling upon the Land to pay the Rent-seck, when it is demanded, this denying is Disseisin; yet in the Case aforesaid, I conceive, that where a Copyholder makes default, and doth not deny his Services, or is not upon the Land ready to pay upon demand, this is no denial which shall make a Forfeiture, for Forfeitures are not favoured in Law: but to be taken strictly according to the words, and that is to be intended upon denying in Deed to the Tenant, 42 Edw. 3. fol. 25.

And it seems that the L. cannot enter for forfeiture before that that he sound by Homage: but if a Copyholder alien by Charter, or commits felony or treason and be attaint, these are forfeitures without Presentment, and the Lords may enter, for these are notorious, and apparent to be against the Custom; but otherwise it seems, where a Copyholder makes waste.

12 Eliz. It was said, That if a Copyholder will not be sworn of a Jury, or an alien, and make Copyhold, Freehold; this is forfeiture, for that, that the Lord may enter without Presentment: but for negligent acts, as for not doing of service or suit of Court, the Lord cannot seise without Presentment by the Homagers, and then agree if an Infant do not come within a year and a day after Proclamation made, yet he hath not forfeited his Copyhold; and this Case was between Hantree and his Copyholder.

If Copyholder lets by Indenture, which is forfeiture, and after surrenders to the use of J.S. and he is admitted in, the Lord after shall not take advantage of forfeiture, for the Homage are not to enquire of any forfeiture, but of forfeiture made by the Tenants, and he which commits the forfeiture is not now Tenant, and admittance to pay his Fine is agreement of the Lord, that he admitted shall have that according to the Custom; that is to say, he doing his services shall have that to him and his Heirs, according to the Custom of the Mannor.

It is said, that a Copyholder cannot alien by Deed, for if he do so, the Lord may enter for forfeiture; and so it is the like if he alien without Deed, in such manner that the Land may pass: as if he lets for life without Deed, and makes Livery, the Lord may enter; but if he do not make Livery, otherwise it is. The same Law is, if a Copyholder Bargain and sell his Land by Indenture, and do not inrol it, nothing passeth by this Bargain, and for that it is no forfeiture, Lit. f. 14.

If Tenant by Copy of Court Roll make a Feoffment, the Lord may enter for forfeiture, but this is to be intended, if he make a Feoffment and makes Livery, it is a forfeiture; but if he makes no Livery, the Feoffee is but Tenant at will, and it is no forfeiture, 11 H. 4. f. 161.

Challenge.

For that, that you try Issues joyned in Court Baron ly assent, by inquest of the homage, as you may, and not by wager of Law as it is, and also in tryal of Copyhold, shall be by Oath of the Jury; and also for that some Challenges are Principals, and some are but for favor, first let us see what is a Principal Challenge.

PPrincipal Challenge is said, where it is evident favour, as kindred, 21 Ed. 4. fol. 11. and 63.

Juror is of alliance, servant, or bears malice, that is to say, hath Trespass against him, or a Juror is Cousin to the Executor which brings the Action, and yet he shall not recover to his own use; and this is a principal Challenge, &c. 20 Ass. ii.

Where a Juror is Gossip of the Plaintiff, it is a principal Challenge, and he shall be drawn off by the Challenge, 2 H. 4 fol. 16. 4 Ed. 4. fol. 1. the same, 19 H. 6. fol. 66. Contr. 6 H. 5. fol. 40. 40 Ass. 20.

That the Plaintiff was retained with a Juror, that is, that the Juror was Master of the party, is a principal Challenge, 2 H. 4 fol. 14.

That the Jury hath past before for parcel of the same Gift in Formedon, is a Principal Challenge, if he shew Record of that, otherwise it is but favour, 8 H. 5. fol. 11 and 7 H. 4. fol. 11. the same.

If a Juror (after he is impannelled) eat at the Plaintiffs costs, or take Money for his Charges; it is a Principal Challenge, 13 H. 4. fol. 14. 22 R. 2. Chal. 177. 8 Ed. 3. fol. 69.

Where Land is demanded, and the Juror is Cozen within the ninth degree, it is a Principal Challenge, 41 Ed. 3. fol. 9. 14 and 15 Eliz. Plowd. 426.

It is a Principal Challenge that the Juror held of J. S. that holds over of the Plaintiff, 13 H. 6. Statham.

Where a Juror hath a Lease of one party; and though he hath granted his Interest to another, yet he is within the distress of his Lessor, to the using an Action of Debt for the Arrearages, and for that is a Principal Challenge, 44 Ed. 3. fol. 5. 44 Ass. 23.

Trespass, the Defendant saith, it was the Freehold of J. S. and justifies as Servant of J. S. is a principal Principal Challenge.

Now let us see what is Challenge for favour.

WHere one Challenges for divers Causes, and concludes for favour, it is not double; otherwise it is, of principal Challenge, 7 H.6. fol.44.

That the Defendant is Steward of a Mannor of the Juror, or that he is within the Distress of the Juror, it is a Challenge for favour, and not a Principal Challenge; but that that the Juror is within the Distress of the Defendant, is a Principal Challenge; but that the Juror hath married the Mother of the Defendant, if she be dead, and he had no Issue by her, it is no Principal Challenge, 14 H.7. tit. And for that I intend, that when the Statutes ensuing were made for Improvements, immediately the Lords have improved their Wasts as much as they could, or otherwise they could not improve for Charity, I pray God that they may continue.

Because many great ones which enfeofed Freeholders of small Tenements in great Mannors of extent, etc. may improve, when they are enfeofed have sufficient Pasture belonging to their Tenements, etc. Merton, chap. 4.

Journey to Leicester.

The Tenant shall not have Common to Land newly improved, but to ancient Land, hide, and gain, 10 Ed. 2. tit. 22. §. Book of Ass. 2. the same.

The Statute is (as much as belongs to Tenements) that seemsto extend as well to Common appurtenant, as appendant: But Master Stamford said in Graves Inn, That improvement is only against him that hath Common Appurtenant without number.

Now let us see, what is Appendant, and what Appurtenant.

Common Appurtenant is, for all manner of Beasts; and Appendant is, but to have Common for Beasts commonable, Natura Brevium, fol. 70. that Appurtenant is with all manner of Beasts by Prescription, 9 Ed. 4. fol. 3. by Fairfax.

Aff. 9.

Affise of Novel Disseisin lieth of Common of Pasture Turbary and Fishing, where he hath that for life, or in Title, or in Fee, and is disturbed, that he cannot take his Common; and the Writ shall be, He disseised him of a Common of Pasture in D. and not disseised him of his Free-hold in D. as; where it is of Land, for there it is alwaies, he disseised him of his Free-hold: Fitzherbert, fol. 179. L.

Common Appendant, a man cannot use with beasts of a stranger, unless he keep them to dung his Land, but he cannot take in other Beasts for Money, which do not manure his Land. See 6 Hen. 7. fol. 14. Fitzherbert, 180 B.

Courts.

In what place a Court-Baron shall be held.

Court-Baron, by Bryan, shall be held in a place certain; but I have heard, that it may be kept in any place within the Mannor, that the Tenants have notice to make their Suit, and it is good, 3 H.7. f. 4. 4. And so it is, 24 Ed. 3. that it need not be in a place certain; and by Glanvil, fol. 19. It ought to be held in a place within the Mannor, and not out of the Fee.

Which is Court-Baron, and which is Court of Record.

Court of Ancient Demesne, is no Court of Record, but it is a Court-Baron, 9 Ed. 4. fol. 43. and 3 H. 4. fol. 26. the same.

Great complaint was against the Officers of the Castle of Dover, for holding Plea above forty shillings, where where they have but a Court-Baron, and for arresting men by their bodies by their Warrant and (Capias), but it seems they have a Charter now, for it is used there to arrest, 3 Ed.4. fol.127.

6. Trespas of Imprisonment, the Defendant saith, That there is a Court by prescription within the Tower, and doth prescribe to have (Capias) and not that it is there (Capias) without prescription, and justify that by (Capias) &c. and so this appears to be Courts of Record, 4 Ed.4. fol.6.

Error lies, where false Judgment is given in any Court of Record, as in the Common Bench, or London, or other City where they have power to hold Pleas by Charter, or by prescription of every sum in Debt or Trespas, of the sum of forty shillings, and more, Fitzh. fol.20.

The

The Kings Bench, Chancery, Common Bench, and Exchequer, are Courts of Record, for that, that no Judge may sit as Judge there without Letters Patents; Doctor and Student. fol. 11.

Ancient Demesne.

Inasmuch, that a Court of Ancient Demesne is a Court-Baron, let us see, In what Action brought at the Common Law, Ancient Demesne is a good Plea; and in what not; and what Action may be sued in Ancient Demesne; and what not.

Ancient Demesne is no Plea in an Action upon the Statute, R. 2. 2 H. 7. fol. 17.

It is no Plea in Trespass, but in Replegiare and Writ of Ward, 46 Ed. 3. f. 1.

It is no plea in Trespass, 47 Ed. 3. f. 22.

Ancient Demesne is a good plea in Replegiare, and not in Trespass, 40 Ed. 3. f. 4. 46 Ed. 3.

Plaint of Fresset fore may be sued in Ancient Demesne, without a Writ of Right Close, as it seems; but another plaint of Land cannot be sued there without a Writ of Right Close, 26 H. 6. f. 5.

Re-disseisin, and Post-disseisin cannot be sued in ancient Demesne, for the Sheriff and Coroners cannot enquire there; but said, That Waste may be sued there by a Right Close, 32 H. 6. fol. 29.

If a man bring Waste at the Common Law, it is said, That Ancient Demesne is a good Plea, 7 H. 6. f. 37. and 8 H. 6. f. 83. the Opinion of all the Justices was, That it is a good plea in waste, for that, that by this recovery, Judgment is to recover the place wasted, and by this the Land shall be Frank-Fee; 1 H. 4. fol. 5. The Lord in Ancient Demesne cannot hold Plea in Re-disseisin and Waste, by Hull; for that, that the Sheriff is Judge, and not the Lord.

Warranty of Charrers may be sued at the Common Law, and Ancient Demesne is no Plea; for Warranty is by Deed out of the Land, Fitzh. 135.

Ten in Virum, at the Common Law, Ancient Demesne is no Plea, for he cannot have a (Right Close) for that, that Frank-Almoigne cannot be held there, but therefore there is Socage, Abridg. Ass. f. 16. 6 Ed. 3. f. 20. the same, Dratham.

De rineue

Devolve of Charters of the Common-Law to plead Ancient Demesne, is no Plea, 13 Ed. 34 f. 67. Statham.

Fitzh. 136. In a Writ of Mesne, Ancient Demesne is a good Plea.

Where Damages are recovered in Ancient Demesne, and Debt is brought in the Common-Bench upon the same Damages, it is no Plea for the Defendant to plead Ancient Demesne, 39 H. 6. fol. 3.

Ancient Demesne is a Court-Baron, and the Suitors are Judges.

DEbt was brought in Common Bench for Damages recovered in Ancient Demesne, the Defendant pleads no such Record, and is no Plea, for it is a Court-Baron; but no such recovery is good, 9 Ed. 4. fol. 44. B. 50 Book.

Suitors are Judges in Ancient Demesne, 34 H. 6. fol. 38. Nat. Brev. fol. 12. the same.

Suitors are Judges in Ancient Demesne, and not the Bayliff, 12 H. 4. fol. 17.

Pleas shall not be removed out of Ancient Demesne, unless for false Judgment, 13 H. 4. f. 16. Fitzh. f. 10. the same; and that proves that this is a Court-Baron.

Suitors are Judges in Ancient Demesne, for that it shall not be removed, for that the Bayliffs maintain it, H. 4. fol. 16. See 6 H. 4. f. 2.

Upon (Pone) to remove Plea out of Ancient Demesne the Sheriff returns, That the Suitors will not send the Record, by which issued a Distress against the Suitors, 18 Ed. 3. Statham.

False Judgment was brought in the Common Bench, upon a Judgment given in Ancient Demesne, in a Writ of Right-Close; and though Judgment was given given in that in the Common Bench, yet the Land shall be Ancient Demesne as it was before.

By Kniver, Fine levied in Ancient Demesne, is nothing worth, for it is no Court of Record, but common Recoveries are used there to cut off an Intail, 50 Ass. 9. No Land may be pleaded there by Right-Close, and not elsewhere.

How Land in Ancient Demesne is made Frank-Fee, for a time; and how, for ever.

During the time that Lands in Ancient Demesne is in the hands of the King, it is Frank-Fee; but if the King grant that over to hold of the Man or again, it is Ancient Demesne again, 21 Book of Ass. 3.

If Recovery of Fine be in the Common Bench of Land in Ancient Demesne, the Land is Frank-Fee, till it be defeated by the Lord by Writ of Deceit; and when that is defeat, it is void to bind the parties, 8 Ed. 4 fol. 6. See 3 H. 4. f. 6. accordingly.

If the Tenant in Ancient Demesne enfeoffs his Lord of the Mannor, being common persons, and not King, the Lordship is Frank-Fee for ever, 9 H. 6. f. 24. E. 3. R. 4. fol. 15. the same.

Where the King gives Land of Ancient Demesne, to hold in Frank-Almoigne, that is Frank-Fee, 6 H. 4. f. 2.

Where a Fine is in Common-Bench, of Land in Ancient Demesne, it is Frank-Fee; so that after, if a Recovery of that be in Ancient Demesne, it is void, (and before not a Judgment) 7 H. 4. fol. 3. E. 7 H. 4. fol. 29. the same.

If the King was once seised of Land in Ancient Demesne, and lets that for life, it is Frank-Fee for the time, 11 H. 4. fol. 84.

Where Land in ancient Demesne is forfeit to the King by attainder, and the King grants that over to another and his heirs, now they are Frank-Fee for ever, 13 H. 4. fol. 7.

Where a Fine is levied of Land in Ancient Demesne in the Common Bench, the Lord may defeat that by a Writ of Deceit; and yet if he to whom the Fine was, &c. hath a release, with confirmation of the party, made made after the Fine, his Estate is good, notwithstanding that the Fine be defeated, Fitzh. 98. A.

The Lessor by his confirmation to his Tenant, may make the Land in Ancient Demesne Frank-Fee; but if he confirm to hold by meaner services, it is no Frank-Fee, 30 Ed. 3. f. 16.

Where Land in Ancient Demesne escheats to the Lord, for that that the Tenant dies without Heir general or special, are Frank-Fee for ever, for he holds them now of the Lord Paramount, 18 Ed. 3. fol. 19.

If the Tenant in Ancient Demesne answer the assize in Præcipe, in the Common-Bench, yet it is no Frank-Fee before Judgment given, 2 Ed. 3. fol. 26.

The Lord by his confirmation may alter the Tenure, but not the estate of the Land, where he confirms to hold at the Common-Law, 49 E. 3. fol. 7.

Fine at the Common-Law, Recovery, or where it is in by the Kings Charter, or by Feoffment of the Lord, these prove the Land Frank-Fee, and not ancient Demesne, Fitzh. fol. 13. C.

If the King be seised of Land in ancient Demesne, this is Frank-Fee; but if the King demise it to another, the Land is Ancient Demesne again, 17 Ed. 3. f. 51.

Note the tenure and tryal of Ancient Demesne, and who shall plead Ancient Demesne.

Lands which are Ancient Demesne are Socage, Fitzh. f. 111.

Tenants in Ancient Demesne, are those which hold of the Mannors which were in the hands of Saint Edward the Confessor, at the time that the Book of Doomesday was made; but the Lands written in that Book, to be in other mens hands, are not ancient Demesne, Fitzh. 16. E.

All the Lands which were in the Seisin of Saint Edward the Confessor, when the Book of Doomesday was made made, are called Antient Demesne, and the Lands in other hands, &c. Frank-Fee, Natura Brevium, fol. 14.

If the Land be Ancient Demesne or not, shall be tried by the Book of Doomesday, 49 Ed. 3. fol. 22. In Mon- straverunt.

If Land be in the Book of Doomesday, written under the Title, Land of the Bishop and not, Land of the King; yet though it be in the Book of Doomesday, it is no Ancient Demesne. 40 Ed. 3. fol. 45.

Form of Pleadings, that the Land is Ancient Demesne, and how he shall sue for Ancient Demesne, and for Copyhold in Ancient Demesne.

BY Trist. He which pleads Ancient Demesne, shall say, That the Land is held of the Mannor of D. which is Ancient Demesne, and pleadable by a petty Writ of Right Clos. from time out of mind, and demand Judgment if the Court will acknowledge, 36 H. 6. f. 18.

pleadable by petty Writ of Right Close from time out of mind, and demand Judgment if the Court will acknowledge; and it is no Plea for the Demandant to say to that, That it is Frank-Fee; for that, that it doth not gainsay, but that the Mannor is Ancient Demesne, and that this is parcell; but he ought to plead specialty, how it is become Frank-Fee. 41. Ed. 3. fol. 22. 12 Book of Ass. 16. 22 Book of Ass. 45.

Right Close, lieth alwayes between Plow-holders, and no Plow-holder may implead another Plow-holder of Lands in Ancient Demesne, unless by this Writ, and shall make in this his protestation to sue in nature of what Writ he will, as his case is. Nat. Brevi. um, f. 11.

They call Tenants in Ancient Demesne, Sokemains. Britton, f. 105.

Copyholder of base Tenure shall not have a Right Close, but ought to sue by Bill in the Lords Court, but Copyholder in Ancient Demesne of free-tenure shall have that, Fitzh. fol. 11.

The King shall have year, day, and waste of Lands in Ancient Demesne: if it be so, that the Tenant have sold them against his Lords will, and yet not the Lands past by surrender, Stamf. fol. 50. Note. This is where the Copyholders in Ancient Demesne have used time out of mind to sue for them by petty Writ of Right Close; and so is, 14 H. 4. f. 1. by Hank, and 14 H. 4. f. 34. And see 3 Ed. 3. Br. in Copyh. 22. And in these Surrenders of Lands in Ancient Demesne of Frank-tenure, it is not used to say, (to hold at the will of the Lord) in these Copies, but (to hold according to the Custom of the Mannor) by the Services before due, and is not said there (at the will of the Lord.)

Ancient Demesne is Socage Tenure, for they are called Sokemains, Fitzh. 14. C.

Execution of Writs in Ancient Demesne cannot be, for that Execution is given by Westm. 2. chap. 18. and Debt against Heir, if he hath Lands in Ancient Demesne, they shall be charged as Assets, 7 H. 4. f. 15.

Those Tenements of Ancient Demesne are quit of Toll, and Passages for Goods sold and bought in Fairs and Markets, and so be quit of Tax and Tallage of Parliament, unless they be taxed by the Parliament, and to be quit of expences of Knights of Parliament, and shall not be put upon Juries and Enquest, out of ancient Demesne for Lands of Ancient Demesne, Fair. 14.

Court of Pypowders.

Let us see the nature and authority of Court of Pypowders.

Court of Pypowders, is a Court of Record, and the Steward is Judge for that, that there are no Suitors there, and for that error lyeth there upon erroneous Judgment given, and not a Writ of false Judgment, 6 Ed. 4. fol. 3. 7 Ed. 4. fol. 23. that error lieth there.

It was held, That a Court of Pypowders may be by custom in a City without Fair or Market, and therefore where it was assigned for Error upon a Record given in a Court of Pypowders, according to the custom of the City held, &c. And though it be not [in full Market or Fair] it was adjudged no Error, 13 Ed. 4. fol. 8.

Trespas of goods taken, the Defendant justifies as Bayliff of the Town of Rippon, by vertue of a command of Execution of a Judgment given against the Plaintiff in debt, in Court of the said Fair at Rippon, and for that, that the Plaintiff did not make agreement for the debt, recovered against him within ten days, after judgment given, he makes price of the Goods by Merchants of the Town of Rippon, and for that makes agreement with the party, and this justification was good, 20 Book of Assise, 96.

It was enacted That no Steward shall hold Plea in this Court, unless the Plaintiff, or his Attorney, makes Oath, that the fact or contract was made within the Fair; and if it were the contrary, he should forfeit 100 s. 17 Ed 3. chap. 2. tit. Fairs the fourth.

In Court of Pypowders, the Plaintiff or his Attorney shall be examined by Oath, If the matter rose within the Fair: and the Defendant also may plead, that this arose in a forraign place, 1 R. 3. chap. 6.

Debt in the Common Bench against Mowd, and counts that he had recovered ten Marks against the said Mowd in Court of Pypowders at Everwick, and the Plaintiff by Certiorare removes [the Tenor of the Record] in the Chancery, and from thence by Mittimus into the Common Bench to have Execution, and Attachment was made upon the Original, at the ninth hour, and he appears and pleaded, and a Vener facias went out, returnable at the third hour after the ninth; and so in Court of Pypowders, the process is from hour to hour; 7 H. 6 fol. 19.

The Book of Entries, fol. 167. see there the form of the Count, and Precipe of summoning in this Court, and the Process of Copias, and proceeding in Debt in this Court, and Debt against a Jaylor for escape, in title, Debt.

The Book of Entries, fol. 18. see Scire facias to have Execution upon Judgment given in a Court of Pypowders, in an Action of Account brought there, and removed into the Common Bench to have Execution of that Judgment.

And it seems briefly, that nothing shall be sued here, unless the Contract or Deed were made within the Precinct of the Fair, or Market, as it appears above, and for that Informations of penal Statutes ought not to be sued in this Court, of things and offences made out of Fairs and Markets, as insufficient tanned Leather, carried to be sold in Fairs against the Statutes; also this Court is ordained only for hasty redress of things there during the Fair.

Court of Marshalsey.

FIRST, In the Book called, The Diversity of Courts, fol. 110. It is said, That the Court called the Marshalsey, is an Ancient Court of Record, and made to have good Government and Order within the Kings House, for Preservation of the King and his servants, and to this Court are certain bounds limited, by 13 R. 2. chap. 3. that in all places where the King in his own person shall come and make stay there, within the Verge limited to his Graces Court, that it shall not pass the space of twelve miles to be accounted from his Lodgings. Fitzh. 141. B.

And in diversity of Courts it is said, That this Court hath power to inquire of Treason, Murder, and Felony, and to take Appeals of them, and also of Mayms, if they be made within the Verge, and between persons of the Kings house.

And said there also, That if one of the house of the King sue another which is not of the House, he shall plead to the Jurisdiction of the Court, and if they will not this Exception allow, he shall have a Writ of Error, and that shall be reversed in the Kings Bench. Fitzh. 242. A. Seek in Trespas.

And the Judges in this Court, are the Steward, and Marshal of the Kings House: for in these is the order of the Kings house.

Note, That by the Statute Articuli super Chartas, c. 3. that the Steward and the Marshal shall hold no Plea of Freehold, nor of Debt, Covenant, nor of any Bargain made between any of the Kings People, but only of Trespas made within the Kings House, or other Trespas within the Verge, and of Contracts and Covenants, which en. of the Kings House made with another in the same house, and not elsewhere. And they shall plead no plea of Trespas, except the parties were arrested by them before the King departed the Verge where the Trespas was committed, and they shall plead speedily from day to day, so that it may be pleaded and determined, before the King depart out of the limits of the same where the Trespas was done: and if they cannot be determined within the limits of the Verge, the Pleas there shall cease, and be determined at the Common Law; and the Steward shall not take Conscience of Debt, nor of other things, but of such persons only which are of the Kings House, nor shall hold any other Plea by Obligation; and if they do any thing against this Ordinance, let their doing be held for nothing; See Fitzh. 24. l. B. D.

10 H. 6. fol. 13. Action was brought upon this Statute, for that the Defendant impleads the Plaintiff in the Marshalsey for Trespass, whereof one nor the other was of the Kings House; and there it is granted by the Court, that of Trespass within the Verge, one or other shall be of the House, as well as of action there upon other Contract: Seek, for it seems otherwise by the words of the Statute, and it is used now the contrary; diversity of Courts agrees, as above, see the title of 38. Brook.

7 H. 6. f. 33. A Writ was sued upon the Statute (Articuli super Chartas) Ed. 1. chap. 3. That none shall be impleaded in the Marshalsey, if one party were not of the Kings house, there did averr the Defendant next him, &c. the other saith, No such Record.

Brook, tit. Action upon the Statute 38. That the Marshalsey shall not hold Plea of Contracts, unless as well the Plaintiff as the Defendant are of the Kings house; for if it be otherwise, the Defendant may plead to the Jurisdiction; and if the Plaintiff remove out of the Kings service, hanging the Plea, the Defendant may plead that, and abate the Jurisdiction and the Plea; contrary, if the Defendant remove out of the Kings Service; and there it was held, though the Trespass made within the Verge ly there between any, though they be not of the Kings House: Contrary of Debt and Covenant: and therefore seek of Action upon the Case there between Strangers upon Assumpsit, for it seems that it is a Contract.

6 R. 2. tit. 49. Br. Action upon the Statute, Debt upon Recovery if Damages before the Marshal, in an Action of Covenant before the Marshall; that is a good Plea to the Jurisdiction, that none of the parties was of the Kings House at the time, &c. For the Statute of Articuli super Chartas, chap. 2. will, as above; and therefore it is Coram non iudice, if it be otherwise.

19 Ed. 4. fol. 9. By Littlton, and not denied, where one

one is out-lawed in the Common-Bench without Original, it is not void, but Error: but Judgment given to the Marshalsey between parties which are not of the Kings House, is void: for they have no power to hold the Plea; and if execution of that Judgment be sued, the other shall have Treble ass. upon it.

Then for that, that the Statute of Articuli super Chartas aforesaid, limits what Actions shall be sued in the Marshalsey: It seems, that Information upon penal Statutes, shall not be sued there: for the Attorney of the Queen, nor Informers shall not inform there, and this is no suit between the parties that the Statute of Artic. provides, and they are no such Actions: And for that Mr. Pool, Steward there, did well to reject the information of Penal Statutes aforesaid out of the Court; and in this Court, and the Court of Eyepowders, the suit is, J.S. complains against J.D. and your information is: Memorandum, that such a day J.S. came here into the Court, &c. and gave the Court to understand, that, &c. And there is another form: and where there are divers Statutes which give liberty to sue for penalties in any Court of Record of the King by express words, yet it was never seen in any Suit by Information, for such penalties in the Chancery, Court of Wards, Court of Requests: for Suits there are by English Bill, and matters of Conscience: and Leet is a Court of Record of the King, and yet no information shall be there, and so it seems in a Court of Eyepowders: and they do not use in these Courts English, nor in the Leet where the matters are by presentment of the Jury to be informed there: nor in Court of Eyepowders, unless the Lord hath the penalties by the Kings Grant, for in these Courts the Attendance of the Kings Attorney is not requisite, and who shall account and pay the King his half in these Courts; and for that it is hard to sue information there: See 44 Ed. 3. it. 1. Action popular, B.

And though that some Statutes by express words are, That it is lawful to sue for these penalties of Statutes in any Court of the Kings of Records this is to be intended in such Courts which have been used, as in the Common-Bench, the Kings Bench, the Exchequer; and for that the Statute of Alton Burnel, fol. 236. is, That where an Extent upon a Statute- Merchant is found too high, it is forthwith that the Extenders shall answer, for that it is to be intended at the day of Extent, and not forthwith, 2 H. 4. fol. 19. So this is taken by intendment, as above, 8 H. 4. fol. 11. Also the Statute of Donis conditionalibus, the Letter is, That Fine by Tenant in Tail (in right is nothing) for that is to be taken, as wise men have taken it; that is to say, That the Issue in Tail be put to a Formedon, and cannot emer, 11 H. 5. fol. 9.

Also the Statute of the Year 8 H. 6. chap. 10. is, That upon Indictment, shall go two Capias and Exigent; and that the second Capias shall be with Proclamation at a place which hath Addition; if he be indicted in another County then where he dwells; and if it be not so, the Outlawry shall be void; this is taken by this Book of 11 H. 6. fol. 19. It shall be avoided by Writ of Error, and not void, according to the expresse words of the Statute.

Also it is not used where Fairs or Markets are granted, to grant to the Lords of that, forfeiture of penal Statutes, that, that is not granted to the Steward and Marihal & and for these Causes, Informations shall not be sued there.

Customs.

IT is said, That the fifth ground of the Law is, particular Customs; and for that, Custom is inquirable by the third Article, Doct. and Student, fol. 20.

And for that it is expedient to say something of Customs; and first to write such Customs to you, which I have seen allowed between Copy-holders within Mannors where I have been at Courts.

Heir.

First, Custom of some Mannor is, that the youngest Son or Daughter of the first Wife, being married a Virgin, ought to inherit.

Dower.

Custom of some Mannor is, that the Woman being espoused a Virgin, shall have all the Copyhold, whereof the Husband died seised for her Frank-bench; but the Husband may alien all, or part, without the Wife, and then she cannot claim Dower. Cu-

Custom in some Mannor is, among Coppyholders, that Hier, the youngest Son shall inherit, as in Borough-English, and if he have no Son, his younger Brother, as at Edmonton.

Custom in some Mannor is, that all the Sons, and all Hier, the Brothers shall inherit together, as in Gavel kind, at Issington.

Custom of some Mannor is, that if the Tenant dies Hier, seised of five Acres, or less, then the youngest Son ought to inherit; but if above, then all the Sons, as in Gavel-kind, ought to inherit.

Custom of some Mannor is, If a Coppyholder Surrender his Land to the use of a stranger, that before the stranger be admitted, Proclamation shall be made in the Court thereof; and if the next of the blood will come in, or Clivenor Land mark, those next adjoining to the bargain from the East of the Sun, and will pay so much for the Land Surrendred, as he which made the Bargain ought, together with all his Costs, which had the Land so Surrendred; and then the Bargainee shall make Oath in Court what he paid, and that shall be paid him forthwith in Court, and then the next in Blood, or Clivenor, which pay that, shall be admitted, and shall have the Land. Clivenor.

Custom of some Mannor is, Where the Surrender is of Coppyhold made to him and his, that is, an Estate of an Inheritance in Fee by the Custom, though it be not to him and his Heirs; and in some Mannor it is to him and his in Villainage, and it is a good Estate of Inheritance by the Custom.

Custom of some Mannor is, That Surrender may be made into the hands of the Bayliff, in the presence of two Tenants witnessing that; and in some Mannor, in the hands of two Tenants, to the use of him to whom, &c. And in some Mannor, in the hands of one Tenant, to the use of him which should have it, and all these are good Customs, and allowed.

Custom of some Mannor is, That the Wife shall have Dower, no Dower, nor the Husband shall not be Tenant by the curtesy: And the Custom in some Mannor, That she shall have the third part of the Rent, and not any Land for her Dower, as at Bispham.

Custom

Surrender.

Custom in some Mannor is, That Surrender may be made into the hands of a Tenant, in the presence of other persons, to the uses, &c. and is good.

Waste.

Tenant at Will by the Common Law, may cut Trees to repair his Houses, and also may take House-boot, Hedg-boot, and Plough-boot, and all this, Tenant by Copy may do; And by the Custom in divers Mannors, Copy-holder may cut his Trees and Wood, and sell it at his pleasure; and also suffer the Houses to decay; and yet it is not forfeiture, as it is at Islington.

Lease.

Custom of some Mannor is, That Copy-holder may let that by Indenture for three years, without license of the Lord; and in some for nine years, and in some Mannor for more; and in some Mannor, he may let from three years to three years, to the term of one and twenty years, and is no forfeiture.

Herriot.

Custom of some Mannor is, That where the Copyholder is inheritable, that the Heir shall choose the best Beast, and the Bayliff of the Lord shall seise two of the next best Beasts; and for a Cottage, two shillings in silver for Herriot shall be paid, and no Beast.

Fine.

Custom of some Mannor is, to pay six shillings eight pence for a Herriot, and no Beast.

Ward.

Custom of some Mannor is, that a Copyholder pay but one penny for a Fine, though there be a hundred Acres, or more; and in some Mannor, six shillings eight pence for every dwelling House; and also for every Acre, six shillings eight pence; and for every Cottage, six shillings eight pence; and also six shillings eight pence for every Hampfel, that is, an ancient House or Cottage decayed, six shillings eight pence; and in every Mannor the Fine is uncertain, but yet the Lord there shall not take more for his Fine then hath heretofore been taken for a Fine; and if he do otherwise, the remedy for the Copyholder, is in the Chancery against his Lord.

Custom of some Mannor is, That if any Copyholder dies, his Heir within age, the Custom in most Mannors is, that the Custody shall be committed by the Lord to the next of blood, to whom the Land cannot descend; And in some Mannors, the Bayliff of the Lord shall have the Custody, and render the Heir

Heir an account at fourteen years of the profits; and by the Custom in some Mannors, at fourteen years the Heir may choose to him a Guardian.

Custom in some Mannor is, to have certain dayes of labour in Harvest, for a day or two dayes, and in some Mannor he shall pay four pence for every day labour of that. Workmen.

Custom of some Mannor is, that he shall pay, for a Relief up on a discent, but half that which is due by Common Law; as if he held by six pence, he shall pay but three pence for relief, but yet he ought to pay that relief by the Custom; Also, if he come in by purchase, he ought to pay in the like manner half his Rent, as aforesaid: that is to say, three pence, where his Rent was six pence. Relief.

Custom of some Mannor is, to pay but one penny for Relief, and not more, nor less, though his Rent be ten shillings.

Custom in some Mannor is, That if a man marry a Maid, and die seised of Copyhold, his Wife shall have all the Land during her life, for her Dower: but if he marry a Widow, and die seised, she shall have no Dower.

Custom of some Mannor is, That if one were no Copyholder of that Mannor before, and purchase Lands, as first the Fine is arbitrable, and granted at the Will of the Lord: but he nor his heirs after shall pay no Fine, but shall be admitted free, without paying Fine for all the Lands which he after purchaseth within the Mannor.

If a man lett to three for life, to have successively yet this is a Joynt-Estate, and (successively) is void: but by Custom of Copyhold successive holds place, and one shall have it after the other, 30 H.8. rit. Leases 54.

And note, That you do not say, (as many use to say,) That there is such a Custom, when they see the Law to be contrary to their intent, as divers Stewards do, who for favour that they bear to one party, will ayd him by Customs, when there is no such Custom to help him.

And I have heard a Steward say, By the Custom of a Mannor, a Wife is dowable: and by the Custom that shall be assigned by the Homagers, without Plaint, in nature of dower against the Tewant of the Land, and without answer of the Tenant, and without any Procefs made against him, him, contrary to Fortescue, fol. 85. which is, That none is to be sued, but by the Law: and the Case was this, That the Husband, before that he took a Wife, made an Estate for life, reserving Rent, and after he took a Wife, and died, so that by the Law the Wife is not dowerable of the Land: much more, she shall not be assigned there by the Homagers: But saith the Steward in such a Case, She is by the Custom of this Mannor Dowerable in this Case: and such blind and unreasonable Customs are alledged many times amongst Copyholders, where there is no President nor usage in this Case to be shewed.

But you ought not to allow any Custom, but that which hath been used from time to time, and from time out of mind: and there ought to be Presidents in the Court-Rolls, or good proof of that to be shewed to the Court accordingly, otherwise it is not to be allowed for a Custom.

And for that, that you ought to note, What Custom ought to have lawful beginning, as might take lawful effect by Grants at the beginning: for if it be against common Right and Reason, it is not good: and for that you ought to regard these Grounds in Customs.

First, That it be reasonable, 2 H 4. tit. 10. And for that custom, that no Tenant of the Mannor put in his beasts, to use his Common in Fields sowed, after the Corn is taken off, till the Lord hath first put in his Beasts, is not good: for it may be, the Lord will not put in his Beasts: and then the Tenants shall lose their profits.

Also, that it be according to common Right, 42 Ed. 3. f. 4. Prescription of the Sheriff, that the Tenants of the place ought to give to the Sheriff for easment, for reward at the Turn of the Sheriff half a Mark: and this is against common Right, for every gift cometh upon his liberality, and at the Will of the Giver, and for that it is not good: and also saith, that the Sheriff cannot prescribe.

Also, that it be upon good consideration, 42 Ed. 3. f. 4. In the Case next before, where the Sheriff prescribes, For that that there is nothing which toucheth the King, of which he is charged in account, it is not good, for there is no consideration: And as 5 H 7. fol. 9. Prescription Prescription, That if any pasture Sheep upon his Land by day, that he may have Foldage of them in the night upon his Land; it is good, for it is with consideration.

And you ought to note, that Prescription, Custom, and Usage are as Brothers, and yet something they differ in their natures; for Prescription is, when by continuance of time out of memory, one particular person hath particular Right against another particular person.

And Custom is, where by continuance of time out of memory, one right is had concerning divers persons; and Usage is, by continuance of time, the efficient cause of them both, and Usage is the life of Prescription and Custom: for Prescription and Custom have their being by Usage of time out of mind, &c.

Custom or Prescription, that every one which breaks the Lords Pound, shall pay three pound nine pence, is not good against a stranger to the Lord; but that every tenant which breaks the Pound, shall pay three pound nine pence to the L. is good, for the L. may give the Tenements of his Tenants to hold by such, &c. 11 H. 7. f. 14. so that at the beginning, the Lord may create these Customs aforesaid amongst Copyholders.

Custom to prescribe to have used fold-gate in the night for pasture in the day, is good, for it is (one for another) and it is with Common Right, 5 H. 7. fol. 9.

Custom, That the Tenant of time out of mind, hath used to pay so much for the marriage of his Daughter, is good, 43 Ed. 3. and 6. But Lit. fol. 46. contrary.

Custom or Prescription against common Right, is not good; and for that, that it hath been used in Leet, that if the petty twelve present false, and the other twelve enquire of that, and find that false, shall be amerced, is not good; the same Law for the Lord of the Leet, which hath no Land to prescribe to be Lord of the Waste, 9 H. 6. fol. 44.

Custom or Prescription of folding Sheep in the night gathered to the fold, is not good, unless it be as above for their pasture, 45 Ed. 3. fol. 15.

Custom or Prescription, that one may keep the distress, till he satisfied at his Will, is not good; for it is against Common Right, Lit. fol. 46. 5 H. 7. 9.

Custom

Custom or Prescription, that one shall have the Land or plow and sow: and when the Corn is carried, another may have that as his several, is good, time of Ed. 2. tit. Prescription 55.

Custom or Prescription, to have Toll through, which is in the High-way, is not good; for it is against Common Right; but to have toll Travers, is good, 22 Book of Ass. 58.

Custom or Prescription, to have Warren in his Signiory Lands, is good; but not of Lands which are not held of him, 3 H. 6. 13. 43 Ed. 3. 13. and see 44 Ed. 3. fol. 13.

Custom is good, which is not against the Law of reason, nor the law of God: as Customs of Gavel-kind, and Burrough-English, Doctor and Student, fol. 20. B.

Custom, that every Tenant of the Mannor, ought to pay two marks for Relief, hold they more or less, is good, 40 Ed. 3. fol. 6.

Custom, that the Tenants of the Mannor, time out of mind, have used to choose a Beadle for them to gather the Lords Rents, is good, 44 Ed. 3. fol. 13.

Custom, that none of the Town of D. shall put in their Beasts into the Field, after the Corn taken off, until the Feast of St. Michael, is a good Custom of the Town, after 46 Ed. 3. fol. 24.

But Custom that none shall put his Beasts into the Fields, after the Corn severed and carried, before the Lord put in his Beasts, is not good: for peradventure the Lord will never put in his Beasts, 2 H. 5. 24.

Custom of the Town of Barton, or of a Mannor, that a Wife shall have all the Land of her Husband for her Dower, or a half, or a fourth part, is a good Custom, 2 Ed. 4. 17. and 21 Ed. 4. fol. 64. by Choke.

It is held, that Custom throughout the whole Kingdom is Common Law; and one cannot prescribe that it is a Custom throughout the whole Kingdom, but, it is a Custom in such a City or such a County, 34 H. 8 tit. Custom 59. 30 Ed. 3. 25. 2 H. 4. fol. 18. Custom of County, 21 Ed. 4. 58.

Custom of the Town which is no Burrough nor Corporation allowed there, but see 4 Ed. 3. 38. in a reasonable reasonable part, and see 21 Ed. 4. f. 53. and 54. 40 Book of A. 27. and 45 A. 40. against the Custom of the Village.

That he hath been by Prescription the Keeper of a Wood, and Custom to have of every commer a measure of work, or three pence, and of every one which hath a Gate into the Wood, a hen is a Custom allowed, 11 H. 6. 2.

Custom or Prescription to have House-boot in the Lords Wood, is good, but not to have Wood to sell, 11 H. 6. f. 11.

Custom that within the Mannor of D. the Wife shall have the whole Land of her Husband in Dower, whilst she is unmarried; and if she marry, that she shall forfeit that, is good and allowable, 21 A. 11.

Custom that a Woman covert may Demise and surrender her Copyhold to the use of her Husband, this Custom is not allowable; but Custom that an Infant at his Age of discretion may surrender his Copyhold, that is good; but contrary of an Infant within age of discretion to make a surrender.

21 H. 7. fol. 26. Lord to prescribe that every Tenant of his Mannor ought to impound Distrels, taken within his Mannor, in his Pound, is not good, for he may impound in his own Land.

8 Ed. 4. f. 19. Those which are Fishers in the Sea, may prescribe to go upon the Land adjoining to the Sea to Fish, for that it is for the Commonwealth, but to dig to fix the stakes to dry their Nets, is against common right, and is not good.

21 Ed. 4. tit. 50. Custom to turn his Plough upon the Head-land of another is a good Custom.

40 Edw. 3. fol. 9. Custom to pay to the Lord five Marks for Relief, and not more, hold he more or less, is good.

44 Ed. 3. fol. 13. Custom that the Tenants ought to choose a Beadle amongst them, to gather the Lords Rents, is good.

2 Max. ut Prescription. B. 100. Custom may be alleged where there is a person that may prescribe, as Inhabitants cannot prescribe, but alleged Custom there, to have Common in D. for one goes with the person, and another with the place: and Prescription with the person, by 21 H.7.f.13. that is, That all the Tenants have used to pay after their death a Harriot; is not good; but that the Lord hath used to have after their death, &c. he may prescribe.

18 H.8.fol.2. Inhabitants, by Fitzherbert, cannot prescribe to have common; but the Lord may prescribe for him and his Tenants, &c. of time out of mind, &c.

7 Ed.4.fol.24. It seems that Inhabitants cannot prescribe to Intercommon because of Neighbourhood, but Inhabitants may prescribe to have easement; that is to say, that they have a Way, or other thing of easement, but not to take profit.

Discent.

THEN for that, that the second Article is to enquire who is Tenant, and what advantage the Lord shall have by the death of his Tenant: It behooveth to know, who is in by Discent to be your Tenant, that you may know of whom to have relief, and who to be in Ward, and who nor, and who shall be said in by Discent, and where by purchase, and where he shall not be in by Discent.

Gift to one in tail, Remainder to the right Heirs of J. S. which was dead. T. S. hath that as right Heir, and is in by Purchase, and shall not pay Relief nor be in Ward, 40 Ed. 3. 9. and 32 Ed. 3. Fitzh. Discent 8.

Lord and Tenant, the Tenant aliens in Mortmain, and the Alienee is Disseised, and the Disseisor dyeth seised, his Heir is in by discent; yet the Lord may enter within the year, for he hath only a title to enter, and cannot have action, but contrary to him that hath right of entry and may have Action, 1 Ed. 6. tit. Mortmain 6 Bro.

Lease for life, the Remainder to the right Heir of J. S. the Tenant for life dyes, living J. S. the Remainder is void, and J. S. nor his Heirs shall not be said in by Discent to pay relief, nor otherwise shall have the Land as Purchaser, 9 H. 6. f. 24. Perkins f. 12. the same.

Lease for life, the Remainder to the right Heirs of J. S. and J. S. dyes, Tenant for life hath aid of T. S. son and Heir of J. S. and though he were within age, he shall not have his age, and shall not pay relief, nor be in in Ward if they hold by Knight Service, and be within age, for that he is in as a purchaser, 11 H. 4. f. 74.

Lease for life, the Remainder to another in Tail, which dies, his Issue within age, and after the Tenant for life dies, the Issue is in by discent, and if he be within age, and hold by Knight Service, he shall be in Ward to the Donor, 33 H. 6. f. 5.

And for that, that in the said second Article of Charge, you ought to enquire if any Tenant be dead, who is his next Heir: Let us now see where a Woman is with Child at the time of the death of her Husband Tenant, and by whom she shall be judged with Child, and who shall be said in after the death of the Husband as Heir, and shall be Tenant to the Lord, and who not.

IF the Husband Tenant dye seised, and his wife with child, and a Brother of the Husband enter as Heir, as he may, and after Issue is born, this Issue is Heir to the Husband, and Tenant to the Lord, and not the Brother, though he were Tenant and Heir before the Issue was born, 41 Ed. 3. fol. 11.

A man Tenant hath a Daughter, his Wife with child with a Son, and makes a Feoffment upon condition, and dies, and the Daughter enters, for the condition, &c. and after the Son is born, this Son shall not be Heir nor Tenant of this Land; The same Law is where there is a Lease for life, the Remainder to the right Heirs of J. S. Tenant for life dyes, the Daughter enters, and after the Son is born, he shall not be Heir and Tenant of that Land, 9 H. 7. f. 25. Plow. f. 56.

If a woman Tenant seised in Fee hath a Daughter, and being with child with a Son, the Husband dies, and after the Wife is ravished, and consents to the Ravisher, and the Daughter enters by the Statute as next of blood, as she may, and after the Son is born, he cannot enter upon the daughter, and be Heir and Tenant to the Lord, Plow. Com. f. 56. 5 Ed. 4. f. 6.

By terms of the Law Thirti, and Wilby, if a man Tenant seised of Land in Fee, dyes seised, his Wife privily being with child, with a Son, and another man marries her, and after the Son is born, he shall be adjudged the Son of the second Husband, and not of the first Husband, and shall be Tenant to the Lord, of the Land of the second Husband; and Barrey Justice said. That the Infant might choose which he would for his Father, 21 Ed. 3. f. 39. Otherwise it is, if she had been great with child.

If a Woman be with child by her Husband Tenant, or by another, it shall not be tryed; but if she be with child at the time of the death of her Husband, or nor, shall be in Issue; for by 1 H. 6. f. 3. If the Wife of J. S. go away with an Adulterer, and hath issue, if J. S. her Husband be within the four Seas, the Issue is Heir of J. S. for by whom the Woman is with child, it cannot be tryed, and for that it shall be intended by J. S. 41 Ed. 3. fol. 11. and 7 H. 4. f. 9. the same.

If a man marry a Wife which is great with child by another man, and within three dayes after Marriage she is delivered, and the Husband dies, the Issue is lawful, and Heir and Tenant to the Lord, and no Bastard, 18 E. 4. f. 30. a.

24 H. 8. Br. Title Bastardy 44. it was said, if a man marry his Cousin within the degrees of Marriage, and have Issue, and are divorced in their lives, and by that the Marriage is avoided, and the Issue is a Bastard: contrary if one dye before the Divorce:

21 H. 7. f. 41. If a Deacon takes a Wife and hath Issue: this Issue is no Bastard: otherwise it is of a Marriage between a Fryer and a Nun if they have Issue.

11 H. 4. fol. 76. Said by our Law, if one marry his Cousin, their Issue is no Bastard till they are divorced, but shall take by Discent.

42 Ed. 3. fol. 11. If a man marry a Wife, and living, that Wife marry another, and hath Issue by the second, this Issue is a Bastard, notwithstanding that the first Wife after dyes, and shall not take by Discent.

For that, that in the same second Article of Charge is inquired, if any Tenant of the Lord be dead; who is heir and Tenant to the Lord, let us now see where the half blood is impediment; and where not.

TENANT gives Land to the Father for life, remainder to Rich, his son in tail. The remainder to the right Heir of the Father: the Father dyest: Rich enters, and dies without Issue of his body, his brother of the half blood shall have the Land; and not the Uncle of Rich: and shall be Tenant, and the half blood is no impediment, 39 E. 3. tit. 5.

If the Father Tenant hath a Son and a Daughter by one Belly, and a Son by another, and lets to one for life, and dies, and the Reversion is descended to his eldest Son, which dies before the Tenant for life, this is no possession, that the Daughter shall have the Land, but the Son of the half blood shall be Tenant to the Lord: but if Reversion of Term of years were in the eldest Son which dies before the Term ended, the daughter shall have the Land and shall be Tenant to the Lord, and not the Son for half blood is impediment, 5 Ed. 4. f. 9.

But in the Case next before, where there is a rent reserved upon the Estate for life by the Father, and the eldest hath the Reversion and Rent and dies, the Daughter there shall inherit, and the half blood is an impediment to the Son to be Heir and Tenant: yet if the Father dies, and the eldest Son dies before payment of Rent, there it is otherwise, 35 Book of

If a man Tenant hath Issue two Daughters by several Bellies, and dies, and they enter and make division berwixt them; if one die without Heir general or special, her part shall Escheat to the Lord, and not descend to the sister of the half blood; but if that sister hath an Uncle, it ought to descend to him: and if he enter and dies without Issue, it shall descend to the sister of the half blood. See Littleton, fol. 3. Natura Brevium, fol. 10.

If a man Tenant hath three Daughters by one Belly, and a Daughter by another, and dies, and the four Daughters enter, and two of them by the first Belly die, now the third of the whole blood shall have three parts, and shall be Tenant of that to the Lord, 10 Ed. 3. tit. 13. and 10 Ass. 27. accordingly.

If the Donor in tail have a Son and a Daughter by one Belly, and a Son by another, and dies; and the Son of the first Belly enter, and dies seised without Issue, the Son of the second Belly shall be Heir and Tenant to the Donor, and not the Daughter, Natura Brevium, fol. 147.

If a man hath a Son and a Daughter by one Belly, and a Daughter by another, and Lands are given to the Father for life, the remainder to the Son in tail, the remainder to the right Heirs of the Father; the Father dyes, and the Son enters and dies without Issue, the two Daughters shall be Heirs and Tenants to the Lord, for the Son was not actually seised of the Fee, 5 Ed. 1. tit. 14. 32 Ed. 3. tit. 9. 24 Ed. 3. fol. 24. and 37 Book of Ass. 4. accordingly.

The possession of the Brother, of Lands held by Knights Service, there the possession of the Guardian, if the Son dyes in Ward, is possession of the Heir to make the Sister inherit, and to be Tenant to the Lord, and not the Son of the half blood, 8 Ed. 3. tit. 12. and 8 Book of Ass. 6. accordingly.

Escheats.

Where it shall Escheat and not descend; and where not. And for that in the same second Article is also inquirable what advantage the Lord may have by the death of his Tenant; that is to say, Ward or Escheat. Now let us see what is impediment by Attainder, and otherwise, that the Issue of the Lands in Fee cannot be Heir by descent, not that his Father and Mother were married; and where the Lord shall have that by Escheat; and where not.

If the Father being an Alien, hath a son, and after the Father is made Denizen, and after hath another son, and after purchase Land and dyes, the youngest son is heir; and if he die without issue, the Lord shall have the Land by Escheat, and not the eldest son, for he is an Alien, Doctor and Student, fol. 12.

The eldest son is attaint of Felony in the life-time of his Father, and is hanged; the Father dyes, the youngest son shall inherit, and it shall not Escheat: but if the Eldest son be attaint in the life-time of his Father, and survive the Father, the Land shall Escheat, 20 Book of Assises, 2. 46 Ed. 3. tit. Discent 6. 49 Ed. 3. fol. 11. and 31 Ed. tit. 17. accordingly.

If the son be attaint of Felony or Treason, and after is pardoned, and after his Father dyes seised of Land, the Lord shall have that by Escheat, rather than the son, 13 H. 4. fol. 8. 1 E. 3. tit. 15. accordingly. See before that; Doctor and Student, fol. 25.

29 H.8. tit. 52. Charter of Pardon, Br. The King may be intituled to Goods without Office, by Outlawry, but not to Lands.

38 H.8. title, Thing in Action, 211. Br. By the Statute of 31 H.8. gives to the King possession of Lands of Monasteries without Office; for the words are, That the King shall be in possession of them; yet if an Abbot were disseised of four Acres of Land, the King cannot grant that over, before entry made by him into it.

Time of H.8. tit. 119. Pre. Br. It seems that the King shall not have a Præcipe quod reddat, as a Writ of Escheat, but his Title shall be found by Office.

Time of Ed. 6. tit. Denizen, 17. Where an Alien born purchaseth, the King shall have it, but the purchase ought to be found by Office, 33 H.8. tit. Fines levied, 115.

Title, Office before Escheator, 60. Br. King shall have Chattels without Office, but not Ward.

2 H.7. f.8. The King may re-enter without demand, where there is a clause of re-entry in his Lease, but then that shall be found by Office.

Tit. Escheat, 23. Br. Alien born hath issue a Son, and after is made Denizen, and after hath issue another Son, and purchases Land and dies, the youngest Son shall have the Land, and not the eldest, nor the Lord by Escheat.

Tit. Escheat 29. B. Where a man is attaint of Heresie, and delivered to Laymen to be burnt, yet he shall not forfeit his Land, unless he be put in Execution, and there by the Execution the Lord shall have Escheat, unless the Land be held of the Ordinary, then the King shall have it.

Enquest.

Enquest.

For that, that you try your Copy-holders and other Issues by consent by Jury: let us see, how many shall be sworn of a Jury.

The Statute of West. 2. chap. 13. is, that the Sheriff shall inquire by twelve, and not by less, and the same Law shall be in Leet; and for that, that this Statute doth not extend to Court-Baron, Presentment of Articles there by less then twelve may be; for one may hold Court-Baron, though there be but two Suitors, and then they may inquire by two, of Articles for the Lord; but hard it is, when every one is inheritable to the Laws of the Realm; and the Tryal of the Law is by twelve, or issue joyned between party and party, that by your not power, that is to say, that there should not be 12 Tenants of every Jury, to take from me my tryal, which the Law gives to me; and if you will try issue by less then twelve, you may impannel three or four of the Friends to the parties, and to have no number certain under twelve; but to have such a number as the Steward pleaseth; and to be at his choice, how many shall be sworn of a Jury, and how many shall be impannelled, is inconvenient, where there are more within the Mannor to be impannelled; and 40 Ed. 3. fol. 1. Where consuance is granted in one Court, to have consuance; if this Court fail, that it cannot make Law and Right, consuance shall not be in this Case allowed, and for that, that at the exigent, Bayliffs demand consuance, and shall not have it, for they cannot pronounce Out-lawry upon that; and in Quare Impedit, they shall not have consuance, for they cannot award a Writ to the Bishop, 42 Ed. 3. fol. 3. Where one was Out-lawed, Consuance was demanded, and could not have it, for that he could not award Capias uslagatum there; and so it seems, if there be not twelve to try the Issue, they fail of power to minister Law, and to do Justice; and Copyholder may sue by Bill in Chancery, where there are not twelve Homagers within the Mannor, or in Action of Trespass at the Common Law, and the party ought to be be admitted in the Lords Court, to the intent, to bring Trespats at the Common Law, and there Law is more truly administred then in Court-Barons; and also if any sue in Court-Baron for Copyhold, he shall make his Prorestitution to sue in nature of his Writ at Common Law; and the Proceſs and proceedings shall be according to the course of the Common Law, and they shall joyn Issue according to the course of the Common Law, and there (Venire facias) is, That they shall cause to come twelve free and lawful men, according to the course of the Common Law; and for that it seems, that Tryal of Issues there between parties shall be by twelve, and not by less:

And by Fortescue, f. 54. and 57. (sworn together in the form aforesaid, twelve good and lawful men) so it appears by him, that every Issue in every Court shall be tryed by twelve, and not by less.

Enquest shall be by Custom of the Realm, between party and party, in a Court of Record, by twelve at the Common Law, Doctor and Student, fol. 14.

Verdict of 11 shall not be taken, 41 Ass. 11. 41 E. 3. fol. 31. and 29 Ed. 3. fol. 33. accordingly.

Every Inquisition taken in the Sheriffs turn, shall be by twelve, and the same Law is said there in a Lett by the Equity of the Statute of 6 H. 4. fol. 3. Notwithstanding (seek) if less, then twelve may try Issue between parties in the Court of a Lord of Copyhold, or not, where there are not twelve within the Mannor; for it is held by some, that it shall be tryed by less; and I have seen a Tryal between three or four. But I intend it is hard, and specially where there are twelve, and more Copyholders within the Mannor; and also it appears in the Register, that an action was removed out of the Court-Baron (because there were but four Suitors) and so I conclude, Issue for Copyholders shall not be tryed by less then by twelve, 6 H. 4. fol. 1.

18 H. 4. fol. 2. Charter of exemption, that he shall not be impannelled, shall not be allowed, unless a full Jury appear.

39 Ed. 3. lit. 23. A Writ of not putting in Assises shall not be allowed in an Attaint, nor in a Writ of Right.

21 Ed.4. fol. 53. If a man have a Charter of Exemption, and that shewed to the Sheriff, and he notwithstanding impannels him; Trespass upon the Case lies against him.

Fitzh. 205. A Writ not to be put in Assises and Juries is founded upon the Statute of West. 2. chap. 39. and upon Amicus super Chartas; which Statutes declare, that persons shall not be impannelled, that is, who is sick, lame, and above 60 years old.

Fitzh. 266. Clerks which have Lands by descent, or by purchase, shall be impannelled.

5 Ed. 3. fol. 26. Presentment in Leet by four, and not by twelve, that one had dwelt within the Leet a year and a day not sworn was traversed; but it seems, if he were presented by twelve, it shall not be traversed; but if it were false, he shall have recovery by Writ of false Presentment seek of this Writ.

46 Ed. 3. fol. 26. Presentment in Leet, that one hath dwelt there by a year and a day, and not sworn, shall be by twelve, otherwise it is traversable.

3 H. 7. 4. If there be not twelve to be sworn, the Steward may swear a stranger, which comes within the view to be sworn in Leet.

The Lord may hold Court-Baron, though there are but two Tenants, 23 H. 8. and 33 H. 8. and then two may present Articles for the Lord; but where Issue is between party and party, it shall be by twelve: for the Venue facias is twelve free and lawful men, which is tryal by Common-Law; and that, it seems, shall be the tryal of Copyhold Land: yet Fitzh. 41. in Right shall be great Assise, that is, 24. of a Jury, and attainr shall be 24. but if in Court-Baron, the Mise be joyned to be tryed by great Assise, there shall go a Prohibition, &c.

Fitzh. 107 C. Enquest of Office, as in a Writ to inquire of Waste: it may be inquired by six or eight, 2 H. 4. fol. 7. and 3 H. 6. f. 29. the same.

13 H. 3. f. 13. Where a Lord of Parliament is arraigned, here shall be eighteen or twenty Lords of the Enquest, and they shall not be sworn:

20 H. 7. f. 3. Jurors may drink after their Charge, and before their agreement at their own proper Charges; it seems their Verdict is good, for there doth not appear any corruption in them, nor that they drank for any corruption; for all drank together, and every one was in as good plight to resist as others are.

19 Ed.4.f.6. After the Jury sworn, and before they enter into a House, and before their departure from the Bar, they drink by license of the Justices, and by the consent of the parties, and their Verdict good.

10 H.4.fol.20. After the Jury was sworn, the Plaintiff delivered a writing to a Juror without the Court, and he shewed that to his Companions in the House, and the Jury gave Verdict; and he shall not have Judgment, 11 H.4.fol.17. the same. Plowd. Com.fol.5. 19. the Jury gave a special Verdict, and a Box of Barberies conserved, Sugar Candy, and Licorish was found with one J.M. one of the Jury after that he was departed from the Bar: J.M. was committed to the Fleet, till he had paid a Fine, and the Verdict good: See 8 Ass. 35. and 20 H.6.fol.26.

Tryal.

IN Court-Baron, the Tryal is there by waging Law; but by the consent of the parties it may be by the Country, 33 H.8.B.tit. Tryal 143.3 Ed.6.tit. Pannel 2. Where the Jury is of two Tongues, for that, that the one is an Alien, and the other an Engliss man: there shall be six Denizens sworn, and six Engliss men, otherwise the Jury shall not be taken, and so shall be (Tales) of that.

4 Mar.B.tit. Jurors 8. Jury took a Writing of the Plaintiff which was not delivered to them in Court, and passed for the Plaintiff; and for that, that the matter appeared to the Court by examination, therefore the Plaintiff shall have no Judgment.

35 H.8.B.tit. Replead 54. It was in use in the Kings Bench, though that the Jury was ready to pass there, if there be a (foofail) apparent in the Record, the Jury shall be discharged.

26 H.8.f.6. Jurors, after they are in the House, return to hear evidence again upon matter which they were in doubt of, and may.

14 H.7. fol. 1. The Jury eat and drink before the Evidence finished, or, after they are agreed, depart and drink before Verdict: they shall be fined, and the Verdict is good; but if they eat and drink after Evidence given, and before they agree, the Verdict is void.

And it seems that this matter shall be shewed when the Jury comes to give their Verdict, and shall be examined, and not after. And it seems that the Jurors may depart asunder by cause of great tempest, of a House falling, or fire where they are.

Execution.

For that, that Execution is used in many Court-Barons by (Levari facias); let us see what Goods upon that may be taken in Execution, and what not; and the order of Execution.

Goods pawned, shall not be taken in Execution, for the Debt of him which pawned them, during the time they are pawned, 34 H.8. Pledge 28. and 4 Ed.6. Distress, 75.

Where A lets Oxen for time, and after A is condemned, these Oxen during the term shall not be taken in Execution, 22 Ed.4. fol. 10.

Debt in Court-Baron, the Plaintiff recovers by Judgment, and shall have Execution; and the Beasts of the Defendant were taken and delivered to him in Execution, 33 E.2. tit. Execution 133.

In Debt, where they are bound jointly and severally, and hath of those three several Judgments; and if Execution against one, the other shall have a superfetas: but in Trespas against throe, Execution against one doth not suffice; and the same Law is in a Joynt Debt, 4 Ed.4. fol. 39.

By (Fieri facias) or (Levari facias), the Officer cannot break the Door nor Chest, to take Goods in Execution; for if he do, Trespas lies against him for the breaking only, 18 Ed.4. f. 4 and 13 Ed.4. f. 9. by Choke, notwithstanding, 8 Ed.2. tit. Executors 152. contrary.

If one recovers in Court-Baron, he shall not have Execution by Fieri facias; nor otherwise, but may detain the Defendant after Judgment, and detain the distress in their hands in safeguard, till the Defendant hath satisfied the Plaintiff of the Condemnation, 22 AJ. 72. St. 11 Ed. f. 91. N. brev. f. 165. & 4 H. 6. f. 17. Affign.

Bayliff in Court-Baron cannot sell the Goods in Execution, but shall restrain them as Distress, notwithstanding, where it is used to make Levari facias, it is a good Custom: and note, that it is used in many Mannors, that the Goods are praised, and Execution made of them by Levari facias, 22 Book of AJ. 71.

A Writ of Execution Judicis, lyeth where Judgment is given in Court-Baron, upon a Writ of Right Patent, or in Debt or Trespass, and the Bayliff will not make Execution: this Writ lyeth as well, as it lyeth where Judgment is given in a Court of Record: and the Sheriff will not make Execution, and he will not levy the Execution upon the Goods, it was in vain to award this Writ, Fitzb. fol. 20. A.

Capias doth not lye in Court-Baron, and for that, the Capias to satisfy, doth not lye to have Execution; and Eligis doth not lie there, &c. for this is given by the Statute of Westm. 2. chap. 18.

29 H. 8. tit. Execution, B. 132. Two are bound in an Obligation jointly and severally, if he shew one, & takes his body by a Capias to satisfy, yet he may take the other; but if one satisfy him, the other may plead that, 37 H. 8. tit. Condition B. 16. One taken by a Capias to satisfy, is in Execution, though that be not returned.

13 H. 4. tit. Advowries 237. One avows for that, that J. S. was seised of a place, where, &c. and lett that to the Plaintiff for his life, rendering Rent, and after J. S. grants the Reversion to B, who was bound in a Recognizance to the Advowant; and that the Advowant hath that Rent delivered in Execution, and good.

15 Ed. 3. tit. Execution 93. Rent was delivered in Execution upon a Recognizance, time of Ed. 1. tit. Audita querela 402. If the Father be bound in a Recognizance, and dies, and his Issue within age, the Execution shall not be against him: for if it be, he shall have an Assise.

Time of Ed. 1. tit. 417. If a man takes a Wife, and after be bound, and dies, the Wife is endowed, if she be outed by Extent, she shall have Assise, 29 H. 8. tit. Stat.

Merchant

Merchant 40. If one sue Execution upon a Statute, and he accept part of the Land in name of all, he shall not have extent of the residue, but it seems upon a (Nihil) returned upon the Tritium, he may have process into another County.

2 R.3. f.8. Statute Staple was certified by the Mayor of the Staple, and the Conisee upon that takes a Writ to take the Body, and to extend his Land to Suff. and Middl. only, and this Writ was not returned, and by Certiorare he caused the Mayor to certify the Statutes again, and upon that he hath a Writ of extent in ten Counties, but not in Suff. and Middl. and this Writ is not returned, and he hath the third Certificate, and the third Writ of Extent into six Counties, but not in Suff. and Middl. and now hath his Extent, and hath Land that the Cognisor hath in right of his Wife, which died, and for threats, durst not take the profits of the Residue, and by all the Justices the Cognisee shall have a Capias into the County where he took his first Writ, and not otherwise: that is, into the County of Suff. and Middl. only, upon the fourth Certificate, and upon that the Cognisor found Sureties to the King and parry, according to the Statute, 18 H.6. chap. 10. He shall have a Seire facias against the Conisee, to prove the matter in his Writ, and robe at the Judgment in the Court: and if he fail of any, he shall forfeit his Recognizance.

2 R.3. fol.9. If the Conisee of a Statute dies, his Executors or Administrators, if he die Intestate, shall have execution upon it without saying (Seire facias) or that the Conisor cannot have any Plea, although he hath a Deed of Release: but if he have a Release, he shall have an (Audita querela) or a (Seir facias): and so it is, where one which is no Executor sues an Execution, the Conisor shall have this Writ: but upon recovery by the Statute of W. 1m. 2. one may have a Fieri facias within the year to have Execution, and after the year may have Seire facias: and if a man be bound in two Statutes, one after the other, and he which hath the last Statute, hath first Execution, the other shall have a Seire facias, and have Execution: and if the Sheriff, upon a Writ to have Execution, returns the Conisor dead; the Conisee shall have a Seire facias against the Heir of the Conisor and the Land Tenants.

25 H.7. fol. 17. Where the Conisee, to whom a Statute is made, dies, his Executors shall have Execution without suing Seire facias, for that it is given by the Statute; but where one hath a Judgment, and dies, it is otherwise. West. chap. 45. gives Seire facias upon Judgment, and upon Fine.

15 H.7. fol. 14. Husband is bound in a Statute, and Lands of his Wife were extended; and after the Wife dies, and the Heir of the Wife enters, now may the Conisee have a Copias for the Body of the Conisor, though he had not at the first, for that, that the Statute gives the Lands, Goods, and Body; and if Execution be defeated by lawful entry, he shall not have a Re-extent; but if the Conisor himself take the profits of the Conisee, or that the profit be destroyed by wild-fire, or water, the Conisee may hold over his Term; and the Conisor cannot enter during the Term of Extent, but shall have a Seire facias, and shall not have that before the Term ended without Acquittance, or that he leave money in the Court; and where the Conisee is satisfied within the Term by casual profit, the Conisor shall have upon that a Veneris facias, and upon that a Seire facias; and if it be extended too low, the Conisor may lay the Money in Court, and recover his Land; and if it be found too high, the Conisee may pray that the Extenders may take the Land, &c.

11 H.6. fol. 8. If the Land extended, be drowned by water within the Term, the Conisee may hold over the term; and the same Law where he is outed by a Guardian in Knights-Service, 15 Ed. 4. fol. 5.

22 H.8. chap. 5. Where Lands delivered by reasonable extent in Execution, have been recovered, or lawfully divested from the Conisee of the Statute Merchants, Statute-Staple, or Recognisances, before they have been fully satisfied, and paid their Debt without fraud or covin, remedy given by Seire facias against the Recognisors to levy the residue.

Where a Woman recovers Damages in Dower in Bench, she cannot have Execution there, of those Da-pages recovered by Capias ad satisfaciendum, for that, that the Capias doth not lie in the Original, 11 H. 7. f. 15. 2 H. 4. f. 7.

The Statute of West. 2. chap. 18. gives Elegit, that is to say, That the Sheriff shall deliver all the Chattels of the Debtor, (except the Oren and Beasts of the Plow) and the half of his Land, and that doth not extend to a Court-Baron, but to Courts where Process is directed to the Sheriff, and the Statute is also when a Debt is recovered in a Court of the Kings And Court-Baron cannot award the half of the Land in Execution, for it is no Court of the Kings, but of the Lords, and he cannot meddle with Lands without the Kings Command: but in other Courts, Execution shall be of Lands, which hath a day of Judgment given, and of Goods in this Court, and Beasts which the party hath day of the Execution awarded: and see also Execution of Recognizances and of Statutes, for your Learning.

Execution shall be of Land, which hath day of recovery, 7 Ed. 2. fol. 92. and 21 Aff. 2.

A man shall have Execution of Lands, which he had, day of the Judgment, and not before, Natura Brevium, fol. 93. 19 Ed. 2. Fitz. Execution 249. Natura Brevium, fol. 168.

A man shall have Execution in Debt of no Land, but of that which the Defendant had, day of the Judgment given, and of Chattels which he had, day of the Execution sued, Natura Brevium, fol. 107. and 2 H. 4. fol. 15.

It seems, that all the half the Lands which a Recognisor hath, which enters into a Recognizance day of that, or after, are liable in Execution by Elegit, 24 Ed. 3. f. 27. ilt. Execution 90. Fitz. 267. D. and 2 H. 4. f. 9.

Note, where one is bound in a Statute, Execution shall be of all his Lands which he had, day of the Statute acknowledged, or after, in whose hands they come by Peoffment, or otherwise, but it is not said so of Goods and Chattels; and for that they shall not have them in whose hands they come, but those only which had in his hands day of the Execution awarded.

But

But if the Cognizor, after the Statute acknowledged, lets his Lands for years, the Cognisee may Out the Lessee, for the words are, In whose hands they come, by Feoffment, or in other manner, Statute Mer. fol. 48.

To have Execution of a Statute Merchant: First, You shall have a Writ of Certificate in the Chancery, and there upon Certificate shall go a Capias, returnable in the common Bench, or Kings Bench; and then within one quarter of a year that it shall be taken, shall go an Extent of all his Goods and Lands. See the Statute of Merchants, 37 H. 6. f. 6. Fitz. 130. G.

Statute-Staple shall be certified as the Statute-Merchant is, and upon that shall go a Writ of Execution to take him, and to extend his Lands, and this shall be returned in the Chancery, and not into the Common Bench, or Kings Bench, as the Writ of Execution upon a Statute-Merchant shall be, and upon this shall go a Liberate, Fitz. f. 131. D.

15 H. 7. fol. 14. Upon a Statute-Staple, he shall have the Body, Lands and Goods by a Writ, and upon a Statute-Merchant: First, a Capias by a quarter of a year, &c. and upon the return of that (Non est inventus) shall have a Writ to have Execution of his Goods and Lands.

Upon a Statute-Staple after a Certificate, shall go out a Writ to take his Body and to take his Lands in what County he will, and if that be returned, he cannot have Extent in another County, that is to say, a Liberate, 2 R. 3. fol. 7.

Upon a Statute-Staple shall go a Capias out of the Chancery, returnable in the Chancery to take his body, and to seise his Lands into the Kings hands, and at the day of return of that Liberate, 37 H. 6. f. 6.

Note, that the Statute of Merchants, f. 79 is, That an Execution upon a Recognizance shall not be made, as it is upon a Statute-Merchant: but as it was used by the Law before the making of this Statute: and this was to have a Scire facias, and upon that an Elegit, or a Fieri facias.

Upon a Recognizance there shall go no Capias, but it is used otherwise at this day, that is, Scire facias returnable into the Chancery, and they use now to award a Capias, Fieri facias, or Elegit, 48 Ed. 3. f. 14.

Statute-

A man may sue Debt upon the Statute-Merchant, Staple or Recognizance. See Statute-Merchants, Fitz. 122. D. and f. 77. the same.

Evidences

Evidence.

And for that, that you have not many times Counsel in your Court-Barons, and for that, that it is many times pleaded to the general Issue where it ought not; It is now expedient to shew what matters may be given in Evidence upon general Issue, and what not. And first, where the Defendant pleads the general issue, and shews in Evidence, That the Plaintiff hath no such cause of Action as is brought, nor no cause of Action, this is good Evidence upon general Issue.

Action upon the Statute of (Parco fratto) not guilty, and Evidence that he hath no Park, is good; 19 H.6. fol.7.

Trespass in Warren, not guilty, and Evidence that he hath no Warren, is good, 10 H.6. fol.17. and 34 H.6. fol.7.

Trespass by Warden of the Fleet, not guilty, and Evidence that he is not Warden, is good. 4 Ed.4. fol.7. and 12 E.4. fol.7.

Trespass of a House broken, not guilty, and Evidence that the Plaintiff hath no House there, is good, 21 H.6. fol.7.

Trespass, not guilty, and Evidence that the place where the Trespass was done, is the Freehold of another, and not of the Plaintiff, is good, 4 E.4. fol.5.

Debt against a Vicar for holding Farms, He hath not against the form of the Statute, and Evidence that he had, for maintenance of his house it is good, 27 H.6. fol.25.

Action upon the Case, of finding his Goods, and converting them to the use of the Defendant, not guilty, and Evidence that they were not goods of the Plaintiff, is good, 3 Mar. & 33 H.8. Action upon the Case, 109. Otherwise it is, in Trespass, 27 H.8. fol.25.

Debt upon Arrearages of Account, he oweth him nothing in manner, and form, and evidence, that there was no such Account, is good, 2 H.6. fol.26.

Note more before that.

Fines.

Where it shall be paid by Copy-holder, that I have seen used, is as ensues.

Note, that it is commonly said, and the ground of paying Fines is, that a Fine is due to the Lord upon every alteration and change of Tenant, that is to say, upon every admittance of every new Tenant, to the Lord by Copy, as upon every Alienation by surrender and admittance upon that, and upon every descent and admittance upon that; also if a Copy-holder surrender into the hands of the Lord, to the use of divers and their Heirs, as to two, three, or four, and their Heirs; upon the admittance of them the Lord shall have but one Fee, for it is but one surrender, and one admittance of a Tenant, and upon the death of the survivor, and the admittance of his Heir, then another Fine, so that the Fine is to be adjudged due always upon admittance of Tenant, and not without admittance.

other shall have his part by Survivor without new admittance, and shall not pay a Fine.

Also where a Surrender is made to the use of a Husband, and his Wife, and to the Heirs of the Husband, upon their admittance the Lord shall have but one Fine, for it is one Surrender, and both are but one new Tenant, and after the death of the Husband and the Wife, upon admittance of the Heir of the Husband, the Lord shall have another Fine.

Also where a Surrender is made to one for life, and after his death, the Remainder to another, and the Heirs of his body begotten, and for default of such Issue, Remainder to a third and his Heirs, in the Case admittance of the Tenant for life, vests the Remainder in the others; and divers Learned Stewards take but one Fine only of admittance of a Tenant for term of life, and nothing of those two in Remainder, when the Remainder falls; but I have seen that every one in the Remainder, when they come to the Land shall make Fine, though it be not the whole Fine, but a half, and every one is admitted when a Remainder falls; but it need not, for by the admittance of the Tenant for life, the Remainder is so vested, that the Remainder need no other admittance, and they are but one Estate and one Surrender; the same Law where there is a Surrender to one for life, the Remainder to another and his Heirs, there shall be but one Fine. But then it is good, that both be admitted together according to the Surrender, at the time the Surrender made.

Also where one out of the Court by Custom, surrenders into the hands of two Tenants to the use of himself for life, and after his death to the use of J. S. and his Heirs, and dies before the next Court, and then all this is presented at the next Court, he in the Remainder shall be admitted and pay but one Fine, for it is impossible to admit one which is dead, and by the Act of God his Fine is gone; and now there is but one to be admitted, and upon one Surrender, and one being to be Copy-holder, shall be paid but one Fine.

Also where a Copy-holder is admitted upon Surrender, render, he shall pay a Fine; but if it be so that he have Common recovery in plaint, in nature of a Writ of entry in the (Post) upon his better assurance; and for to defeat an Estate tail, those which recover have Seisin by command (by Habere facias Seisnam) and also they are in, in the (Post) and by the recovery; and for that no Fine shall be there paid to the Lord but one, for the recovery was also but for further assurance, and the Surrender and all make but one Tenant by Copy, and so there is due but one Fine:

Also where the Custom is, that for every Cottage and for every House, the Lord shall have upon every alteration and admittance of Tenant, for one Fine three shillings; and there if a Cottage or a House is decayed, it is called a Home-stall, and by the Custom also, for every Home-stall he shall pay for a Fine three shillings there; if the Tenant makes of one house two houses, or build a new house, he shall not pay a Fine for these new houses, nor for two houses, which before was but one; for the Prescription doth not hold place but for the old houses.

Also where the Custom is, that for a Fine for a License to let for years, the Tenant shall pay for every house which the Tenant lets for every year that he hath License, four pence; there if he make of one house divers Cottages, as of Barns and Stables, divers Cottages there for License to let his house, he shall pay but four pence for every year that he hath License to let the whole, and not for divers houses, for other-wise the Prescription doth not hold place.

Also if Tenant for life, and he in Remainder or Reversion joyn in a Surrender to one and to Heirs, he to whose use the Surrender is made, shall pay but one Fine, for it is but one admittance and not several, and one Surrender and not several, and there is but one Tenant admitted; the same Law, where two Joyn-Tenants, two Tenants in Common, or Coparceners, Surrender to one and his Heirs, shall be paid but one Fine.

Also a Woman is married a Virgin, she shall have all for her Dower by the Custom, there it is used she shall pay a Fine, and it is reason, for that she is admitted; the same Law is, where a woman hath a third part by the Custom for Dower, but it is used commonly within Mannors, to pay but half a Fine, which is paid for Inheritance; but the Custom of the Mannor is to be considered in this Case.

If a Copy-hold be Surrendred upon condition, and the condition is broken, he which surrenders may re-enter without paying Fine or new admittance.

Forfeiture of Copy-hold.

VHere a Copy-holder of Inheritance according to the Custom of the Mannor, is out-lawed in an Action personal, as in Debt or other Action personal, he shall not forfeit the profits of his Copy-hold to the King, for that, that he hath but an Estate at the Will of the Lord; and the Freehold is in the Lord; but where a Copy-holder is attaint of Felony or Treason, the Lord shall seize the Copy-hold as forfeit to him, and not to the King: notwithstanding where one holds by Charter and is out-lawed in Action personal, the King shall have the profits of the Land, 9 H. 6. fol. 20.

But if he make a Feoffment after he is out-lawed, then the Feoffee shall have the profits, 21 H. 7. f. 7. accordingly: Yet it is otherwise as is afore said, where a Copy-holder is out-lawed in a personal Action.

If one by an Indenture bargain and sell all his Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in D. and into that according to the Statute of 27 H. 8. c. 16. and hath in D. Lands held by Charter, and other Lands by Copy, and after levy a Fine, and suffers recovery of that accordingly; yet the Copy-hold is not forfeit.

The same Law if a Copy-holder hath so much Land in D. held by Copy, and makes a Feoffment of all his Land in D. and makes no Livery, this is no forfeiture, for the Feoffee is but Tenant at will: the same Law is if the Copy-holder let to one for life, and make no Livery, it is no forfeiture.

The

The same Law is, If one enfeoff 7. s. by Deed of all his Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in D. and holds in D. part by Charter, and part by Copy-hold, and makes Livery of that held by Charter, these other Lands held by Copy are not forfeit; but if he make Livery in any part held by Copy, there is forfeiture of all his Copy-hold in D. expressed in the Deed.

But if one hath in D. certain Lands in Sotage by Charter, and certain other by Copy, and devise all his Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in D; this is no Forfeiture of the Copy-hold thereof.

It is said, that a Copy-holder cannot alien by Deed; and for that some collect. If A. lett Copy-hold without Deed for years, that it is no Forfeiture. Littleton, fol. 15. Yet enquire.

And Littleton, fol. 45. it. Where Lord lett to his Villain by Deed for years, he is made free; and without Deed it seems he is made free; and 24 Ed 3. in Villainage after, by 10. l. without Deed, is no Infranchisement by Lease.

And so some say, that a Lease by Copy-holder by Deed for years, is Forfeiture; and where it is without Deed, proving the Lease, it is no Forfeiture; yet enquire: but if it be not a perfect Lease by word for years; but by words of implication, and gives no fine nor other consideration, and the Copy-holder gainsay that Lease, when it comes in question in the Lords Court, this seems no Forfeiture; also if a Stranger makes waste, as in cutting Trees growing upon the Copy-hold, where, by the Custom of the Mannor, the Copy-holder cannot make waste, this is no Forfeiture: the same Law is, where a Copy-holder by licence of his Lord, hath lett for years to 7. s. which makes waste, this is no Forfeiture of Copy-hold of Inheritance.

Also if one within the View of Copy-hold, saith to one, I will not sue you during your life, or within the Copy-hold; he saith, I am content, that you shall have my Copy-hold Land for term of your life, or lett to him for life without Deed, and without Livery upon the Deed, it is no Forfeiture.

Where one hath a Rent-Seck, if the Tenant upon demand deny to pay it; or if the Tenant be not then ready to pay, this is a denying, which is Disseisin; but if the Copy-holder do not deny to pay his Rent upon Demand, though he have no money ready to pay that, and so doth not pay that, it is no Forfeiture. Littleson §1. See 42 Ed. 3. fol. 25.

If a Copy-holder be in Prison divers years, and by that means comes not to make Suit at divers Courts, but is absent; yet this is no Forfeiture of his Copy-hold: the same Law is, if his Rent be demanded upon the Land, and he is in Prison in the Goal; this is no Forfeiture: the same Law is, if he be hindred by infirmity, or by stop of Waters, to come to the Lords Court, or to pay his Rent; it is no Forfeiture.

The same Law is, if he be much in Debt, and in fear to be arrested; or if one be bankrupt, and keep his House, and doth not come to the Lords Court, but makes divers defaults, these are no Forfeiture of the Copy-holds.

But if he deny to come to the Court of the Lord, this is a Forfeiture of his Copy-hold.

But if the Lord claim a Fine, Custom, or Service, which is in doubt, whether due or not; and the Tenants pray the Lord, that the Homagers may enquire if it be due, or not, and saith, If it be found by the Homagers upon their Oath, that they are due; or if there can be Presidents shewed, that it is due, he will pay it; this is no Forfeiture of his Copy-hold.

If twelve are assembled against the Form of the Statute; then if any Copy-holder, being a Yeoman, Handy-crafts-man, Artificer, Husbandman, or Labourer, and being of the age of eighteen years, or more, and under forty years; not Impotent, Lame, Maimed, nor having reasonable excuse; and being required to serve the Queen for any the causes in the Statute, and refuses, he shall Forfeit his Copy-hold during his life, 1 Mary, chap. 12.

If a Copy-holder in Court-Baron will say to his Lord, That he extorts and exacts Fines and Services not due, or such unreverent words of his Lord, and they be false, that is fineable, but no Forfeiture. But if he deny to be Tenant to the Lord; and to be a Juror of the Homage; it is a Forfeiture; but if a Copy-holder indict his Lord, or gives in evidence in an Action against against his Lord, or arrest him, or commence a Suit against his Lord in any Court of the Queens, these are not fineable, nor no Forfeiture.

If Tenant in tail be of a Copy-hold, the Remainder over in Fee; if the Tenant in tail be attaint of Felony, it seems that the Issue in tail shall have the Land, and not the Lord.

If a Copy-holder make a Feoffment of his Copy-hold, and the Feoffee dies seised, and his Heirs levy a Fine of that, and five years pass, the Lord is barred to seise the Land by Forfeiture, as it seems.

Some Copy-holder by the Custom may make waste, and is no Forfeiture; and waste by some Copy-holder is Forfeiture.

Lopping of Trees by a Copy-holder is no Forfeiture; but a Copy-holder cannot lop Trees, and burn that in the House upon other Land or Mannor; nor sell the tops, unless by the Custom he may make Waste.

If a Guardian in Socage of a Copy-hold make Waste, the Infant shall not forfeit his Copy-hold, but only the Interest of the Wardship. But Quære, if Lessee for years of a Copy-hold make Waste; and quære, when he is Lessee for years by Surrender, and when he is Lessee by the license of the Lord: it is said, it is a Forfeiture but during the Term.

J.S. seised in Fee of an Acre in D. by Charter, and of another by Copy, and makes a Feoffment and Livery in the Acre by Charter in name of them both, it is no Forfeiture of the Acre by Copy; but if he make Livery in the Acre by Copy, in name of both, the Acre by Charter passes, and it is Forfeiture of the Acre by Copy.

If a Copy-holder suffer a common recovery against him at the Common Law, and after Surrenders to the use of another which is admitted, and after one or two Admittances pass upon Surrender, yet after, when the Lord takes notice of the Forfeiture, he may well seise it for that Forfeiture, for that, that the Copy-hold was destroyed by the Forfeiture. But otherwise it seems, if the Forfeiture do not destroy the Copy-hold; as if he make Waste, or break any Custom, the Lord is barred by this admittance, as it seems.

Forfeiture.

If a Copy-holder levy a Fine, and five years pass after Proclamation; this, it seems, bars the Copy-holder and his Heirs, but it seems doth not bar the Lord: but if a Copy-holder make a Feoffment and Livery of his Copy-hold, and after levy a Fine, and six years pass, now the Lord is barred.

If two Joynt-Tenants by Copy are, and one makes waste in all the Land, yet he shall forfeit but one part.

If the Heir of a Copy-holder having notice of the death of his Ancestor do not claim within the year and day, after the death of the Ancestor, and Proclamation made, he shall lose it for ever: but otherwise it is, if he be beyond Sea, or within ages; or a Woman having a Husband, it seems she shall not lose by not claiming.

Tenant for life of Mannor is, and Copy-holder of that commits waste, and the Tenant for life dies; he in Remainder may seize the Land for this waste, for that it is a Forfeiture which runs with the Land.

See before Forfeiture, touched in the Title of Copy-holder.

Formedon.

Insomuch that Plaints are sued in nature of Formedon for Copy-holds, something shall be said touching Formedons. And first, let us see where a Formedon lyeth, and where not: and for that, that there are three manner of Formedons, that is, Formedon in Descender, Remainder, and Reverter, in Fitzh. Nat. Brevium, and there declared how every one lyeth; much shall not be said, but what is in Fitzh. Natura Brevium, touching the lying of a Formedon.

Formedon in Descender lyeth where the Donor in Tail, or free Marriage, aliens that Land so given in Tail, or is disseised and dies, his Heir shall have a Formedon in Descender, to recover these Lands so given in Tail. Fitzh. fol. 211. A.

Where Tenant in Tail aliens, or is disseised; or if recovery be against him by default, after default, and he dies, his Heir shall have a Formedon; for the Heir shall shall not have other recovery of the possession of his Ancestor, than by Formedon; but if he be oured of his possession, as if he be seised, and put out, he shall have Assise, Natura brevium, fol. 145.

Formedon lyes by the Heir of a Gift made before the Statute of Westm. 2. Where the Donee, after the Statute aliens, and dies; and yet the Statute is, (to Gifts before made, it shall not be extended) 12 H. 4. fol. 9.

Where there is a Tenant in Dower, or by the courtlesse, the reversion to another in Tail, if one intrude after the death of the Tenant in Dower, or by the courtlesse, he in reversion shall not have Intrusion, but Formedon, Fitzh. 204. D.

Woman, Tenant in Tail, takes a Husband, which aliens, and after they are divorced, and after the Wife dies; the Heir of the Wife shall not have a (Cui in vita) but a Formedon, Fitzh. fol. 204. K.

If Tenant in Tail lets for life, and the Tenant for life aliens in Fee; the Tenant in Tail shall have a (con simili casu) or a Formedon at his pleasure, Fitzh. 207. D.

Where Land is given to one for Life, the Remainder to the Father in Tail; if it were executed in the Father, and he alien, the Issue may have a Formedon in Discender generally; or may have special Writ, making mention how it was given for Life, the Remainder to his Father in Tail; and one or other is good, 44 Ed. 3. fol. 6.

In conveyance of Degrees, ye need not name him Heir, but Son of him which was not seised; but it is a surer way to name him son and heir to every one, if he were seised or not; but he cannot omit any in his Writ which was seised.

If the Defendant omit in Formedon, one which held the Estate; that is to say, who was seised, the Writ shall abate; otherwise it is in Scire facias, 4 Ed. 2. tit. 48. Formedon in Discender shall abate, for that he omitted one in the Writ which held an Estate, 44 Ed. 3. fol. 40.

The Demandant in Formedon ought to make his Discend, by all which held the Estate; otherwise, the Writ shall abate, 46 Ed. 3. fol. 9.

Though

Though the Demandant be made Heir to him which died in the life of his Father, which was not seised; yet the Writ shall not abate, but is good, 48 Ed.3. fol.9.

Where the Demandant in Formedon in Discender makes mention of any, and not of all, the Writ shall abate, 49 E.3. fol.20.

Formedon, and the Register was shewed; by which it was held, that he ought to make him Son to every one, and Son and Heir to him which last held the Estate; but if he makes him Son and Heir to every one, that is more; and good, notwithstanding that every one did not hold the Estate, 11 H.6. fol.25.

The Writ is not the worse, though in the same it be mentioned, that he is the Heir of one, or that he should have seene been Heir to him if he had lived, if he be Heir to him that last was seised, 11 H.4. fol.70.

The Demandant in Formedon ought to make him Son and Heir to him that was seised; but if one survive his Father, and were not seised, he need not make himself Heir, but Son only; but it is a sure way to name him Son and Heir, or Cozen and Heir to every one, Fitzh. fol.212. F.

Formedon abates, for that he made himself Cozen and Heir to the Donee, where his Father was seised after the death of the Donee, and no mention was made of him, 10 Ed.3. tit.41.

Esplees shall be alledged in Formedon in Reverter, in the Donor and in the Donee; and in Formedon in Discender and Remainder, in the Donee only.

Formedon in Reverter, It behoveth to lay the Esplees in his Count, in the Donor and Donee; but in Formedon in Discender and Remainder, in the Donee only, 50 Ed.3. fol.1. Fitzh. fol.220.

Formedon in Remainder, he alledgeth Esplees in the the Tenant for life, and not in the Donor, and in Formedon in Reverter, in the Donor and Donee, 9 H.6. fol.53. 11 Ed.3. tit.31. the same, and 18 Ed.2. tit.20.

32 H.8. tit. Ward, 97. Where a man holds certain Ra.
Land of the King in Socage in chief, the King shall Wards; not have Livery of more then of the Land in Socage: 12.
The same Law, where he holds in Knights-Service of the King, and not in chief, the King shall not have more in Ward, but only that which is held of him immediately.

If one hold of the King in chief, the King shall have all his Lands in Ward, as well held of him as of others. But otherwise it is, if he hold of the King, only by Knights-Service, Stamf. fol. 6.

Though that the Tenant of the King be in possessivice, and not in chief, the King shall not have more in Ward, but that only which is held of him immediately, during the time that the Lands are seised in the Kings hands in Ward; otherwise, Lords shall lose their Rents, that is to say, that they cannot distrain during that time, Stamford. fol. 9.

Where one holds part of his Land of the King in chief, and part of another Lord, and dies his Heir within age, and the King seizes the Ward of all, it seems that the Rent of another Lord, and service is but suspended, for the time that it is in the hands of the King, 26 H.8. fol.9.

The Seigniorie of another Lord, in the case next before is suspended but from the distress, during the possession of the King, 13 H.7. f.15.

If a man holds part of the King, and part of another Lord, and dies, his Heir within age, which intrudes at his full age, and pays the Rent to the other Lord, this is a good Seisin, and shall bind him after he hath sued his Livery, for the Seigniorie was not suspended by the possession of the King, but only the distress; for after Livery, the other Lord may distrain for the Arrearages due before. See now, 34 H.8. Tit. Seisin, 48 Ed.6. chap.8. That the Lords shall have their Rents during the minority, at the hands of the Kings Officers.

26 H.8. Tit. Ward, 85. If the Kings Tenant alien in Fee without License and dies his Heir within age, the King shall not have Ward, for that, that there is nothing descended to him, for the alienation is good; saving the trespass to the King, which is but Fine by Seisor.

1 H.7. f.5. If the Heir intrude upon the possession of the King, and levy a Fine; this is void by the Statute of Prærog. chap.13. Which is, where one intrudes there ariseth unto him no Freehold; but if the Heir levy a Fine without intrusion, that shall bind him and his Heirs,

Where a Tenant lets for years and dies; the Lord by Knights-service in time past might have outed a Farmer, during the Nonage; but it is not so at this day.

IF the Tenant let for years and dies, his Heir within age, the Guardian shall out the Farmer, yet he shall have Covenant against the Heir at his full age, for this Term which the Guardian hath during his Nonage, 34 Ed. 1. Tit. 120.

Guardian may out the Farmer, and yet at full age the Lessee shall have his Term again, Bristow, fol. 163.

It is held, That a Guardian may out the Farmer for years, but not the Farmer for life, 5 H. 7. f. 37. Fitzh. fol. 142. & the same, 33 H. 6. f. 47. the same, and 14 H. 7. f. 24.

Guardian cannot out Tenant by Elegit, but he may out the Farmer, Statham, 1 Ed. 3. Tit. 13. 1 Ed. 3. fol. 103. by Shard.

A Guardian may out the Farmer, and so may out him which hath Execution by a Statute-Merchant. Enquire of Tenant by Elegit, 33 H. 6. fol. 47. and 36 Ed. 3. Tit. that Guardian may out Tenant by Statute-Merchant.

Guardian in Knights-service, cannot out the Termor, 36 H. 8. Loose 58. 35 H. 8. Tit. 85. the same.

It is granted by all the Iustices, That the King shall not out the Farmer of his Tenant, by reason that the Heir of his Tenant is in Ward, nor he which hath execution upon the Statute, nor Rent-charge granted by his Tenant, nor grant of next Advowson; time of H. 8. Tit. Ward, 44.

Now if the Term be not found in the Office for the King, yet the Farmer shall enjoy his Term, 2 Ed. 6. chap. 8.

V Here by Office one is found in Ward to the King, that settles the profits in the King, and the Freehold in the Heir, 1 H.7. fol.6. and 42 Ed.3. fol.4.

Seisin of the Ward, is Seisin of the Son within age; so that if he die without other Seisin, the Daughter of the half blood shall not have this Land, 8 Book of Ass. 6.

If the Tenant holds by Homage, Fealty, and Rent, and the Lord hath been seised of the Rent, but not of the Homage within memory, yet this sufficeth to have the Ward, 6 Ed.6. Tit. Ward, 122.

If the Tenant hold by Rent and Knights Service, and the Lord and his Ancestors have been always seised of the Rent, but not of the Homage, Escuage, nor of the Ward; yet if the Ward fall, the Lord shall have the Ward of the Heir by Seisin of the Rent, for the Seisin is not traversable; notwithstanding, otherwise it seems to make avowry, 7 Ed.6. Tit. 69.

13 H.4. Seisin of Homage without Escuage, is sufficient to have relief for avowry.

22 Ed.3. Tit. 90. Tenure E. By the Seisin of Escuage the Lord may distrain and make avowry for Homage.

27 H.8. fol.25. Avowry for Fealty and Rent, and Issue upon the Tenure, Seisin of the Rent is not good Evidence, Evidence, nor Seisin of Suit of Court; for it is another thing that the Avowry is made for.

44 Ed. 3. f. 11. Seisin of Fealty, is not sufficient Seisin to have Assise of Rent, but sufficient Seisin to make Avowry for all, 45 Ed. 3. fol. 23. the same.

Seisin of Escuage nor Relief shall not be traversed; and for that, where one avows for Homage, Fealty, Relief and Escuage, it is no Plea, That he was not seised of Escuage, nor of Relief; for peradventure Escuage is not assessed by Parliament within memory, 13 H. 4. f. 6.

Where one holds by Fealty and Rent, if the Lord were seised of the Rent, it is sufficient to avow for all. See 29 Ed. 3. fol. 31. and 27 H. 8. f. 24. But the Issue was upon the Tenure.

Where one holds by Fealty and Rent, Seisin of Fealty is sufficient to avow for all, 45 Ed. 3. f. 28. and 44 Ed. 3. f. 10. See 27 H. 8. f. 24.

Seisin of parcel of Rent, is sufficient to have Assise of all, 8 Book of Ass. 4.

But if one hold by Fealty and Rent, Seisin of Fealty is not sufficient to have an Assise of Rent, Nat. Prov. f. 109.

If one hold by Fealty and Rent, Seisin of Fealty is not sufficient to have an Assise of Rent, Abridg. Book of Ass. fol. 16.

Seisin of Rent by the Predecessor of a Parson, &c. of a Corporation, if it be gainsaid to the Successor, is sufficient to have an Assise of this Seisin, Fitzh. fol. 179. C. F.

Seisin of Fealty is not sufficient to have Assise of Rent, 20 H. 3. Tit. Avowry, 433.

Where one holds by Fealty, and ten shillings, Seisin of parcel of the Rent, sufficeth to have Assise for all. Enquire time of Ed. 1. Tit. Avowry, 229.

One may avow for a Relief, without alledging any Seisin of it, 20 Ed. 3. Title.

One may have Escheat and Ward before that he be seised of the Services, 11 H. 4. f. 16.

Where one avows for that, that the Plaintiff hath Common in his Land, and hath used to pay to him ten shillings, and hath used to distrain for that, it is not good, without alledging Seisin of that Rent, 26 H. 8. f. 6.

Homage and Fealty.

And for that, that the third Article of the Charge is to enquire of Services withdrawn; and for that, that some Tenants make Homage and Fealty, and some Fealty only, you ought to see the form in Master Littleton, f. 12. and 19. of making of one and of another; and what shall be one, and what the other; and that none shall make Homage, nor take Homage, but such a one which hath an Estate in Fee-simple, or in Fee-tail, in his own right, or in right of another; and if a Woman having Lands in Fee, or in Tail, takes a Husband and have Issue, the Husband in the life of his Wife shall make Homage: but before Issue, it shall be made in both their Names; and if the Wife die, the Husband shall not make Homage.

Homage shall not be made to Tenant in Dower, for it shall be made to none, if he hath not Inheritance, 22 Ed. 3. f. 19.

7 H. 4. fol. 21. He which holds by Knights-Service, shall make Homage.

Lit. fol. 22. He that holds by Socage, may hold by Homage, and shall make Homage.

One cannot Avow upon a Husband and a Wife, as of right of the Wife for Homage, unless that the Husband hath Issue by the Wife; but if he Avow upon them, it need not be alledged, but it shall be intended that they have Issue. See 44 Ed. 3. f. 41. and 43 Ed. 3. f. 13.

Corporation cannot make Homage; for Corporation cannot appear but by Attorney, 33 H. 3. Title, Fealty, 15.

Bishop or Abbot may take Homage; contrary of Parson of a Church: time of Ed. 1. Title, Fealty, 12.

In a Per quæ servitia, an Infant was constrained to attorn, and to make Fealty, notwithstanding his nonage, 20 Ed. 3. Tit. 19.

By all the Justices, That Tenant for years shall not make Fealty, for it is (as I believe) so be intended not to the Lord, but to the Lessor; 18 H. 6. f. 13.

It seems a Lessor may avow upon the Lessee for years, as within his Fee, by the Mannor, and for that shall make Fealty to his Lessor, and may avow for that, 40 Ed. 3. fol. 34.

If Rent of a Lessee for years be behind, the Lessor cannot avow upon the Termor, as of Tenant upon the Land, but upon the matter, 47 Ed. 3. f. the last.

21 H. 8. Tit. Fealty 8. In the Exchequer held, That if Land descend to me which is held of J. S. by homage, and I make to him homage; and after other Land descend to me by another Ancestor held of J. S. also by homage, I shall make Fealty, but not homage again, for I am become his man before: The same Law is, if both the Tenements are held of the King by homage, he shall not have two homages, but one homage only, Lit. f. 29.

Tenant at Will by the Common Law, shall not make Fealty to the Lessor; but Tenant by Copy at Will, according to the Custom of the Mannor, shall make Fealty to his Lord. Lit. in the end of the first Book, and fol. 29. and 10 H. 6. fol. 13. accordingly.

If there be Lord and Tenant, and the Tenant holds three Acres of the Lord by Fealty and Rent, and aliens all the three Acres, the Lord is not held to change his Avowry without notice, and to avow upon the Feoffee for Fealty and Rent; but if he will, he may: The same Law if he alien but one Acre; not that the Statute of Westminster the third is, that he shall hold for that particular, yet this is upon notice, 8 Ed. 4. f. 12. and 47 Ed. 3. fol. 4.

If the Tenant make a Feoffment, and there is no notice made to the Lord, and the Tenant dies, the Lord may distrain the Issue for Fealty and Rent, and avow upon him; for it sufficeth that he dies Tenant, though he doth not die seised of the Land, 44 Ed. 3. f. 13.

If the Tenant be disseised, and the Disseisor dieth seised, the Lord there cannot distrain the Tenant for for Fealty, but the Issue of the Disseisor, 32 H.6.f.31, and 34 H.6. fol. 51.

If the Tenant hold by Fealty and Rent, if the Tenant make a Feoffment in Fee, the Lord may distrain the Beasts of the Feoffee for Fealty and Rent, and make Avowry upon the Feoffor till notice be given; and after notice given, he shall avow upon the Feoffee, if he tender the arrearages; otherwise not: for by the Feoffment and notice, he shall not lose the arrearages, but may distrain as above, and avow upon the Feoffor for the arrearages. But I intend, If the Lord accept Fealty of the Feoffee, he hath lost the arrearages, 47 Ed.3. f.4.

Note, That by the Statute of 21 H.8. chap.9. one may avow the taking in the Land if he will, as within his Fee and Lordship, as in Lands held of him, without avowing or justifying of any person certain.

Where one in Ward of the King holds of a common person also by Homage or Fealty, the Lord cannot distrain for Homage or Fealty, during the time that it is in the Kings hand, and yet the Seigniority is not suspended, but only from distress, so that after he may distrain, 13 H.7. fol. 16.

If Tenant in tail which holds by Fealty makes a Feoffment, yet the Donor cannot avow upon the Feoffee for Fealty; but if one recover against a Tenant in tail, the Donor ought to avow upon him which recovers for the Fealty; and if there be Lord and Tenant, and the Tenant were disseised, and the Lord accepts the Rent of the Disseisor, yet that shall be but as a Bailiff to the Disseisor, and ought to avow upon the Disseisor; otherwise, I suppose, of Fealty, 41 Ed.3. f.26.

If there be Lord and Tenant by Homage and Fealty, and the Tenant be disseised, and the Lord accept Homage of the Disseisor, he cannot avow for Homage upon the Disseisor, Fitzh. 142. E.

Harriot.

For that, that divers Lords of Mannors have Harriots, and these are to be enquired for the Lord in Court-Baron, in the second Article of Charge; It is to be noted, That there are two manner of Harriots; that is to say, Harriot Custom, and Harriot Service; and for that Harriot Custom is properly, as it seems, after the death of the Tenant for life and for years, and of every Estate, and also is upon alienation.

IT is properly Harriot Custom, after the death of the Tenant for life, 8 H.7. fol.11.

To have a Harriot after the death of every Tenant, that is to say, for life and for years, is a Harriot Custom, 21 H.7. f.16. and f.13. the same.

To have a Harriot after the death of the Tenant for life, is Harriot Custom; for Harriot Service is after the death of the Tenant in Fee, 21 H.7. Tit.5. Br.

Custom, that every Tenant of every Estate ought to pay Harriot after his death, is Harriot Custom, 14 H.4. fol.5.

Where the Lord is to have Harriot upon every surrender, or upon every alienation, is Harriot Custom, 3 H.6. Tit.8. B.

Note, That a Harriot Custom may be due after death or alienation, as the Custom will serve.

It seems, Harriot Service is properly after the death of Tenant in fee upon descent, and not upon every Estate, as before is said.

Harriot Service is by reason of the Tenure, 8 H.7. fol.20.

Harriot Service is by the Tenure, and if the Tenant alien the Land without notice, yet the Lord may distrain upon the Land for the Harriot, for it is by reason of the Tenure, and the Land is charged, 8 H.7. f.10. F.6. that is by prescription.

Harriot Service is after the death of the Tenant in Fee, and not of every Estate, 21 H.7. f.13. B.5.

You

You shall see more for payment of Harriot Service, title Discent before, and title Relief, after.

Where a Harriot is certain, the Lord may seise that on Harriot custom; And note, That for Harriot service he may distrain: it seems, where it is certain to have the best Beast, that he may seise.

THe Lord may seise as well for Harriot Service, where he is to have the best Beast, as for Harriot Custom.

But it is said in another place, That for Harriot Custom, he shall always seise and not distrain; for the property is in the Lord forthwith, 38 Ed. 3. fol. 7. Br. 2.

For Harriot Custom the Lord may seise; and if it be conveyed away, he shall have a Detinue and for Harriot Service, if it be conveyed away, he may distrain; time of H. 8. Br. 6. Doctor and Student. fol. 65.

The Lord hath property in Harriot Custom, and may seise that; and for Harriot Service he may distrain, and not seise, 8 H. 7. fol. 10. Br. 7.

He cannot prescribe to distrain for Harriot Custom, though that it be conveyed away, for that, that he may have a Detinue, for the Law adjudges possession in him, 13 Ed. 3. Br. 9.

It is adjudged, that the Lord may seise Harriot Service as well as Harriot Custom. See Plowden's Commentaries, fol. 96. between Woodland and others, and 16 H. 7. f. 5.

It seems, where the Lord prescribes to have the best, he may seise for that, that it is certain, 9 Ed. 3. Tit. But enquire.

Who shall pay Harriot, and who not; and when it shall be paid, and what remedy upon putting it away.

Issue in Avowry if he die his Tenant; for the Lord shall have Harriot, though that the Tenant do not die seised; for it is sufficient if he died his Tenant, though though that he did not die seised, 44 Ed.3. fol.13. Br.1. and 7 H.4. fol.17.

The Husband, and Wife, and their Son purchase Lands joyntly Harriotable; and the Husband dies, the Lord shall not have a Harriot till after the death of the last of them, 24 Ed.3. fol.50. Br.4. and Fitzh.3. 25. Ed.3.7. and 19 R.2. Tit. Harriot 5.

Where a man dies, seised of two houses Harriotable, the Tenant shall pay two Harriots; and note there the prescription, that a Parson shall have the best Mortuary, and the Lord the second best; and if the Lord shall have the second best, was the Issue taken, 7 H.6. fol.26. Br.3.

Beasts which are remaining within the Fee of the Lord, if they be removed out of the Lordship, the Lord may take them for Harriot, where he is to have Harriot after the death of every Tenant, 27 Book of Ass. 24.

If my Tenant which holds of me by a Harriot, aliens parcel of his Land to another, every one of them shall pay Harriot, for that, that it is entire, 34 Ed.3. Fitzh.3.

After the death of a Prior, Harriot shall not be paid, for that he hath no property in the Beasts, 32 Ed.2. Fitzh.7.

If a Husband, Wife, and their Son, are seised for their lives, the Remainder to their said Son in Tail; after the death of the Husband, the Lord shall not have a Harriot, for he was not sole seised, 24 Ed.3. Tit.3. 19 R.2. Tit.5. the same; for it is said there, That if one do not die sole Tenant, there shall be no Harriot paid.

Recordare longum: If the Lord purchase the Tenancy held by Harriot Service, then the Harriot is extinct by the unity of possession, for that, that it is Service annexed to the Land; but I intend that it is otherwise of Harriot Custom, where the Lord grants over the Land, 14 H.4. fol.8. and 8 H.7.11.

Note, That Harriot is due immediately after the death of the Tenant.

Trespass, The Defendant as Lord may justify taking of Harriot within his Fee; or if the taking were out, it is good, and the conveying it out, is to no purpose, pose, but that the Lord may seise Harriot out of his Lordship; for it is not in case of the Statute, where the Lord distrains within his Fee for his Services, 19 R.2. Fitzh.5.

The Lord may seise Harriot (which is the best Beast that his Tenant hath, which held of him by Harriot) though they be in some place out of his Mannor; for that, that it is certain, 6 Ed.3. Fitzh.4.

If one which holds by Harriot Service, to pay the best Beast, dies, and hath a Cow at the time of his death, which is the best; though that the Executors sell that, the Lord may seise that in the hands of him to whom she is sold, if the sale be not in an open Market, and nor there, if without fraud, 16 Ed.3. Fitzh.2.

By the Custom of some Mannor, and of most Mannors, the Lord shall have only one Harriot upon the dying seised of his Copy-holder, and discent, and not upon every Surrender.

But by the Custom of some Mannor, Harriot is due upon every Surrender for life, in tail, or in Fee, as well as upon discent, and that in nature of a Harriot Custom at the Common Law; and by the Custom of divers Mannors, the Lord hath no Harriot of some of his Tenants within the Mannor, and of some he hath.

The Lord may seise for Harriot Custom; the Harriot; and is to seise that of the Goods of the dead, and for Harriot Service to distrain upon the Land.

If a Copy-holder of Inheritance of Lands Harriotable, lying in extremity upon his Bed, Surrender into the hands of two Tenants to the use of his eldest Son in Fee, and dies before that Surrender be presented in the Court, the Lord shall have Harriot; but if this Surrender had been presented in Court, and the eldest Son had been admitted accordingly; and after the Father had died, there the Lord shall have no Harriot, unless it be Harriot Custom due to him only by Custom upon every alteration, and exchange of Tenant for life and in Fee.

The same Law is, If the Father, Copy-holder of Harriotable, Surrender in the Lords Court to the use of himself for life, of the Son of his Daughter for life, and after to the use of the Son of his Daughter, and to the heirs of the Son; and they are admitted accordingly; and after the Father dies, dies, the Lord shall not have Harriot, unless it be Harriot by Custom, due upon every estate for life, in tail and fee, upon every Surrender which is due by the Custom; but in this case, if the Harriot were due by the death of his Tenants, and descends to the heir only, then the Lord shall not have the Harriot.

If the Father being a Copy-holder of Inheritance, or by the Custom, the Lord is to have Harriot upon every discent only; and he lying in extremis, Surrenders into the hands of the Steward, to the use of the eldest Son and his Heirs, and dies, and after that Surrender is presented in Court, and he is admitted accordingly; it seems, that that Lord there shall have a Harriot.

But if the Father being Copy-holder of Inheritance, or by the Custom (the Lord having Harriot upon every discent only) Surrender in full Court to the use of his eldest Son and his Heir, and the eldest Son is admitted accordingly; and after the Father dies, there the Lord shall have no Harriot.

So it seems, if in this Case the Father Surrender to the use of himself for life, the Remainder to the use of his eldest Son and his Heirs, and they both are admitted accordingly; and after the Father dies, there the Lord shall not have Harriot.

34 Ed. 3. Statham, If my Tenant which holds of me by a Harriot, alien parcel of that Land to another, every of them is charged to me of a Harriot, for that it is entire; and though the Tenant purchase the Land again, yet if I be seised of a Harriot by another man, I shall have of him for every portion a Harriot, and that by the opinion of Wilby and Sharde.

4 Ed. 3. Statham, Tit. Avowry; one avows for Harriot, Plaintiff demands Judgment, for that he doth not alledge Seisin of the Harriot; and it seems of Harriot Custom, he need not to alledge Seisin: but otherwise it is, of Harriot Service.

6 Ed. 3. Statham, Tit. Avowry: If one avow for Harriot Custom, he shall recite the Custom in his Avowry.

24 Ed. 3. Statham, Tit. Avowry: If one avow for Harriot, and saith, that he and his Ancestors hath been seised time out of mind: yet he ought to alledge a special Seisin in him or in one of his Ancestors; and to say, By whose hand, &c.

38 Ed.

38 Ed.3. Tit.2. Br. It seems, where the Tenant holds by Harriot Service; that is, if he be to have the best Beast, the Lord may seise as well as for Harriot Custom, for that it is certain; and for Harriot Custom he shall always seise, and not distrain, for that, that the property is in the Lord, 27 Book of Ass. 24. § H.7. fol.

13 Ed.3. Tit.9. Brook, For Harriot Custom he may have an Action against whosoever conveys it away, and a Detinue against him which denies it, for he hath property in the thing, and the Law adjudgeth possession in him without seisure, as of the Body of a Ward which is transitory.

Time of H.8. for Harriot Custom a man always shall seise; and if it be conveyed away, he may have a Detinue; and for Harriot Service as here conveyed away, he may distrain, but not for Harriot Custom.

3 H.6. f.45. Trespass, the Defendant prescribes in him and his Ancestors, Tenants of the Mannor of D. to have the best Beast for Harriot upon every surrender, and the Horse taken was the best; the Plaintiff saith, That the property of the Horse was not in the Tenant, time of the surrender, and a good Plea.

Livery of Seisin.

For that, that you give in the second Article of Charge, to know what Estates your Tenants have, for that something shall be said afterwards, which is an Estate in Fee, and which in tail, and also of other Estates; and first, for that to Feoffments, Gifts, and Estates made in tail, and for life, by you to others, there ought to be Livery of Seisin; let us see what is good Livery upon the Land, and what within the view of the Land, and what not.

IF Livery be made, and the Termor for years be not outed, this is not good, 21 H.7. fol. 7. 19 H.6. §6.

2 Ass. 1, 5 Ass. the last, and 7 Ass. 3. and he to whom the

the Livery is made, stay a night with the Termor, and nor out the Termor, yet this is not good, Britton, fol. 102. and 29 Aff. 60.

If Livery be made, and the Termor be not put out upon the Livery, or that he attorn, it is not good, 5 Book of Aff. 8.

If a Feoffment be of two Mannors, whereof one is in Lease for years, and the Livery is made in the other, which is not in Lease, this in Lease doth not pass, for there shall be Livery made in that also; or otherwise the Termor ought to attorn, 11 H. 4 f. 71.

To deliver a piece of Earth of the Land to him which takes the Seisin, is good Livery, 2 Book of Aff. 1.

The Sheriff may deliver Seisin of Rent recovered, by Beasts, Grass, or Clod, and it is good, 50 Ed. 3. fol. 22. Perkins, 42.

Office is granted in Forrest, to which Land is belonging, and Seisin is delivered by a Horn and an Ax, and is good, 1 H. 7 f. 17. the old Print.

A man makes a Feoffment to a woman, and when he comes to the Church-door to be married, he delivers to her the Deed, and there shews to her the Land, and is a good Livery, 39 Ed. 3. f. 11. and 38 Aff. 22.

Where one is sick in his house, and delivers the Deed of Feoffment in name of Seisin, it is good, Parks fol. 48.

A Deed by (I have given and granted) or, I have given only, sufficeth to a Disseisor, if he deliver to him the Deed without other Livery, for it is a Confirmation, Lit. 121.

One lying sick in his House, makes a Chatter of that and faith, Take and keep according to the Charter, and he takes Seisin, and the Feoffor be not out, and yet good; so it is in the same case, if he say, Take Seisin, and command all the Servants to attend on him, 27 Book of Aff. 61. Perkins, fol. 43, 44. and 43 Aff. 20.

There may be Livery within the view, as, I deliver to the Feoffee a Deed of Feoffment, and I say, That I will that you shall enter into the same Lands, and have them according to the Deed, it is good if you enter, Perkins, fol. 43. and 18 H. 6. f. 16.

The Father encoseth his youngest Son of a House,

and

Livery of Seisin.

and the youngest Son comes into the Church of the same Town where the House is, and saith in the presence of the Parishioners, Father, so frankly as you have given to me the House, I give that to you; and the Father goes to the house and enters, and dies seised, and is good; and the eldest Son shall have that, and not the youngest, 39 Ass. 12. Perkins f. 44 the same, and 42 Ed. 3. Feoffment, 54.

Note, That it is notoriour, and this is the Reason.

The Father makes a Feoffment, and a Letter of Attorney to L. to make Livery, and before the Deed delivered, commands L. to make Livery upon condition, and he makes that upon condition, it is good, 18 E. of Ass. 439.

A man makes a Feoffment by Deed simply, but he delivers Seisin upon condition, the Feoffee takes it conditionally, and not by the Deed, 8 H. 5. f. 8. 18 Ed. 3. f. 19. and 18 Ed. 4. f. 12. Litlton f. 83.

The Father, for advancing his youngest Son, makes to him a Charter, and a Letter of Attorney when he was of sound memory, and after by Sickness becometh mad, so that he was dumb at the time of the Seisin delivered; but by all signs agreed; and this is a good Livery, 25 Peck of Ass. 4.

If a Lease be made for life by Deed, and the Lessor saith, Go you and enter, but no Livery is made, though that he enter, yet by Newton, he hath but an Estate at will, and no Freehold, 18 H. 6. f. 16.

When one makes a Feoffment, and delivers the Deed to the Feoffee, and sayes, God give you joy, this is good Livery, 41 Ed. 3. f. 17. Abridg. Ass. f. 94. and 41 Ass. 10. but it seems it was within the View.

Feoffment is good of Lands by Deed, and delivering the Deed within the View of the Land, so that the Feoffee enters accordingly; but if the Feoffor die before the Feoffee enter, then the Land descends, and the Feoffment shall take no effect; Time H. 8. B. Feoffments, 70.

A man makes a Feoffment to another, and delivers to him the Deed in the Land, or upon the Land, this is a good Feoffment by all the Court, 35 H. 8. Brook, Feoffments, 74.

Note,

Note, by these is to be gathered, That where the Feoffor delivers the Deed within sight of the Land to the Feoffee, and he enter: this is a good Livery and Seisin: But if he do not deliver the Deed within the View; nor use words within the View, which may countervail Livery, I suppose Freehold both not pass.

If a Lease be made for life by Deed, and I deliver it out of the View, and no Livery of Seisin, then he is but Tenant at will, by Newton, as it is said before, 18 H.6. fol. 16.

Note: Where a Deed shall enure as a Confirmation, without Livery of Seisin; where not.

A Lease for years is made, and after the Lessor makes a Deed by (I have given, granted and confirmed) to the Lessee, to him and his heirs, and delivers to him this Deed; this is good without Livery, 22 Ed. 4 fol. 37. and 19 H.6. f. 44 the same.

If I let to one for years, and after make to him a Deed by (I have given and granted) to have the Land for life, or to him and to his Heirs, and deliver to him the Deed, he hath an Estate according to the Deed without Livery and Seisin; the same Law where a Disseisee makes a Deed by (I have given) to the Disfeisor, and delivers to him the Deed, as before is said, Lit. fol. 121.

Feoffments to divers, and Livery to one where both take; and where not; and where one makes a Letter of Attorney by words, is not good.

A Man makes a Feoffment by Deed to twenty, and delivers the Deed and Seisin to one in the name of all, this is good to them all; but if he enfeoffs 20 without Deed, and delivers Seisin to one in the name of all, this is good to him only: Time of H.8. Br. Feoffment, 72. 15 Ed. 4. fol. 18. & 10 E.4. f. 1. by Choke.

Tenant enfeoffs the Lord and another, and makes Livery to the other, nothing vests in the Lord without his agreement, 10 E.4. f. 12. 6 E.4. f. 4.

Where a Corporation and another are enfeoffed, Livery to one, is not good to both, for that, that they take in Common, and for that Livery shall be to both of them, 7 H.7. f. 9. by Hussy.

Attorney by word cannot make Livery, 19 H. 8. fol. 9. by Shelly and Englefield.

A man enfeoffs four by Deed, and one makes Letter of Attorney to J. S. to take Seisin for him and the rest, and he takes Seisin accordingly, the residue take nothing by the Seisin, 17 H. 8. Br. Fcoff. 67.

Mortdancester.

Many times Mortdancester is brought of Copyhold Land, and for that something shall be said of Mortdancester; and it seems, if the Tenant traverse one point of the Writ, the residue shall not be enquired. Contrary by 9 Ed. 3. f. 30. Fitzb. Mortdancester, 13.

IF one takes issue upon the Point, and found against him, the residue shall be held confessed. 27 H. 8. f. 12. and 39 Aff. 13. But Abridgement of Assise, f. 120. If the Tenant plead in Bar which is found against him, the Assise ought not to enquire of the Point at large.

Mortdancester, If the Tenant traverse one of the points of the Writ, as to say, that he is not next heir, and it is found for the Plaintiff, there he shall not inquire of other points; for when one point is traversed, all others are in manner acknowledged: otherwise it is, where he acknowledgeth no point, as pleading, that the Plaintiff is a Bastard, there they ought to enquire of the residue of the points, Statth. 35 E. 3.

If the Tenant traverse one of the Points of the Writ, the remainder shall be held not gain said by Sharde, 14. E. 3. tit. Fit. 8. 33 Ed. 3. Fit. 34 accordingly.

Abridgement of Assise, f. 118. The points of the Writ are three; that is, 1. If the Ancestor of the Demandant was seised in his Demesne, as of Fee, the day that he died. 2. If he died seised within fifty years last past. 3. If the Demandant be next Heir.

The Tenant saith, That the Ancestor of the Plaintiff did not die seised in Fee, and the Assise charged upon all the points, 9 Ed. 3. tit. 13. and 9 Book of Ass. 14. according, B. 21.

If the Tenant plead in Bar, without that, that the Father of the Demandant died seised; if that be found against him, the points of the Writ shall not be enquired enquired; but if he plead to the Writ, it is otherwise, 27 H.8. f.12. by Fitzherbert.

Where the Tenant traverseth one of the points of the Writ; and the Assise is awarded, and found for the Plaintiff, he shall not enquire of the other points, but shall be taken confessed, Abridgment, B. of Ass. f. 118. If the Tenant pleads Feoffment or Surrender, he ought to traverse the dying seised.

IF the Tenant pleads matter in Deed, as Feoffment of the same Ancestor, they ought to traverse the dying seised; but if he plead Recovery, this is a Bar, unless the Tenant convey title afterwards, 6 Ed.4. fol.11. Mortdancer, Nova Previa, 119

By Thorp, Feoffment of the same Ancestor is no Plea in Bar, but to the Assise; for the Action is taken of dying seised after; that is to say, the day that he dyed, or not, 34 Book of Ass. 20.

Where there shall be a Re-summons, and where the Assise shall be awarded upon default, and the points shall be enquired.

THE Tenant was Effoined, and at the day made default, and Re-summons was awarded, and said, That it ought, 8 Book of Ass. 13. Inquire, Fitz. f. 196. G. The Tenant was effoined, and at the day made default, and adjudged, that the Assise shall be taken by his default, and that Re-summons shall not be but immediately after Summons, 4 H.7. f.23. and 4 Ed.2. Fitz. 37.

A man cannot recover by default in this Writ without inquiring of the points of the Writ, 31 Ed.3. 58. Abridgment Book of Ass. f. 119.

The Tenant makes default by which re-summons went out, upon which he comes and pleads, and doth not answer to the default.

Where it is found against the Tenant upon Plea, which trencheth to the Action, the points of the Writ shall not be enquired; otherwise it is, upon a Plea in abatement. See 39 B. of Ass. 33 and 29 B. of Ass. 48.

Mortdancer. If the Tenant plead non-tenure of parcel to the Writ and if found, &c. and is ready to bear the Recognizance of the Assise, the points shall be inquired, 20 Book of Ass. 19. and 4 Ed. 2. fol. 39. Mortdancerster, the Tenant saith, That he is ready to bear Recognisance of Assise, the Points inquired, 12 Ed. 3. f. 10.

If the Tenant plead Non-tenure of parcel, he ought to plead over to the Assise, that is, to pray that the Points be inquired, 12 Book of Ass. 8. and Abridgem. Book of Ass. f. 122. See there.

Where Mortdancerster lieth.

IT lies for the Heir, where his Father, Mother, Brother, Sister, Uncle, Aunt, Nephew, or Neece, dieth seised of any Lands of an Estate In Fee, and an Estranger abates, there the Heir shall have a Mortdancerster; and when his Father were seised and disseised the day that he dyed, yet it lies, Fitzh. f. 195. C. D.

If Tenant by the Curtesie alien, the Heir shall have Mortdancerster, unless he hath Assets by him: and if a Guardian hold over, the Heir at full age shall have a Mortdancerster, Fitzh. f. 196. E. P.

Mortdancerster doth not lie upon Lands devisable by Will, and it is reason; for it is true, that the Ancestor was seised the day that he died, and that he died seised, and the Tenant is Heir in appearance, Fitz. f. 195. l. 4 Ed. 2. Fitz. Mortdancerster, 39.

It is a good bar to plead devise of the same Ancestor, and so it seems where there is a devise now by the Statute of Wills, Abridg. Book of Ass. f. 120. & 32 H. 8. chap. 2.

One Coparcener shall not have a Mortdancerster against another, where their Ancestor died seised, and one enters in all, and holds out his Companion, but (Nuper obiit) and if the Ancestor die seised of an Estate tail, and one enter, and desorce the other, he shall have a Formedon, and not a Mortdancerster, Fitz. f. 196. L.

Mortmain.

For that, that by the 9. Article, it is inquirable of Mortmain to the intent that none shall give in Mortmain; but that the Lord may make his claim within the time limited in the Statute. Let us therefore see what is in Alienation in Mortmain, and what not.

IF Villain of an Abbot, or of a Corporation purchase, and the Abbot of the Corporation enters, this is in Mortmain, Mortmain, and the Lord may enter within a year, 41 Ed.3. f.16. Fitz. 224. B. Contrary of Land which descends to a Villain, 41 Ed.3. 21. and 48 Ed.3. 27.

If a Feoffment be made to the use of an Abbot, or a Corporation, this is Mortmain, and within the Statute, that the Lord may enter; 8 H.4. f.16. Br. 11.

If an Abbot, Mayor and Commonalty, Dean and Chapter, or other Corporation, alien to another Corporation or Abbot without License, this is Mortmain, Fitzh. 212 D. The same Law if one exchange with an Abbot or Corporation, this is Mortmain, and the Lord may enter, Fitzh. f. 213. E.

Lord, Dean, and Chapter, or other Corporation, are Tenants, and the Lord releases to Dean and Chapter, or to the Corporation his rent without License, this is Mortmain: But if he be licensed of the King, and of the chief Lord, and (Ad quod Damnum) be sued, or in the License of the King this Clause be, that is to say, without any Writ of (ad quod damnum) then the Mortmain is not to be inquired in no case where such license is used, for that is dispensation, that the King and the Lord cannot enter for Mortmain. But if the Lord with license in this case aforesaid, be Tenant in tail, or for life, and dies, I think it is there inquirable, Fitzh. fol. 222. D. & 223. f.

But if the King grants to a Corporation liberty to purchase Lands and Tenements to the clear yearly value of 40 l. provided, that it be not held in chief: as divers Grants are: If such a Corporation purchase Lands and Tenements held of the King, as of his Mannor of East Greenwich, Depford, otherwise West Greenwich, Sayes Court, Lewsfam Fee, or held of the Queen as of her other Mannors, the same is not inquirable of Mortmain, but it is to be inquired in the Leet, if they have purchased any Lands in chief, or over such a value in the Grant. And also it is to be inquired in Court-Baron for the Lord, if any Corporation have purchased any Lands or Tenements held of the Lords Mannor (notwithstanding the Grant, and License of the King aforesaid) for this shall not be to dispeuce against the Lord for Mortmain.

Where Annuity is granted to a Parson or a Vicar of a Church, or to a Prior or an Abbot, by any Tenant, it is no Mortmain to be enquired; for in Annuity if they recover, Collusion shall not be enquired, for that doth but charge the Parson of the Grantor, and not the Freehold, 10 Ed. 4. f. 6. 34 H. 6. f. 37. 3 Ed. 4. 14 33 H. 6. 27. 20 H. 6. 7. & 17 Ed. 3. 5.

But if any Tenant of the Lord grant by Deed out of his Land, any Rent-Charge, with Clause of distress, to any Corporation, that is Mortmain, and inquirable.

The same Law is, If any Tenant will that a Corporation shall have to them and their Successors, a Rent-Charge issuing out of his Land, and will not that his person be charged in any manner by Writ of Annuity, but hath in the end of his Deed, Provided alwayes, that this present Writing, nor any thing in that Specified, shall in no wise extend to charge my person by Writ or Action of Annuity, but only to charge my Lands and Tenements of the Yearly Rent, aforesaid, this is Mortmain, and inquirable. The same Law is, If any Tenant of the Lord grant by Deed, that if the Dean and Chapter, Mayor and Commonalty, and their Successors, be not yearly paid at the Feast of Christmas, 20 s. that then it shall be lawful for them to distrain for the same in the Mannor of D. this is Mortmain, and inquirable. Fir. fol. 30. proves this a good Grant. See Fir. 214. G.

But where personal things are given to a Corporation, as Horse, Cow, Ox, Sheep, Hogs, or other Goods, there in this Case Mortmain is not to be inquired, for these so given, are not within the Statute, 10 H. 7. f. 3.

If a Bishop or an Abbot, appropriate to themselves an Advowson held of a Lord, of which there are seised in Fee without License, that is Mortmain, and inquirable, Fir. f. 223. H. and 5 H. 7. f. 37. saith, That an Advowson lyeth in Tenure, 40 Ed. 3. f. 44. accordingly.

If a Fishing held of the Lord be granted by the Tenant to a Bishop and his Successors, or to Dean and Chapter, and their Successors, this is Mortmain, and inquirable, 40 Ed. 3. f. 44. proves that it lyes in Tenure.

The Statute of Religious, f. 79. is, That no Religious, or other whatsoever, shall presume to buy or sell any Lands or Tenements, either under colour of Gift or Term, or by reason of any Title whatsoever, or by any means whatsoever ever, Ad or Writ presume to appropriate them to him, under the penalty of forfeiting the same, by which the Lands or Tenements may come into Mortmain, by any means. And the Statute gives liberty to the next Lord (if he come within the year) to enter, and if he be negligent and do not enter, then the next Lord within half a year; and if not, then the King after the year and half may enter. And it is inquirable in the Court-Baron, for the benefit of the Lord, that he may enter within the year; and if the Lord be negligent, and do not take his time limited by the Statute, then the King may enter, and that is inquirable in Leet for the King.

25 H.8. tit. 37. Lord and Tenant, the Tenant lets for life to J.S. the Remainder to an Abbot and his Successors, the Lord need not make claim till the Tenant for life be dead; for if he will waive the Remainder, it is no Mortmain.

Non-Tenure.

Inasmuch that you sue here Plaints for Copyholds, and make Protestation in nature of what Writ serves your Case, and many times Non-tenure in them is pleaded, let us see where Non-Tenure is a Plea; where it is Plea of parcel, and where of all.

Non-tenure is no Plea in a (Nuper obijt), for it is to try privy of blood, 7 H.6. f.8. Fit. f.197. D. and accordingly, but Abridgment, Aff. f.120. Non-tenure is a good Plea in Mortdancer.

If one plead Antient Demeſne, he cannot afterwards plead Non-tenure, for none may plead Antient Demeſne but the Tenant, 41 Ed.3. f.22.

If one plead Non-tenure of parcel, he ought to shew that he is Tenant of that; but if he plead Non-tenure of all, otherwise it is, 8 Ed.4. f.6. 11 H.4. f.16. & 36 H.6.6.

Non-tenure is no plea in (Scire facias) to have Execution upon a Fine, 7 H.4. f.12.

Generally Non-tenure is no plea in Scire facias to have Execution; for that, that nothing in that is demanded, but Execution is demanded only. But it seems one may plead special Non-tenure, as to say that he was Disseisor, and the Disseisee hath entred upon him, 7 H.6. f.16.

Cessavit

Raft.
Non-tenure 1.

Cassavit, and counts that the Tenant held a house of him by Fealty and suit of Court, he may deny that he is no Tenant of the whole house, for he cannot tender the whole Arrearages without his Companion, and goes in abatement of all. But Non-tenure of parcel in a (Præcipe) shall not abate for all, 21 Ed. 4. f. 25.

Non-tenure of parcel shall abate all the Writ, by the Common Law; and now by the Statute but for the parcel, 36 H. 6. f. 6. 18 Ed. 4. 41 Ed. 3. 20. & 4 Ed. 4. 33.

Littleton, f. 126. Formedon, if the Tenant plead Non-tenure, Judgment shall be that the Tenant shall go without day, and such Judgment the Demandant may enter.

26 H. 8. f. 3. Attaint, He which was party to the first Record, cannot plead Non-tenure, by Hare, but his Feoffee may.

21 H. 6. f. 62. Attaint against him which recovers, and the Petty Jury, and he saith, That he was not Tenant, day of the Writ purchased, and held good.

6 Book of Ass. Attaint against J. S. upon a Verdict which passed for J. S. in a Writ of Entry upon Disseisin, and notwithstanding that J. S. pleads as Tenant, yet for that, that he was not Tenant day of his Attaint, nor ever after, the Writ shall abate by non-tenure, 14 Book of Ass. 2. Attaint, non-tenure was good; but it was pleaded there by the Heir, or other person against whom the recovery was.

F. 26. f. 107. L. Attaint, Non-tenure hath been admitted a good plea divers times.

8 Ed. 4. 20. A man recovers in Court-Baron in right, and the other brings false Judgment, and recovers that, and in Scire facias to have Execution, he which first recovered, pleads special Non-tenure to stay Execution, and saith, that he shall have it.

9 H. 5. f. 11. Scire facias to have Execution, if the Tenant pleads Non-tenure specially, that is, that he hath nothing but for years, the Plaintiff shall not have Execution at his peril.

Nuper

Nuper Obiit.

Inasmuch, that (Nuper Obiit) is a Plaint sometimes by Copyholder of that in Court-Baron, something shall be said of that; and where it lies, and where, not.

[T appears, it lies where Land descends to Coparceners, and after the death of the Ancestor one enters into all, and deforceth the other, as where Grand-Father, Father, Brother Uncle or other Ancestor die seised of an Estate in Fee; and after their death, one of their Heirs enters, and deforces the other Coparceners, here the Coparceners deforced shall have a (Nuper Obiit) against the other Coparcener which deforceth them. And if one Coparcener be deforced by the other Coparcener, and a stranger, the shall have a (Nuper Obiit) against her Coparcener, and this Joynt Tenancy shall not abate the Writ. And this Writ lieth in well between Co-heirs in Gavelkind, as between women which are Coparceners, if one deforce the other, Fitzh. f. 197. A. C.

Nuper Obiit, lieth between sisters of the half-blood, 3 Ed. 1. tit. 5, Fitzh. f. 179. G.

Nuper Obiit is maintainable, where her Ancestor was carried out of the same Tenements the day before his death, against his will, by the other Coparcener, and dies out of the same Tenements, 4 Ed. 2. tit. 10. Fitzh. 197. I.

Nuper Obiit lyeth of a Corody, 16 Ed. 2. tit. 11. 10. Af. 11. Br. 3. Fitzh. 179.

If there be two Coparceners, and one of them marries a Villain, and the other deforce them, the Villain and his wife shall not have a Nuper Obiit, 16 Ed. 3. tit. Fitz 17.

Officer.

Where your Officer or Sheriff shall be punished for executing of Process, as Trespassor, and where not; and how he ought to carry himself in executing Process.

Officer shall be punished in Trespass, that by (Fieri facias) out of any Court, breaks the Door of a House to do Execution; and for that only, and not for taking the Goods in Execution, 18 Ed. 4. fo. 4.

It is held, That an Officer cannot break the Close to make a Replegiare where there is a Gate, unless that he stops; the same Law is of executing Process out of a Court-Baron, 21 H.6. f.30.

Where one is indicted of Trespass, and Capias awarded, or a Commission to take the party indicted, and he shuts his Gates, there the Officer may break the Gates, unless he may otherwise come to take him, for this is for the King; otherwise it is, to execute Process of Court-Baron, 27 Book of Ass. 35.

Where erroneous Judgment is given in any Court, the Officer which doth the Execution is excused. Contrary where the Court gives Judgment of Land, or Contract which lyeth out of their Jurisdiction, for their Trespass or Assise lies against the Officer, 22 Ass. 64. Plowden 194.

There is also a diversity, where in Court-Baron Judgment is given, that is void or voidable; for where Judgment and Execution is there, of a thing whereof they have no Jurisdiction, there Trespass lies against the Officer for executing it; but if Judgment be there but erroneous, and so not void: false Judgment lies, and no Trespass against the Officer, Plowden Com. 394. contrary Law.

Where an Officer by Commandment of a Bishop arrests one for holding an Opinion that he would not pay Tythes; false imprisonment lies.

The same Law where a Justice of Peace layes his Command upon one out of the Sessions, without other matter, and for that is imprisoned.

Where one by a Capias, out of the Court-Baron, arrests one; false imprisonment lies against the Officer, 10 H.7. fol. 17.

It seems, if the Sheriff arrest one by a Capias awarded against him out of the Common Bench, where there is no Original; yet false imprisonment doth not lie against him, 21 H.7. f.22. and 11 H.4. f.36. he saith, by Hank, in Case of an Abbot of Glassebury.

Held, That the sheriff may arrest a Verger in the Church, or a secular man, and shall not be punished by Trespass. But by the Statute of 1 R.2. chap. the last. See Poul. in Arrests: If any arrest any Minister, which is doing Divine Service Services in the Church, Church-yard, or other place, he shall be imprisoned and punished, &c.

If an Officer distrain or attach the Horse of a Master, where the Plaintiff is against the Servant: Trespass lies for the Master against the Officer, for the Officer ought to take notice at his peril, whose Goods he distrains or attaches, 13 H. 4. f. 2. 14 H. 4. 24. 11 H. 4. 90. And Doctor and Student, 139.

Where an Officer arrests another man, which is not Defendant, or attaches Goods which are not the Defendants, he is a Trespassor, if the Plaintiff shew him the party, or goods: and saith, he is the Defendant, or not, 11 H. f. 90.

It seems, that the Officer shall take notice at his peril whose Beasts he Replevies, 14 H. 4. f. 24.

If the Officer distrain any Prior or other Prelate for Debt or Trespass, when he is in his Journey riding, by his Horse, upon which he rides, where he may distrain other Goods; Action upon the Case lies against the Officer, Quare cum, &c. Fitzh. fol. 93. l.

Where the Sheriff hath a Capias, he may arrest one without shewing it, and so may a Bayliff errant. But the Servant of a Sheriff, and of another, cannot without shewing the Warrant. The same Law is of a Bayliff of the Lord, or Beadle, which by custom serve Attachments or Distress, they having a Command, may serve it without shewing it: but so cannot they do, where they have a Command to Summon Copy-hold Land, or a Command in nature of Grandcapit, Pest-capit, habere facias visum, or habere facias festinam, 14 H. 7. f. 9. 21 H. 7. 137. 8 Ed. 4. f. 14. and 10 Ed. 4. f. 1.

If the Sheriff arrest one by a Capias, and after do not return the Writ, or return (Non est inventus) false imprisonment lies against the Sheriff. But in Court-Baron no Capias shall be awarded; yet if the Officer there serve an Attachment or Distress, and do not return his Precept at the next Court, Trespass lies against the Officer for the Defendant, and an Action of the Case lies against him for the Plaintiff which sued the Action, for not returning of the Precept, 10 Ed. 4. f. 18. 3 H. 7. fol. 3.

If the Servant or the Sheriff arrest one by Precept made made out of a Capias, and return his Precept to the Sheriff; and yet the Sheriff do not return his Capias, false imprisonment lies against the Servant. But by the 18 of Ed. 4. f. 9. it appears, that it is otherwise, where the Bayliff of the Liberty arrests one by precept out of a Capias made to him by the Sheriff, and returns his precept, and the Sheriff do not return the Capias; there lies false Imprisonment against the Sheriff, and not against the Bayliff. But in Court-Bar, Bayliff or Beadle which have a Precept of the Steward, cannot make Precepts out of that to serve, 21 H. 7. f. 22. 20 H. 7. f. 13.

One may arrest one in the presence of the Sheriff, which hath a Capias by his Commandment; and it is his arrest, without shewing his Precept: and Bayliff or Beadle of a Court-Baron may attach or distrain any thing without a Precept, in the presence of the steward, and by his Commandment, 8 Ed. 4. f. 14. 21 H. 7. f. 23. 16 H. 7. f. 14. see there.

Bayliff or Beadle of Court-Baron distrain or sette Attachments; and the Defendant makes rescous, and chalethe the thing distrained or attached out of the Mannor, and the Officer freshly follows and takes it again, and brings it into the Mannor again, and may well do it, 33 H. 6. f. 52. & 55. & 2 Ed. 4. f. 6. accordingly.

If a Serjeant at Mace arrest one, and he resists, he may beat him, and others (upon request) may aid him, 2 Ed. 4. f. 6. B. and 3 H. 7. f. 3.

By Hank, Officer cannot attach J.S. by my Goods which he hath to dung his Land, or to plough it, or which he hath in pawn, 11 H. 4. f. 90. B. 31 H. 8. tit. 159. It is said, Where one hath an Office of Charge, as to be Steward, Bayliff, Parker, &c. that the Grantor may out them, and pay their Fee, if it be so much certain, but not where they have profits of Court, &c. 34 H. 8. tit. 243. Idem. 28 H. 8. tit. 94.

Deprivation of an Office which lies in Grant; ought to be by Deed, and not by Word.

4 Ed. 4. f. 5. Long report, the Act of the Under-Sheriff, or his Deputy in the name of the Sheriff. shall charge the Sheriff; and for their Act the Sheriff himself shall be amerced, and no other.

39 H. 6. f. 35. The Opinion of the Justices was, That es-apt of a Prisoner is not a sufficient cause of Forfeiture of of the Office of the Marshal, which hath Fee in that; and held, that the Marshal might grant that to another for life, but his Assignee cannot make a Deputy; and the Opinion of the Justices, that not executing of an Office, is a sufficient cause of Seizure: Deputy occupies to the use of the Officer; and his Forfeiture or Misdemeanour shall make an Officer to lose his Office, but the Misdemeanour of the Grantee for life not, but of his own Estate.

11 Ed. 4. f. 1. Duke, or Marshal in Fee, may make a Deputy; for his Patent is to be executed by himself or his Deputy. The same Law of the Office of Chamberlain of the Exchequer, which is also an Office of trust; for he keeps the Records of the King, so that an Office of trust cannot be granted over. If the Patentee hath it not, to him & his Assigns, he cannot make a Deputy; and there agreed, That he hath that in his own right, and Deputy is not but to occupy into the Right of the Grantee; See Perkins, fol. 21. E. F. G. 10 Ed. 4. f. 16.

5 Ed. 4. f. 27. Where an Annuity is granted to keep a Park; If the Grantee misuse that, by which the Deer are killed, that is Forfeiture of his Office, Litt. f. 73. If a man grant by his Deed to another the Office of Parkership, Steward, Bayliff, &c. there is annexed to that a condition in Law, &c.

5 Ed. 4. f. 10. The King grants to Garter the Office of the King of Arms at will, and 10 l. Fee, for term of his life for that Office; if the Grantee be put from the Fee, the Office shall cease; for the Cause ceasing, the Effects shall cease, 7 Ed. 4. f. 23. the same.

9 Ed. 4. f. 5. If the King grant an Office to one which knows not how to use it; it is said, that the Grant is void, and Justices may refuse him, 5 Ed. 4. tit. 48. the same.

9 Ed. 4. f. 6. The King grants Office, the Patentee may make title in Assise, without shewing, that it was an Office before; But if the Grant was with Vales and Fees, it is not good, unless there be words (Consuetudinis) if there were none before.

9 Ed. 4. f. 6. If the King Grant the Office of one of the Clerks of the Crown to two, the Grant is good; but grant to two to be chief Justice, is void, for it is a judicial Office.

18 Ed. 4. f. 8. The King grants the Office of chief Pro-notary to two, that is void; and the Justices may refuse to enrol it: for two cannot have the keeping of the Rolls.

29 H. 8. tit. 47. If a man have a Fee of a Lord, and after is made a Justice, this Fee is not void; but after he is made Justice, he is not to take Fee of any but of the King. But where a Parson is made a Bishop, the Parsonage is void; for he cannot be Ordinary to himself, nor punish himself.

3 H. 7. fol. the last. The King cannot grant the Revenue of an Office to J. S. by that name; but reciting how, that such a one shall have and hold such an Office for term of his life: Of Our special Grace, We grant the Office aforesaid to J. S. to have after the death, &c. See 31
H. 8. chap. 27.

9 H. 7. tit. 44. If the Warden of the Fleet do not bring in his Prisoner which is commanded by the Court, that is a cause of seising his Office. And if a Prisoner condemned escape, he is to pay the Condemnation.

11 Ed. 4. f. 1. By Wavisor, Not Attendance is a cause of Forfeiture of the Office.

West. 1. chap. 26. No Sheriff nor other Minister of the King shall not take reward to do his Office; and who doth, shall restore double to the Plaintiff, and shall make Fine to the King.

West. 2. c. 29. No Servant, Accountant, nor other make any deceit or collusion in the Kings Court, or consent to make that in deceit of the Court, to wrong the Court or Party; and if that be attaint, he shall have Imprisonment for a year and a day, and be not heard in Court to count for none; and if there be another which counts, he shall be imprisoned a year and a day.

Fitz. 172. 0. No Victualler ought to use to sell Victual or Wine, by great, or retail, so long as he is in Office, as Mayor, &c. to keep the Assise of Bread & Wine.

Fitz. 173. 4. Victualler shall not be chosen to Office of Judge, in Towns and Cities but for default of others, and then they shall not sell Victuals. See of that divers Statutes.

Pound Overt.

For that, that in the 15 Article of the Charge, it is to be inquired, if any Distress put into the Lords Pound, be taken out without Authority: for that, let us see some things touching open Pounds.

Several Pasture of one is a Pound for the time, though it be not an open Pound; for that is adjoining to the Kings High-way, which is called an open Pound; 5 H. 7. f. 9.

If a man distrain his Tenant in Fee for life, or years, for Rent, he cannot impound it in the same Land where he takes the Distress: but for Damage doing, he may, 21 H. 7. fol. 39.

By Choke, If one take Beasts in the name of Distress, he ought to put them into an open Pound, for that, that he which is distrained, may give to them sustenance, otherwise he cannot give them meat: but if he distrain dead Chastels, I may put them where I will: but if they spoil in my default, I must answer for them, 9 Ed. 4. fol. 2. B.

If Distress be taken out of the open Pound of the Lord of the Town, he which distrains shall have a (Parco fracto) and not the Lord; and the remedy for the Lord is Presentment in the Court Baron, 21 Ed. 4. f. 19. Fitzh. 100 G.

Where one distrains (doing Damage) or for Rent, or Service, and impounds them in the common Pound, or in another Pound or place, which is a lawful Pound, and another takes them out; he which distrains shall have a writ called (Parco fracto) of that taking out of the Pound. The same Law is, if they were impounded in a Close of his Friend, by his license, and are taken out, he which distrained shall have a (Parco fra-cto) and his Friend Trespass, why by force of Arms, he broke his Close, Fitz. 100 E.

If Distress be put in open Pound, and they die, it is the loss of the Owner; but if they be put in another place, it is not so. And though sufficient amends be offered; yet he cannot take the Distress out of the Pound, but ought to sue a Replegiare: and then if it be found, that sufficient was tendered, he shall recover Damages for the refusal; but if the Distress die in an open Pound, though sufficient amends were offered; yet it is to the loss of the Owner, so that he ought to give them sustenance. Doffor and Student, fol. 113.

If Distress taken, doing Damage, be put in a Pound; the Defendant may justify that he hath Common in the place where the taking was, and made fresh Suit, and came to the Pound, and there he found that unlocked, and took his Beasts; this is lawful upon fresh Suit, and being unlocked. So it seems in all Cases, where the Distress is taken without reasonable cause upon fresh Suit, and Pound unlocked, the Owner may take them out of the pound, 30 Ed 3. fol. 171.

3 H. fol. 15. Defendant in Replegiare may say, That he put the Beasts in open Pound, and there they dyed, and he shall not wage deliverance.

5 H. 7. f. 9. If the Defendant in Replegiare take Beasts and drives them away, and doth not put them in an open Pound, and they die, this is not in default of the Plaintiff, but if he put them in an open pound within the County; it is not to be said, that they are conveyed away; but the Plaintiff at his peril is bound to take knowledge where they are, and to give them meat.

39 H. 8. tit. Distress 6. He which distrains Beasts, may put them in a close House, if he will give them meat; for, the putting them in open Pound, is but to the intent that the Owner may give them meat, 1 and 2 Phil. and Mar. chap. 12. tit. Distress, That no Distress shall be driven out of the Hundred unless to the open Pound, nor above three miles; and one Distress shall not be impounded in several Pounds, upon Forfeiture of 5 l. And for Poundage of an intire Distress, a man shall not take above 4 d. Poundage.

20 H.7. fol. 1. Where the Lord distrains Beasts, and they are taken out of the Pound, the Lord shall have a (Parco frusto) and the party may have Trespass, for the property lies in him, by Frowick.

Fitzh. 101. Where a man distrains for doing Damage, Rent, or Service, and put them into the Common Pound, or into another lawful Pound; and he which owes the Beasts, or another person, takes them out of the Pound, then he which distrained shall have a (Parco frusto) and if a man send his Servant to distrain for Rent or Service, and the Servant distrain and put them into the Pound, and a stranger takes them out of the Pound; now the Master shall have a (Parco frusto) for it is the Pound of the Master, 21 Ed. 3. fol. 19.

Fitzh. 101. B. If a man distrain for Rent, doing Damage, or Services, and puts the Beasts in the Ground or Close of another his Friend, by his license; and he which owes them, takes out the Beasts, he which distrained shall have a (Parco frusto) and not he which hath the Close.

Fitz. 101. B. For amercement in Hundred, one cannot distrain, but the proper Goods of him that is amerced, and not others: but for Rent or Service, it is otherwise, for the party may distrain the Beasts found in the Land which are rising and lying, and impound them.

Relief.

If one have a Tenant in chief, and dies, &c. and after such Heir be in Wardship, when he shall come to age, that is, 21 Years, he shall have his Inheritance without relief. But by the Statute of Marlebridge, ch. 10 and by the prerogative of the King, the 3. chap. the King shall have the first seisin; nor the Heir shall not enter, before he hath received it out of the Kings hands, whatsoever Age he be of, Magna Charta, 2. 3. and 4.

Where one holds of a common person by Romage, Fealty, and Escuage, and dies, his Heir male being within age of 21 years, he shall be in ward until 21 years; and if he were not in Ward, but were of full age, that is, 21 years, then the Lord shall have 100 s. for a whole Fee for relief; and if he hold by a moiety, 50 s.; and to who by more, more; and who by less, less. Lit. f. 24.

But by Marlebridg, ch. 17. If the Heir within Age be in ward, and at full age, the Lord will not suffer him to enter without Suit, but hold him out to have relief, or otherwise holds him out, that he cannot enter without Plea; he shall have a Mortdancer against his Guardian, and recover his Damages. Fitzh. fol. 196. F.

If one holds of the Lord in Socage, that is, by Fealty, and 10 s. payable at a certain day, and dyes, then the Lord shall have 10 s. for relief, over the 10 s. which he pays for his Rent; and such relief is due forthwith of what age the Heir be, so that he pass the age of 14 years: but if he hold by a Rose, that shall not be paid forthwith, but when the time of the year is that they grow. Lit. f. 28. And this relief by Bracton and Bracton, is not so properly to be called relief, as that which is paid at full Age by him that holds in Chivalry, 16 H. 3. fol. 4. and 18 Ed. 3. tit. Avowry 99.

Note, When a man holds of the King in chief, and of other persons by Knights Service, the King shall have the Ward of all, and the Heir shall pay relief to every Lord at his full Age, 24 Ed. 3. f. 8. and fol. 24. 32 Ed. 3. tit. 1. the same: 26 H. 8. f. 8. the same, and Not. Breu. fol. 95. notwithstanding. See Stamf. Title Prerogative.

The Father dies seised, and the eldest Brother of full age dies before that he enters, and before that he hath possession in Deed; the youngest Brother being of full age, he shall pay two reliefs, one for the death of the Father, the other for the death of the Brother, for that, that both were Tenants to the Lord: time of Ed. 1. tit. 12. & 13 Ed. 3. tit. 6. the same.

If my Tenant enfeoffs his Son and Heir of full age, and dies before the Son gives notice to me, I shall have relief of him, for that, that his Father dyed my Tenant to the Avowry, 7 Ed. 3. ch. 11. 17 Ed. 3. fol. 4. Enquire, see 3 H. 6. fol. 47.

Where Land is given to the Father for life, the Remainder to his right Heirs, the which Tenements are held by Knights Service; the Father dies, his Heir of full age, he shall pay relief, 32 Ed. 3. f. 4.

Estate is made to the Father for life, the Remainder in tail to his eldest Son and his Wife, the Remainder to the right Heirs of the Father in Fee; the Father dies, dies, the eldest Son and his Wife die without Issue; the youngest Son is in by descent, and shall pay relief, 40 Ed.3. fol.9.

Gift is made to one in Tail, the Remainder to the right Heirs of J.S. which was dead; Donee dies without Issue. T.S. had that as right Heir, but is in as a Purchaser, and for that shall not pay relief, 12 Ed.4. f.2.

A Lease for life, the Remainder to the right Heirs of J.S.; Tenant for Lease dies, living J.S., the Remainder is void, and J.S. and his Heirs shall not be said in by descent to pay relief, 9 H.6. f.23.

Lease for life, the Remainder to the right Heirs of J.S. and J. Shath Issue T.S., and dies. T.S. shall pay no relief, for he is in as Purchaser, 11 H.4. fol.72.

18 Ed.3. f. 2. A Fine was levied to the husband and his wife, and to their heirs Males, of their two bodies begotten : so that if the husband died without heir Male, that that should remain to the right Heirs of the husband, and is received, for that doth not depend upon condition, but upon a limitation upon contingent of death, which is certain.

A Fine upon grant and render, by which the Conisee grants and renders to the Conisor, the Lands in tail, upon condition; That the Conisor and his Heirs shall carry the Standard of the Conisee in Bartel ; and if the Conisor or his Heirs fail, that then that shall remain to a stranger; this depends upon a condition : and by Fitzherbert, Fine cannot be taken upon a condition ; but if it be taken, it is good. And by Fitzherbert, the Fee is in the stranger forthwith, before before the Tenant for life dies, otherwise it takes no effect; for these words (that then it shall remain) refer to the possession of the Lands; that is, That then the possession of the Land, after the death of the Tenant for life, should remain; but if one let for life upon condition, that if he die, &c. the remainder to a stranger, that is in him presently.

WASTE.

And in so much, that you ought to enquire, if any Farmer which hath part of the Demesne of your Lordship hath made Waste, or any Copy-holder (unless by the Custom of the Manour he may make Waste) if any of them have made Waste or not. First, let us see what is Waste in Land, and to be punished; and what not.

It seems, that not covering of a House is no Waste, till the great Beam of that is rotten, 10 H. 7. f. 2. b.

It seems, waste may be assigned in breaking a stone-wall, and also in a mud-wall, for that it is fixt to the Free-hold. But the Lessee may plead, that the Lessor licensed him to break it down, and this is a good Bar. And adjudged, that if a House be not covered at the time of the Lease made, the Lessee is not bound to cover that; and also if a House were ruinous at the time of the Lease made, that is a good bar to plead in waste, 10 H. 7. f. 2. B. 40. aff. 22, the same, and 10 H. 7. f. 5, the same, where a House falls by tempest, though the Lessee covenant to repair it, he may plead in Bar in a writ of waste, that it fell by tempest though he cannot plead it in a writ of Covenant, 40 E. 3. f. 6.

Fitz. 58. H. There is a Writ of Waste in the Register, for him in Reversion against Tenant by Eligat, which hath the Lands in Execution, but it seems he shall not have Waste, for that, that he may have a Penite factus to account; and there the waste shall be recompensed in the debt, but by the Action of waste he shall recover treble damages; which he shall not have in the Account.

Nat. brev. f. 37. Waste doth not lie against Tenant by Eligat, nor against Tenant by Statute-Merchant; but if they make waste, account lies: 42 Ed. 2. tit. 11. f. 1. If a Lease be made to one to use it in the best way that he can, now he cannot make waste.

In the Book of Entries, f. 13. there is another President of an Action upon the Case, That a certain Letter or Bill, with divers slanderous words, and defaming, in the said Bill or Letter, he caused to be writ.

It was the Opinion in the Kings Bench, That for calling the Plaintiff, Rogue, Cozener, or Villain, Action upon the Case doth not lie; for you shall not have Action upon the Case for every word of anger reproachful; for it is said, that Scandalum is a Greek word, which goes to the overthrow of one; and for that it hath been thought, that if the words do tend to the destruction of the Plaintiff, that he shall have an Action upon the Case, and for that where the Defendant saith, that the Plaintiff was infected with the Robbery of Jeram and smells of it. The Opinion was, That Action upon the Case for those words doth not lye.

If one sell to me a horse apparent blind, and warrant him sound of all his members, and I see him, I shall have no Deceit for that I might feel it: Otherwise it is, of a disease within his body, if he be upon the Warranty: I shall have Deceit. But if one sell a blind horse, and warrant him to one that doth not see him, Deceit lyes: If one sells to me wine, and bid my servant to taste it, deceit doth not lie if it be corrupt for that he hath tasted it.

Fitz. 93. C. If a man sell a horse to another, and warrant him to be sound and good, &c. If the Horse be lame or diseased that he cannot work, Action upon the Case lies. Where a Carpenter Covenants to make me a house, or a Chirurgeon takes upon him to cure me of my Herts, and they do not; for this not doing, it seems, an Action upon the Case lies.

21 H. 6. f. 53. If one for ten Marks bargain with the Plaintiff for two Pipes of wine, and undertake to deliver them at D. and did not, an Action upon the Case lies, though that sounds in Covenant, for that there is no Specialty; And the same Law is of all other Bargains, by Passon, bargained, sold, or bought: It is no diversity to one or the other.

But where the place is not local, it is not material; and though he were robbed upon the Main Sea, the Action lyes in London upon the Assumpsit; see after.

19 H.6. f. 49. Action upon the Case, that the Defendant at London took upon him to cure his Horse, and that carelessly he gave him a Medicine that the Horse dyed; the Defendant saith, that at Oxford, in the County of Oxford, he took to cure his Horse, which saith, without that, that he undertook at London, and held a good Plea.

3 H.4. f. 4. Deceit in Land of that, that the Defendant there did undertake, that the Lord should cause him to have certain Copyhold of the Mannor of D. in the County of Middlesex, and he assured that to others, and saith, that he might be sued where the Assumpsit was, or where the Land is. Inquire.

4 H.6. f. 12. Trespass of a Close broken in D. Defendant dant justifies in S. for Common appendant, and ought to traverse, without that, that he is culpable in D. 22 H.6. f.40.

9 H.6. f.62. Trespass of digging a Turbarie in D. in the County of Midd. he cannot justify in the County of Essex, without that, that he is Guilty in the County of Midd. for he may plead not guilty if it be in another County; but in Trespass local in D. the Defendant may justify in S. in the same County, without that, that he is guilty in D. but in Trespass transitory in D. Defendants cannot justify in S. in the same County, without that, that he is culpable in D. yet in Trespass of Battery, or Trespass of goods taken in D. in the County of Midd. and Defendant justifies in S. in the County of Essex, without that, that he is culpable in D. in the County of Midd. 3 H.4. f.2. 10 H.7. f.27. 21 H.6. f.20.

3 H.4. f.3. Trespass of Sheep taken at D. in the County of Hartford; the Defendant justifies the taking in Smithfield in London, doing damage; he ought to say without that, that he took them at D. in the County of Hartford.

6 R.2. ch.2. That Writs of Debt and Account, and all such whatsoever hereafter shall be taken in their Counties: and it is ordained, that if hereafter it be declared, the Contract thereof to be made in another County, that then incontinently that Writ shall be quash.

all the County, and yet good by by the whole Court, for that, that the thing is local, and annexed to Freehold, and contrary of bearing, or goods carried away, which may be continued, and is transitory, 21 H. 6. f. 11.

3 M. Tit. 283. Traverse by, without that, of Trespass of Battery, or goods carried out, it is transitory, and is not local, as of Trees cut, and grass mowed, and therefore in Trespass transitory, the place shall not make Issue, and is not traversable, no more then in Trespass upon the Case upon an Assumption, and these may be continued; contrary of Trespass local. See after Tit. 11. f. 11.

34 M. Tit. 268. Bargains and Contracts.

For that your Actions of Debt are in Court-Barons of Bargains and Contracts, it is convenient to speak something of Bargains and Contracts, and where the Cause or Duty is traversable, and where otherwise adjudged, what is a good Plea, and what Pleas he shall not have, for that he may wage his Law.

DEbt of that, that he let one a Chamber, and board for his Wife and Son, for every week 6 s. it is a good Plea, to say, that he did not lett the Chamber, for he destroys the contract in part, and it is intire, 9 Ed. 4. f. 1.

21 Ed. 4. f. 26. If the Plaintiff lett two Horses for 40 s. and counts in Debt, that the Defendant bought a Horse for 40 s. the Defendant may say, that he owes him nothing, in manner and form, or, vary from the contract, and the Jury upon pain of Attainr ought to find for the Defendant; the same Law is, if he sell one Horse, and counts that he bought two Horses for 40 s.; or if he sell a Horse for 40 s. and counts that he bought an Oxe for 40 s. upon pleading that he oweth him nothing in manner and form, this is material to aid the Defendant, for then he may say, to the Jury, Ours is the Law.

3 H.6.f.51. Debt; and counts for Tallow bought for 40 s. the Defendant saith, That he bought the Tallow for 3 s. and 4 d. which he is ready to pay; and to the remnant wages his Law, and had it.

14 H.8.f.17. If I sell goods for so much as J.S. shall say, it is no bargain forthwith, and yet if he sell them to another, before J.S. saith what he shall pay. Action upon the Case it seems lyes.

14 H.8.f.20. If Lessee for years grant his Interest to one upon condition, that he obtain the good will of the first Lessor, and pay so much as he shall arbitrate, and he obtain his favour, this is a good Contract; but there agreed, that is but a Communication; without (said pro quo) forthwith, or at the day agreed, as here: If you say, that you will give 10 pounds for my Horse, and you do not pay forthwith, it is no Bargain; but if you be telling out your money, he cannot sell that to another in the mean time; for there was no fault in you, but if agreement be that you shall give 10 l. for my Horse, and I give a penny in earnest, that seems a perfect bargain, and you shall have the Horse, and I shall have the money by Action of Debt, 15 H.8.f.6.

10 Ed.4.f.21. If a Priest be hired to sing for 10 l. per an. he is not compellable to serve as a common Labourer is; but if he depart within the Term, his wages is intire, and shall have nothing; and there it seems, if one sells his Horse to me for 20 s. he may keep him till I have paid him.

17 Ed.4.f.1. Trespass of Corn taken: Defendant saith, The Bargain was, That the Defendant should go to J.S. and see the Corn, and if they liked upon the view, and gave forty pence for every Acre, that he should have it: And saith, That he liked them upon the view, and took them, and it is no good Plea for notwithstanding the Bargain was, that he should have upon his good liking upon view, yet it is upon giving 40 pence for every Acre also, and he cannot take them before he pay, for that is parcel of the Contract. And so if we agree upon the price for Wares, he cannot take them before he pay, unless he have day of payment given unto him.

18 E.4 f.6. The husband sells trees growing upon the Land

Land of his Wife for twenty pound, and the Buyer takes part of the Trees, and paid ten pound, and after the Wife died without Issue, so that the Husband shall not be Tenant by the Curtesie: the Husband shall have Debt for the ten pound, for that, that the Contract was entire, and yet the Buyer shall not have the residue of the Trees: And where one sells another mans Horse, which he hath by wrong for ten pound, out of an open Market, and the Owner takes the Horse, as he may, yet Debt lyeth for the ten pound, for that, that the contract was once executed; and, by Bryson, if one sells a Horse for 10 l. he may keep him if he will till he be paid.

See 3 H. 7. f. 14.

2 H. 7. f. 12. Action upon the Case lyes for that, that the Defendant hath Bargained and sold to him Lands, and that he hath enfeofed another of them, and the Defendant traverses the Feoffment to another, and that proves that this is the cause of his Action, and not the Bargain.

18 Ed. 4. f. 16. If the Bargain were, that the Plaintiff should give ten pound for so much Wood if he liked it, or it pleased him upon the sight thereof, this is a Bargain at the Buyers pleasure: Now if first upon the sight after agrees to it, and if he agree upon the sight, it is a perfect Bargain, though after he disagree.

goods to another for a certain sum; although he do not pay the money, if a day of payment be appointed, this is a good Bargain, and the property altered by the sale. And by Huffey and Reim, a Victualler shall be compelled to sell his Victual, if the buyer tender him ready payment, and otherwise not, 39 H. 6. f. 13, confirmed by Prise.

2 H. 7. f. 6. By Finem, If one demand the price of a Cloath of a Merchant in London, and he saith, I will deputy saith he will give it, and takes the Cloath, it is an election to make that a Bargain, and to have an action of Debt, or to keep it till he be paid; and if the other take the cloath by reason of this bargain against his will, he may have Action of Trespass.

Husband and Wife.

What Contract and Act of a married Wife, Bayliff and Servant, shall bind the Husband, or Master ; and what not.

A Married Wife hath no Will but the Will of her Husband, and for that, if a married Wife sell or give Goods, and the Husband agree before or after, it is good, and it is his Will, and his Sale ; and if the Bargain be advantage or disadvantage to the Husband, band, Agreement of the Husband makes it good: the same Law of an Assumpsit, made to a married Wife, to deliver one out of Execution.

21 H. 7. f. 40. The Husband shall not be charged by a Bargain of the Wife; but if it come to the use of the Husband, and he agree, it is good: but if it come to the use of the House, if he hath not notice of it, or that it was not bought by his Commandment, he shall not be charged by Fineux; for a married Woman cannot do any thing which may turn her Husband into prejudice, and contrary of that which is for his advantage. But if I command my Wife to buy a thing necessary, and she buys it and comes to my use, this general Commandment (it is said) shall bind me, though I do not express what things. But if my Wife without my Commandment buy a thing for my Household, as Bread, &c. and I have no knowledge of it, though that be spent in my House, I shall not be thereof charged, by Fineux.

11 H. 6. f. 38. By Martin, It seems the Husband shall be charged for necessary Apparel of the Wife, but not for superfluous Apparel; For Martin saith, If my Wife buy of a man, and she arrays her self better than belongs to her Estate, I shall not be charged to pay this stuff taken up, though it come to the use and profit of the Husband, for that the Wife of necessity ought to be apparelled; but for that that passes her Estate, her Husband shall not be charged.

4 H. 6. f. 20. Dower. At the Grand Cape the Tenant wags his Law of non-summons, and at the day Effoyn is out for him; and saith, That he hath an Attorney in Court; and notwithstanding this, the Effoyn lies; for here the Attorney is out of the Court.

7 H. 4. f. 6. Precipe at the great Cape returned, one renders his Law by Attorney, and at the day of the Law the Attorney laid an Effoyn, and had no day, for it was said to him, to let his master come.

19 H. 6. f. 30. Debt, at the day that he hath to make his Law, his Attorney was Effoyned, and he ought not to be Effoyned, for he is out of the Court.

18 H. 6. f. 20. Precipe, The Tenant hath two Attorneys, and the one is Effoyned, and not the other, and good; for their warrant is joynt and several, and excuses the Master, 11 H. 4. f. 53. the same. 19 N.

19 H.6.f.57. The Attorney of one party cannot be Effoined of the Kings Service.

21 Book of Assise 7. Where the Defendant appears, and answers by Attorney, he shall not be after effoined, unless his Attorney be also effoined.

14 H.4 fol. 13. Quare Impedit, the Plaintiff was effoined, and the Defendant saith, that the Plaintiff hath an Attorney that is not effoined; and by Hank, that Challenge was entred, and at the day that the Plaintiff had by Effoin, that shall be shewed; and if it be found, then the Defendant shall have a Writ to the Bishop, and in the mean time the Effoin was adjourned.

45 Ed.3 fol. 10. Debt at the Exigent, the Defendant came by Superfedeas upon Bail, and at the day of the Exigent returned, the Plaintiff was effoined, and therefore the Defendant shall have the same day without Bail; and there agreed, if the party be effoined, and not his Attorney, that this is a Discontinuance of process; for the Attorney only shall be effoined, and every Challenge of effoin shall be entred; but it shall not be tryed before the day of Adjournment of the Effoin, unless it be challenged, for that he was sent to the Court, which shall be tryed forthwith.

14 H.8. Tit. 41. Formedon, Conuſance of a Plea was granted, and the Demandant gives a Re-Summons, for failing of Right in the Franchise, and the Attorney of the Tenant cast Effoin, where another Attorney was Effoined upon the Original; and by the Court, the matter of Challenge cannot be now tryed; the Effoin was adjourned, but not adjudged, and it shall be tryed at the Adjournment; and if it be found, shall turn him in Default.

13 H.7.f.8. Formedon, the Tenant makes two Attorneys says, and at the day, upon the View granted, the Tenant and doe Attorney makes default, and the other Attorney was essoyned; and it was held clearly, that the Esoyn of one Attorney excuseth the default of the Tenant and the other Attorneys; for they were Attorneys Joyned, and severall.

11 H. 4. fol. 2. Formidus. After the View, the Tenant was essoyned, and, notwithstanding that he had an Attorney not Esoyned, the Esoyn was allowed sub Causa; for the Attorney peradventure is removed, and agreed, if he have no Attorney in Court, he himself may be essoyned.

11 H. 7. fol. 42. Esoyn was amended in Præcipe of Rent, where the Esoyn was entred in a Plea of yearly Rent, where it should have been of a Plea of Land.

11 Ed. 4. f. 4. The Writ was J. S. and the Esoyn was J. S. of Debt, in the County of Kent, and for this variance it was quashed, and shall not be amended, for the Clerk had no sight of the Writ; for the Esoyn was before the Writ returned.

11 H. 6. f. 1. At the Poss in a Quare Impedit, the Incumbent was Esoyned, and was varying from the name in the Writ, for the Esoyn is Mich. and the Writ Mich.; and adjudged that it should not be amended, for that the Esoyn was put in before the Writ came in.

11 Ed. 3. 7th. 58. B. Waste, the Venire facias was abated, and a new one went out, and was returned, the Defendant cast Esoyn, and it was adjudged and adjourned, though there were the second Venire facias, for the first was as none.

19 Book of Affixes 12. Aff. The Plaintiff was essoyned, & the Writ indorsed Tardis, and notwithstanding that the Justices adjoined, and adjourned the Effoin.

 21 Ed. 4. f. 79 It seems, that Effoin doth not lie for a Corporation for the Effoin de malo veniendi, nor the Effoin de malo lassi doth not lie, for it is to excuse the Defendant; and a Corporation cannot appear in person, but by Attorney; nor in Effoin of the Kings Service, nor of beyond the Seas; for all cannot be together by common Intendment. And Protection doth not lie for a Corporation.

10 H. 6. f. 1. Scire facias by three, and two were Effoined, the Effoin quash't by the Courts, for that delay is out by West. 2. cap. 45. 2 H. 7. f. 10. the same.

10 Ed. 4. f. 15. Formedon, the parties were at Issue, and after discontinuance by demise upon re-Summons, said That the Tenant shall not be Effoined: See, the Statute is, that Effoin doth not lye, because re-Summons in the last Presentment, 1 H. 6. f. 6. the same, 1 R. 3. f. 4.

34 H. 6. f. 34. Trespass upon re-attachment, the Tenant was effoined, and said, that it lies.

44 Ed. 3. f. 4. Ass. Discontinued for not coming of the Justices, and upon re-attachment the Plaintiff is effoined, and it lies; and yet the Statute of Westm. c. 41. Who hath once appeared in Assise, shall not be afterwards Effoined, 44 E. of Ass. 24. the same.

21 Ed. 3. ti. 35. B. Parol was put without Day in a Precipe against a Prior, for that, that the King had taken a Superseideas, that he had seised the Land for War, for that the Tenant was a Prior Stranger, and after demand at the Procedendo, and re-Summons where the Parol was put without day before, after Venire facias returned, and the Jury appeared; and at the day of the re-Summons returned, the Priſer was effoined and challenged, for that, that the Prior was another effoined upon the Venire facias in the first Action, and it was not allowed, but the Effoin admitted.

30 B. of A. 51. Mordant v. Mordant, at the re-summions the Tenant cast an Effoin, and it was quash by the Statute de Collationibus.

Wardens of Churches

Though the Statute for High-ways not repealed, give not forfeiture of those Statutes to Church-Wardens, yet they are no Corporation, and it is fit to see what things they may take, and what not; and what Interest they have in things of the Church, and Where they may be removed, and where not; and what Interest the Parson hath.

Parishioners shall have no Action of Account against Wardens, but they may choose other Wardens, and may have account, against the first Wardens, 21 B. 6. 37. 24. f. 32. If a Book be given to the Par-things taken, though the Defendant hangs them in the dows shall have Trespass of the Ornaments taken.

21 B. 7. f. 21. Church-yard and Church are to the Parson, and he shall have Trespass of Trees cut in the Church-yard; Abridgment of Ass. f. 112. Ass. It is a good plea for the Defendant at the Jurisdiction of the Court to say, that he is Parson, and that it is parcel of his Church-yard.

30 Ed. 3. tit. Account, Statham; See there that the Church is to the Parishioners.

Brit. f. 84. Church-yard, Burying-places, Church, or Chancel are to none: Seek.

9 Ed. 4. f. 15. Indictment by the Church-wardens, by force of Arms, the Goods of the Chappel, &c. being, it seems good; and it seems, if it were the Goods of the Parishioners, it were better.

8 Ed. 4. f. 6. Trespass by the Church-wardens, and to the loss of the Parishioners; and it seems they are a Corporation for personal things.

9 Ed. 4. f. 15. Trespass was brought by Dame Wiche against the Parson, for taking a Coat-Armour, certain Pendants, with the Arms of Sir Hugh Wiche her husband: and it seems, that a Parson shall not have them, nor the Church-wardens, for they are hung there to the honour of the body of him that was buried there.

Waging of Law.

Then for that, that the Ancient Tryal in Court-Baron is by waging of Law, and also in Plaints for Copy-hold Lands of non-Summons; it is needful to say something of waging of Law: and what will save his default; and where, without waging the Law of non-summons.

3d H.8. f. 26 Detinue, it seems, though the delivery was by Deed, it may be discharged by matter in the defence by re-delivery, and in account of receipt by the Plaintiff's own hand; and he shews a Deed testifying that, yet the Defendant in these cases may wage his Law, 16 Ed.3. tit. 57. f. 18 Ed.3.tit.35.F. At the great Cape returned, the Tenant saith that he was in Prison, &c. The Demandant saith that he was in Prison by his own consent, and by fraud to save his default. And the Tenant was driven to aver, that he was in Prison against his Will, and upon the Issue taken: 14 Ed.3.tit.39.F.

13 Ed.3. tit.49. At the Petty Cape returned, the Tenant saith that he was in Prison upon a Statute, &c.; and the Demandant saith, that that was by Covin, and the Issue taken that he was in Prison against his Will, taken, and others to the contrary.

39 H.6.fol. 17 The Attorney may save the default where his Master came, and for that both may save the default by increase of water, and by Imprisonment, and not by weakness, neither of the one nor of the other; for that cannot be tried if he may come without unavoidable perill of death or not.

38 H.6.fol.12. Weakness of an Attorney is not sufficient to save a default, but increase of water, and Imprisonment is a cause See 50 Ed. 3.fol.9. And the Tenant plead in abatement matter for mischief of War, and death, which proves the Writ abated without saving his default.

40 Ed.3.f.2. Precipe against H. son of W. Osmund, the Tenant at the great Cape comes without saving his default, and saith, that his Father is named Edward, and not not of record, and for mischief of the War he shall have that plea, before default saving by waging of Law.

40 Ed. 3. f. 42. Formedon, at the day of the Perry Cape, the Tenant cometh and saith, that the Demandant hath entered hanging the Writ, and cannot have that Plea in abatement before the default saved.

40 Ed. 3. fol. 18. Precipe against the Husband and Isabel his Wife, they come before the default saved, that the Wife is named Elizabeth, and had for the mischief of the war.

14 H. 4. tit. 15. Precipe, the Tenant saith, that the Demandant is out-lawed, and shall not have this before default saved.

38 Ed. 3. 17. At the great Cape against three, they alleg several Tenancy, and the Writ abate, if he do not maintain. And they shall not wage the Law of not summoned, for then they admit the Writ, and that they are Tenants as the Writ supposeth, 12 Ed. 4. f. 14

14 H. 7. 6. Precipe at the great Cape, the Tenant would plead Joynt-Tenancy, and could not before his default saved, for this comes upon the view, 42 Ed. 3. f. 11. Isfame.

21 Ed. 4. f. 19. Precipe against two at the great Cape, one Tenant pleads that the other is dead after the day of the default, and for that, this plea proves the writ denied, he shall have this plea before his default saved, 20 H. 6. f. 2. the same:

43 Ed. 3. f. 3. Precipe against two, one Tenant may plead that in the conclusion of the Writ, the one is left out, and the Writ for that is abated before the default saved.

Thus after Continuance and Impar lance, and what not.

Assise, Where they are adjourned upon plea in Bar, it seems that he shall not have but one plea after the last continuance; for otherwise he may delay the party infinitely, 28 H. 6. f. 1. 9 H. 7. f. 9. 9 H. 6. f. 22. Quare Impedit; clearly agreed, that a man shall have but one plea after the last continuance upon matter in Deed: And by some the same Law is, where it is by matter of Record.

1 Ed. 4. f. 3. Ass. It seems that one cannot have divers Pleas after the last continuance.

2 H. 6.

2 H. 6. fol. 13. Entry in the Post, If the Demandant enter, and after there is a continuance, yet he may plead that, for that, that it is abated; and it is folly of the Demandant to abate his own Writ, 7 H. 6. fol. 15. the same.

7 H. 7. fol. 16. Quare Impedit. It was pleaded in abatement, Plaintiff was made Knight after the last Continuance, Judgment of the Writ, and he had it.

35 H. 6. fol. 35. Where a man is sued by the name of J. Prior of the Church of St. Peter of D, and imparls by an Attorney, he shall not plead in person afterwards, that he is Prior of the Church of St. Peter and Paul, for that is parcel of the name, which cannot be pleaded after Impar lance, for that doth not stand with, &c.

35 H. 6. fol. 37. Trespass against J. S. of D; after Impar lance, he demands Judgment of the Writ; for, day of the Writ purchased, he was dwelling at S, and not at D; and shall not have it, for it is contrary to the name which he hath affirmed by the Impar lance.

32 H. 6. fol. 35. After Impar lance, the Defendant cannot plead, that he is dwelling in another place, than is in the Court, 19 H. 6. fol. 1.

35 H. 6. fol. 43. Debt against J. S. as Executor of J. D. and he imparls; he shall not say after, that he is Administrator, and not Executor, 32 H. 6. fol. 32. The same, 36 H. 6. fol. 17.

37 H. 6. fol. 32. If the Defendant in personal action imparl, and at the day makes default, Judgment shall be given, and in a real action shall be awarded a Pery Cape; 7 H. 6. fol. 30. 11 H. 7. fol. 5. 38 H. 6. fol. 36. 39 H. 6. fol. 17.

4 H. 7. fol. 12. If a man in Debt upon an Obligation imparl, before he demands hearing of the Obligation and Condition, and hath that entered, he cannot plead the Condition afterward; for he shall not have hearing of that, if he do not alledge variance.

13 H. 7. fol. 17. Precipe of Lands in D, the tenant imparls, and at the day, he may say, No such Town, 9 Ed. 4. fol. 33. the same, 7 Ed. 4. fol. 1. Trespass.

16. H. 7. fol. 17. Debt by Prior, the Defendant imparls, and at the day saith, That the Plaintiff is deposed for that goes in Bar.

7. Ed. 4. f. 1. Trespals against J. S. & D. in the County of Middlesex, after Imparlance, the Defendant cannot say, No such Town D. within the said County: but he may say, There is upper D. and nether D. and none without addition. 22. Ed. 4. f. 1. the same.

9. Ed. 4. f. 38. Precipe, after Imparlance one may plead Non tenure and Joynt-Tenancy: But in Precipe of Lands in D. and S. the Tenant imparls, and at the day saith, That D. is an Hamlet of S. without that, that there is any Town or place known out of the Town named D. in the same County, Judgment of the Writ, and hath the Plea by the whole Court.

9. Ed. 4. fol. 42. Debt against Executors after Imparlance, he cannot say that the Testator dyes Intestate, and that the Administration was committed unto him, Judgment of the Writ, for he is stopped by the Imparlance, but he may plead never Executor, nor ever administered as an Executor, for that is with the, &c. 30. H. 6. fol. 32. the same.

23. Ed. 4. fol. 19. Writ is abated by death, and abateable by Joynt-tenancy, and several Tenancy, and where a man is made Knight, or a Woman takes an Husband, and such like, and saith, where a Writ is abateable if he imparl, or take continuance, he cannot plead in abatement: But otherwise it is, if it were abated: See 7. H. 6. fol. 16. and 20. H. 6. f. 17. And note that it is pleaded there, that the Plaintiff is a Knight.

44. Ed. 3. f. 4. After Imparlance the Defendant may plead to the Action, as to say, that the Plaintiff is a Canon professed, &c. But he cannot plead to the Writ, unless he come after the continuance, unless it were for that, that the Writ is abated at death, &c.

20. Ed. 4. fol. 9. Debt upon a Lease of a Coradie, the Defendant imparls, and after that shall have hearing of the Deed. See 4. H. 7. fol. 12.

4. H. 7. fol. 17. Replegiare against three which imparl jointly, and one makes default, the other cannot plead so such in being, as one is which makes default.

11. H. 7. f. 5. Debt for Corn, the Defendant imparls, and and at the day makes default, there shall go a Writ to inquire of the value. See 37 H.6.f.32.

15 H.7.f.14. Attorney for Corporation after Imparlanee, he cannot lead that they are Corporate by another name.

32 H.6.f.12. Where a Writ is abated, he may plead that, though there be a continuance, as to say, That the Plaintiff is dead, or hath an Husband day of the Writ; but if it be abateable, it is otherwise she may say, That after the last continuance, is made Knight. Judgment of the Writ, &c, where it is abateable.

34 H.6.f.40. Debt upon Obligation by three, the Defendant pleads not his Deed; yet he may plead that after the last continuance one Plaintiff is dead.

22 Ed.4.f.36. Trespass, the Defendant after Imparlanee, may say, that the Plaintiff is his wife, Judgment if Action; or that the Plaintiff is a Monk professed. And in Mortdancester, that the Demandant is a Bastard. And in Debt against Executors, after Imparlanee, he may say he was never Executor, nor ever administered as Executor; for these are disabilities which go in bar.

32 H.6.f.32. It seems a man may plead after a Continuance, that the Plaintiff is a stranger born, or Monk professed, Judgment if Action, and not to the Parson, 36 H.6.f.9.

7 H.6.f.39. It seems, that after Imparlanee one cannot plead to the Jurisdiction, unless it be after special Imparlanee, saving all advantages, as well to the Jurisdiction of the Courts as to the Writ, and Declaration.

19 H.6.f.7. Debt by Executor, which shews the Will (as it behoveth) and after the Defendant imparls, there he shall not have reading of the Will again, 38 H.6.f.2. But if he plead Variance, he shall have (Reading) and so in Debt upon Obligation.

16 Ed.4.f.4. Debt upon specialty, the Defendant may plead Outlawry in the Plaintiff, though he hath imparled, for that is a bar, and intitles the King.

4 Ed.4.f.15. Debt, after Imparlanee, one space in the Count cannot be in another Term.

39 H.6.f.21. Debt upon arrears of annuity, after Imparlanee, the Defendant cannot have hearing of the Deed: But if the Defendant plead, that it was made in another another County than where the Writ was brought, and then he shall shew, 39 H.6.f.17. the same.

Pleas after day given.

If the Defendant imparle, and make default, he shall be condemned, and upon day given shall issue process, 7 H.6.f.42.

10 H.8.f.6. Note, by all the Prothonotaries, that (day given) is ever before the Count, and Impar lance is after the Count, and therefore where three Capias and Exigent is awarded, and the Defendant appears upon the Exigent, and hath (day given) and after makes default, Distingas shall go, and upon that returned (Nisi) other 3. Capias and Exigent, and upon default in personal Action, he shall be condemned. See 7 H.6.f.42.

10 H.6.f.17. Trespass, the Defendant at the day which he hath by Impar lance saith, That the Plaintiff was Knight day of the Writ purchased, not named Knight; Judgment of the Writ, and had plea by Judgment. Otherwise it is said after continuance by (day given.)

42 Ed.3.f.1. debt, the Defendant came at the Exigence, by (Reddidi se) and was bailed, and the Plaintiff came and prayed by (Prece partium) and had it notwithstanding that the Defendant was by Bail, for that by agreement of the parties.

1 H.4.f.8. After day given, and the special Impar lance, the Defendant may plead in abatement, and not after general Impar lance.

14 Ed.4.f.14. If the parties be at Issue, and the Defendant releases to the Tenant, and he takes continuance by request of the parties; he shall not plead the release.

22 Ed.3.f.8. The Tenant after the (request of the parties) was received to plead Joynt-Tenancy by Fine. Then after Issue, and at the Nisi Prius day in Bench, and after Verdict.

Dower by Torp, the day of the Nisi Prius, and the day in Bench, is not all one to all respects; for a Writ purchased mean between the Nisi Prius and day in Bench, shall abate, for the first Writ is hanging till Judgment be given, notwithstanding the Plaintiff was consulted at the Nisi Prius. But as to plead any Pleas, which come mean between them, there shall be one same day, 40 Ed.3. f.38.

28 H.6. f.1. A man may plead a Plea after last continuance at the Nisi Prius. Inquire what Pleas.

34 H.6. f.45. At the day of the Nisi Prius, the Defendant pleads to the Writ, That one of the Plaintiffs was dead after the last continuance at D. in the County of Darby. Judgment of the Writ, and had it.

47 Ed.3. f.2. If it be found against the Plaintiff at the Nisi Prius, and the Plaintiff makes default at the day in Bench, yet Judgment shall be upon the Verdict, for that is all one day, and the day of the Nisi Prius.

10 H.7. f.21. debt upon a Lease for years, and the Issue was levied by distress or not; and now at the Nisi Prius, he could not plead a Release made after the last continuance.

19 H.6. f.36. Forging of false Deeds against many, they were at Issue, Process continued against the Esquest till the Jury appeared; at which day the Defendant pleads arbitrament after the last continuance; and upon this the Jury was discharged.

21 H.6. f.10. Nisi Prius was returned Osta. Mich. that is, the day in Bench, and one Plaintiff died after Osta. Mich. and before Judgment given upon the Verdict. And the Defendant may plead that, for Judgment shall have relation to Osta. Mich. and then the Defendant cannot have remedy by Writ of Error, Audita Querela, nor other wise; therefore he shall have the Plea again. But it seems, that the Defendant cannot plead Release made to him, by the Plaintiff after Verdict, for he shall have an Audita Querela; contrary of his death, the day of Nisi Prius, and the day in Bench were all one self-same day, and no mean time; and therefore Release, made mean between these two, cannot be pleaded at the day in Bench, notwithstanding it seems at the day of Nisi Prius before the Jury taken, The release which is made mean between the Award of the Writ of Nisi Prius, and the day of the Nisi Prius, may be pleaded at the Nisi Prius. See 10 H.6. tit. 53. and tit. 55.

22 H.6. f.1. Dower. It seems if the Plaintiff releases the Defendant mean between the Award of the Nisi Prius, and the day of the Nisi Prius; there, if the Jury main to default of Jurors, the Defendant may plead this Release as the day in Bench after the last continuance, though he did not offer it at the day of Nisi Prius; and contrary it seems if the Jury had been ready at the Nisi Prius.

36 H. 6. f. 24. At the Nisi prius the Enquest pass for the Plaintiff, and he released before the day in Bench, the Defendant shall have an Audita Querela; and of this it follows that the Defendant cannot plead that at the day in Bench after the last continuance, 34 H. 6. f. 3.

21 H. 7. f. 33. After the Enquest taken by default, the Defendant cometh before Judgment, and pleads, that he & the Plaintiff have put themselves to Arbitrament after the last continuance, &c. And by the opinion of the Court, he hath no day in Court to plead that Plea. And it was said, that he shall plead no plea in such case, but as a friend to the Court. But of matter apparant he shall be received; but in the Kings case, he shall have that by Plea; for he hath no other remedy. But in the case between common persons, he shall have Audita Querela: contrary, against the King, 11 H. 7. f. 10. tit. 8. 61.

38 H. 6. f. 33. Debt by Morte, the Defendant after that he was at Issue, might once plead Plea after the last continuance, as release or such like, notwithstanding no other than once.

41 E. of Aff 19. If Verdict pass for the Plaintiff, and the Defendant get a Release before Judgment, yet he cannot plead that.

21 Ed. 4. f. 52. Adjudged, That the Defendant cannot plead Release, made mean between the Nisi prius, and the day in Bench.

16 Ed. 4. f. 5. A man may plead a Plea after the last continuance after issue joyned, and in another Term. And therefore it seems, that the parties have day in Court as well after issue joyned till Verdict, as before, 50 Ed. 3. f. 4.

Impar lance at a day in the same Term, and at a day and term between, and Impar lance of the Plaintiff.

Continuance by Capias ought to be made from Term to Term, and cannot have other Term between; for that, that the party shall not stay so long in prison, but continuance by distress may be made by a term between as from Michaelmas Term to Easter, 8 E.4. f.13.

12 H.7. f. Common recoveries for assurance, the Tenant tenders issue, the Demandant may imparl to a day in the same Term.

44 Ed 3. f.16. If a man imparl to another day in the same Term, or till the next day, yet that is a new day, at which the parties are demandable.

37 H.6. f.27. Debt, Defendant pleads misnaming of himself, and the Plaintiff imparls, and had it.

22 Ed.4. f.19. Where the Defendant in Appeal of Robbery, by which he puts his life in Jeopardy, the Plaintiff shall not imparl to that, and therefore ruled, That he should answer the Court sitting.

What Pleas he shall have after the last Continuance.

WHere the parties and Jury appear at the fourth day in the Common-Bench, and are adjourned, at another day, a man may plead a Plea after the last Continuance, 28 H.6. f.1.

8 Ed.4. f.9 Where a man pleads death of the Defendant, hanging the Writ, he shall not plead that after the last Continuance; for that by this the Writ is abated indeed: Contrary of a Plea which proves the Writ abateable.

34 H.6. f.49. At the day of Nisi prius, the Defendant pleads to the Writ, That one of the Plaintiffs was dead after the last Continuance, D in the County of Dorset, Judgment of the Writ and the Plea recorded, and the matter adjourned, and had that Plea, 14 H.6. f.9.

38 Ed.3. f.5. Præcipe by a Woman, the Tenant renders his Law of not summoned, and at the day was enjoined, and at the day saith, that the Demandant took a husband after the Law tendered, and for that, that he did not say after the last continuance, that is after the etsoyn, it was held no Plea.

4 H.7. f.8. A man shall have but one Plea after the last continuance, 38 H.6. f.33. the same.

16 Ed.4. f.5. A man may plead a Plea after the last continuance after issue joyned, and in another Term, till Verdict, but not mean between Nisi Prius and the day in Bench.

9 H.7.

9 H.7.f.8. A man shall not have a Plea after the last continuance, unless such Pleas which were not in being, at the time of the first Plea; for otherwise it is not after the last Continuance.

Maintenance.

Inasmuch, that Maintenance may be the better avoided; let us see what Maintenance is forbidden by the Law.

That no Clark of a Justice or Sheriff shall maintain parties in quarrels, not in businesses which are in the Kings Courts, Westm. 2. chap. 28.

That none of the Kings Counsellours, nor none of his house, nor none of his other Servants, nor no great ones of the Land by sending of their Letters, nor in order manner, nor no other of the Realm, shall not undertake to maintain quarrels, nor parties in the Country in disturbance of the Common Law, 1. Ed. 3. chap. 14. Sec 20 Ed. 3. chap. 3.

That no Counsellor, Officer, or Servant, nor any other persons shall not uphold or maintain any quarrels by maintenance in the Country nor elsewhere, first of R. 2. chap. 4.

That henceforth none buy or sell, or take promise, grant or covenant, to have Mannors, Lands, Tenements, or hereditaments. But if such person which sells, their heirs, or they by whom they claim, have been in possession of the same, or of the Reversion or remainder of that, or hath taken Rents or profits of that, by the space of one whole year next before that bargain, or covenant, grant, or promise, made upon pain of him that bargains, to forfeit the value of the Lands, and the buyer also knowing that, to forfeit also the value of the Land, the one half to the King, the other to him which will sue for the same, within one year after the same offence.

And it is also enacted, That none from henceforth unlawfully maintain, or cause, or procure any unlawful maintenance in any action or complaint, in any of the Courts of the King, of the Chancery, Star-Chamber, White-Hall or elsewhere within the Kings Dominions, where they have power to hold Plea of Land by Commission, Patent, or Writ. And also that none shall instruct Jurors, or suborn Witnesses, by Letters, Promises, or by any other sinister labour or means, to maintain any matter or cause, or to hinder Justice, or to procure or occasion any manner of perjury, upon pain of Forfeiture, for every such offence 10 l. 1 half to the King, and the other to him that will sue for the same, within one year after the same offence, 32 H.8. chap. 9.

If one will say, He will maintain, and doth it not, he shall not be punished for maintenance; And Champerty lies, where one purchases, hanging the Suit, 9 H.7. f. 18.

See 3 H.6. f. 53. It seems, it is no maintenance to give money before a Suit begins, but hanging the Suit, Maintenance, the Writ was in Plea, which was in hanging, he maintains, and it is good, and it seems it is better to say, In plea which was hanging, 10 H.7. f. 27.

It seems one may covenant to have part of an Obligation when it is recovered, for travelling with an alien which cannot speak English, nor Latin, to his Council; so one may covenant with one indebted to him, and deliver him the Obligation of another, in satisfaction of his debt, to sue in his Name; and notwithstanding that he paid Council, it is no Champerty. Every Champerty implies in it maintenance, but not of the contrary; and he to whose use, and every one that hath lawful Interest in the Land may maintain, 15 H.7. f. 2. 34 H.6. f. 33. the same.

By Fintux; If a Servant be arrested for debt or other thing in London, or other Franchise, the Master may maintain him and spend of his proper money for loss of his Service. Inquire. But otherwise it is in Precipe, 26 H.7. f. 40. B. See 21 H.6. f. 19. by Newton.

By Newton and Passon, Servant may pray one skilled in the Law to be of Counsel with his Master, but a stranger cannot pray one to be of Counsel with my adversary, for he liath nothing to do, 21 H.6. f. 19.

If a man be at the Bar, and another informs the Court, that this man can declare the Truth, and pray that he be sworn; and by the commandment of the Court, he swears, this is Maintenance Justifiable; but if he had said for one, or the other, of his own head, this is Maintenance punishable: The same Law, if he inform a Jury sworn, of his own head, it is maintenance punishable, 28 H.6. f.6.

The Master may pray one, skilled in the Law, to be Counsel with his Servant, and this is maintenance justifiable; but he cannot give of his own proper Goods to distribute to men of the Country, for maintaining his quarrel: for then he meddles with a thing forbidden by the Law: and by Prisot he may Justifie giving money to Lawyers to be of Counsel with his Servant, but not to give money to others not learned in the Law, 28 H.6. fol. 12.

By Fortescue, Master may pray one learned in Law, to be of Counsell with his Servant, but not to give to them money, unless it be of his Wages; and he saith, One skilled in the Law, may be of Councell without a Fee. Inquire 31 H.6. fol. 2. 36. H.6. fol. 29. 3 H.6. fol. 77. Maintenance, one may justifie, for that he is his Servant, but he cannot give money.

Maintenance, Defendant Justifies, that he is a Bail, & that he came to the Defendant's Attorney, and prayed him to be carefull, the which is the same Maintenance; by Prisot, it is not good to say. It is the same maintenance, for this is no maintenance, for every stranger may pray the Attorney: for it is the part of an Attorney to attend to that, and for that it is no maintenance, 32 H.6. f. 29.

It is justifiable to speak to a Lawyer for him, that he cannot speak English; and by Laken, Master may pay money of his Servants Wages to the Counsel, by the consent of his Servants; but a Bail cannot pray a man learned in the Law, to be of Counsel, but may come and see if his appearance be recorded: and it seems, that the Father may give of his own money for his Son and Heir, for he is bound to find him; contrary of another Cousin, 34 H.6. f. 27. B.

If one be retained to ride to London, and when he comes there to maintain him, this is not justifiable; but it seems otherwise, if he were hired for the Journey, that is justifiable, and the same of a Servant, 39 H.6. f. 19 H.6. f. 31.

Where one hath property in the thing demanded, he may maintain by Moyls, as Goods or Writings are delivered to J.S. and Detinue is brought against him by a stranger; the Deliverer may maintain, and in Præcipe quod reddat, or Ass. against a Farmer the Lessor may maintain, 39 H. 6. fol. 21. See 9 H. 6. fol. 64. the same.

Where one hath Rent out of Land in Fee, and hath the Writings granted unto him by R, the Grantee may maintain R. in Detinue of Writings of the same Rent and it seems, that a Master may maintain his Servant, and a man may maintain his Blood, and his Kindred, and give money to the poor, and that Maintenance is justifiable; and he in Reversion may maintain his Tenant for life, after attornment, and not before, and this is seen in giving his own proper money, 9 H. 6. fol. 64. See 14 H. 7. fol. 2. by Read.

In attainr, it seems, that one may aid and maintain his Cousin in siding and counselling him at the Bar, 12 H. 6. fol. 2. R.

Maintenance in Assise of Fresh-force, Defendant justifies for that he was of his alliance, and shews how Cozen; and it seemed good, by which the Plaintiff saith, That he promised ten shillings apiece to two of the Jury to pals for him, 20 H. 6. fol. 1. 21 H. 6. 19. By Passon, a man may maintain his Kin and his Allies.

Maintenance, Defendant justifies that the party was his Chaplain retained with him, and he gave him notice who he should have of his Counsel, which is the same maintenance; & it seems, that is no maintenance: And for that the Defendant saith, That he was at the Bar to aid him, and that is good Justification to say, that is the same maintenance, 19 H. 6. fol. 30.

In maintenance, Defendant cannot plead, Not Guilty, but he ought to answer to the point of the Writ, that is to say, he did not maintain, ready to Justifie, & others to the contrary, 8 H. 6. f. 36. But by 2 Ed. 4. f. 16. In maintenance, Not Guilty, is pleaded and allowed.

By Coke, If my Brother or Cozen hath a Suit in the Law, and prayes me to aid him to learned Councells, and I pray a man to be of his Councell, this is a good Plea in maintenance; contrary, if a stranger do it: but if he gives his own Money for his Brother or Cozen, in, this is speciall maintenance, 9 Ed. 4. f. 34. In action upon the Statute of Labourers.

Where Tenant in tail, or for life is impleaded, he in Remainder or Reversion may maintain, and give of his proper money for safeguard of his Interest; for he which hath Interest in the Land, may maintain to save that, 1 Ed. 6. tit. 53. Maintenance.

It is held a difference between action Real, where Land may come to him, and an action personal; for he in whom Lands may come as by Remainder, Reversion, Discent, and such like, may maintain in action real. And by Brian, a man may shew to another, who is a man learned in the Law for the party to retain, but he may not give Money to the Councillors; and one Neighbour may go with another to seek Counsellors; and a man may maintain his Servant, and give of his Wages behind anotherwise not to give Money, but he may lend to him or another Money, and that is no maintenance; but he in Reversion or Remainder may give money where the Land is in question. And the Servant may maintain his Master, as to go and labour for him; but he cannot give of his proper Money for him: And so it seems, that he who hath married the Daughter of one party, may maintain him in an Action Real, but not in an action personal, 59 Ed. 3. f. 3. Br.

Upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. c. 9. That a man shall not buy Land, unless the Seller hath been in possession by year before; It was agreed in Sergeants Inn, That if a man Mortgage his Land, and redeem it, and he sells it within a year after the Redemption, that he may do it without danger of the Statute; for the Statute is to be intended of pretended Title, and not of a clear Title; and the ancient Statutes are, That none shall maintain, yet one may maintain his Cousin, as above: for they are to be intended of unlawful maintenance, that is, that unlawfully one cannot maintain, 6 Ed. 6. tit. 38. Maintenance.

One skilled in the Law, may give the evidence for his Fee to the Jury, and it is no imbracery; but it is imbracery in another, unless he be sworn, 6 Ed. 4. f. 5.

If Præcipe be brought against me, and, hanging that, I lose off J. S. and the Demandant recovers by default after after default, and I bring Writ of Deceit, it seems I cannot maintain, for that, that the possession which he hath in Champerty, is against the Law, 8 Ed. 4. f. 13.

Maintenance, the Defendant justifies that he is his Neighbour, and knew no man skil'd in the Law; and he informed him of one, and a good Justification, by which the Plaintiff shewed special maintenance, that is giving Money to the Jurors, 12 Ed. 4. f. 14. See 29 Ed. 4. f. 3.

Maintenance, the Defendant may plead, that he was a Juror, and that is good, without saying, that he gave Verdict; but if after Verdict given, the Juror pray Judgment, this is maintenance, 18 Ed. 4. f. 2.

If a Juror give Money to his Companion to pass, this is maintenance, notwithstanding that it be for truth. But to perswade him to pass, is no maintenance, 17 Ed. 4. f. 5.

One may be Bail, and that is no maintenance, so that he do not meddle more in the matter, 18 Ed. 4. f. 13.

Trespass of digging Land, the Defendant justifies, for that, that the place where is their Church-yard, and that the Inhabitants have used there to be buried, and for making Grave, there justifies, and held, that the Inhabitants may maintain in this Action, though they were not parties, 18 Ed. 4. f. 2. See before, 15 H. 7. f. 2. That every one that hath lawful Interest may maintain.

Maintenance, supposing that the Defendant maintained A. in Assise; The Defendant saith, That A. held of him, by which he came with him to the Assise, and staid with him, prayed the Sheriff to make an indifferent pannel, which is the same maintenance, and it is a good Plea, 11 H. 6. f. 39.

General Attorney which sues, and is not skilled in the Law, may well meddle; but he cannot proffer money to a Jury, but may pray them to appear, 34 H. 6. f. 37. By Choke.

Maintenance, he cannot justify, for that, that he was an Attorney retained with him, and that, by Commandment of his Master, he retained Counsel, and gave them forty pence of his Masters money, and good.

Inquire, if an Attorney cannot retain Counsel without the Commandment of his Clyent, and if he may not disburse disburse of his proper money for the time: But Attorney cannot give of his proper money, nor of his Masters money to Jurors, 36 H. 6. f. 29. 11 H. 6. f. 13, the same.

Maintenance, the Defendant saith, That he was an Attorney in the Action, Judgment if Action, and good; but he cannot give any thing to the Jury but as an Attorney; and give evidence to the Jury for his Client, Henry, 13 H. 4. f. 19.

If a man maintain a quarrel by his Attorney, action of Maintenance lies against the Master, 22 H. 6. f. 24. and by Arcton, if a man, of great power in the County, will say in the presence of the people, That he will spend twenty pounds for one party, or will give twenty pound to labour for the party, though he give nothing, it is Maintenance: See before, 9 H. 7. f. 18.

Maintenance against a Servant of one by Forbes, if he menace Jurors to out them of their Tenures, if they do not pass with his Master, this is special maintenance in the Servant, 19 H. 6. f. 30.

A man skilled in Law, may do his endeavour for his Client; and it is no maintenance, if the Plaintiff cannot alledge other special matter forbidden by the Law, 1 H. 4. f. 6. B.

Embraceor is he which comes to the Bar with the party, and speaks in the matter, or is there to overlook the Jury, or to put them in fear: but men skilled in Law may speak in the Cause, for their money, but they cannot labour the Jury, and if they take money to do that, they are Embraceors, Fitz. f. 71. A.

Tenures and Services.

It is expedient to know the Services and Tenures which your Tenant shall do: And first, of the Tenure in chief, and other Tenures of the King, and then of other Lords.

First, Tenure in chief is called, where one holds of the King meerly as of his Crown, which is a Signiory in gross, for that it is held of him which is always King, and not of the King as of his Mannor of D. &c. Fitz. 3. D. If any Land be held of the King, or of the Honour, Castle, or Mannor, such Lands are not held of the King in chief; and this is proved by the Writ of of Right, which shall be directed in such a Case to the Bayliffs of the Honour, Castle, or Mannor.

Also the Statute of Magna Charta, chap. 31. is, If any hold of any escheat, as of his Honour of Wallingford, Nottingham, Bulloine, Lancaster, and of other escheats which are in our hand, and are of Baronies, and dies, his Heir shall not give other relief, nor make to us other Service then the Barons should make; if that Barony were in the hands of the Baron, and we in the same Mannor will hold it as the Baron held it.

1 Ed. 6. chap. 4 Also is, That where a King hath, or after shall have, any Dukedoms, Baronies, Castles, Mannors, Lands, Tenements, Fees, or Signiories, by Attainder, Conviction, Outlawry, or by Dissolution of Monasteries; which Lands held of them by Knights-Service, Socage, or otherwise, shall not be construed to hold in chief, nor as Tenure in chief. See in Dr. the Tenures 100.

Lit. f. 31. Tenure of the King in Burgage is where an ancient Town is, of which the King is Lord; and those which have Tenements within the Borough, hold of the King their Tenements, that every Tenant by his tenure ought to pay to the King a certain Rent by the year, and such Tenure is Tenure but in Socage.

Fitz. 6. D. Lands and Tenements within Cities and Towns are held of the King in Burgage-tenure; and it behoveth, that a Writ of Right Patent of them shall be directed to Mayors, Sheriffs, and Bayliffs, as Bayliffs and Officers of the King; as if Lands were held of the King, as of any Honour, Castle or Mannor, by which it appears tenure in Burgage is Socage tenure, and not Socage in chief. Fitz. E. 1. lib. 5. m.

Stamford 13. If one hold of the King in Burgage, the King shall not have (first Seisin); but otherwise it is, where he holds of the King by Knights-Service in chief, or by Socage in chief; for the Statute of the Kings Prerogative. chap. 3. is, The King shall have the first Seisin after the Death of them, which of him held in chief, of all Lands and Tenements, of which they were seised in their Demesne, as of Fee, whatsoever age their heirs were of, and that is taken as well of Socage in chief, as otherwise in chief.

7 M.6.f.3. The King shall have first seisin, where his Tenant dies seised in his Demesne, as of Reversion.

47 Ed.3.f.21. If the King purchase Lands, which is held of others, by this all the Services are extinguished: and if he enfeof others to hold of him, he shall hold of his Crown in chief, by Finchden; and also when a Honour is seised into the Kings hands, and a Maner is held of that Honour, which Escheats unto him, is of common Escheat; if he alien to hold of him; he shall hold as he held before of the Honour, and by the same Services; but if he come in as by Forfeiture, by War, or Escheat, which is because of his own person, and he seise, and enfeof others, they shall hold in chief if the King do not express other Tenure.

33 M.6.f.7. By Priso, if the King seise Land by Forfeiture of Treason, and grant that over, to hold of the chief Lord, by the Service due, &c. that in this case he shall hold of the chief Lord, as it hath been adjudged.

44 Ed.3.f.45. The King gives Lands to one, to hold to him and his Heirs, by the Services due, &c. and by all the Justices, that is Tenure by Knights-Service.

16 H.4.f.71. It was recorded in the Exchequer, that such a one holdeth so much Land of our Lord the King by Serjeanty, to find one man for the War, wheresoever within the four Seas; and by Mank, it is great Serjeanty, to be made by the Body of a man.

13 H.7.f.16. If one hold of the Duchy of Cornwall, it is in chief; for it was ancient Lands of the Crown.

117.185.A. To hold Land to pay certain Rent to the Keeper of the Castle of Dever, is a Tenure in chief. See Lit.23. See 5Ed.4.f.127.

19 R.2.tit.183. Guard F. Keeper of a Castle in England is Knights-Service; for it countervails Escuage, and is of the same nature.

8 M.7.f.12. If I hold of the King, and he grants the same Service to me, yet I shall hold of the King, for all I held of the King mediarely or immediately.

Magna Charta, c.20. See there for keeping of a Castle.

38 H.8.tit.60.B. Livery, where the heir was in Ward to the King, and come to full age, there he shall sue Livery out of the Kings hands; and the first Seisin is, where the Heir is of full age at the time of the Death of his his Ancestor, and where his Tenant holds in Socage in chief, and dies.

10 H.7 fol.23. If one hold of the King to inclose a Park, he may by his grant after reserve for that his Marks; and the King is not bound by the Statute of Westminster the third.

It is held, 21 Ed.3. fol.41. The King gives the Honour of Parkhamsted to the Prince, and his heirs Kings of England; and so it seems, that Lands held of that Honour, seems to be held in chief; yet Magna Charta is, that Honour is not properly in chief.

26 H.8. fol.10. By Fitzh. Lands in the County Palatine of Lincafter held of the Duchy; the King hath kingly Rights, and there Livery shall be sued.

17 H.8. fol.31. Tenant of the King in chief makes Gift in Tail without License; the King may choose the Donee or Donor for his Tenant. And if Tenant of the King, before the Statute of Westm.3. makes a Feoffment, the King may choose the Feoffee or Feoffor for his Tenant; 4 H.6. fol.19.

33 H.8. tit.94. B. In the Exchequer, 3 Ed.3. Rot.2. It was found, that a man held of the King in chief, as of his honour of Raleigh; and it was taken no Tenure in chief, but a Tenure of an Honour: otherwise it is, if the honour be annexed to the Crown, for then the honour is in chief. And in the year 11 N.7. The honour of Raleigh was annexed to the Crown, and so it is in chief. But where the King gives Lands to be held of him by Fealty, and two pence for all Services, that is Socage in chief, for it is of the Kings person; and contrary, if it were to be held of the Mannor of B.

24 Ed.3. Tit. He which holds of the King by Service to find a Man to serve in the War, by forty days at his own Charge, this is great Serjeanty, Tit.69. Br. That a Tenure to find one Horse, and such like, is but small Serjeanty; for it is not corporal Service.

44 Ed.3. fol.45. The King gives the Fee-Farm of a Town, that is, such a Rent, to be held for term of life, and after confirms to him, and to his Heirs, to be held by the Services due, and this is held Knights-Service of the King; for the most high, and better, shall be taken for the King; and by Fitzh. 263. B. It appears, That Rent

Land may be held of the King by Knights Service in chief, as well as Land, &c.

10 H.6. fol. 12. Rent lies in Tenure of the King.

14 H.6. fol. 12. If the King grant Land to me in Fee, to be held as freely as the King is in his Crown; yet I shall hold of the King, and if I alien without license, I shall make Fine; for this is vested in the King by his prerogative, and shall not pass out of his person by general words; by Passin in the end of the case.

45 Ed. 3. fol. 6. By Finchden, If my Tenant in fee off the King, and takes back of the King, to hold of the King; yet he is my Tenant in Right, and shall hold of the King also. But inquire of the Tenure of me; for the Tenure was once extinct by the Kings Possession.

29 H.8. tit. 61. B. If the King purchase a Mannour which J.S. holds, the Tenant shall hold as he held before; and he shall not render Livery, nor first Seisin, and he shall not hold in chief: and it is said, If the King grant the Mannor to W.N. in Fee, except the Services of J.S.: Now J.S. holds of the King, as of the Person of the King, and yet he doth not hold in chief, but as he held before; for the act of the King shall not prejudice the Tenant.

31 H.8. tit. 70. B. Lord and Tenant, the Tenant is attainder of Treason by Act of Parliament, and so forfeits all his Lands, and after is pardoned, and restored by another Act of Parliament, to have to him and his heirs, as if no such attainder or former Act had been; now he shall hold of a common person as before, and yet once the tenure was extinct.

3 A. 6. tit. 94. B. Where the King gives Lands to be held of him by Fealty, and twelve pence for all Services, this is Socage in chief, for it is of the Kings person.

23 H.3. tit. 148. Guard. F. If a man holds of the King to go with him in the Army against Scotland, in the Vanguard, and in his return in the Rereward; and so if he hold to give to the King Horne gild, which is said Cornage, it is great Serjeanty.

38 H.8. tit. Livery 60. The Heir of him which holds of the King in chief in Socage, shall not pay first Seisin to the King for all his Lands, but only for those Lands held in Socage in chief; contrary of him which holds in in Knights-Service in chief, and where he holds in Socage in chief, the other Lord shall have (Oustrer le main) with Issues.

2 Ed. 4. f. 6. Land is given in Tail, to be held of the chief Lords; these words, To be held, &c. are void, and he shall hold of the Giver.

Where there is Lord and Tenant, if the Tenant be disseised, and the Disseisor dieth seised, and his heir in by descent, the Lord ought to advow upon him: but if there be Lord and Tenant, and the Tenant enfeoff another, which doth not give notice to the Lord, nor the Lord during the life of the Feoffor, may take him for his Tenant, or the Feoffee, at his pleasure, 4 H. 6. f. 10.

3 B. of Aff. 8. Land is given in tail, without saying of whom to hold, the Donee shall hold of the Giver; and if a man, before the Statute of Quia emptores, give in Fee, without saying of whom to hold, the Feoffee shall hold of the Feoffor. Lit. f. 5.

16 Ed. 3. Stat. f. 23. If Lands be given in tail, to be held of the Lord, this (to be held) is void, and the Lord ought to avow upon the Feoffor.

5 H. 7. f. 35. Mesnalty lies in Tenure by a Mesne; contrary of an Advowson appendant, 1 H. 4. f. 1. the same.

33 H. 6. f. 34. Was the Opinion, That Advowson may lie in Tenures; as where a Mannor and Advowson are held, the Advowson is made in gross, and the Advowson is held for it self.

21 E. 3. f. 3. It seems, that Advowson lieth in Tenure, 24 Ed. 3. ii. 18. 14 H. 7. f. 26. and 15 H. 7. f. 8. the same.

32 Ed. 3. tit. 75. Br A fishing doth not lie in Tenure, for the soil may be to one, and the fishing to another.

11 H. 4. f. 80. It seems by Hill, That Rent cannot be held of a common person, 10 H. 6. f. 12. Rent lieth in Tenure of the King, 10 B. of Aff. 24. 1 H. 6. f. 21. Fitz. 263. B. 13 H. 6. f. 12.

40 Ed. 3. f. 44. Fishing lies in Tenure, and yet it is a profit in another Soil, 8 B. of Aff. 7. Office may be held in chief.

42 Ed. 3. f. 7. Advowson may hold, 43 Ed. 3. f. 15. the same.

14 H. 4. f. 3. Where a Deed is to hold by Homage, Fealty, Escuage, and Rent; and for all Services, the Lord shall have suit of Court.

20 A. 7. fol. 10. He might before the Statute infeof one to hold of him, and after the Statute, if he infeof him of part, he shall hold for that part, 10 H. 7. fol. 10. the same.

5 H. 7. fol. 31. By Fairfax, Termor for years shall make Fealty to his Lessor, Littleton, 25. 9 H. 6. fol. 43. the same 10 B. of Aff. 29. Lord, Mesn, and Tenant, the Tenant holds of the Mesn by three pence, and the Mesn over of the Lord by four pence; the Mesn dies without Heir, the Lord shall have the three pence; for the Signiory is extinct in the Mesnalty, so that he shall only have the Services which the Mesn should have had, and also the Services which the Mesn paid to the Lord; but it is said otherwise upon forejudging, for there the ancient Signiory remains, for this wills the Statute.

Littleton, 41. Lord, Mesn, and Tenant, and the Tenant holds of the Service, by the Service of five shillings, and the Mesn holds over by the Service of twelve pence; the L. Paramount Purchases the Tenancy in Fee, then the Services of the Mesnalty are extinct; but for that, that when the L. Paramount hath the Tenancy, he holds of his L. next Paramount, & for that the Signiory of the Mesnalty is extinct; but for that, that the Tenant holds by 5 s. of the Mesn, and the Mesn holds by twelve pence, the Lord shall have the four s. of the Mesn as Rent-Seck, 2 E. 2. fol. tit. Exting. 6. F.

26 Book of Assises, 66. A man may hold by homage, and yet not Knights Service, but in Socage.

Littleton, 22. Where a man holds by homage and fealty for all manner of Services, it is Socage, for homage by its self doth not make Knights Service.

26 Book of Assises 66. The King, Lord, Mesn, and Tenant, the Tenant holds of the Mesn by Socage, and the Mesn over by Knights Service, the Tenant gives in frankmarriage, rendering 12d. by year, for all Services, living Service abroad, and it seems that by this word, (living the Service abroad) the giver shall have only such Services, by which he himself is charged over.

31 Book of Assises 30. When a man gives Lands in Fee before the Statute he held by two pence, saving the Service abroad, yet he shall hold by Knights Service, 10 T. 1. See 31 Book of Assises 15.

Fitzh. 8. A If the Husband infeoff^r, and dye, and after the Wife is endowed, she shall hold this Dower of the Feoffee by Fealty, 33 Ed. 3. Stattham f. 75. Where the Woman is endowed by the Guardian, she shall be Attendant to the Guardian, and at full age to the Heir. 3 E. 3. tit. 84. B. A Woman Tenant in Dower shall hold of the Heir for parcel, and he shall make avowry for that portion.

34 Book of Ass. 15. Where the Tenant in tail dyes without Issue, and his Wife is indowed, and the Donor enters, she shall hold by the third part of the Services, for this is the act of God, and the Law: The same Law is where there is L. and Tenant, and the Tenant dyes without Heir, and the L. enters for the Escheat, and the Wife of the Tenant recovers Dower, and hath Execution, she shall hold by the third part of the Services, contrary, where the Lord purchaseth the Tenancy in Fee, and she is indowed; she shall render nothing to the Lord, for this is his own act.

24 H. 8. tit. 55. If a man before the Statute of Emparementum, had made a gift of Land to hold in Fee for repairing a Bridge, or for keeping such a Castle, or for marrying a poor Virgin of F. this is a Tenure, and the Donor may distrain, and make Avowry and not condition: but if a Woman give Lands to a man to marry her, this is a condition in effect and Tenure.

6 H. 3. f. 72. Lands in Gavelkind are held in Socage, and not in Knight Service, Fitzh. 13. D. Lands which are held in ancient Demeſne are Socage.

13 R. 2. tit. 76. A man gives Land to hold by ten shillings for all Services, Exactions, Customs, and Demands. And yet the Tenant was constrained to pay relief, for that is incident, as well to Socage as to Knight Service.

29 H. 8. tit. 64. A man makes a Feoffment of the half of his Land the Feoffee shall hold of his Lord by the whole Services, that the whole Land was held before for the Statute to hold for that particular; doth not hold place here; for moiety is not a particular, as of one Acre or two Acres in certain; but count of the third part, which goes throughout and every where.

And if a man holds two Acres, the Feoffee shall hold that by a Hawk, and the Feoffor shall hold the other part by another Hawk. Westm. 3. fol. 85. It is lawful for any man to sell; so that the Feoffee hold of the chief lord for that part according to the quantity of the land; that is, the value of the Land so sold, &c.

Littleton 41. If one holds his Land of the Lord by Service, to render to his Lord yearly at such a Feast, a Horse, or a Ring of Gold, or a Clove, if in such Case the Lord purchase parcel of the Land, such Service is gone; for such Service cannot be severed nor apportioned; but if the Tenant hold by homage, Fenny and Rent, and the Lord purchase parcel of the land, the Rent shall be apportioned, but the Homage and Fealty shall continue intire to the Lord. 8 H. 7 f.
 It is impossible that any Land should be, and not hold of the King, either mediately or immediately, and for that the King cannot release to his Tenant all his Services.

to H. 7. fol. 10. If the Tenant which holds two Acres by twenty pence, makes a Feoffment of parcel, the lord may distrain in this parcel so aliened, & also in the part which remains in the possession of the Tenant.

to H. 7. f. 12. Feoffment before the Statute, or a gift to make a thing to himself, or to another for common wealth, is good; as to make a Beaton, or a bridge; but to ride with a stranger is not good.

Stat. 1. 2. To hold of us by free service, to find for us together with his Partners, five Ships for our passage, at our command for all Services, it seems to be Stage Tenure.

Prizem. 83. chap. E. A Writ de Scutagio habendo lyeth when one holds by Knights Service, and the King goes on a Voyage into the War in his proper person, or his Lieutenant against the Scots, and none shall pay Es-cuage, but those which hold to go into the War, and neither that holds by Cornage, nor by keeping a Castle; Littleton 18. and Littleton the 19. One may distrain for Escuage, or have a Writ De scutagio habendo.

Prizem. 105. n. If one hold twenty Acres by twenty shillings of the King, and aliens a parcel, yet the King or his Officer may distrain one of the Tenants for all, and is not bound by the Statute to distrain for that parcel; but otherwise it is of a common person; for if he distrain one for all, he shall have a Writ to be discharged for a rateable proportion: But in case the King or his Tenant aliens part, the alienee makes Fine to the King for this alienation: It seems reasonable, if he be distrained for all the Rent, he shall have a Writ to be disburdened, for a rateable proportion, against the Kings Officer which distrains, W. 3. That the Fee-office of part shall hold for that particular part, according to the quantity of the Land so sold, &c.

Where by 37 H. 8. chap. 27. It was Enacted, That the King shall have to him and his Heirs, all Monasteries of Monks, Canons, and Nuns, which had not Lands, Tements, Rents, &c. above the value of two hundred pounds: And also all Monasteries which have been granted to the King within a year next before this Statute, by the Abbots or Priors under their Seal, or which have been otherwise suppressed or dissolved, yet in this Act is a saving to the Lords Rents, profits, services, and commodities, as they before have had them: So that of these Monasteries, the Rents & Services of the Lords are not gone by this Act, where such Abbeishold Land of any Lord, but are saved to them.

But by 31 H. 8. chap. 13. The King is vested, deemed, and adjudged, in actual and real Seisin, and possession, as well of the Monasteries dissolved by 27 H. 8. as of all others, and in this Statute is a saving to every person, all their Rights, Title, Claim, Interest, Possession, Rents, Charge, Annuities, Leases, Offices, Commons, Synods, &c. and other Profits in the Premises, or any part of that, as if this Act had not been made, (Rents, services, Rents seek, and all other service, and suit only except) so by this Statute, the Rents and Services of the Lords are gone.

1 Ed. 6. chap. 14. which gives Chantries, &c. to the King, in this is a Proviso that every one, which before that Act, lawfully without Covin or fraud, hath any manner of Rent, or any yearly profit to be taken of Chantries, Colledges, free Chappels, and other the Premises, in like manner and form as they ought to have, if the Chantries, &c. had been in being, so that the Lords of those shall not lose their Rents.

2 and 3 Ed. 6. c. 8. It is enacted, that where by Office found, the King is intituled to Lands or Tenements, in which others have Copyhold, Rent, common Office, Fee, or other profit to take, for life, or for years, not found in the same, that they shall enjoy the same Interest, by Copy, Rent, common Office, Fee, or other Profits to be taken, as if the same had bin found by Office, and provides that if one be found within age, or of less age then he is, that at his full age, or after, he may have (Estate probanda) or sue Livery, or (Quicker main) as his Case lyes, and provides that where it is fully found by Office, that any Attaint of Treason or Felony, is seised of any Lands, or Tenements, whereof another hath just ritle, or Interest of an Estate of Freehold, that he shall have Traverse, or Monstrans of Right to the same, without being put to his Petition.

And provides where it is found, of what man, or of whom the Tenements are held, the Jury is altogether ignorant, it shall not be taken for a Tenure in chief, but there shall be a better Inquiry awarded.

37 H. 8. chap. 20. It is enacted, that where by 35 H. 8. chap. 14. Houses, not being Princely houses of the King, having Lands not above forty shillings, that is, were granted by the King, and Tenure by Fealty to the King, and not in Chief, is Socage, and that extends to all Letters Patents made within five years after the same.

Littleton, fol. 23. If a man hold his Land, by paying certain Rent to his Lord for keeping a Castle, such Tenure is Tenure in Socage; but where the Tenant ought by himself, or by other make the keeping of a Castle, such Tenure is Tenure by Knight Service; so by Littleton, Escuage to go of a Voyage Royal, &c. and to keep a Castle, or the door thereof, &c. and to hold by Cornage, that is, to hold, to make Service by the body of a man, these are Knight Service; and to hold to pay Rent is Socage, for payment by him is Socage.

View.

Where one shall have View of Land in a Writ, or Plaint in nature of a Writ of Land; and where not.

THe View is not to be granted, but where it is necessary; and if any Writ abate, by a dilatory exception after the View, as by Non-tenure, ill naming the Town, or such like, he shall not have the View in the second Writ which issueth; also in a Writ of Dower, where her Husband hath aliened to the Tenant, or his Ancestors, although the Husband died not seised, the Tenant shall not have the View, and also in a (dum sit infra statum) (not of a right mind) and such like, the View shall not be granted. Westm. 2. chap. 48.

1 H. 5. f. 11. Upon the Resummons of Dower; the Tenant demanded the View; the Demandant saith, Her Husband died seised, by which Judgment, he prayed that he be outed, and he was outed by a Writ. 5 H. 5. f. 4. 9 H. 4. f. 9.

Pleas after the View in Abatement.

Formedon, One cannot plead in Abatement after the View, unless it be a thing which cometh upon the View, but where it appears to the Court that it wants form, or is false Latine, the Court, Ex Officio, will abate, 41 E.3. f. 29. 40 E.3. f. 35.

50 Ed.3. f. 9. Formedon, the Tenant may plead ancient demesne after the view; for it may be that parcel in the Town is Ancient Demesne, and parcel Frank Fee, and that cometh upon the view to know that.

11 H.4. f. 70. Formedon, where is matter apparent in a Writ to abate that, he may plead that after the view.

7 H.6. f. 39. After the view one cannot plead no such Town, but he may say, That the Tengments are in another County, for that cometh upon the View, but after the view he cannot plead to the Jurisdiction; yet he may plead, that they are in C. and that they are impleadable there, and demand Judgment of the Writ, and not Judgment if the Court will acknowledge.

19 H.6. f. 10. Dower, of a Freehold in D. and S. after View one cannot plead no such Town of D. for he is estopped of that; for that he hath knowledg of the Town Town before the View, but he may plead Joynt-Tenancy and non-Tenure, which comes upon the View.

Assise and Trespass.

Diversity between Pleading in Assise and Trespass, for in Trespass need not make Title under Possession, otherwise in Assise.

Trespass, the Defendant ought to convey to him an Estate immediate, and for that, to say, That J. S. was seised till by J. D. disseised, which enfeoffed the Plaintiff, upon whom J. S. entred, whose Estate he hath, it is not good; but if the Defendant saith, That he was seised till by the Plaintiff disseised, upon whom he entred, it is good, but not in Assise, 5 H. 7. f. 11.

Trespass, the Defendant saith, That he was seised till by the Plaintiff disseised; and he entred, and it is good; and he need not to convey to him a Title: and the Plaintiff saith, That he was seised, till by the Defendant disseised, without that, that he Disseised the Defendant, for if the Defendant had first possession, it is good in Trespass, 26 H. 8. f. 6.

Trespass, the Defendant may plead Fine with Proclamation, Judgment if Action, but not rely upon Eschepper, 17 H. 8. f. 27.

Trespass, the Defendant pleads his Freehold; the Plaintiff saith, That he was seised in Fee, till disseised by the Defendant, and he re-entred, and the Trespass in the mean time, the Defendant maintains his Bar, without that, that he disseised the Plaintiff, 1 Ed. 4. f. 3.

Trespass, the Defendant pleads gift in tail to his Ancestor, and conveys to him by divers Descents, the Plaintiff saith, That he was seised in Fee, and traversed the gift, and it is good, and need not make title beyond his possession: otherwise of Assise, 3 Ed. 4. f. 19.

Trespass, to plead a Feoffment of the Plaintiff, it seems to be good: or he may say, that he himself was seised, but in Assise, Feoffment of the Plaintiff is no Plea, for that amounts to no wrong, no Disseisin, 15 Ed. 4. f. 31. and 29 Book of Ass. 24.

Trespass, if the Defendant plead that he was enfeoffed, the Plaintiff may traverse the Feoffment without making making to him title; otherwise it is in an Assise, 18 Ed. 4. f. 10. 10 Ed. 4. f. 3. 27 H. 6. f. 1. and 40 Ed. 3. f. 5.

Trespass, the Defendant saith, That H. his Tenant at Will enfeoffed the Plaintiff, and he entered; the Plaintiff saith, That J. S. enfeoffed H. and he died seised, and his Issue enfeoffed me; the Defendant cannot traverse the Feoffment but the dissent; otherwise it is in Assise, 10 H. 7. f. 1.

Assise, by Littleton, the Tenant may plead, Let to him for years, or for life, the Reversion to the Plaintiff, and is good; and so is it of a Feoffment with warranty of the Plaintiff, and rely upon warranty, 18 Ed. 4. f. 10. 1 Ed. 2. tit. Ass. 391. and 18 Ed. 3. f. 13. the same.

Assise, the Tenant pleads, That the Plaintiff let to him for life, and is good; but a Feoffment of the Plaintiff is not good in Assise, but in Trespass it is good, 8 H. 7. f. 14. 27 Book of Ass. 31. the same, and 29 Book of Ass. 24.

Trespass at Compton over C. and nether C. it is no Plea in Trespass, but it is good in Assise, 8 H. 6. f. 18.

Trespass at D. there are two Ds. within the County, and none without addition, it is no plea, for the Visne shall be of the body of the County, 3 Ed. 4. f. 26. and 9 Ed. 4. f. 5. the same.

Assise of Lands in Osgodby, the Tenant saith, There are two Osgodbys within the County, none without addition, and it is no Plea, for the Plaintiff shall recover by view of the Jurors, 3 Book of Ass. 9. and 27 Ed. 3. f. 2.

Trespass in Osterton and H. which H. is a Hamlet of Osterton, it is a good plea in Precipe, and not in Trespass, where Damages only are recovered, 7 Ed. 4. f. 18. and 4 E. 4. tit. Brief 155. and 179.

Trespass may be in a Hamlet, but not in a place only known, 11 H. 7. f. 24. 2 R. 3. f. 1. and 43 E. 3. f. 30. the same.

Precipe, in D. is a good plea in abatement, That D. is a Hamlet and not a Town; but otherwise it is in Assise, 1 E. 4. f. 6.

Plea

Pleas in Bar.

Bar is good at the first shew, or by common Reason and Intent, such intent is a Plea, which hath not more vehement presumption then to intend contrary, but if the intent be indifferent, it is not good at the first shew by Intendment.

Formedon in Descender, that he gave nor, is good; and yet it may be, that he did recover in value, but the most pressing intendment is to the contrary: but if in debt I plead Release, bearing date after the Obligation, it is not good, at the first face, unless he saith, that it was delivered after the Obligation, Plowd. Com. f. 32. Forging of Deeds, the Defendant saith, That he himself was seized at the time of the Forgery, and it might be by Disseisin, but it shall not be intended; and for that it is good at the first shew, 8 H. 6. f. 34.

Affise of Mortuancester, because his Mother took the habit of Religion, the Defendant saith, That your Mother had a husband alive when she entred into Religion, and it is not good; for it is indifferent whether he be alive or not, and for that he ought to aver, that the husband is yet alive, 5 E. 4. f. 3.

It is said there, Though the Bar be good to common intent, yet it shall not be good where parcel of the substance is left out: but where such things are left out, which by special intendment, and not by general intendment, lien in Manner and Form to avoid a pregnant Negative, 22 Ed. 4. f. 4.

Negative Pregnant.

Where a Negative Pregnant may be, and where not.

Obligation.

Here I intend to shew to you how the Condition of Obligations ought to be pleaded, and performed.

WHERE one pleads Conditions performed, and his Plea is in the Affirmative, he ought to plead in certain, as where the Condition is to discharge the Obligee, it is no Plea to say, That he hath discharged him, but he ought to plead how he hath discharged certainly, 5 H. 7. f. 8. and 6 H. 7. f. 5.

But if the Condition be to save him without damage, to plead in the Negative, [he was not damnified] is good, 17 H. 4. f. 13. 38 H. 6. f. 14. & 10 H. 7. 13.

By Hussy, if Condition be to save the Plaintiff harmless, to plead [he was not damnified] is good: but if the condition be to discharge & acquit him, he ought to plead how specially he hath acquitted & discharged him, 22 Ed. 4. f. 35 H. 6. f. 13 and 40 Ed. 3. 30.

If the Condition be, That if the Defendant acquit the Plaintiff against J. S. and he pleads, That J. S. released to the Plaintiff at his request, and this is a good Acquittal, 1 H. 7. f. 30.

Condition was to discharge a Sheriff, it was held clear, That the Defendant shall say generally, that he hath discharged him, without shewing how; for he cannot shew special discharge; where there was no charge, I suppose this was for that it was infinite, 5 Ed. 4. f. 10. and 21 H. 7. fol. 30.

Condition, That if he keep J. S. discharged of all escapes, of all Felons in such a prison; the Defendant saith, there were but two prisoners, that is, A. S. and R. R. and that he was not damnified; and a good Plea.

If the Condition be, to gather all the green Wax of the County, the Defendant may plead generally, that he gathered all, without shewing specially what that is, for that, that is infinite, 2 H. 7. f. 15.

If condition be, That if the Defendant serve the Plaintiff without absence for seven years, (special License excepted) the Defendant may plead that he hath served the Plaintiff this seven years, and not absented himself (special License excepted) and it is good, for it may be he hath licensed him divers times, and he need not shew all, 6 Ed. 4. fol. 2.

If the condition be, That, if the Defendant find sufficient Meat, Drink, and Apparell to one, till he be of the age of twenty four years, it is a good Plea to say, That he hath found him Meat, Drink, and Apparell sufficient at D. for all the time aforesaid, without shewing in special what Meat, and what Apparell, and the Plaintiff takes Issue, that he did not find to him sufficient apparel: and took not Issue upon all for doubleness, 12 H. 7. fol. 14.

If the Condition be, That if the Defendant shall not prove, that J. S. was not presented and instituted to the Church of D. that then, &c. the Defendant may say that J. S. was not instituted; and it seems good, for the condition is negative, and therefore it sufficeth to say as above in the negative. The same Law is, if the Condition were, That if the Defendant prove, that he oweth nothing to the Plaintiff, it sufficeth to say he oweth nothing. The same Law is, if the Condition be, That if I prove my Wife not guilty of such a Trespass, it sufficeth to say that she is not guilty, 15 Ed. 4. f. 23.

If the Condition were, That if he prove within one year, that it was the Will of J. S. to say, That J. S. made this Will, which he brought to the Plaintiff within one year written, is not good. But by 3. Justices, Proof of that by two witnesses to plead that, is good, though it be not by Jury, 15 Ed. 4. f. 11.

If the condition be, That if he do not enter, and claim the House, the Defendant may plead that he did not enter nor claim that, and the Plaintiff shall say that he claimed, and shew the manner of that, 4 H. 7. f. 13.

Condition; if the Defendant make an Estate to the Plaintiff before P. as it shall be devised by the Council of the Plaintiff: the Defendant may plead, that the Council gave no advice, or no advice was given by Counsel, and good in the negative; and the Plaintiff then in the affirmative cannot say, that the Council did give advice, but he ought to shew certainly who was of his Council, and say certainly what advice was given, 6 H. 7. 3. and 11 H. 7. 23. accordingly.

Condition to pay all the Arrearages of all the Lands which he holds of the Plaintiff in D, it is no Plea, That he hath paid all generally; but he ought to shew specially to what sum, for that, that it is in the Affirmative, 20 H. 6. f. 33.

Condition to pay a lesser sum at the Feast of P. if the Defendant plead that he hath paid it, he ought to plead what day he paid it, 46 Ed. 3. 29. and 47 Ed. 3. f. 13.

Condition,

Condition, That if the Defendant carry all the Thorns out of the Land let to him by the Plaintiff, the Defendant may plead generally, That he hath carried all, for that, that it lies in notice of the Plaintiff; and the Plaintiff saith that so many were, which were not carried: But if the Condition were to enscoff the Plaintiff of all the Land, of which the Father of the Defendant died seised, or to give to him all the Money in his purse, there he ought to plead how much that was, for that, that it is in the Affirmative, and it lieth more in the knowledge of the Defendant, then in the Plaintiff, 12 H.8. f. 7.

Debt by the Sheriff upon an Obligation, the Defendant saith, it was endorsed upon condition, and saith, he hath performed all the Condition, and it is a good Plea: And the Plaintiff saith, that he hath not accounted, and that is no Plea, but that such a thing came to his hands, for which he hath not accounted, that the Issue may be upon certainty, 2 R.3. fol. 17.

If the condition be, to perform all the Covenants in an Indenture, the Defendant cannot plead that he hath performed all generally, but he ought to plead how specially he hath performed every Covenant, 26 H.8. 4. 11 Ed. 4. 12. 13 H.7. 18. and 6 Ed. 4. f. 1. But at this day it is used in the same case in Debt upon an Obligation endorsed to perform the Covenant in Indentures, that the Defendant recites the Indenture, and in the end he pleads, That he hath generally performed all the Covenants. And then the Plaintiff ought to shew breach in one; and upon that, Issue is taken.

If Condition be, to stand to the Award and Arbitrament of certain persons, it is no Plea for the Defendant to say, that he had no notice of any Award: but if it were (so that it be delivered to the parties in writing) the Defendant may plead, that no Award was delivered to him in writing, 1 H. 7. fol. 5.

If Condition be, That if the Defendant shall stand to the Arbitrament of J. S. the Defendant may plead, that he hath not made any Award, and the Plaintiff shall say, That he hath made one, and shew what it is, 9 R.3. f. 13.

Pleading by Name.

Reverſion is deviſed, by the name of all Lands and Tenements in D. and good, 34 H. 6. f. 6.

Leaſe is made of his Lands in Bodbill, and by acci-ent evidences, parcel of that is in D. he may plead his Leaſe, and give in Evidence, that all was let by the name of Bodbill, 20 Ed. 4. f. 19.

Where Margery and her Husband levied a Fine by the name of Margaret, and the Tenant may plead, That zon, with a (z) and this was pleaded to be made by

where where it is [he hath disseised him of four Acres] where it should be by the Presidents [of his Freehold] it shall stand, 11 H.6. f.25.

16 H.2. f.8. Cui in vita, The Writ was, [Which he claims to hold to him and the heirs of his Body.] without shewing of whose gift. And the Opinion of the Court that it is good; but when the Register was shewed to be contrary, the Court changed their Opinion.

Trespass,

Trespass, by the Husband and Wife, why by Force and Arms he took his Goods and Chattels, and counts, that the Trespass was when she was unmarried, the Writ shall abate, because he may have a Writ of Form, that is, the Goods and Chattels of the said Wife, and not his Goods and Chattels, 7 H. 7. f. 2.

21 H. 6. f. 5. False Imprisonment, the Defendant justifies, for that the Plaintiff was arrested by a Justice of Peace his Warrant, and carried to him being Goal-ler, which is the same Imprisonment.

False Imprisonment against an Abbot, which justifies, That he gave Counsel to J. S. being in fear of his life, life, to go to a Justice of Peace for a Warrant of the Peace against the Plaintiff, and that by vertue of a Warrant of the Peace so had, the Plaintiff was arrested, which is the same Imprisonment, and this he cannot say, for this is not imprisonment by the Defendant, and for that the general issue was entered, 12 H. 7. fol. 14.

False Imprisonment by a Woman, the Defendant saith, That she is carried to Southwark by her consent, which is the same Imprisonment, upon which the Plaintiff counts; and it is no Plea; for imprisonment is against the Will of one, and that is not so, 14 H. 6. fol. 3.

Trespass of Assault, Battery, and Wounding, the Defendant saith, That he laid his hands upon the Plaintiff peaceably, and arrested the Plaintiff the same day and place by a Warrant, which is the same Assault, Battery, and wounding, and held it is no plea for the reason aforelaid, 21 H. 7. f. 49.

Trespass of a Close broken such a day, the Defendant justifies, That the Plaintiff Licensed him the same day to enter, and need not say, That it is the same Trespass, for that it is the same day; but if he justifie at another day, or at another place, then he must say, that it is the same Trespass, 21 H. 7. f. 39. The same Law is of goods carried out, if the Defendant justifie at the same day and place; and so in trespass of Battery, if the Defendant justifie, for that the same day and place the Plaintiff made assault on him, and the ill which he had, was of his own assault, he need not in these to say, it was the same trespass.

But in Trespass of Goods taken the first year, &c. the Defendant pleads all the Record, and saith, That one J. S. recovered, and that year the ninth, by vertue of a precept to make execution, he took them, which is the same taking upon which the Plaintiff, &c. and this is not good, for it cannot be the same, 12 H. 6. f. 3. by Comesmore.

False imprisonment, the Defendant justifies as Sheriff, That he arrested the Plaintiff by a Capias, and it is good, if he say that is the same trespass; and otherwise, it is not good, 22 Ed. 4. Br. False Imprisonment, 29.

False Imprisonment, the Defendant saith, That he took the Plaintiff from Jack Cade and other Rebels, and delivered him to the Mayor for his safe-guard, which is the same Imprisonment, and that is good, for that was the Imprisonment, but justifiable, 33 H. 6. f. 53.

and

Conspiracy, the Defendant justifies, for that, that he is Steward, and that in a Leet was presented, that the Plaintiff is a Felon, and that he shewed his Rolls to the Justices at the Session, which commanded him to shew that to the Jurors, which inquired for the King, which he did, and saith, that that is the same, for by Englefield, when the Defendant pleads a Conspiracy, which is justifiable, he ought to shew that it is the same Conspiracy, 27 H. 8. f. 2.

Annuity is brought of six and twenty shillings and eight pence, the Defendant saith, That if he held of the Plaintiff by six and twenty and eight pence of Rent, which is the same Rent, and it is not good, for it cannot be the same, 33 H. 4. f. 38.

Debt upon Obligation, the Defendant saith, It was made by threats; the Plaintiff saith, That he let the Land to the Defendant, rendering Rent, and saith, If he would not seal the Obligation to him for the Rent being, he would sue him at the Common Law, which is to the same threatening, and it is no good Plea, for this is lawful, and not a threatening, 16 Ed. 4. f. 7. Britt. Dures 23.

Maintenance, the Defendant saith, That he carried the money of him, which the Plaintiff supposed he maintained, to his Counsel, which is the same maintenance, and this is no Plea, for this is no Maintenance, 34 H. 6. f. 19.

Replication.

Where a faulty Bar is made good by Replication; and where not.

TRESPASS, the Defendant pleads an agreement to pay Money, and to make Windows, and said, That he paid the Moneys, and nothing of the Windows; and the Plaintiff replied and said, No such agreement, and yet the Plaintiff in bar pleaded an agreement, and that not executed, is not made good by the Replication; on; for the barr is not good, to no intent, and the Replication cannot make that good, 6 H.7.f. 10.

But count where a Bar may be made good by a Plea of the other party, where the Count or the Barr is uncertain, as where the Plaintiff counts of an Obligation in Debt, and doth not count where it was made; and the Defendant pleads release, and acknowledges it, and the Conisee where the place should be in, is now oured, and need not to have that; The same Law in Trespass, where a man pleads Arbitrament, and doth not shew the place where the submission was, that is not good: but if the Plaintiff reply, and saith, That he discharged the Arbitrators before the Award, now it is good, for that which was ill, is now confessed, 10. H.7.f. 24. and 20 H.7.f. 12.

By Mussy, If one plead Joynt-Tenancy, day of the Writ purchased, it is not good; for that he might be sole Tenant after; if the Demandant saith, sole Tenant, and doth not demur, it is made good by Replication, 5 H.7.f. 14. The same Law, if in Debt against Executors, they plead nothing in their hands, day of the Writ purchased; and do not say, [nor ever after,] the Plea is not good. But if the Plaintiff reply, and say, that they have Assets, and that is found, he shall have Judgment, 3 H.7.f. 8. accordingly.

False Imprisonment the tenth day of May, the Defendant saith, That the Plaintiff made an assault in the Court before the Steward, and for his disturbance of the Peace in the Court, he was committed to Ward; the Plaintiff saith, of his own Wrong, without such cause; and now though the Defendant hath not shewed what day the Court was, yet by the Replication it is made good, for now the day is not material, 21 H.2.f. 32.

If double plea be pleaded, and the Plaintiff replies, and takes Issue of one matter, and that is found, he cannot after plead in Arrest of Judgment, for by the Replication it is made good, 18 E. 4.f. 17.

Debt upon an Obligation, the Defendant pleads a Defeasance, which is, that if the Defendant deliver to the Plaintiff in London certain Clothes of Kersey of as good Stuff, and of as good making as before these times have been made in the Town of D. in the Coun-of Barby, that then the Obligation should be void, and saith, That he hath delivered to the Plaintiff in London, the Clothes of as good, &c. according to the condition, and this Plea is not good, for that, that it cannot be tried; for those of London cannot try if they were as good, &c. But the Plaintiff replied, and said, That the Defendant did not deliver to us any manner of Cloth in London ready, &c. and now by the Replication it is good, 22. E. 4. fol. 2.

Debt, the Plaintiff counts upon a Lease for Term of years, and doth not shew where it was made, and the Defendant traverses the Lease, and the Plaintiff replies, and joyns issue, and after acknowledges the action, and after pleads, in arrest of Judgment, for that the Plaintiff hath not declared in what place the Lease was made, and yet he had Judgment; for when the Defendant hath in Bargain said the Lease, he hath submitted the Count good. 18 Ed. 4. f. 17. And in Debt, if plead the Release of the Plaintiff, and do not shew where it was made, and the Plaintiff replies and pleads on his Deed, the Plea of the Defendant is made good by his Replication. Br. Title Repleader, 38.

Amuity for Counsel given, and to be given, and Counts, that he hath given to him Counsel, in doing his businesses; and though he do not shew in what businesses, it is good: for if the Defendant saith, That he hath not give to him counsel against the Plaintiff in his Replication, he may shew in what things he gave counsel, and so the Replication hath made all good, and the Count was good generally, 39 H. 6. fol. 33.

By Writ, Replication may make an ill Bar good, and plead in Bar grant of Reversion, and omit attornment; if the Plaintiff reply, and confess and avoid the grant by special matter, then is the Bar good, 11 H. 7. 24.

By Read, in debt against one as Executor, which pleads nothing in their hands day of the Writ purchased, which is no Plea, for that, that he may have Assers afterward. But if the Plaintiff reply, that he hath Assers, and that found by Verdict is good, 6 H. 7. f. 6. The same Law, if the Tenant in Præcipe plead non tenure, day of the Writ, and the Plaintiff replies, that he was Tenant.

And now though by the Statute of 32 H.8. chap. 30. It was enacted, That if any Issue be tryed by the Oath of 12. in any of the Kings Courts of Record, that Judgment shall be given, any mispleading, not having colour in sufficient pleading, or Jeofail, nor warrant of Attorney put in, any miscontinuance, or discontinuance, misjoyning of Issue, or other default, or negligence of parties, their Counsellors or Attorneys, and or made to the contrary notwithstanding; and that the Judgment shall be in force, and shall not be reversed by Writ of Error. And yet at this day one may plead in arrest of a Jury, and say, that you ought not to take this inquest, notwithstanding this Statute.

Conspiracy against two, one in the year 42 E.3. hath pleaded to the Jury, and the other, 43 E.3. pleads in Abatement; and now in 43 E.3. the first takes Assumpsit, and cannot have it before the Court be advised, if the Writ be good; for though that the other hath accepted the Writ good; yet if the Writ doth not lie in the case, the Writ shall abate against one and the other, by 43 E.3. f. 10. The same Law notwithstanding the Statute of 32 H.8. aforesaid.

Debt against two Executors, one comes at the Writ, and pleads Fully administrated; and after, comes the other by Exigent, and pleads to the Writ, that 3 others are Executors, which have administrated, not named. Judgment of the Writ, and for that the Plaintiff hath replied, That the two alone are Executors, the Defendant for that may plead this matter in arrest of taking of the first Inquest upon the first issue; for by the Replication to the second Plea, he hath waived the advantage of the first Plea, where it was sufficient for all. By reason of the Statute, which wills, that he that first shall come by distress, shall answer, 7 H.4. f. 12. Bract, Executor 46. and this is good at this day, notwithstanding the Statute aforesaid of Jeofails.

Quid juris clamant, against three, which plead several Tenancy; and it was said, That it behoveth, that the Plaintiff should maintain his Writ, so he did, 14 Ed. 2. tit. 9.

Mortdancester against three, which say, that they are Tenants in severalty, Judgment of the Writ. And for that, that the Assise found, that one of them was Tenant in Severalty, the Writ abated, 8 E. 2. tit. 2.

In per quæ Servitia, Several Tenancy is no Plea, 31 E. 3. tit. 15. and 32 E. 3. tit. 7.

Seire facias against two, One makes default, and the other pleads several Tenancy in abatement, and cannot, for that Selfin is to be awarded of half, 42 Ed. 3. 8. See 9 Book of Assises the 16.

Præcipe against two, One takes the Tenancy upon him, without that, that the other hath any thing, and the other saith nothing, the Plaintiff need not maintain his Writ, 37 H. 6. fol. 16. and 18.

Entry in the quibus against Two, one pleads several Tenancy, and also over in Barr, and the other pleads in the same manner, and the Plaintiff need not to answer to the Barr, be it good or not; but he ought to maintain his Writ, for one ought not to recover upon an ill Writ, 12 H. 6. fol. 4.

He which pleads several Tenancy, without that, that the other named with him hath any thing, he need not conclude to the Writ, but voucher plead in Barr; and the Demandant shall not answer to the Bar, nor to the Voucher, but ought to maintain his Writ, that they are Tenants, as the Writ supposes, 19 A. 6. fol. 14.

TRAVERSE.

Where he ought not to Traverse, and where he ought; and what thing in the Plea shall be traversed.

BY Hussy, in Præcipe, if the Tenant plead, That the Land is ancient Demesne, and pleadable by a fine, Writ of Right close; and he need not take Traverse, for that it is not Frank Fee, for that, that the Writ is but a Suppfall, 5 H. 7. fol. 13. And in Mortdancester, Tenant pleads Joynt-tenancy with the Father of the Demandant.

Defendant; and it is good with Traverse, that he is Tenant, for that, that this is but a supposall; and in Traverse, fol. 14. Of his Horse taken, the Defendant saith, That J. S. sold the Horse to him in an open Market; or that the Horse was waived, or Wreck, or such like; there he need not Traverse, for that, that this is matter in Law; and if he takes Traverse, he waives the matter in Law. 5 H. 7. f. 6. accordingly, 2 Ed. 4. f. and Flowd. 23. A By Huffey and Fairfax, where a matter in Deed is alledged, by way of Bar, or in Covenant; then this ought to be traversed in every case, unless it be for the mischief of Tryal, as speciall Bastardy is alleged without Traverse, it is good for mischief of Tryal, 6 H. 7. f. 5. otherwise it is of matter of supposall; and in Assise, the Tenant pleads a Feoffment of J. S; the Plaintiff saith, That this was upon Condition, and that he was entered for the Condition broken, & enfeoffed him, so he confesses & avoids, and for that he ought not to traverse; and in Præcipe quod reddat against J. S, he saith, That he held joyntly with J. D. not named in the Writ, and take no Traverse, for that, that it is but a supposall; and in Trespas of Goods taken, the Defendant saith, They were the Goods of J. S, which made the Plaintiff his Executors; the Plaintiff saith, That the Testator devised, that after his Debts and Legacies paid, that he should have all the Remainder, and saith, That such and such are paid, which are all;
 the Defendant saith, That such a Legacy was not paid, without that, that the Plaintiff alledgeth were all, and ought to traverse, for that, that is a matter in deed, Trespas of Trees cut, the Defendant pleads, That J. S. was seised of an Acre, whereof the Trespas is parcel in Fee, and lett to him at Will, and that he by commandment cut the said Trees, and demands judgment if Action; and this is no Plea without Traverse, that is, without that, that it is the Soil of the Plaintiff, 5 H. 5. fol. 8.
 Trespas, the Defendant conveys, that his Father was seised in Fee, and that descended to him; the Plaintiff pleads, That J. D. infeoffed him, and ought to traverse, without that, that the Father of the Defendant was seised in Fee, 27 H. 8. fol. 9.

Trespas, the Defendant pleads, That the place where, &c. was his Free-hold; the Plaintiff saith, That J.S. was seised in Fee, and lett to him at Will, and that the Defendant oured him, and disseised J.S.; and that the Plaintiff at the command of J.S. re-entred, and the Trespas mean between the re-entry and the disseisin; and the Defendant maintains his Bar, and he ought to traverse the Lease, for that is most material, 11 Z. 4. f. 3.

Trespas, the most material matter shall be traversed; and for that, if a gift in Tail, and dying seised, be pleaded in Bar in Trespas, the Gift is traversable, and not the dying seised; so in Trespas, if the Defendant saith, That a stranger was seised, and infeoffed the Father of the Defendant, and that his Father dyed seised, and that the Defendant entred as Son and Heir, nothing is traversable; but the last dying seised, for that is the effect of his Bar, by Neale, 15 Ed. 4. f. 2.

Trespas, the Defendant saith, That I. was seised, and professing dyed seised, and conveyed the descent to the Defendant; the Plaintiff saith, That M. infeoffed him, by force of which he was seised, till the Defendant made a Trespas; and the Defendant saith, as above, without that, that the Plaintiff was seised at the time of the Trespas, but it is not good; for he ought to traverse, and to say, Without that, that M. infeoffed him; for that is the effect of the replication, 19 J. 8. f. 7.

Trespas, the Defendant pleads his Free-hold; the Plaintiff saith, That the Defendant let to A. for years, which granted his Estate to B, which granted to him; the Defendant maintained his Bar, without that, that he granted to the Plaintiff, and is not good; for he conveys from the Defendant himself, and that is traversable, and saith, without that, that the Defendant let to A. But where an Estate is conveyed all by strangers, he may traverse one conveyance or other, 10 H. 7. f. 2.

Assise, the Defendant pleads Bar, and the Plaintiff makes title by a gift in Tail to his Father, and dying seised of his Father, the gift is traversable; but if it be by Feoffment of J.S. to his Father, and dying seised of his Father, the dying seised is traversable, 9 H. 6. m. 8. & 10 H. 4. 1. accordingly.

Mesne.

Mesne, and counts, that he held a hundred Acres by Fealty of the Defendant, and he over, &c. The Defendant saith, That the Plaintiff held of him by Homage and Fealty, and ought to traverse the acquittal, and not the tenure, 2 H. 5. f. 2.

Trespass of Close broken, the Defendant saith, That J. S. and J. D. were seised in Fee, that J. S. enfeoffed the ancestor of the Plaintiff, and J. D. enfeoffed the Defendant, and so they hold as undivided; and the Plaintiff saith, That his Ancestor died sole seised of all, and thus descended to him, without that he held as undivided, and it is no Plea, but he ought to traverse the Feoffment made by J. D. to the Defendant; for the Plea is good without [So] and for that in this case, that which comes after the [So] is not material; but where it is material, it is traversible: and for that by Choke, Debt upon an Obligation, the Defendant saith, That he was a Lay-man, and not learned, and this writing was read to him in place of an Acquittance, and so this Obligation is not his Deed; now this which cometh after the [So] is material, 32 H. 6. f. 16. iii. Issue. 91.

Debt upon a Lease of four Acres, for four pounds of Rent, the Defendant demands Judgment of the Court, for that, that the Plaintiff let the four Acres, and a Rectory for the four pounds, and ought to traverse without that, that he let the four Acres only, &c. 55 H. 6. f. 38. and 18 Ed. 4. f. 17.

One avows for that, that the Plaintiff held an Acre of him by twelve pence; the Plaintiff saith, That he held the same Acre, and another by six pence, without that, that he held of him by the same Services only; and it is not good, but he shall say, Without that, that he held the said Acres in Manner and Form, 13 H. 7. 25.

One avows, for that, that he held two Acres by twenty shillings of them; the Plaintiff saith, That he held two Acres, and two others in the same Town, by the Services of twelve shillings, without that, that he held the two Acres only by the Services of twenty shillings in Manner and Form, &c. this seems good, 8 H. 7. f. 5.

Where one justifies at another day, than the Plaintiff alledges, and ought to traverse only, before the day of his justification; and where, before and after; where only after.

Trespas against the Sheriff, of a Cow taken, the Defendant justifies, at the day after by a Precept he attached the Cow, and took her with him, without that that he is guilty, before that Precept to him directed, and this seems good, 9 H 7. fol. 6.

Trespas of Imprisonment the second day of May, the fourth year; the Defendant justifies the fourth day of August, Anno fourth, aforesaid. by force of a Warrant of the Peace, &c. which is the same Imprisonment, without that, that he is guilty before that day; and it is doubted if he ought to traverse before and after, and there it seems if one plead his Freehold such a day after, without that, that he was guilty before, it seems good, 5. E. 4. fol. 12.

justifies by Prescription to have yearly twenty Cartload there betwixt Michaelmas and Christmas, and that such a day in November he took them, without that, that he is guilty before Michaelmas, and after Christmas, and good; and the Plaintiff saith, That he acknowledgeth the day that he counted, and traverseth the Prescription, and good, notwithstanding he doth not maintain the day that he traverseth; for it is in the Election of the Plaintiff to maintain the traverse of the time, or to traverse the special matter, as in Trespas Anno 7. the Defendant pleads Release, Anno 6. without that he was guilty after the Release; the Plaintiff may say, It is not his Deed, without maintaining the day, to Ed. 4. fol. 2. and 22 Ed. 4. fol. 79. the same of Release pleaded, without that he was guilty afterwards.

Trespas, where one pleads a Release or Arbitrement at another day, he ought to traverse all the time after the Release, or after the Arbitrement; for all time before is ex. ind. But if he plead such a day, It is Freehold, there he ought to traverse all time before; and in Trespas of Corn taken the 6th of July, the Defendant justifies as Park in the 10th of August, for that they were severed

severed from the 9th, without that, that he is guilty at another time; but after the Tythes severed, and till they were dry, and it is good without traversing before and after; for it is yearly, and not certain what day of the year. The same Law, where one justifies for Common after Corn sowed, till cut; but otherwise it is, for having Common from Lammas till Candlemas, there he ought to traverse all the time before Lammas and after Candlemas, 12 E. 4. fol. 6.

Trespass of a Close broken first day of May Anno 8. the Defendant pleads, That the Plaintiff infeofed him the 4th of May, the year aforesaid, without that, that he was guilty before the said 4th day; and the Plaintiff saith, That he did not infeof him, and it is good, without maintaining the day which was traversed before, 15 E. 4. fol. 23.

Where one shal' traverse the Town, and where the County; and where not.

TRespass, why he broke his Close. and took his Reeds in But is no Plea that the place is in D, in the same County, and not in B; but he ought to justifie in D: the taking, as by Prescription for repairing his House, or any matter of justification, without that, that he took in B. 9 H. 5. f. 9. and 4 H. 7. f. 5. by Hussy.

Trespass upon the Statute of Ricb. the fifth year, for entering in 20 Acres of Land in D, the Defendant saith, That J. S. was seised of 20 Acres of S. in the same County, and of them enfeoffed him, and justifies, without that, that he entered into the Lands in D, and it is good. If he give colour in S. to have the Town parcel of the Issue, for inveigling the Jury, 11 Ed. 4. 9.

But if that Condition were made in another County, there he ought to traverse that it was made simply where the Plaintiff counted, 34 H. 6. f. 32. And the same Law in Detinue of Chattels, and see a bargain traversable, which is in effect the same conveyance, Where he might have waged his Law, 33 H. 6. fol. 35.

Account of Receipt in London, by the hands of R, the Defendant saith, That he received them by the hands of R. in C, to deliver to the Plaintiff himself, which he hath done without that, that he ever received them in London, and good, 9 Ed. 4. 48. and 22 H. 6. 55.

Trespas of beating at D. in the County of D, if the Defendant justifies at S, in the County of N, he ought to traverse the County: 9 H. 6. 62. and 11 H. 6. 20. the same.

Trespas of Goods taken at E, the Defendant pleads, that they were delivered to him at S, in the County of M, to deliver to the Plaintiff, which he did, without that, that he was Guilty at E: 19 H. 6. 48.

In Trespas transitory, where the Defendant justifies in another Country, he ought to take traverse: 29 H. 6. 72. and 4 H. 5. fol. 3. the same, 22 Ed. 4. fol. 38. 7 H. 6. fol. 37. 10 H. 7. fol. 27.

Yet Ready.

Where he shall say, Yet Ready; and where not.

Detinue of a Chest with Writings against Executors: It is no plea for them to say, That the Writings came to them sealed, and that they were ready to deliver them, and yet are ready, unless that they offer them to the Court, or to say, that the thing is of so great weight, that they cannot bring them hither; 9 H. 6. 65. and 22 Ed. 3. Brook, Always ready, 6 Ed. 4. f. 11, 44 Ed. 3. 40. Dower, the Tenant saith, That he hath been alwayes ready to render Dower, and yet is: the Demandant avers the contrary; upon which the Demandant mandant shall recover her Dower. But she shall not have a Writ to inquire of her Damages now, for that is the Issue, which shall be tried.

14 H. 8. fol. 28. Dower, If the Tenant come in at the first day, and will averr, That he was always ready and yet issif the Demandant will not averr the contrary, that the Demandant shall not recover damages: 5 Ed. 4. Dower 2. Where the Tenant imparles to another Term; he shall not say, Yet ready to render Dower.

21 Ed. 3. 211. 24. Dower, the Tenant alledges, that the Demandant detains a Hamper of Evidences of that Land, and, &c. the Demandant saith, that she is, and alwayes hath been ready to deliver the Hamper, &c. and for that she shall have Judgment forthwith.

22 H. 6. fol. 15. Trespass, the Defendant pleads an Arbitrement which was to pay 10 l. if the day be past, he shall say, that he hath been alwayes ready, and yet is, and bring the money into the Court.

22 H. 6. f. 45. Debt upon an Obligation, endorsed upon condition, to perform an Award to pay 20 s. before Christmas last past, if he tender before the day, and the other refused, he shall not say, Yet ready, afterwards: Inquire.

Dower, where the Tenant casts an Effoyn, he is not estopped to say, Yet ready to render Dower, 14 H. 6. 4. See in Debt by Hawk, 11 H. 4. 60. and 7 H. 4.

Debt, where the Defendant comes upon the Distress, he may say, Yet ready, 7 H. 4. 11. and 8 Ed. 4. fol. 11. the same.

Debt after imparlance, the Defendant cannot plead, Yet ready, 36 H. 6. 14.

Annuity, where the Defendant comes in at the Distress, he cannot say, Yet ready, 2 H. 5. fol. 44.

Debt, proccass continued till the distress, return Nihil, and proceeds to the Capias pluries; and the Defendant cometh in, and saith, That he was alwayes ready, and yet is, 11 H. 4. f. 6.

Debt upon an Obligation, to stand to the award, the sward was to pay at such a place; the Defendant may say, that he was alwayes ready at the place, without saying, Yet ready, and without tendring the money in Court, 11 H. 6. 27. See 22 H. 6. fol. 39. the reason in this case,
Debt

Debt upon an Obligation, to pay a lesser sum at such a day; for the Defendant to say, That he was ready at the place, and offered, and the Plaintiff refused, it is no plea; but shall say, That he hath been alwayes ready, and yet is, and tender the money in Court; for otherwise the Plaintiff shall not have remedy, 7 E. 4. 3. But see 7 H. 4. 19. and 2 E. 4. 3. by Choke.

Detinue of deeds against Executors, they ought to say, That they were ready, and yet are, for otherwise they shall pay Damages 22 E. 3. 11037. Alwayes ready.

Debt upon an Obligation, condition to pay 10 l. such a day & place; and the Defendant tenders that at the day and place, and the Plaintiff receives their part, and resists the rest untill an agreement be made between them, and after the Plaintiff requires it; and the Defendant refuseth to pay it; yet he shall not forfeit the penalty, for this is saved by the first tender. But now by the Court he ought to tender it in Court.

And where one is bound in 10 l. upon condition to pay five pound at such a day and place; and though that he were ready at the day and place, and none comes to receive it; yet by the Court, he shall have the money in Court ready, 7 E. 4. f. 3. See 5 H. 4.

Debt upon an Obligation, the condition to pay so much money as B. shall appoint, for the taking of the Beasts of the Plaintiff; and the Defendant saith, That B. appointed 10 l. which he tendered, and the Plaintiff refused it, Judgment if Action; and it is a good Plea, without saying, Yet Ready: for the condition is to do a Collateral act, and this 10 l. is Collateral, and for that he shall not say, Yet ready. But if one be bound in 20 l. and the condition to pay 10 l. there if he say, That he offered the 10 l. at the day, and the Plaintiff refused it; yet he shall say, Yet ready: for the 10 l. are Parcel of 20 l. and for the 10 l. he cannot have action, 19 H. 3. f. 12. and 22 H. 6. f. 45.

Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition, That J. S. should perform the Covenants of an Indenture; the Defendant alleges them performed specially; and one Covenant was, That J. S. should pay to the Plaintiff 10 l.; and he said, That he offered it to him, and the Plaintiff refused; by Fit. & Choke, He need not say, Yet ready, 27 H. 8. f. 1.

Debt

Debt upon an Obligation, the Defendant saith, That he is indorsed upon Condition, that if the Prior of W. made an Obligation to the Plaintiff before such a day, that then, &c. and saith, That the Prior tendred that to the Plaintiff, and he refused it, and shall not say, Yet ready; for it is a thing out of his power, and to be made by a stranger, 10 H.6. f.17.

If a man be bound in 20 l. and the condition is to pay 10 l. if the Defendant plead in debt upon the Obligation that he tendred the 10 l. at the day, and the Plaintiff refused it, yet he shall say, Yet ready; but if the condition were, that J.S. should pay at the day to the Plaintiff, and the Plaintiff refused, he shall not say, Yet ready, 14 H.6. f.24.

Debt upon an Obligation of 10 l. the Defendant pleads, that after by indenture of defeasance, the Plaintiff granted, that if the Defendant payed unto him 20 s. such a day, that then the Obligation should be void; and saith, that he tendred so him the 20 s. at the day, and he refused it; and by Process, he shall not say, Yet ready, 33 H.6. f.2.

Debt upon an Obligation, the condition to pay a less sum; this less sum is parcel of the sum in the Obligation, and for that the Defendant shall say, Yet ready; but otherwise it is, where the condition is to stand to the Award or other Collateral matter, there the Defendant shall not say, Yet ready, 20 Ed.4. f.2.

The first President is the ancient Process to all Suits be- Nova, gun in his Majesties Court of Kings Bench, and the ground of the Latitat, and rected therein, and was always of a Plea of Trespas, by which the parties Arrested were alwayes compelled by the course of that Court to remain in Custod' Marrischalli, or find Bail to answer any personal Action of what nature soever; but by means of the late Statute made to prevent vexatious Arrests, the ancient course of that Court is altered; and if the Plaintiff will require special Bail, he must add an Ac etiam, and insert therein his particular cause of Action according to the forms above.

The like Ac etiam is to be added to all these, if the Plaintiff require special Bail to his Action, but except touching Bail, the ancient course is not altered: And to all other purposes, the Writ of Trespass only is sufficient.

Certain

Certain Suits are brought into the said Court of Kings Nova.

Bench by other waies, as by Certiorari, and by Habeas Corpus from inferiour Courts, by all which Writs of Bill of Midd Latitat, Certiorari, and Habeas Corpus the parties are brought in Court liable to Suits. nay in case of the Statute of Limitation, the said Writs are allowed to be the Commencement of the Suit; yet nevertheless, as to other purposes in Judgement of Law, the Suit in that Court is not said to commence before the Declaration or Bill, unless it commence by Writ out of Chancery, whereof more hereafter.

Nota.

These Writs are Returnable in Court, or before a Judge of the same Court at his Chamber, and at a day certain, or immediate, according to certain Rules made in that Court for that purpose, thereby preventing delays which otherwise would arise by reason of such Writs.

The

The Reader must know, that besides the before-mentioned process which do proceed the Action, rather than are grounded upon any complaint of the Plaintiff, who is nowhere recorded to be in Court before the Declaration or Bill (as is said) there are also all manner of other personal Actions sent into the said Court of Kings Bench, either by Original in Trespass, or the like, or Recordare pone Accedas ad Curiam, or Mittimus, and are afterwards proceeded in, and determined in the said Court, which Writs are out of his Majesties High Court of Chancery, which our Lawyers properly term Officina Iusticiz: Their natures, and how they fit each Chymist particular Case, may be partly apprehended by the Register of Writ, both the Natura Brevium's, and the book of Digests of Writs, and belongeth to the Learned in the Laws to direct, whose advice at the Commencement of a Suit is most necessary, for an Error at first proves very fatal, being seldom (if ever) espied, till it be too late.

After the Suits thus Commenced, many are the forms of Writ incident thereunto, and to the distributing of Justice in that High Court, which (whatever hath been conceived to the contrary) was the ancient Court of the King, of Law within this Realm, wherein himself originally did Justice to his Subjects, who being the fountain of Justice, hath in process of time imparted thereof to other Courts; pecuniary and inferior Jurisdictions as Streams from that fountain, yet so as in all Cases to reserve unto his Subjects an Appeal from them unto their Original by Writs of Error, thereby commanding a strict account of their whole proceedings, and that not before any Delegate Justice, but before the Fountain of Justice it self in these essential words, Coram nobis ubicunque tunc fuerimus in Anglia, the consideration of which may sufficiently manifest the Antiquity of that Court.

The forms of Writs, and the occasion of them being like the actions of men, so infinite and various, that it would require an age of experience, if not of time to collect and methodize them, conform to all Cases that may happen: therefore only some few of most use are here inserted, and those for the most part relating to Writs of Error, which most properly belong to that Court.
